

PORTLAND BOY TO BOX PETERS FRIDAY NIGHT

Not discouraged by the slim crowds which have attended efforts to revive the boxing game in Salem, the local post of Veterans of Foreign Wars, are going ahead with plans for better bouts. Tonight at the armory there will be approximately 30 rounds, depending upon the ability of the various contestants to keep out of the way of the swishing leather.

Hank McDonald of Portland, fighting his fourth professional battle, will engage George Peters of Salem in the six round main event. McDonald in one of his previous battles gained a draw with Jack Hibbard.

The six round semi-final will feature Jackie Woods and Al Smith, both of Salem. Woods a few years back engaged in a number of fights and looked like a comer. He will be starting his comeback efforts tonight.

The balance of the card will consist of four round affairs. Zackie Shell of Gervais and Lefty Jones will come together in one of the preliminaries while Loren Watts of Salem and Albert Nosack of Gervais have been paired in another. Dannie Moore of Salem will meet Clary Campbell of Silverton while George Reed and Young Douglas, both of Silverton will open the card.

SALEM MATMEN SHOWING CLASS

Prospects for a championship wrestling team appear particularly bright, despite the loss through graduation of a number of last year's luminaries. Shannon "Pat" Hogue, instructor at Salem high, stated Thursday following a particularly vigorous workout. Fifty-one boys have been working out regularly from 12 to 1 o'clock each day in anticipation of a number of hard meets scheduled for early next week.

Hogue says efforts will be made to contact more outside teams than usual this year and in addition to the squads regularly taken on, it is possible scholastic champions of Washington may be engaged. Kelso, Wash., a school which claims the championship of southwestern Washington, will meet the locals some time during the season. For the fourth consecutive year the state wrestling championships will be run off in Salem, probably preceding the basketball tournament in March.

Among the more experienced boys working out are Park, 115 pounds, and Frey, 168 pounds, runners up from last year. Anderson, 138, considered an excellent candidate, and Alerin, 128 pounder who performs near the top. Kavanaugh, 245 pound heavyweight, a veteran of two years, is showing improved form.

JEFFERSON QUINT PLAYING INDIANS

Friday evening Chemawa will be here for a game. Saturday afternoon the 7th and 8th grade team will play the Scio team at Scio.

The 7th and 8th grade team has new basketball suits. Attendance in the 7th and 8th grades the past six weeks was 98.9 percent. Tuesday morning the high school held a music assembly and yell practice.

Hot lunches are now being served to those who bring their lunch to school.

There is a button campaign being sponsored by the school this week to collect old buttons. A prize is being offered to the person guessing nearest the number collected in Marion county.

JACK CAMPBELL FORGES TO LEAD

After what were probably the hottest afternoon and night sessions yet seen at the Salem Horseshoe Pitchers' club, Jack Campbell occupied the top round of the ladder at the end of last night's games, by virtue of a win over Pearl Harland.

In the afternoon Art Moore challenged and defeated his brother Orville Moore. Campbell challenged George Vick and won the game. That ended the ladder games for the afternoon.

Last night Ellery Harland challenged Nick and defeated him. Then came the game that everyone was watching for, Campbell against Pearl Harland, with Campbell the challenger. The contest was close most of the way, but Campbell reached the 50 mark had a dozen points to lead of his opponent.

Then Luke Donaldson issued three challenges in succession. He won from Don Brooks and Verne Mentzer, but lost to Pearl Harland. George Vick, who was having a run of tough luck, accepted a challenge from Mentzer and the latter won. The evening was topped off with a ladder game between Mentzer and Pearl Harland which the latter won.

Campbell, Pearl Harland, Ellery Harland, Mentzer and Vick in the order named, occupied the five top places at the conclusion of last night's play.

BATTLE DECISION PROVES UNPOPULAR

Mike Stankovoch, formerly of Los Angeles, and at one time a member of Jack Dempsey's stables, fought Mickey McCaferly, who claims St. Paul, Minn., as his home, to an eight round draw in the main event of the all star boxing show held at Hubbard Wednesday night under the auspices of the firemen. The decision was far from popular, however, many fans believing McCaferly had the better of seven rounds of milling.

Ernie Johnson of Silverton knocked out Sam Orzilo of Portland in the first round of their scheduled semi-final go. They were 160 pounders.

The balance of the card resulted: Zackie Schell of Gervais took a four round decision over Claire Campbell, Silverton; Vern Watts of Salem knocked out Jack Moore of Hubbard in the first round. Watts, reappearing later on the card, lost a four round decision to Charlie Starr of Portland.

John Friend acted as matchmaker for the card while L. C. Eastman of Silverton was the referee.

Word from Tucson, Ariz., where the Notre Dame team is stopping, was that George Melnikovich, half-back, will not play and such others as Jack Robinson, center; Bill Smith, guard, and Michuda, another lineman, would see little action.

No more discouraging was the news that Ward Browning, Trojan first string end, was out with a broken leg—severely injured, nevertheless—George Brown, running guard, definitely on the bench with a bad ankle and Cliff Probst, full-back, still handicapped by a broken hand.

EGG SCRAMBLING ART EXPLAINED

During the early morning hour suitable trophies will be distributed to the football players in recognition of their record of no defeats and no ties in conference play.

BAER BROTHERS WIN 2 BOUTS

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 7 (AP)—The brothers Baer offered a demonstration today why they are the royal family of fistieuffs. Max, heavyweight champion of the world, returned to active ring work last night to belabor Johnny Miller, Iowa light heavyweight, in a four-round exhibition, and young Buddy ran his professional knock-out astring to eight.

Entering the ring as a contestant for the first time since he whipped Primo Carnera last June for the title, Max was far too clever and powerful for Miller. Seconds before the end of the first round, the champion laced Miller with a terrific right that sent him reeling. From then on Max paid little attention to the business of boxing, just clowning his way along. Miller tried to make a match of it for the champion, but he was hopelessly outwitted.

The fighters wore five ounce gloves. Baer weighed 234, Miller 180. Buddy wasted no time with big Red Fields of Des Moines. The 240 pound "kid" brother of the champion clipped Red after 30 seconds of the first round. Referee Alex Fidler awarded Buddy a technical knockout.
