

LIBERTY CLUB PROJECTS CALL EVERY STUDENT

Liberty—The Liberty school under the direction of A. V. Myers, principal, and with the cooperation of the Liberty Woman's club has gone in for 4-H club work 100 per cent. That is every pupil in the school who is eligible for club work is taking it. The first meeting of the year was held Wednesday afternoon, officers were elected and plans made.

PRESIDENT SAYS TVA POWER IDEA WILL SPREAD

In what was considered a significant extemporaneous speech at Tupelo, Miss., President Roosevelt declared that the experiment for cheap power and human rehabilitation in the Tennessee valley "is going to be copied in every state in the union before we get through." The chief executive is shown as he spoke in Tupelo, the first community to buy power from the TVA. At left is an excellent closeup study of the President in gay mood for his Thanksgiving holiday. CHURCH OFFERS ANNUAL SERMON AT HOMECOMING

Silverton—Rev. W. O. Livingstone, local pastor, substituted for Rev. Allyn Esson in delivering the formal address of the Sunday forenoon worship hour in the annual home coming event for present and former members of the First Christian church. Rev. Esson was ill at his home in Albany. Rev. Esson's pastorate stands out vividly in the progress of the work of the church, in that he and Mrs. Esson ministered here during the building of the present church and have been closely connected with the ministry throughout a score and more years. This is the first annual gathering of the group Rev. Esson has been unable to attend. Mrs. J. W. Jordan directed the chorus choir in a special anthem, "Sing Along," with Miss Ella Rahn at the piano. Dinner was served at 12:30 o'clock in the church social rooms with Mrs. Will Egan as kitchen chairman.

FORTUNE SOUGHT FOR BABIES

The long court battle over division of the $25,000,000 estate of the late Sith Reynolds, young tobacco heir, took a new turn when a plea was filed in Winston-Salem, N. C., on behalf of Reynolds' posthumous son, Christopher, asking that the child be made sole heir. The baby is shown with his mother, Libby Holman Reynolds. The first wife of young Reynolds, Anne Cannon Reynolds (inset), has filed a plea asking that a settlement of $1,000,000 on her daughter be set aside and the her baby be included in a division of the Reynolds fortune. HOUSING PLAN EXPLAINED TO SILVERTON MEN

Silverton—An interested group attended the housing meeting at the Eugene Field auditorium Friday evening and listened in on the detailed explanation of the move as a federal and local undertaking, with Shannan Hogue of Salem the featured speaker. L. C. Eastman, head of the campaign in the Silverton district, was chairman and introduced the program speakers. Glen L. Bridwell, president of the Coolidge and McClintock bank, is local chairman. An informal exchange of speakers with Hogue regarding the move to the armory and Dr. Louis Patmont coming from his armory audience to the auditorium. Hogue talked of the modernization plan to Patmont's audience, and Patmont told of Russian conditions as an aftermath, to the Eugene Field group. Jack Hyatt in a series of comedy take-offs on the populace of Silverton brought many laughs from his hearers. Hyatt's readings are always a source of pleasure to Silverton audiences. Eastman's talk included many educational phases of the work in modernization. Buddy Sewell gave a number of dances with Ed Lais at the piano. Cal Storey directed the girls' glee chorus of the local schools in vocal numbers with Lowell Gatenet at the piano. A saxophone quartet, composed of Cal Storey, Don Anderson, George Irish and Charlie Hoagland, was well received in a group of selections. Eastman suggested that the psychological effect in the news of repairing homes had urged many to modernize and clean up their places without applying for the federal aid.

Benefit Dinner Offered by Aid—Woodburn—The Ladies Aid of the Church of Christ gave a benefit dinner in the church basement Friday evening. A large number of people were in attendance, about 55 being served. After dinner a fine program was given. The program opened with a hymn followed by a reading, "The Belle of Carrot Corners" by Ethel Tresider. Mrs. Jake Wagaman and Mrs. Heflin rendered a duet, accompanied by Mildred Howe at the organ; a number of young people gave a very amusing skit, those taking part including Alfred Jave, Ethel Tresider, Adrian Jacobs, Helen Hill and Ethel Sines. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peterson and young son Robert Jr. gave a play entitled "When Pa Has A Fit." A whistling solo was given by Bobby Heflin; "De Cuhville Ho," a reading, by Martina Wilken; Lillian Heflin sang "A Sunbeam." Conley D. Sibley sang an amusing piece, "The One Hoss Shay," followed by a duet by Mrs. Heflin and Georgia Coffe. The concluding number was a solo by Bobby Heflin, Lillian Heflin accompanying. After the program pop corn and candy were sold by the young people. There was also a fancy work booth sponsored by the women of the church which netted a good sum.

Officers Retained For Second Term—Monmouth—The Home Economics club of the grange met Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Riddell south of town. About 39 women and half as many men were present. An entertainment stunt, those in attendance were asked to wear old time clothing. Frank Loughery had preserved his wedding suit, including a derby hat, and he also wore a vest which his father wore as a groom back in 1856. Mrs. T. J. Edwards wore a dress that was all the go in 1903. Mrs. and Mrs. T. J. Primus appeared in their wedding garments of 21 years ago. At the business meeting after dinner the election of officers was held and the old officers were re-elected for the coming year. Plans for the regular Christmas party, which will be held on the evening of the next regular meeting day, December 21, were discussed and committees appointed. It was decided to have a chicken pie supper and the regular Christmas tree. Mrs. J.
