HURLING GAME

ing. The trouble in Sligo began when the local "world series" was won by the Curry club. Somebody threw out a hint that the play of the Curry women was a little too Amazonian to be true—in fact, it was alleged that one of the Curry women players really was a man masquerading in women's clothes, Tempers got so ruffled that the County Sligo board of the Irish Women's Hurling league has had to in-stitute an inquiry. The bother in County Mayo can all be traced down to an argument about the right ength for a woman hurler's skirts. Ballintubber Women's Hurling sinb administered a sound tousing to Aughagower club, Aughagower im mediately lodged a protest that Bal-lintubber's skirts were longer than the regulation one inch below the knee. As a result, Ballintubber was deprived of their win and the match was awarded to Aughagower All Ireland is now waiting for HELP NEEDY FAMILIES Aumsville—A large group of wo-ten met at the school hours Tues-ay and made quilts for some needy served at noon and the jadies and the pleasure of Mrs. Mary L. Pul-kerson, who was a school visitor.

Scio -The Plainview union high thool district, composed of three stricts south of Scio, is to vote on anolution December 20, F. A. Galight his first term in Linn county
