Washington, Jan. 29 (AP)—The senate, acting under administration orders, today accepted a World Court reservation which was counted upon to attract enough votes to bring approval of the resolution for American adherence to the Court. There was no record vote.

PROBLEM BABE NORMAL CHILD

Denver, Jan. 29 (AP)—"Johnny Doe," Denver's day-old problem child, was described as a normal, brown-haired infant today at the hospital where his 13 year old mother rested under the care of physicians and wondered if she would be permitted to keep her son.

The birth of the seven-pound youngster yesterday was the climax of a strange social question raised by the baby's grandmother. She appealed unsuccessfully to the courts for a birth control operation to be performed on her granddaughter, contending motherhood would imperil the girl's life. Doctors disagreed and refused to perform the operation.

The father, John W. Drewery, 45, is in the Colorado penitentiary, serving a 20-year sentence on a morals offense conviction.

SEEKS REFERENDUM ON SYNDICALISM LAW

Senator Peter Zimmerman today withdrew his measure which would repeal the criminal syndicalism law and in its place he introduced a new measure which would refer the repeal proposal to a vote of the people at the next election.

The repeal proposal, known as Senate Bill No. 1, had no chance of passage in the senate, a poll taken of members revealed, but Zimmerman believes the referendum would be approved. A large hearing on the repeal was held last week.

Congratulations Reach President Roosevelt as Birthday Draws Near

Washington, Jan. 29 (AP)—The messages of felicitation began to pour in today as Franklin D. Roosevelt, one of America's younger presidents, reached the eve of another birthday. Despite the fact that there'll be only 21 candles on the White House cake (for the Roosevelts can't count beyond 21 when it comes to birthdays), the president will be 53 tomorrow.

Good Evening!

Sips for Supper By DON UPJOHN

An invitation lies on our desk to attend a dinner at Washington, D. C., commemorating the 21st anniversary of the birth control movement in America. Maybe they want us there as the horrible example.

It is interesting to note among those on the banquet committee is Mr. Kermitt Roosevelt. It seems to be the old "shirtsleeves to shirtsleeves" idea all over again in a new role.

WARNING TO F. T. & B. A.
Ex-United States Senator Sam Shortridge of California fell into a faint and was taken to a hospital. It was discovered there he was weak from lack of food, having recently had all his teeth out. So, boys, stick to your grub.

We caught Gordon Hull at his store last night trying to beat one of his own marble games. Gordon wouldn't say whether this was just plain optimism or whether he was trying to win enough to pay his city license for this quarter. But in either case he never had a chance.

An old structure at Oregon City collapsed last night into a total wreck. We suggest inquiry be made as to the whereabouts of Herman Schellberg, about the time this happened.

They're telling a story around the statehouse that Earl Snell dropped into the house the other day. He hadn't yet met Representative Norblad, the boy lawmaker from Gladbrook. "Here boy," said Snell to Norblad as the story goes, "take this envelope down to the secretary of state's office." "Yes, sir, thank you sir," Norblad is reported as having replied in the best page's voice. Norblad delivered the envelope and then bladed delivered the envelope and then returned to the house and had himself introduced to Snell. They are now great pals. We don't vouch for this story which is good enough whether true or not.

Speaking of statehouse stories, Howard Maple of the automobile department, has one of these pairs of new fangled zippered trousers. Howard left the department to be gone a few minutes and the zippers failed to track. He got back in an hour and a half after calling in a mechanic from the state highway shops to get untangled. In spite of the NRA Howard worked an hour and a half overtime that eve to catch up.

New York, Jan. 29 (AP)—The bank of the Manhattan Company of New York late today announced one of its messengers had lost a portfolio containing $1,456,000 in negotiable bonds and securities. Police and representatives of bonding companies began an immediate investigation. The portfolio contained U. S. treasury certificates, liberty bond and a block of utility stocks.

The bank let the messenger have $1,456,000 to run around with but we'd like to see him try to borrow fifty bucks from the institution.

PRESIDENT'S BALL TICKETS PILFERED

Persons buying tickets for the President's Ball, to be held tomorrow night, are requested by the general committee to watch for tickets bearing numbers 651 to 700 inclusive. At the Kiwanis banquet held the night of January 24 the overcoat of Dale Taylor was stolen. In a pocket of the coat were 80 tickets of the numbers mentioned. Anyone to whom any of these tickets are offered for sale is asked to take them up and turn them in to the chamber of commerce or to William Schlitt, King Bing of the Cherrians.

Remove Officials

Baton Rouge, La., Jan. 29 (AP)—A formal demand upon the elected state officials to "renounce the dictatorship of United States Senator Huey P. Long" was issued today from headquarters of the Square Deal association of Louisiana.

The demand, a formally written statement signed by the officers, was a call upon the officials technically and constitutionally composing the state administration and state government to rebel against the rule imposed by Long as a United States senator.

BRITISH HOUSE STIRRED BY RIOT

London, Jan. 29 (AP)—A riot in the House of Commons gallery and a demand from the floor that Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald be horsewhipped from public life left Britons today looking back to the wild times of the suffragettes before the war for a precedent.

There was threat of another riot tonight, for more than 40 labor party partisans, exiting rapidly up the steep gallery steps before the propelling arms of attendants, shouted: "We'll be back tomorrow night!"

Labor partisans on the floor and in the public gallery became more and more angry as provisions of the bill for restricting allowances to the unemployed were discussed.

JAPANESE VESSEL SINKS OFF JAPAN

Dutch Harbor, Alaska, Jan. 29 (AP)—Sinking of a ship, the Sachia Maru, off the coast of Japan, was told early today in fragmentary distress messages picked up by the coast guard cutter Tallapoosa, working out of Dutch Harbor.

The Tallapoosa received SOS calls from the Sachia Maru at intervals for several hours, her master reported. Position was given as off Sanebo, near Nagasaki, Japan. Finally one faint call said the vessel was sinking. No more came.

27,000 EMPLOYED STATE RELIEF JOBS

Portland, Jan. 29 (AP)—The SERA committee announced here today that 27,000 men and women, the majority of whom are heads of families with dependents, are being employed on state relief projects. Thousands of dollars weekly are going into the channels of trade as this vast work program continues.

Auto Guests Can't Mulct Host Drivers

Constitutionality of the "guest statute" in Oregon was upheld by the state supreme court today in an opinion by Justice J. O. Bailey in affirming Judge Louis P. Hewitt on an appeal from Multnomah county.

The law provides that a guest in an automobile cannot recover from the host for injuries "unless such accident shall have been intentional on the part of said owner or operator or caused by his gross negligence or intoxication or his reckless disregard of the rights of others."

CHINO-JAPANESE TREATY DENIED

Nanking, Jan. 29 (AP)—Reports from Geneva that Sino-Japanese cooperation is contemplated for commercial development of China and suppression of communists were termed today as "absurd fabrication," by a spokesman for the Chinese nationalist government's foreign office.

An official Japanese spokesman was quoted at Geneva yesterday as saying the Chinese nationalist government had invited Japanese officials to confer on the possibility of a Sino-Japanese accord for the economic and financial development of China.
