Stayton—Mrs. Lawrence Siegmund was taken to the Stayton hospital Monday, where she is seriously ill.

PUPILS READY FOR HOLIDAYS

Stayton—The pupils of St. Mary's school, Stayton, are giving a Christmas program Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock at the school hall.

The presentation of "The Madonna of the Rose," is the main feature of the evening. The scene of the play is laid in a Normandy village which is all astir in preparation for the feast of Christmas and the miracle of Our Lady of the Rose. Each person is to bring a gift to the chapel of Our Lady of the Rose and the miracle will come to the one who is pure of heart. The child of the village who is most loved is Frances, a poor blind girl with a happy disposition, ready with and a keen understanding of human frailties. The only gift she has to offer is the gift of song the Madonna gave her the rose and as she touches it she realizes she has received the miracle—she sees the rose.

The complete program follows: piano solo, "Pas de Amphores," Rosella Bell; Santa; chorus minims; Coals of fire; comedy; Camp of Glory, piano trio, Rosella Bell, Lorraine Albus and Helen Porter, dialogue, "The Extra Stocking"; piano solo, "Butterfly," Josephine Brandt; piano solo, "Humming Bird," Margaret Hughes; Madonnas of the Rose, scene I; piano solo, "La Cinqtaine," Paula Smith; Madonnas of the Rose, scene II.

An admission of 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children is being charged, the proceeds to be used to help pay for new books which have been purchased for the school library.

Turner WCTU Meets

Turner—Mrs. N. Sherman Hawk entertained the W.C.T.U. at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage for the December meeting, instead of at the home of Mrs. G. W. Farris as the meeting place was changed. The county president, Mrs. Lydia Lehman of Salem, was a special visitor and told of the state convention and plans outlined for the various unions. Those in attendance were Mrs. Lydia Lehman of Salem, Mrs. Raymond Stewart, Mrs. L. M. Small, Miss Kathryn Hawk, Mrs. M. A. Hill, Mrs. F. C. Gunnings, Mrs. C. A. Bear, Mrs. Emma Canning and the hostess, Mrs. N. Sherman Hawk.

HOME FROM COLLEGE
Gervais—Lester DeJardin has returned from Columbia university to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. DeJardin. Lester DeJardin who attends St. Joseph college at Mt. View, Calif., has also returned home for the holiday vacation.

ARROW SHIRTS, The Real Gift!

"Fitting" gets a double meaning from Arrow MITOGA

Our new Arrow MITOGA gives the word "fitting" a double meaning.

First—they fit in perfectly with today's style trend toward color. Second—they fit in the more literal sense of conforming to your body. MITOGA is cleverly cut so that the shoulders taper... the waist drapes in to eliminate bunches or folds... and the sleeves follow the conformation of your arms.

And Arrow MITOGA fits forever, because it's Sanforized-Shrunk! See the new styles and patterns—in whites and fancies—now on $2 and up display

Others in beautiful new patterns—white on white—stripes and small figures. Also gorgeous white silks—
