AUXILIARY UNIT NOW FORMED BY MT. ANGEL POST

Mt. Angel—An auxiliary branch of American Legion Post 89 here was organized Tuesday evening in was organized Tuesday evening in the city hall by a group of enter-prising and public-spirited women of the community. Officers elected for the coming Officers elected for the coming year included; Mrs. Rose Butsch, president; Mrs. Mary Proxer, vice president; Mrs. Mary Proxer, vice president; Mrs. Magdalene Miller, secretary-treasurer; Miss. Georgia Webb, historian; Mrs. Josephine Oswald, chaplain; Mrs. Ottilla Walker, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Mary Mickel, Mrs. Hazel Sims and Mrs. Emma Griesenauer, executive officers.

Mrs. Emma Griecessauer, of officers, Presiding at the installation of Officers was Mrs. Cecella Gunn of Hood River, department president of Oregon; Mrs. Lloyd Jones of Sherwood, district president, gave a short talk encouraging the neophytes, Mrs. J. W. McInturif of Marshield, department secretary, also spoke a few words of encouragement to the new Auxillary unit.

few words of encouragement to the new Auxiliary unit. New members are expected to en-ter the auxiliary in great numbers. Eligible are mothers, wives, sisters and daughters of ex-soldiers. Also present at the meeting were

Also present at the meeting were Miss Mary Scollard, president of the Woodburn unit, and Mrs. Charles Johnson of Silverton, past president of the Silverton unit, Re-freshments were served at a joint meeting with the Legion Post 80.

LEGION COMMITTEE

Silverton—An audience of around 200 attended the first in the series of educational meetings along the lines of Americanization Tuesday evening at the Eugene Field auditorium, that are being aponsored by the Americanization committee of the American Legion and by the public school officials.

Walter B. O'Dale of the Portland police service and formerly with the U. S. sercet service system, talked on the effects of communism in the Pacific northwest.

Has Many Classes Woodburn—At the Church of Christ Sunday morning Sunday school will be held at 10 o'clock with Vearl Kliewer as superintendent. There is a Bible class for every member of the family. The Lord's Supper will be observed at the 11 o'clock service followed by a sermon by the pastor, "What the Surrendered Life Has Meant to Thuse Who Have Tried It." Adult prayer meeting, funior and senior Christian Ening, junior and senior Christian Endeavor at 7 o'clock. Evangeliatic services at 8, sermon topic: "Give Me Back My God." Choir practice is held at 8 o'clock Saturday evening.

Surprise Meskinsons

West Stayton—As a surprise, a group of friends and neighbors spent the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Messwimons Wednesday, Meskimons has been ill for several weeks. He is able to attend to his secreterial work of the Co-op, but does not feel like going out evenings. Mrs. Bert Parrin has been assistant secretary for the past month. Singing of old time fav-orite songs and several guitar numbers by Mr. Sprinkle were enloyed Lunch brought by the visitors served at about 10 o'clock.

Whitman Is Chief

Woodburn— Clyde Writinan was elected fire chief by the Woodburn fire department at the annual elec-tion held Monday night, Other of-ficers elected were: Glenn Blair, aa-aistant chief; Joe Sowa and Edwin Becker, captains; Floyd Shanbeck, secretary-treasurer.

Initiation Held

Silverton—Members of Romona chapter No. 58, O.E.S., coniterred initiatory degrees of the order on Mrs. R. A. Pish at a special meet-ing Wednesday evening. A social hour preceded the supper. Serving on the refreshment committee were Mrs. Roy Skatife, Mrs. F. E. Sylves-ter, Mrs. W. P. Scarth and Mrs. william Searth.

RETURN TO ALBANY

turned to Albany recently after a residence of a few weeks in Seio Timber work contemplated when he came here has not developed, hence the more back to Albany where he was reared and where he expects to have employment most of the time. The family lived in the E. C. Shelton cottage at the rear of the Tribune office while in Scio.

Monmouth-Mrs. Palmer of Na ches, Wash, has arrived for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Phebs Wil-llam and sisters, Mrs. Charles Bracken and Mrs. Dora Tittle.

Caroling Scheduled For Church Sunday

Delias — "The Word became Flesh" will be the sermon topic of Rev. A. M. Williams at the First Presbyterian church at the morning service Sunday. Musical features will include a vocal solo by Bruce MacIntosh and a number by a male mustat.

uartet. The sermon topic at the evening service will be Van Dyke's story of "The Other Wise Man." This is a continuation of a previous sermon. Sunday is music Sunday in the Sunday is music Sunday in the Bunday school and Christmas cartols will be sung under the leadership of Miss Genevieve Coad.

CLASS ORGANIZED

AS SERA PROJECT

West Salem—A home economics class, an SERA project, was organized Tuesday at the Fred Cibson home on Kingwood avenue, Eleven women assembled for the first meeting and lesson. A number of others who had planned to attend were unavoidably absent because of illness. Tiey expect to be present at the next session December 11 at the W. L. LaDue home on Edgewater street.

The class will start at 1 o'clock

Mill Dornello In the Instance at the head of the Instance and Amax Gentlers.

A convention is called to meet Multimomah hotel, Portland, with delegates to be present 17, beginning at 12:45 o'clock in the Multimomah hotel, Portland, with delegates to be present from all Lutheran pastors, and a number of law delegates from each Lutheran organization in the state.

A convention is called to meet Multimomah hotel, Portland, with delegates to be present from all Lutheran pastors, and a number of law delegates to be present are Rt. Rev. In Multionah hotel, Portland, with delegates to be present at the Fred Cibson home on Kingwood avenue, Eleven women assembled for the first meeting and lesson. A number of others who had planned to attend were unavoidably absent because of ill-ness. Tiev expect to be present at the next session December 11 at a delegates to be present in the following at 12:45 o'clock in the Multimomah hotel, Portland, with delegates to be present from all Lutheran pastors, and a number of organization in the state.

A convention is called to meet A conve

The class will start at 1 o'clock and last three hours. Mrs. Ethel Mc-Dowell Voth will be the instructor. The work will include first of all the making of note books, then sew ng, dressmaking, cooking and later interior decorating.

tarles Johnson of Silverton, past esident of the Silverton unit. Resident of the Silverton unit. Resembents were served at a joint eeting with the Legion Post 89.

EGION COMMITTEE

SPONSORS MEETING

SPONSORS MEETING

Silverton—An audience of around a large interested class is hoped for. In attendance at the first meeting were Mrs. Lester Brannan, Mrs. W. L. Labue, Mrs. R. A. Harris, Mrs. Guy Newgent, Mrs. Charles Unruh, Mrs. L. D. Gibson, Mrs. T. J. Ship-ler, Mrs. K. K. Clark, Mrs. Fred Kuhn, Miss Lotta W. McAdams, Mrs. Fred Gibson and Mrs. Voth.

POLK MINISTERIAL GROUP CONVENES

the Americanization committee of the American Legion and by the public school officials.

Waiter B. O'Dale of the Portland police service and formerly with the U. S. secret service system, talked on the effects of communism in the Pacific northwest.

Musical numbers were furnished by Cal Storey's orchestra and choral groups of the school musical department. J. J. Lewis is chairman of the Americanization committee of the Legion and Roy Davenport is the commander.

Church of Christ

Has Many Classes
Woodburn—At the Church of Christ Sunday morning Sunday school space on how to of the Legion and Roy Davenport is the commander.

Church of Christ

Has Many Classes
Woodburn—At the Church of Christ Sunday morning Sunday school will be held at 10 oclock with Vearl Kliewer as superintendent. There is a Bible class for every member of the family. The Lord's Supper will be observed at the 11 oclock service followed by a sermon by the pastor, "What the Surrendered Life Has Meant to Thuse Windows and the control of the control of the control of the control of programments of the control of programments of the control of the control of the country. A discussion led by Rev. W. Bruce, pastor of the M. E. church, took place on how to obtain the discussion.

The following committee will make the necessary arrangements for the January convention; Rev. H. H. Hanson of Independence, the Rev. W. A. Elkins of Monmouth. S. E. Whittworth of D allas, Herbert J. Elliott of Portdale and Miss Edith D. The association will meet January 7.

ERECT LARGE BARN Gates—C. D. Johnson is doing the emitruction work of a large barn in the Robert Bowes farm on Robert Bowes farm on airie. The building has a King's Prairie. nodern dairy compartment and large shelter shed for sheep and other farm stock. Bowes and his

are assisting in the

RESUME ACTION

re-assemblage at the call of the president.

Among the accomplishments of the state brotherhood are the Sun-set home at Eugene and the estab-lishing of student advisorship at the state colleges for Lutheran young people.

AUMSVILLE CAST WORKING ON PLAY

Aumsville—The cest in the senior play "Mrs. Briggs of the Poultry Yard" are industriously working so they can present it. December 14 in the high school auditorium.

The cast includes Mrs. Briggs. woman of business, Dorothy Wil-kerson; Raiph, a son, Jim Starrett, Alvina, her daughter, Madge Cupp. Jimmy, her son, Sam Bradley Johnny, her son, Orville Snyder Johnny, her son, Orville Snyder; Silos Green, a near elation, Raymond Morgan; Mr. Lee, a wealthy neighbor, Carl Ramsey; Virginia Lee, his daughter, Vivian Browning; Dalsy Thorton, her friend, Thelma McDonald; Mrs. O'Contor, a neighbor, Hazel Comstock; Mandy Bates, whose tongue will atumble, Hazel Shellemberger, Gladys Mack Hunt is directing the play.

Highway Progress Hindered By Rain

Gates — The unusual amount of rainfall of the past month has hin-dered the completion of the main highway between Mill City and Gates. Many wash-outs and sildes have filled ditches and culverts, making the labor of keeping the highway at normal a big task. Sam Donnell has received the appointment of highway maintenance mas-ter for this section of the highway.

Officers Elected

Scio-Officers recently elected for he Scio Odd Fellows lodge include the Selo Out Prinows long influed Arch Ray, noble grand; Riley Mont-gomery, vice grand; P. G. Cary, re-cording secretary; J. F. Puppr, fi-nancial secretary; N. I. Morrison, treasurer. W. H. Young is retiring presiding officer.

CAGNEY'S BEST!

TODAY and Saturday

Comedy — News Snapshots — Cartoon

TWO BIG FEATURES

More real heart-appeal than "Lady For A Day

CAROLE LOMBARD

WALTER CONNOLLY

AND SECOND PEATURE

BOB STEELE in "NEAR RAINBOW'S END"

AY ROBSON ROGER PRYOR

BY CHO

1

TODAY

SAT.

Silverton — Mrs. Charles Dahler was elected president of the Ladler Aid society of the Trinity Lutherar Silverton—Of vital interest to all Lutherans of Oregon is the an-nouncement of re-organization by the president of the Lutheran Bro-herhood, Alf. O. Nelson, local at-

Trinity Lutheran

Tables of contrac and auction bridge were in play, with prizes for contract going to Miss Elsie Crail, first; Miss Marie Hildeman, second; Mrs. C. T. Haseman, third; and Mrs. T. W. Allen, consolation, Prizes for auction were won by Mrs. R. L. Fanst, first; Mrs. Harry Mason, second; and Miss Daisy Hendricson, consolation, Mrs. R. E. Silvis assisted the hostesses in serving refreahments at the close of the evening.

Present were: Mrs. Alvin L.

SunSunTerfeahments at the close of the evening.

The Present were: Mrs. Alvin L.

Raines, Mrs. R. L. Faust, Mrs. Viv.

Braines, Mrs. W. W. Mason, Mrs. Herbert Schroeder, Mrs. Robert Schroeder, Mrs. T. W. Allen, Mrs. C. T. Haseman, Mrs. H. M.

Ladd, Miss Marie Hildeman, Mrs. A. D. Scott, Mrs. Haries, Mrs. LeRoy E. Dike and Mrs.

N. E. Tufford.

Ladd, Mrs. Mary Mason, Mrs. R. E. Silvis, and the two hostesses, Mrs. LeRoy E. Dike and Mrs.

N. E. Tufford.

Ladd, Mrs. Mary Mason, Mrs. R. E. Silvis, and the two hostesses, Mrs. LeRoy E. Dike and Mrs.

N. E. Tufford.

Histe Crail, Miss Marie Hildeman, Mrs. A. D. Scott, Mrs. Harry Mason, Mrs. R. E. Silvis, and the two hostesses, Mrs. LeRoy E. Dike and Mrs. N. E. Tufford.

Silverton—Mrs. L. B. Scharback as general chairman of the series of a parties that are being spontanced by the women of St. Monlea's Altar society of St. Paulis Catholic church, has appointed her assistants for the next affair of the assistants for the next affair of the massistants for the

in a cast but complications arose and it was found necessary to take him to a heapital and operate for a pus sac which had formed undera pus sac which had formed under neath the cast. He is at the Deacon hospital where he will probably

Club Entertained

Woodburn—Mrs. Edith Piper entertained the Round-Up bridge club at her home west of Hubbard Wednesday afternioon, Mrs. Dorls McAllister won the prize for high score. Refreshments were served by the hostess to Mrs. McAllister, Mrs. Elaine Steele, Mrs. Else Moelberger, Mrs. Blanche Richards, Mrs. Beulah Lessard, and Mrs. Gertrude Butterfield.

Playmakers of the senior high group Guy W. Defay is faculty director to the theme is well portrayed and the practice work has been indicative of a splendid performance. The play will be given tonight in the Eugene Field auditorium and a large crowd is anticipated.

Stayton — The Home Economic Club of the Stayton Grange will have a Christmas party in the Grange hall Tuesday, A Christmas

Stayton — Mr. and Mrs. John Merts and sons Billy and Jerry left Thursday morning for their home in Anaheim, Calif.

Aid Has Election HEALTH CONFAB PLAN PRAISED:

was elected president of the Laddes' Aid society of the Trinity Lutheran church Wednesday afternoon at the business and social session held in the church social rooms with Mrs. Nels Moseng and Mrs. H. Rindem as hostesses. Other officers elected were Mrs. Ed Holden as vice president, Mrs. M. J. Madsen as secretary, Mrs. H. Rindem as treasurer and Mrs. Ole Satern as assistant.

CLEVER FALL CARD

PARTY IS ARRANGED

Mill City—One of the cleverest parties this fall was given Tuesday night when Mrs. LeRoy E. Dike and Mrs. N. E. Third entertained with a bridge party at the home of the former.

Mrs. N. E. Third entertained with a bridge were in play, with prizes for contract going to Miss Eisse Crail first; Miss Marie Hildeman, second; Mrs. C. T. Haseman, third, and Mrs. T. W. Allen, consolation, Prizes for auction Were won by Mrs. R. E. Faust, first; Mrs. Harry Mason, second; and Miss Duisy Henson, second; and Miss Duisy He

Playmakers Taking

Stage At Silverton
Silverton—One of the outstanding events of the school year in the nature of entertainment will be the play, "The Whole Town's Taiking," to be given by members of the Playmakers of the senior high group.
Giv W. Defaw is faculty director. Guy W. DeLay is faculty director. The theme is well portrayed and the practice work has been indicative of a splendid performance. The play will be given tonight in the Eugene

Stayton — The Home Economics club of the Stayton Grange will have a Christmas party in the Grange hall Tuesday, A Christmas

Birds of Danger in a Sky of Death! Warne CONCHITA MONTENEGRO RUSSELL HARDIE . HERBERT MUNDIN A FOX PICTURE Last Times Today WALTER CONNOLLY VICTOR JORY FAY WRAY "WHITE LIES" CALLIN

Short Drama Will Be Night Feature

Woodburn — A one-act drama, "The Bishop's Candlesticks," will be Silverton—An educational phase in religious leadership is proving an attractive addition to the regular services of the Calvary Pentacostal church at 235 Lewis street, of which Rev. O. R. Cross is paster. The young people are in complete charge of Friday evening meetings, leading the singing, sponsoring testimonial service and bringing the Bible sermon message.

timonial service and bringing the Bible sermon message. Another special service of the week that is popular with the entirec engregation is the blackboard Bible lessons that are in charge of the pastor each Tuesday evening. Rev. Cross will bring an evangelistic message to his congregation Sunday night beginning at 7:45 o'clock and he will make his Sunday morning worship hour topic, "Spiritual Waters." This service follows the Sunday achool Bible study hour which is called for 9:45 o'clock.

SCRAP PARTY

bers. Mrs. Gertrude Beach assisted Mrs.

Mrs. Gertrude Beach assisted Mrs. Muir as hostess. Mrs. Della Overton preided over the brief business meeting and plans were perfected to serve lunch at the next meeting of Evergreen chapter December 10, for which a small charge will be made. The money raised from this source will be used to-wards the purchase of a new stove. wards the purchase of a new stove for the Masonic kitchen.

for the Masonic kitchen.

Refreshments were served and a social hour followed the meeting. Past matrons present were Mrs. Della Overton, Mrs. Mabel Settle-mier, Miss Elfa Lytle, Mrs. Martha Reilling, Miss Gladya Adams, Mrs. Ida Garrison, Mrs. Eleanor Vickers, Mrs. Lillian Bitney, Mrs. Carrie Voung, Mrs. Maude Moehel, Mrs. Myrtle Gill, Mrs. Munie Richards, Mrs. Gertrude Beach and Mrs. Nellie Muir.

A white elephant party will feature the next meeting, which will be held at the Masonic parlors Janu-ary 2, with Mrs. Della Overton and Mrs. Eleanor Vickers as hostesses.

Thursday Bridge Club Entertained

Woodburn -The Thursday night ridge club met Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Gail Lansden, Th prize for high score was won by Mrs Elburn T. Sims and for low accord by Mrs. Harold Miller, Refreshments by Mrs. Harold Miller. Refreshments were served by the hostess. Club members present were Mrs. Elburn T. Sims. Mrs. Clyde Whitman, Mrs. Russell D. Bright, Mrs. Harold Miller, Mrs. Marshall Hicks, Mrs. Otto P. Miller, Mrs. L. R. Tweedie, Mrs. Jesse Rigdon and the hostess. Mrs. Tom Renn was an additional guest.

Christmas Party

Plans Completed Woodburn—A Christmas scrap party was held by the Past Matrons of Evergreen chapter at the home of Mrs. Nellie Muir Wednesday evening. Gifts made of scraps were exchanged between the members.

Silverton—A Christmas party and tree for the youngsters of St. Paul's Catholic parks will be an affair just preceding Christmas day and will be in charge of the women of
will be in charge of the women of were completed at the Wednesday afternoon meeting of the society at distribution. were present.

EVALYN KNAPP Added - Buck Jones in Episode Eleven GORDON OF GHOST CITY News and Cartoon Comedy

Another COMPLETE NOVEL Next Sunday

Packed With Thrills, Excitement

How and why did the millionaire yacht owner, Lawrence Thacker, and his friend, Leighton Klein, vanish from an open boat, after Thacker's palatial yacht Helsinor crashed on a coral reef in West Indian waters?
The unraveling of this baffling mystery provides a lightning fast, thrilling story to speed the pulse of the most placid reader. Here are adventised to the coral state of the most placid reader. ture on the high seas, romance and mystery all packed into one absorb-ing novel—an outstanding story by a noted author—Rufus King, "The Lesser Antilles Case" wins a place in The Greater Sunday Oregonian's Library of Life by sheer interest—it's the kind of mystery story that every lover of fiction will enjoy. Don't miss it next Sunday.

The Oregonian's Parade of Fiction rolls on, gaining hosts of new enthusiasts each Sunday, as another heat siasts each Sunday, as another best story by a noted American author is presented as a complete novel, well printed, illustrated in color, assembled in a separate, easily handled section. Don't miss a single novel!

Free with The Greater Sunday Ore-

More Northwest News

For a colorful, complete presentation of all the inter-esting, significant news of the great Pacific Northwest. you must turn to your Sunday Oregonian, Oregonian special correspondents in more than 250 communities rush late, exclusive news stories to The Oregonian for your information and enjoyment. Keep step with progress—know what neighboring cities and states are doing Read Pacific Northwest News—next Sunday—in The Oregonian. Equally dominant coverage of Pacific Northwest news every day.

ORDER YOUR COPY

Enter your order for The Greater Sunday Oregonian now. Single copies 10c. Sunday and Daily Oregonian in combination, 85c month by carrier.

OREGONIAN AGENT

W. H. BURGHARDT 463 Ferry St.—Salem, Ore Phone 4663

