Visitors In Capital At Luncheon

Mrs. Oliver C. Locke presided at a smartly arranged luncheon today in her South Church street residence in compliment to the members of her contract club and several additional guests. The attractively appointed table was centered with a French bouquet.

Covers were placed for Representative Nanny Wood Honeyman and Mrs. Estes Snedecor, both of Portland, Mrs. John Goss of Marshfield, Mrs. Lowell Kern, Mrs. T. A. Livesley and Mrs. Victor R. Griggs, additional guests, and Mrs. Henry W. Meyers, Mrs. George F. Rodgers, Mrs. Clarence W. Keene of Silverton and the hostess, Mrs. O. C. Locke.

Estes Snedecor Discusses Problems

Estes Snedecor, former president of Rotary International, spoke to Women of Rotary at luncheon Monday in the Tea House. Legislative problems were discussed and interesting highlights of the present and past sessions of legislature were given. Later Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist, accompanied by Mrs. Ted Gordon, sang for the pleasure of the group.

Mrs. H. A. Gwynn Hostess To Club

The Jolly Dozen club met with Mrs. H. A. Gwynn Thursday afternoon for a social gathering. Refreshments were served late in the afternoon by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Robert Newburgh.

Members present were Mrs. E. S. Adams, Mrs. Gus Keuscher, Mrs. Leslie Keuscher, Mrs. Jim Ramey, Mrs. George Bressler, Mrs. Irvin Hochstetler, Mrs. Jim Clark, Mrs. R. S. Van Pelt, Mrs. J. J. Wiens and Mrs. H. A. Gwynn.

Salem Maids Motor To Silverton

A group of Salem maids motored to Silverton last night to attend a smartly arranged party given by Miss Edna and Miss Lella Stortz. Following several hours of bridge a late supper was served. The Valentine motif was used.

Those motoring over for the affair were the Misses Maurine Carmichael, Ideella McAdams, Loleta Skipper, Mabel Harrington, Ramona Estudillo and Delpha Savage. The Misses Althea Meyer, Luella Ford and Inga Goplerud were special guests.

The Women's Catholic Order of Foresters will meet for a covered dish dinner Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Joe Domogalla, 955 Union street. A business meeting and social hour will follow dinner.

Marion auxiliary, V.P.W., and Post will sponsor Mrs. Martha Flier Hrubetz as princess for the Fun Festival to be held at Newport Beach July 3 to 10 in conjunction with the state convention.

Cards are out for a "Book Chat" to be given Thursday evening at the Tea House by Miss Harriet Long. The affair will start at 8 o'clock.

President's Ball Evinces Interest Of Young And Old

SMART-SETTERS will circle the floor at the armory tomorrow night, the occasion being the second President's ball to be held in Salem. The balconies will be crowded with spectators who do not care to dance. Dress for the affair is to be optional. The Salem dance is being sponsored by the Cherrians this year and will be one of the smartest affairs to be held in the capital this season.

Boots Grant's orchestra will play and Kenneth Allen will vocalize. Seventy per cent of the proceeds will remain in the immediate geographical area to rehabilitate victims of infantile paralysis. A permanent finance committee, including T. A. Livesley, Mrs. David Wright and Henry V. Compton, has been appointed to take charge of the finances and to investigate all cases which come before the committee. The other 30 per cent of

Impressive Vows Said In East

Woodburn—Announcements have been received of the marriage of Miss Jessie Lenora Sims, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Sims, to Neal Butterfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Butterfield, which was solemnized at New Brunswick, New Jersey, January 26.

The double ring ceremony took place at 8 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church of New Brunswick with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Adams of Parlin, New Jersey, sister and brother-in-law of the bride, as attendants.

The bride wore an attractive frock of Copenhagen blue, made in tunic effect with gold trimming. Her corsage was of Tallman roses and maidenhair fern. Mrs. Adams also wore blue with a matching corsage.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Woodburn high school and their romance dates from grade school days. Mrs. Butterfield graduated in 1931 and attended Oregon State college three years. Mr. Butterfield graduated from Woodburn high in 1929, from Oregon State college, department of landscape architecture in 1933 and from Amherst in 1934. Since his graduation he has been employed at Long Island, New York, as government propagator, but is being transferred February 1 to the National Park bureau at Washington, D. C. The young couple are well known in Woodburn and have many friends. They will make their home in Washington.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mitchell Thursday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Mitchell and daughter, Glen Dora, Mrs. Kenneth Hutcheon, Miss Ellen Ritchey of Salem and Grace Weinman of Waconda.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kinzer are being congratulated upon the birth of a daughter Sunday morning. The little girl has been named Sharon Lyllis.

Bethel—Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Freeman and Glenn Freeman of Dayton, and their fathers, M. Freeman and H. Lank, of Yegreville, Alberta, Canada, spent Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Caruthers.

Birthday Party For Janet Kirk

A group of Salem's future beaux and belles were bidden to a gay party Sunday by Mrs. Walter Kirk in compliment to the eighth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Miss Janet. The group made up a line party at the Elstons and adjourned to the Kirk home for tea. Little Miss Sharon Claire Hamilton and Master Tommy Macdonald were additional guests at the tea hour.

The serving table was decorated in the pink and white motif and a candle-light birthday cake centered the table. Those bidden to greet Miss Janet on her birthday were Suzanne Small, Edith Moxley, Madeline Keene, Patsy Varley, Ruth Anderson, Barbara Upjohn, Merriem Becke, Billy Poorman and Ronald Jones, Jr.

Sisters Sponsor Card Benefit

The Sisters of the Holy Names will sponsor a benefit card party Thursday evening, January 31, at 8 o'clock in the St. Vincent de Paul parish hall. In addition to "500" and bridge, dancing will be enjoyed later in the evening. The affair is being arranged by the Holy Names society, with R. Heine as chairman. He is being assisted by society members.

Scholarship Loan Tea on Wednesday

One of the most charming events of the winter will be the annual scholarship loan tea sponsored by the Salem Woman's club at the clubhouse tomorrow afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock.

All women in the city and neighboring towns, as well as members of the legislative crowd are invited to attend. Proceeds from the affair will go to the State Federation's educational fund and will assist girls in receiving college educations. Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead will head the committee on arrangements.

In the receiving line will be Mrs. Mark McCallister, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Rep. Hannah Martin and Mrs. David Wright. Assisting about the rooms will be Mrs. John L. Rand, Mrs. Percy R. Kelly, Mrs. Clifton Mudd, Mrs. L. H. McMahon, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding and Mrs. D. C. Minto. The yellow theme will be carried out in the appointments of the tea table. Daffodils and freesias, guarded by tall tapers, will center the table where Mrs. Silas Gaiser, Mrs. George Rossman, Mrs. Earl Snell and Mrs. V. E. Kuhn will alternate during the afternoon.

Those who heard Bernice Clair sing in the MacDowell club program in the capital in October will be interested to learn that she will appear over KOIN this evening at 8:30 o'clock in a nation-wide radio-cast.

The V.F.W. auxiliary will meet for an afternoon of sewing Thursday at the home of Mrs. E. J. Dietz on River road at 1:30 o'clock.

The Unitarian Woman's Alliance will meet at the home of Mrs. Fred Alban Well, 1610 Court street, on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. February birthdays will be observed at that time.

Waconda—Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weinman of Waconda were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hall and daughter, Lucille, of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Elliot and Richard Hall of Merna, Neb., Mrs. N. P. Vineyard and son, Charley, of Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mitchell and daughter, Patricia Jean, Grace Weinman and Roger Weinman of Salem.

Leslie P. T. A. Enjoy Open House

"Open house" was held at Leslie junior high school for the Parent-Teacher association last night. The program following the brief business session included:

Reading, Mrs. Leon Brown; talk, Mrs. LaMoine R. Clark, principal; selections by boys' quartet, directed by Lloyd Swanson, consisting of Tom Rilea, Leslie Oliver, Wesley McWain and Willard Grant with Bill Forge at the piano; talk by Rowena Upjohn, student body president, and introduction of student body officers, who include, in addition:

Vice president, Lester Summers; secretary, Barbara Crain; treasurer, June Earl; yell leader, Bob King; sergeant-at-arms, Herbert Hunt; song leader, Marjorie McCallister; entertainment by Al Mayo with Mrs. Earl Peary, piano accompanist, and Ralph Kietzing, announcer.

INVISIBLE personal HYGIENE

Sorry, clinging, revealing gowns—dictated by today's fashion—make imperative an exacting toiletry unknown a few years ago. Wix is a scientifically designed absorbent tampon, which is utterly invisible, even with a bathing suit, yet affords the most complete sanitary protection. No belts! No pins! No bulging pads! Wix stops chafing, eliminates odors. Compact, easily disposed of. Your doctor will approve of Wix. A product of The Wix Company, Minneapolis, Minn.
