

NORMAL SCHOOL HONOR STUDENT RATINGS HIGH

Mounmouth—In the honor roll of Oregon Normal school fall term of 1934, Charles Bothwell and Leonard Gustafson share first place for high scholastic honors. Each made 16 hours of A grades with 48 grade points. Second honor was won by Edmond C. Calavan who made 14 hours of A and B grades with a total of 46 grade points.

Students having not only carried at least 15 hours of credit, but also receiving all A's and B's and thereby being eligible for the first honor roll are as follows:

- Claudia Alexander, Portland; Ivan Arneson, Canby; Elizabeth Baker, Independence; Dorothy Bellamy, Independence; Victor Black, Dallas; Margaret Blood, Portland; Charles Bothwell, Mounmouth; Wauneta Burton, Silverton; Edmond C. Calavan, Newport; Marie de Lespinasse, Hubbard; Vera Ellen Garrett, Aurora; Dorothy Goodfellow, Salem; Esther Grebe, Portland; Sigurd Gronstad, Roseburg; Leonard Gustafson, Portland; Helen I. Hall, The Dalles; Margaret Harnang, Astoria; Mary E. Henderson, Salem; Edith Hutson, Albany; Grover Kelsay, Dexter; Julia Larson, Boring; Viola McClellan, Milwaukie; North; M. Laushlin, Milwaukie; Eleanor G. McHenry, Seaside; Pauline Morland, Mounmouth; Kenneth Moxley, Boring; Jeanne Oeder, Silverton; Kathryn Patterson, Milwaukie; Arlene Peoples, Bend; Mildred McKnight, Seaside; Helen Smith, Denio; Sylvia Swearingen, Independence; Thelma Telft, Albion; Helene W. Taylor, Boring; Maxine Willett, Shedd; Alfred Wilson, Sheridan, and A. H. Winters, Madras.

The following students are those who carried at least 14 hours of work and received at least 12 hours of A and B grades, second honor roll. Lee D. Adams, Mounmouth; Deibert Anderson, Portland; Elizabeth Anderson, Portland; Geraldine L. Ayson, Molalla; Mayora A. Baker, Tillamook; Eva L. Barclay, Astoria; Nancy E. B. sum, Creswell; Helen Bidgett, Mounmouth; William Brunsen, Seaside; Jack Butterworth, Eugene; Harrison T. Canby, Portland; Ruth Sherris, Cottage Grove; Conner Coldeman, Multnomah; Don E. Covey, Woodburn; Joyce L. Fonger, Bay City; Dorothy B. Galt, Astoria; Robert Graham, Canby; Carmen L. Gueffroy, Salem; Catherine Hawkins, Dallas; Velma L. Hill, Portland; Betty Johnson, Astoria; Rowena Malone, Holley; Mrs. Helen Manning, McMinnville; Mildred McKnight, Seaside; Marjorie Meeker, Vernonia; Wilfred Metzger, The Dalles; Alvira Miller, Seaside; Kathleen Muschamp, Milwaukie; Dorothy R. Naylor, Portland; Louise Peters, Cornelius; William Peterson, Independence; Eva K. Peterson, Portland; Elizabeth Platt, Lebanon; Elizabeth Platt, Mounmouth; Beatrice Price, Oregon City; Esther Reid, Astoria; Dorothy R. Schmidt, Multnomah; Marion H. Schreiber, Portland; Thelma Scott, Portland; Dean Seeligson, Butte; Bruce Shreve, Dallas; Elizabeth Skyles, Portland; Margaret Stovoght, Waldport; Ellen Stovoght, Waldport; Alice Smith, Mill City; Nan Smith, Dufer; Bell Star, Portland; Mabel Stranberg, Mounmouth; Olga Stovoght, Independence; Elting Tilden, Portland; Warren Tinker, Eugene; Mildred Tilden, Eugene; Goldie Wells, Halsey, and Helen R. Wilson, Marion.

Turner Amusement Club Gives Social

Turner—The Turner Surprise Grange Amusement club held its regular meeting in the Masonic hall with five tables of "500" in play during the evening. Following the social time, refreshments were served by the committee in charge. Mrs. Fred Mitchell, Mrs. Charles Colvin and Mrs. George Grumm, Mrs. M. E. Townsend, Mrs. W. F. Gulvin and C. T. White were on the table arrangements committee. Members and friends present were Mr. and Mrs. C. T. White, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. George Crume, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith and C. Smith of Astoria, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Peebles, Mrs. Emily Van Santen, Miss Helen Peets, Miss Mabel Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Roberts, Mrs. Thomas Coleman, William Bradford, Bernadine and Rosalee White and Doris and Donna Lee Webb.

VISITS AT NEWPORT

Turner—Mr. and Mrs. Earl B. Prather and children, Stanford, Jr. and Margaret Ann, and Oley K. Brock, Jr. visited Newport Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Hutchins, parents of Mrs. Prather. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Palmer and daughter, Peggy, former residents of Turner, and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thurston, Hutchins, who has been critically ill and is at the coast for his health, is slightly improved though still in a weakened condition.

MRS. CURTIS HOME

Stayton—Mrs. Ruby Curtis, who underwent an appendicitis operation, was removed to her home from the Stayton hospital Sunday. Her condition is reported as good.

Salem Heights—Mrs. Agnes Booth and Miss Luetta Baker are among the rural teachers receiving instructions in harmonica playing which are being given in a class conducted by Miss Shannon of the Haynesville school. This class in harmonica playing is conducted exclusively for rural school teachers.

Guild Pot Luck Meal Is Success

Hubbard—The pot luck lunch and all day's meeting of the Woman's Guild of the community met with such success that the affair is being repeated this Wednesday. The group will meet at the dining room of the Rebekah hall, Mrs. H. Sargent is in charge of the quilts and Mrs. Orrie Boje of the pot holders. An invitation is extended to all the women in the community who are interested in assisting in this form of work. Mrs. Marie Claypool is president of the group.

Model Dairy Barn Keeping Youths Busy

Hayesville—Members of the Boys 4-H building club, under the able direction of E. L. Moor, are working diligently two nights a week on the model dairy barn which is under construction by them. The barn is being made from blue print plans submitted by O.S.C. and is six feet long and three feet wide, with a seating of one inch to the foot. When completed it will be a modern structure in every respect, with stalls, stanchions, loft and every different department that is necessary in a modern building.

This year seven boys are enrolled in the class which meets each Monday and Thursday evenings in the workshop in Mr. Moor's station. The boys are Daniel Verhagen, Sam Ishida, Tom Kikuchi, Calvin Miller, Virgil Bolton, Paul Andersen and Marshall Christofferson, all from the sixth, seventh and eighth grades of Hayesville school.

Due to the generosity of the various lumber companies and hardware stores in Salem, the work has been advancing rapidly. Each and every lumber company has donated some material toward the construction of the barn with Hansen and Liljequist doing all the work for the boys. The Weller, Farmer and Allen hardware stores have donated hardware material. Mr. Barzo of Portland sent a circle saw to the boys' leader which he has mounted and is able to do some of the sawing. Last year the 4-H boys' club showed their work at the state fair and won first place. They intend to compete with the dairy barn this year.

FOUR DEBATE TEAMS WILL ENTER TOURNEY

Dallas—With a wealth of talent available no fewer than four debate teams, under the direction of Virgil Jackson, are practicing for the annual Linfield tournament at McMinnville this week.

Hope was expressed by the coach that the teams would do well on this occasion. Last year the school placed second and Howard Campbell, one of the members, won the state championship for extemporaneous speaking.

Members of the various squads are: First team, Mary Staats and Marjorie Waters; affirmative, Albert Klassen and Howard Campbell, negative; second team, Margaret Lindahl and Jeanne Hartman, affirmative; Ivan Tokes and Walter Frierson, negative. Third team, Arthur Nickel and Donald Senter, affirmative; Helen Elle and Irvin Voth, negative. Fourth team, Edward Toews and Anna Schmitt, affirmative; Joe Guthrie and Virginia Brown, negative.

Club Offers Cards

Lyons—The Happy Times club held its regular meeting Saturday night with 15 tables in play. High scores were won by Inez Ring and Clyde Lewis, consolation prizes going to Wave Lyons and James Curran. The committee for the next meeting includes Mrs. Anna Hubbard, Mrs. Stella Jackson, Mrs. Alice Huber, Marion Martin, Gates Cochran, B. E. Brown and Junior Hobson.

ZINSERS TO LEAVE

Salem Heights—Mr. and Mrs. Zinser and family of Salem Heights are leaving Wednesday morning for Long Beach, Calif., where Zinser will be engaged in the store business with his brother-in-law. They plan to make the trip in their automobile.

VALLEY CLINIC HELD

Stayton—Dr. and Mrs. W. V. Adams attended the Willamette valley chiropractic meeting held in McMinnville Saturday evening. Clinical work was carried on in the office of Dr. Byron White. The women of the auxiliary were guests of Mrs. White at her home.

Lyons—Eva Davis of Lebanon is a house-guest of Miss Mildred Berry

GOOD PROGRAM GIVEN FRIDAY BY BETHEL CLUB

Bethel—Bethel community club enjoyed an evening of uproarious fun last Friday night. A full house greeted the Haywire orchestra of Salem with Rufe White, Frank Zinn, Dr. Woodmansee and Ralph Wagers. Their program was a combination of hilarious fun and enjoyable music. Rufe White, the deaf old general, announced the numbers of one of the most popular programs ever heard at Bethel.

Junior Hamrick, Hilda Bahnsen, Paul and Lois Hamrick put on a one-act play. This was the first of a series required under the rules of the federation of community clubs. Kenneth Wolfe served as chairman for the evening's program.

A spelling match was held. Mrs. Carmelite Weddle gave out the words. Mrs. John Hain and John Zak were the captains. Mrs. Hains' side was winner. Mrs. J. R. Carruthers and Marie Froehlich left on the floor.

At the business meeting S. Hamrick was song leader with Helen Schulz at the piano. The program committee for February includes John Zak, J. R. Carruthers and James Lauderback. Refreshments will be in charge of Mrs. J. M. Nichols, Mrs. John Kincher and Mrs. Kenneth Wolfe. Mrs. Carruthers presided, assisted by Marie Froehlich.

Mrs. S. Hamrick and Mrs. John Zak served refreshments. The February program will include a debate, vocal and orchestra music furnished by Bethel club under the federation plan. S. Hamrick will conduct parliamentary drill.

SUNDAY EVENING CONCERTS PLANNED

Independence—The junior choir of the Methodist church gave a sacred song service Sunday evening. There was an unusually good attendance to hear them sing in their first program. There are 16 girls in the chorus under the direction of Mrs. W. L. Taylor, who is also their Sunday school teacher.

The group plans to give a number of Sunday evening programs and have been asked to furnish the music for all Sunday evening services. Mrs. Taylor was their accompanist and Clarence Quarter played the violin. Rev. Neufeld added to the interest of the meeting by giving some of his boyhood experiences. It was announced that Mrs. Tyrrell would speak in the Baptist church Friday evening of this week under the auspices of the W.C.T.U. She will give an illustrated talk on narcotics.

Western Residents Picnic Out Doors

Silverton—With something to write to the home folks back in the Dakotas about, a group of former mid-westerners met at the Hazel Green park Sunday afternoon and had an out-of-door picnic. The day was comfortably warm and the youngsters played games among the trees of the grove. The occasion was the birthday anniversary of Herman Naegeli. The group went from the Trinity Lutheran church services and had dinner at 2 o'clock.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Naegeli, Agnes, Lloyd and Howard Naegeli, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Naegeli, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holm, Deores and Guereene Moon and Marion Walker.

Salem Heights—Leroy Reinhard, a fourth grade pupil who recently underwent an emergency operation for appendicitis, is recovering satisfactorily.

Salem Heights—Miles Autter of Salem Heights, who has been ill in a Portland hospital since December 26, returned home recently somewhat improved.

A Home Owned Theater HOLLYWOOD

LAST TIMES TODAY Those "State Fair" Sweethearts

WHEN A MILLION-HEIRESS TAKES A FLING AT SERVANT LIFE... THERE'S LAUGHTER AND LOVE A-PLENTY!

Janet GAYNOR with May ROBSON MARY CARLISLE FRED MacMURRAY ALAN HALE AND FEATURE No. 2 "Operator 13" Marion Davies Gary Cooper Mills Brothers with NED SPARKS WALTER CONNOLLY G P HUNTLEY, JR

Amateurs Offered Classes In Radio

Albany, Or.—Starting of a new SERA class in long and short wave radio receiving set construction, and in the international telegraph code was announced yesterday by the chairman of the Linn county SERA educational board. The class opened Monday under the tutorage of D. D. Austin, who has long been engaged in amateur radio work. He maintains a short wave amateur station whose call is W7AWI. The classes are to meet Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday from 7 to 9 p. m.

STUDENTS TO ATTEND STATE SESSION SOON

Sheridan—Sheridan high school will send a large group of students to the state-wide forensic meet sponsored by Linfield college at McMinnville February 1 and 2. The number entering will be large this year, as this meet is popular among high schools, drawing contestants from 35 schools last year and is expected to be larger than ever this season.

Contests will enter in debate, extemporaneous speaking, oratory, and declamation. Ruth Asbury, who won second in declamation last year, will again represent Sheridan high. Winners in the Linfield meet will later meet a group from Washington state.

Sheridan's debaters include four seniors, one junior, two sophomores, and two freshmen. The four seniors, Eva Rhodes, Darrell Syron, Arlene Barber and James Wilmarth are of varied ability. Eva Rhodes and Darrell being in last year's tournament and winning all their debates, Arlene and James being inexperienced except in interclass and county debates. James will be only an alternate on Sheridan's B team. Betty Friok of the junior class was an alternate at Linfield last year and has been in class and county this year. Janice Johnson and Helen Sechrist have been selected from the sophomore ranks because of winning over their own classmates and over freshmen champs. They met Betty and Arlene in a P. T. A. debate Monday evening. Lynn Lady and Virginia Hillway have been selected from the freshmen class because of their debates within their own class.

Darrell Syron and Lloyd Blair, who represented Sheridan in oratory last year, will both enter this season. They are seniors. Ralph Magnuson and James Wilmarth will enter in extemporaneous speaking. Ralph made finals last year. Ruth Asbury, Arlene Barber and Marjorie Brown will enter in dramatic declamation. Mildred Anne Graves, Althea Hise, Henrietta Hankle, Maxine Churchman, Leola Frost, will represent their school in humorous declamation. Of these only Arlene, Ruth and Henrietta entered last year. Ruth and Arlene being in the finals and Ruth winning second in the finals.

The occasion is one of the outstanding ones of the year and stands in importance rivalling the county Linfield high school tournament in May. Students go in the morning and remain all day, returning in the evening, only to return for a second day. On Saturday large numbers not in the meet will attend.

ILLNESS PREVALENT

Salem Heights—Several cases of whooping cough and some of measles and chickenpox have been the cause of a large number of pupils being absent in the first four grades.

Capitol Theatre advertisement: Tonite and Wednesday TWO FEATURES. She lit the fuse That fired the bomb That blew the lid of Avondale!

The grand old star of "Lady for a Day" in the story of a fighting school teacher!

500 Seats 15c

Grand Old Girl

Robson with MARY CARLISLE FRED MacMURRAY ALAN HALE AND FEATURE No. 2 "Operator 13" Marion Davies Gary Cooper Mills Brothers

COMMITTEES OF FARMERS UNION NAMED FOR YEAR

Talbot—A large number of members, including about 29 from the Marion local, attended the Sidney Talbot Farmers' Union meeting at the Talbot schoolhouse.

D. E. Blinston, president, presided at the business meeting. Jake Gilmore acted as conductor and Homer Smith of the Marion local led the song service. Mrs. Ross Gilmore of the legislative committee gave a report and orders were taken by the secretary, Keith Allen, for land plaster. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Colgan were taken into the local as new members. Several members from the Marion local gave reports concerning the work done in their local.

Committees appointed for the year are: Relief, Mrs. D. E. Blinston and Mrs. George Marlett; gas and oil, C. F. Meier, D. E. Turndize, Wm. Wedekehr and Raymond Colgan; purchasing, Jake Gilmore; livestock, George Marlett, Gilbert Belknap, John Zehner and O. A. Coomes; dairy, Delmer Davidson, A. E. Cole and Max Van Buskirk; exchange, Jake Gilmore; good of the order, D. E. Turndize, Mrs. Helene Allen and Mrs. Addie Davidson; reception, Mrs. Gilbert Belknap, Mrs. Ray Colgan and Mrs. George Potts; laundry, Mrs. Helene Allen; music, Mrs. Eugene Finlay, Mrs. D. E. Turndize, Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Gilmore; legislative, Eugene Finlay, Mrs. Gilmore and George W. Potts; real estate, E. C. Hart and William Finlay.

Following the penny drill the members present from Marion presented the following program: Reading, George Miller; skit, "Mrs. Peabody's Song," reading, Emil Sherman; song, Helen and Jim Wilson accompanied by Mrs. Wilson; duet, Mrs. Homer Smith and Mrs. Jim Wilson; amusing anecdotes by members of Marion local.

At the close of the evening refreshments were served by the committee.

Tuckers Entertain At Evening Affair

Silverton—Ray and Glenn Tucker were hosts to a group of young friends Friday evening, at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Layton Tucker, on Jersey street. Games, dancing, singing and supper were the pleasures of the evening. The guests were Eleanor and Opal Bolme, Maxine Oeder, Iva and Marjorie Weatherill, Cheryl Sypher, Maurice and Dean Stamey, Harvey Kennedy, Virgil Canoy and Weston Smith.

Lynn W. Nesmith Is Recovering

Rickreall—H. R. Irish, logging superintendent of the Silver Falls Timber company, is reported improving satisfactorily from the effect of a major operation performed at the Pacific Christian hospital at Eugene recently. Mrs. Irish returned to her home here from Eugene, the latter part of the week.

IRISH IS BETTER

Silverton—H. R. Irish, logging superintendent of the Silver Falls Timber company, is reported improving satisfactorily from the effect of a major operation performed at the Pacific Christian hospital at Eugene recently. Mrs. Irish returned to her home here from Eugene, the latter part of the week.

Bridge Is Played At Scharbach Home

Mt. Angel—Bridge was played at the home of Mrs. Emil P. Scharbach, who entertained a number of friends. Two tables of cards were in play during the evening, at the close of which luncheon was served by the hostess. High score honors were awarded to Mrs. Robert J. Welton and Mrs. Albin J. Butsch drew the door prize.

Those present included Mrs. Dave Shepherd, Mrs. Albin J. Butsch, Mrs. Robert J. Welton, Mrs. Dee Ryan, Mrs. Lawrence A. Zeis, Mrs. Fred J. Schwab, Mrs. Herman Schwab, Mrs. John Bigler and Mrs. J. M. Essen of Seattle, Wash.

UNION HILL'S GRANGE MEETS

Victor Point—The January business meeting of Union Hill Grange was held Friday night with a good attendance. A 7 o'clock supper was served by Mrs. W. R. Heister, Ronald Heister, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Humphreys and Thelma Humphreys presiding the meeting.

A number of legislative matters were discussed and the grange members voted to request Governor Martin to re-appoint Max Gehlhar as director of agriculture.

Verny Scott, chairman of the agricultural committee, gave an interesting report on the county meeting of committees held at Butteville recently and of the agricultural meeting at Salem where a program of work was made which the grange committees will carry out with the cooperation of Harry L. Riches, county agent.

At the program hour the juvenile lecturer, Lenora Heuter, presented a short program including a skit, "Betty Does Some Telemarking." Lauree Krenz and Gladys Peterson; readings, James Derry, Jr., and Donald Peters; songs, Mary Rosenthal, Marjorie Mae Tate and LeRoy Downing.

Mrs. Phillip Fischer, chairman of the Home Economics club, announced that the club would sponsor a hard times dance at the grange hall February 9, arrangements for which will be in charge of Mrs. M. M. Gilmore, Mrs. Floyd Fox and Mrs. J. S. Steinberger.

The February card party of a series given by the club will be held February 2 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Gilmore. The next club meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Verny Scott with Mrs. Bernice Peterson associate hostess.

As a part of the visitation program carried on throughout the county, Macley Grange will visit Union Hill February 15, and this grange will visit at Silverton February 22. In each instance the visitors will have charge of the business meeting and program.

Represent League

Lyons—Representatives from the Lyons Epworth league to attend the convention held in Salem Friday and Saturday were Jo Ann Crabtree, Lucille Lewis, Constance Bodeker, Dorothy Lyon, Pauline Clippell, Lee Perkins, Rex Julian, Walter Lyon and Shirley Bass. Mrs. George Clippell went as chaperone. Each gave an interesting report at the league meeting Sunday night.

MAKE HIGH GRADES

Salem Heights—Those receiving 100 per cent in the county spelling test given recently in the Salem Heights school were Mary Skelton, eighth grade; Patrick Ryan, seventh grade; Raymond Deems, Dorrelle Washburn and Wilma Gorton, third grade pupils.

HOME REBEKAH LODGE VISITED AT WOODBURN

Woodburn—Mrs. Grace Christenson of Portland, president of the Rebekah Assembly, paid her official visit to Home Rebekah lodge at a special meeting held in the I.O.O.F. hall Friday night. Visitors numbering 31 were present from Hubbard, Gervais, Salem, Silverton, Needy and Monitor. The total attendance was 73.

The lodge hall was beautifully decorated with pussy willows and greenery and the work was exemplified by the new officers with Miss Nona Ojien presiding. The officers were highly complimented by Mrs. Christenson on their work.

Talks were given by the president and a number of visitors, including Robert Henderson of Chemawa, past grand representative. Refreshments were served in the dining room where the tables were decorated in pink and green, the colors of the order, pussy willows and tapers. In charge of the serving were Mrs. Nina Ringo, Mrs. Mae Otjen, Mrs. Myrtle Hall, Mrs. Gladys McClure, Mrs. Cora Taylor and Miss Mabel Jackson. A gift was presented to Mrs. Christenson by Mrs. Beulah Lessard in behalf of the lodge.

Mrs. Cora Taylor, who is leaving soon for Aberdeen, to make her home, was also presented with a gift in appreciation of her work in the lodge. The presentation was made by Mrs. Corrie Finch. Through the efforts of Mrs. Taylor a new equipment of regalia was secured when the property was destroyed by fire two years ago.

MONMOUTH CLASSES FALL BY WAYSIDE

Monmouth—The SERA class of several Monmouth women organized recently failed to continue for lack of interest. A division of choice of studies included preferences for gym work, public speaking, psychology and social problems, comprising on the last named subject. The evening selected for the second session turned out to be stormy and only the instructor appeared.

Monmouth is entitled to two classes and two instructors, and to function six hours a week if the instructor draws full pay. This may consist of three nights a week of two hours each or two nights with three hours. Laird Kaup, one of Polk county's unemployed teachers, was instrumental in getting the move started. He came well informed to answer questions concerning the project.

LOGGES BUY SIGN

Stayton—A new neon sign recently installed at the front of the lodge hall is hooked up in such a manner that it indicates whether the Masons, Eastern Star, Odd Fellows or Rebekahs are meeting. A smaller neon sign similarly arranged is just inside the downstairs entrance to the building.

Work Upon Well Starts Feb. 1st

Silverton—Erlin L. McCleary, superintendent of the Silverton water commission, announced that the work on the city well will begin February 1. The well was deepened upon, several months ago, to take the place of the auxiliary water supply formerly brought to the city by way of Silver creek. The main supply is from the Abiquia intake and is still in operation.

PASTOR GUEST CHURCH SUPPER

Sheridan—Honoring Rev. W. C. Morrow of the local Methodist church over 80 of the congregation surprised him on Thursday evening with a pot-luck supper at 6:30 o'clock in the church parlors. Tables were loaded and the heartiest good fellowship prevailed. The ladies of the church in charge of Mrs. R. C. Field and Mrs. Henry Sundberg and Mrs. Leland R. Sackett managed the supper. Rev. Morrow offered thanks and "Praise God from whom all blessings flow" was sung before being seated. After the supper Henry Frank presided over a short program of speeches. Mr. Frank, who has been teacher of the Bible class in church school for a long period of time, briefly reviewed the progress made under Mr. Morrow's pastorate of a year and a half and wished him in behalf of the church people abundant success in his new field of labor. Leland R. Sackett, superintendent of the church school responded when called upon by the chairman, Mr. Morrow responded, stressing his pleasure at having served the church and the community and at the outlook for his new work in Illinois—a work in which he has always had the keenest interest. Mrs. Morrow graciously responded and made the people feel she was still to be one of them until June when she would join Mr. Morrow. A social time followed, in which everyone individually wished Mr. Morrow "God Speed."

Mr. Morrow left on Friday for Eugene where he would visit during the day with his son, and from there he would go direct to Chicago where he will receive the plans for his work as a district superintendent in the anti-saloon league in Illinois. His district will embrace four congressional districts in southern Illinois with a population of 800,000.

Rev. William S. Burkyome of Creswell has been appointed by the Bishop of the Methodist church of Oregon to fill the Sheridan church and he will arrive with his family in time to occupy the pulpit February the third.

Mrs. Morrow and son Merritt, who is a senior in Sheridan high school, will remain in the city until commencement exercises are over in June.

Rev. Terry of Willamina occupied the Sheridan pulpit Sunday, both morning and evening.

Lyons—Lewis Trask went to Stakes Saturday morning where he will visit for a week with his son and family.

ELSNORE LAST TIMES TODAY

Bing Crosby in "Here Is My Heart"

TOMORROW AND THURSDAY

Again the author of "Of Human Bondage"

Tells another startling story of a strange love

"THE RIGHT TO LIVE"

By W. SOMERSET MAUGHAM Starring JOSEPHINE HUTCHINSON • GEORGE BRENT

Grand Old Girl

500 Seats 15c

She lit the fuse That fired the bomb That blew the lid of Avondale!

The grand old star of "Lady for a Day" in the story of a fighting school teacher!

Robson with MARY CARLISLE FRED MacMURRAY ALAN HALE

AND FEATURE No. 2 "Operator 13" Marion Davies Gary Cooper Mills Brothers

AYRES Servants' Entrance

with NED SPARKS WALTER CONNOLLY G P HUNTLEY, JR

STATE THEATRE

Now! For the First Time Since "Back Street"

TOGETHER AGAIN!

in Edith Wharton's world-loved story of a rebel heart in our world of hypocrisy.

IRENE DUNNE

JOHN BOLES

With LIONEL ATWILL Helen Westley Laura Hope Crews Julie Haydon

"The AGE OF INNOCENCE"

—ADDED— OUR GANG — "WILD POSES" Plus Pathé News of Today

Starts Sunday, "THE GAY DIVORCEE"

BREAKING ALL RECORDS

Held Over Again! Capacity Crowds Acclaim It Rogers' Best

HE'LL WIN YOUR VOTE ON THE LAFF TICKET

WILL ROGERS

in THE COUNTY CHAIRMAN

with EVELYN VENABLE LOUISE DRESSER MICKY ROONEY BERTON CHURCHILL

An old war horse who threw a monkey wrench in a political machine!

Buster KEATON in "Falooka from Paducah"

POSITIVELY ENDS FRIDAY!

SALEM GRAND