Smart Affair For Y.W.C.A. Directorate

Members of the Y.W.C.A. board were honored at a smartly arranged luncheon today when Mrs. Percy R. Kelly entertained in her State street residence. The affair followed the regular Y.W. board meeting and especially honored Mrs. Frank M. Erickson who recently resigned from the directorate.

Spring flowers in the dainty pastel tones centered the small luncheon tables. Miss Dorothy Cornelius assisted in the serving and in receiving the guests.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Erickson, Mrs. L. O. Clement, Mrs. Elizabeth K. Gallaher, Mrs. M. B. Wagstaff, Mrs. E. B. Daugherty, Mrs. Frank H. Spears, Mrs. Frank Brown, Mrs. J. R. Pollock, Mrs. Ira Darby, Mrs. M. C. Pettys, Mrs. Foote, Mrs. W. E. Feldman, Mrs. Milton L. Meyers, Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, Mrs. Floyd Miller, Mrs. Claude H. Glenn, Mrs. B. E. Carrier, Mrs. J. A. Brownson and the hostess, Mrs. Percy R. Kelly.

Word has reached Salem of the birth of a daughter to Congressman and Mrs. William W. Mott on January 7 in Washington, D. C. The small miss has two sisters, Dorothy May and Frances Anne.

Surprise Party for Mrs. P. R. Kelly

Mrs. Percy R. Kelly was feted with a gay surprise party in her home Saturday afternoon arranged by Mrs. Miller Hayden and Miss Dorothy Cornelius. Sixteen intimate friends of the honor guest were invited and bridge was the diversion of the afternoon. High score honors went to Mrs. Rex Davis, Mrs. Milton L. Meyers and Mrs. Harry Bell.

Legion Auxiliary Formulates Plans

The American Legion auxiliary held its regular business meeting at the fraternal temple last night to make plans for coming events. Mrs. Glenn Porter, president of the local group, recently received a bulletin from the department of Oregon president inviting the local chapter to attend the first departmental national defense council to be held in Oregon.

The session will open in the Multnomah hotel, Portland, at 10 o'clock on Saturday, January 19. Reservations should be made by January 17. Luncheon will be served at noon and it is expected that the session will close by 4 in the afternoon.

Members of the American Legion auxiliary quartet, national champions, announced that they will leave on their two months' concert tour Thursday morning. They will make their first appearance in Bellingham, Wn., and from there they will go to Canada.

The next meeting of the auxiliary will be held January 21 and will be a social meeting under the chairmanship of Mrs. Nola Henderson, chairman of the legislative committee. The district president, Mrs. Blanche Jones of Sherwood, and the department president, Mrs. Cecelia Gunn of Hood River, and other department officers and chairmen will be present.

The social committee will include Mrs. Lelf Bergavik, Mrs. Verdon Hockett, Mrs. Henry Fournier, Mrs. J. T. Delaney and Mrs. Albert Gragg.

Younger Set Feted At Dinner

Mrs. Roger Mything will be hostess to the Mother's Study group at her home, 760 North Summer street, Friday, January 11. Mrs. Glenn Briedwell will speak on the Salem nursery and elementary schools.

Mrs. Kay Presides At Luncheon

Mrs. Erel Kay invited members of her contract club to luncheon this afternoon in her Fairmount hill home. Several hours of bridge followed. Mrs. Hollis Huntington was a special guest.

Club members include Mrs. John Carson, Mrs. T. A. Roberts, Mrs. Frank H. Spears, Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., Mrs. Keith Powell, Mrs. Arthur Rahn, Mrs. Prince W. Byrd, Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, Mrs. David W. Eyre, Mrs. Fritz Slade, Mrs. Harry Hawkins and the hostess, Mrs. Erel Kay.

Kebers Sail Soon For Trip Abroad

Mr. Angel-Joseph J. Keber and daughter, Miss Dorothy Keber, are planning an extended vacation trip which will take them through Europe. They will leave Portland on January 17 on the Cascade Limited as far as San Francisco, where they will embark on the S. S. Virginia, Pan-American line, via the Panama canal to New York.

Leaving New York February 7 on the S. S. Statendam, Holland-American line, they will disembark at Gibraltar. From there they will proceed along the African coast to the Holy Land and then back to Naples and Rome. Then they will go to Switzerland and to Abtei Maria Laach, Germany, where they will visit with Rev. Father Robert, O. S. B., son of Joseph Keber, who is extending his studies there in church liturgy. They will stay there for several days before proceeding on their way to Cherbourg, where they will embark on the S. S. Veddam back to New York.

On their journey homeward, their main stops will be at Washington, D. C., and Chicago. At Appleton, Wis., they will visit with Sister Teresa, a sister of Mr. Keber and also relatives in Minnesota and Portland, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Martin have had as their guest recently Mrs. John Tracy of Tacoma, Wn. On New Year's day they entertained at dinner complimenting Mrs. Tracy. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Revalts, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hammick, Jimmy and Norma Jean Hammick, Mrs. Freda Golger and Miss Harriett Faith Folger of Walla Walla, Miss Betty Martin, Miss Helen Jean Lytle, Chester Banta, Phillip Doddridge and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Martin.

Bridge Club Bidden To Gay Event

Mrs. William B. Mott opened her home this afternoon to the members of her contract bridge club. Luncheon was served at an attractively appointed table centered with a great bowl of scaccia. Several hours of cards followed.

Members of the club include Mrs. Ronald Jones, Mrs. W. P. Poorman, Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mrs. E. V. McMechan, Mrs. Karl Becke, Mrs. Edgar Pierce, Mrs. H. G. Malson, Mrs. John J. Elliott and the hostess, Mrs. William B. Mott.

Popular Deb Tells Betrothal

The engagement of Miss Ruth Williams of The Dalles to Raymond J. Hill of Yakima was announced last week at a luncheon for which Miss Williams was hostess complimenting Mrs. Thomas Quast of Central Point and Mrs. James Walton of La Grande.

Miss Williams, who is a popular member of the younger set there, is a graduate of Miss Orton's school for girls at Los Angeles and later attended Holmby college at Beverly Hills. She is well known to the capital's younger contingent.

Mr. Hill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hill of Zilla, Wash., and a graduate of the University of Washington. He is now in business at Yakima.

The wedding will be an event of spring.

Messages of sympathy are being conveyed to Leonard L. Burgoyne, who underwent an operation at the Deaconess hospital Friday.

The First Presbyterian church missionary society will meet at the church Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock for the usual meeting.

The Eteri class of the First Baptist church will meet at the church Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock for a birthday party.

The Truth class of the Unity center of constructive thinking will hold its regular meeting at the Marion hotel Tuesday at 8 o'clock. Miss Olive Stevens will give her first lecture in a series using Waldo H. Trine's "In Tune With the Infinite" as a basis for discussion. The public is cordially invited to attend the lectures.

Installation of officers will be held by the Dorcas society at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The session will be held in the parlors of the Christ Lutheran church.

Book and Thimble Club Honored

Kingwood—Mrs. Waldo Bixel was a charming hostess Thursday when she opened her home to the members of the Book and Thimble club. Chorus singing opened the interesting program arranged by Mrs. David A. Williams and Mrs. Charles Hathaway. A New Year's reading was given by Mrs. A. L. Applewhite and two appropriate and seasonal games involved New Year's resolutions and the aids to the holiday dinner. At the coffee hour the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Book and Mrs. Dornell.

Mrs. L. F. Brown and Mrs. Rose Darnell will provide entertainment for the meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Charles Hathaway in a fortnight.

Those present included Mesdames Mary Beaver, Fred Kubin, John Reese and her mother, Mrs. Hill, recently moved here from Lewiston, Idaho, Conrad Fox, Jr., A. J. Krueger, Charles Schwartz, E. Saunders, L. F. Brown, Avery L. Applewhite, Charles Hathaway, David A. Williams, Rose Darnell, C. E. Book, and Waldo Bixel, hostess.

Marion auxiliary, V.F.W., will hold its regular meeting at the Marion hotel Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Frank Nieswander will open her home at 1645 Chemeketa street to members of the auxiliary. The hours will be spent in sewing.

Mrs. W. W. Chadwick will open her home at 1300 North Winter street Wednesday to the members of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Jazon Lee church. The affair will start at 2:15 o'clock.

Students of Mary Talmadge Headrick will be presented in concert Friday night in the Y.M.C.A. lobby. The program will start at 8 o'clock and the public is bidden to attend.

National Defense To Be Topic

To make plans for a large conference on national defense a meeting was held in Portland last week at the public library when prominent members of the American Legion auxiliary and the Daughters of the American Revolution arranged for an all day session January 19 at the Multnomah hotel beginning at 10 o'clock. Prominent speakers will include Captain Charles W. Cross, U. S. navy, Brig. Gen. James K. Parsons, U. S. army, Judge Jacob Kanizer, Mrs. John Y. Richardson, and others. Luncheon reservations are being taken by Mrs. James A. Fenwick, general chairman, and Mrs. K. N. Hawkes, Mrs. Mark Weatherford, state regent of Oregon D. A. R., and Mrs. Charles W. Gunn, state department head of the auxiliary, will preside.

Invitations are being sent to all patriotic organizations and to prominent men and women and anyone interested may attend all sessions but all are requested to make luncheon reservations not later than January 17.

Arrangements are being made whereby special blocks of seats may be held for citizens of various Willamette valley cities. At the last concert held in the fall, several hundred seats were reserved in sections for citizens of Roseburg, Corvallis, Albany and Salem.

The appearance of Heifetz, considered one of the world's greatest violinists, is expected to be one of the musical highlights of the year. He has never before appeared in any Oregon city outside of Portland and has not been heard in the state for several seasons.

Mail orders for reserved seats are now being received at the Associated Student office at McArthur court, Eugene.

Joint Installation Wednesday Night

The Salem Rebekahs and members of the I.O.O.F. lodge met for practice in the organization's rooms Monday night to prepare for the joint installation to be held Wednesday evening. The public is invited. A "Round Shower" will be held for needy families and all those attending the meeting are asked to bring contributions. In charge will be Jessie Beatty, Velma Henderson and Elsie Townsend.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the First Methodist Church will meet in the parlors at 2:15 o'clock Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. B. Blatchford in charge. Mrs. L. Jones will lead the devotions and Mrs. P. F. Stoitzel will read a story. Mrs. B. L. Steeves will report on the national convention in the east. Miss Ruth Bedford will provide music for the pleasure of the group. Mrs. R. G. Baldersee and Miss Elsie Miller will serve as the reception committee.

Jascha Heifetz To Appear in Eugene

Salem music lovers have been extended a cordial invitation to attend the only Oregon concert of Jascha Heifetz, internationally famous violinist, to be given at McArthur court on the University of Oregon campus Saturday night, January 19.

The Associated Students, sponsors of the concert, have arranged for a low scale of prices for the popular artist with the expectation of another large crowd such as those which have heard Roland Hayes and the Don Cossack chorus in Eugene recently.

Arrangements are being made whereby special blocks of seats may be held for citizens of various Willamette valley cities. At the last concert held in the fall, several hundred seats were reserved in sections for citizens of Roseburg, Corvallis, Albany and Salem.

Heirlooms To Be Shown at Tea

An affair which always creates much interest each year in the capital city is the scholarship-loan tea given by Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. This year the tea will be held at Lausanne hall February 22 and will be marked by an interesting heirloom exhibit.

The Colonial tea committee, as thus far planned, will include Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. Herbert J. Ostlund, Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Miss Ruth Geer, Mrs. L. W. Potter, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Miss Ruth Rullison, Mrs. Ora L. Cosper, Mrs. U. G. Boyer, Mrs. F. C. Ritzer, Mrs. David H. Looney, Mrs. G. Ivan Putnam, Mrs. C. B. Sundberg and Mrs. James G. Heifetz.

At the regular meeting Saturday afternoon members chose the following delegates to attend the state conference in La Grande in March: Mrs. John W. Harrison, regent; Mrs. W. H. Byrd, Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. Sarah Steeves, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Frances Cornett, Mrs. W. W. Allen, Mrs. A. E. Austin, Mrs. Herbert Ostlund and Mrs. Harry Love.

Alternates are Mrs. C. C. Geer, Mrs. C. A. Sprague, Miss Ruth Rullison, Mrs. W. B. Johnston, Mrs. E. M. Hoffmann, Mrs. V. E. Newcomb, Mrs. S. L. Minard, Mrs. Oscar Hayter, Mrs. C. T. Ellison and Mrs. Roy Ritzer.

Mrs. C. C. Best and Mrs. William F. Fargo will represent the D. A. R. on the Salem Woman's council.

During the afternoon R. J. Hendricks, well known for his research work in early Oregon history, gave an account of the life of Dr. John McLoughlin. Chemeketa chapter is taking an active part in helping to re-furnish the McLoughlin home in Oregon City.

At the tea hour Mrs. W. H. Byrd and Mrs. Harrison presided. The hostess committee was composed of Mrs. L. C. McLeod, Mrs. Edwin Jory, Mrs. E. M. Hoffmann, Mrs. H. T. Love, Mrs. Lewis D. Griffith and Mrs. Frances Cornett.

Hayesville—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fitts (Alice Massey) have returned home from their honeymoon to northern points. The young couple were married New Year's day at a lovely wedding performed in the Clear Lake church.

They will be at home for a short time with Mr. Fitts' parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Fitts in this community.

Mill City Couple Exchange Vows

Mill City—Miss Frances Marcella Race and William Pancoast, both of Mill City, were married Wednesday, December 26, at 5 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents in Mosier, Ore. The single ring ceremony was said in the presence of a few close relatives and friends, with Rev. R. A. Hutchinson of The Dalles officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Pancoast are now at home in Mill City where Mrs. Pancoast is an instructor in the grade school and Mr. Pancoast is assistant manager of Hammond Lumber company. At present they are residing at the Charles Gentry home, the Gentry family having moved out of town for a few months.

Prior to her marriage, Mrs. Pancoast was feted with a miscellaneous shower at the Big House, when

To guard against Cosmetic Skin, thousands of girls are adopting the screen stars' complexion care. Lux Toilet Soap removes cosmetics thoroughly—protects the skin.

Use all the rouge and powder you wish, but guard against COSMETIC SKIN this way...

SOFT, LOVELY SKIN is thrilling to a man. Every girl should have it—and keep it! So what a shame when a girl lets unattractive Cosmetic Skin rob her of this charm! It's easy to guard against this modern complexion trouble.

Cosmetics Harmless if removed this way

Many a woman who thinks she removes make-up thoroughly is actually leaving bits of stale rouge and powder in the pores. Gradually the pores become enlarged—tiny blemishes appear, blackheads, perhaps. Warning signals of Cosmetic Skin!

Lux Toilet Soap is especially made to remove cosmetics thoroughly. Its ACTIVE lather sinks deep into the pores, gently removes every vestige of dust, dirt, stale cosmetics. Before you apply fresh make-up during the day—ALWAYS before you go to bed at night—protect your skin with this gentle soap 9 out of 10 screen stars use!

OF COURSE I USE COSMETICS, BUT I NEVER WORRY ABOUT COSMETIC SKIN—THANKS TO LUX TOILET SOAP. IT'S EASY TO HAVE A GORGEOUS SKIN THIS WAY
