UPPER CLASS PLAY REHEARSALS START

Dallas—Rehearsals are being speeded up for the annual senior class play which will be given on the night of February 15, according to Miss Hazel Henry, dramatic coach. Due to the fact that the three-act play chosen this year is slightly shorter than usual, a one-act playlet will also be produced.

The cast for the play, "The Next Best Man," is as follows:

Bernice Ellis, Mrs. Upjohn; Albert Klassen, Robert (Speedy) Pace; Betty Grider, Emma Jane Upjohn; Frank Guy, James (Rock) Stockton; Myra Starbuck, Miriam Upjohn; Howard Campbell, Reginald Vandervort Riggs; Zaneta Reiner, Constance Bliss; Joe Guthrie, Joseph Brady.

The cast for the playlet is: Stanley Turrel, John, the husband; Virginia Brown, Isabel, the wife; Willard Petre, George, the son; Marguerite Weigant, Winifred, the daughter; Helen Eile, Edna, the small daughter.

Both offerings are cast along comedy lines with numerous amusing situations cropping up constantly. Miss Henry has taken pains to provide a well balanced cast for both productions and believes that the audience will be well repaid for their attendance.

Bladorns Are Hosts For Birthday Party

Woodburn—The birthday of Mrs. Robert Chaffield (Hazel Blitney), of Portland, was the motif for a surprise party which was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Bladorn in Woodburn Saturday night. Five tables of "500" were in play during the evening with honors for high score going to Mrs. Chaffield and E. A. Mayhew and for low score to Mrs. Howard Nelson and Henry French of Newberg. Refreshments were served.

Worthington and children, Elaine Jessie, June, A. G. Paul and Dale, Mr. and Mrs. John Honey and son Lester, all of Zena, and the family of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith.

Spoons and Dishes Will Be Purchased

Wacoona—The school exhibit and program given at the Wacoona school house was well attended. The doors were open at 7 o'clock to the public. Besides the school work and art display, the 4-H "Pep Club" had an excellent sewing display. At 8 o'clock a program was presented by the Barry clan of Salem and Shaw. Following the program a fish pond and baby show was enjoyed. The ice cream and hot-dog stand netted a nice sum for school dishes and spoons.

HOWELL GRANGE OFFERS SOCIAL

North Howell—The North Howell Grange social night was a big success and well attended. Readings, songs, narratives and piano music were furnished by those present. Caroline and Dorothy Bump's old style school costumes were very clever and much enjoyed. After the program old-time games led by Mary Smith and Margaret Wood, and three tables of "500" were played. The paper sack lunch was declared a big treat.

The home economic club will meet at the home of Daisy Bump February 7 for an all-day meeting with a pot-luck lunch. The quilt committee, Florence Oddie, Mina McIlwain and Anna Dunn will have the new quilt to be worked on. It is hoped to have some one present to give a garden talk.

Anna Dunn had a flower garden quilt in the frames last week and the many friends and neighbors spent the afternoon at her home quilting. Refreshments were served to 20 on Thursday. Names of all persons quilting is embroidered on the back of the quilt and these quilts will be much treasured by the owners.

Many families in this community have the flu, Alan Webster was ill last week but hoped to be able to return to the University of Oregon Sunday. Martha Vinton, Ephraim, Luigi Wilkner and Alfred Cline were all quite ill but much improved.

WEEK DAY BIBLE SCHOOL LAUNCHED

Monmouth—The first session of the week-day bible school was held with an enrollment of 41. This number increased to 66 the second week. The course planned by Miss Finley for each of the grades three to six, is the same as that she is using in the McMinnville schools, where she has this year a 100 per cent enrollment. The course includes a study of the subject matter of the Bible without any denominational interpretation, the memorization of many of the finest Bible passages, a study of the stories of the old standard hymns of the church and of famous religious masterpieces of art.

As a first project the children are given the opportunity to earn a copy of the New Testament through their memory work and by reading various books and chapters of the Bible.

Methodist Episcopal Choir Entertained

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Currie opened their home in the country to the members of the Methodist Episcopal church adult choir Monday evening. After the practice hour games were played informally and a no-host supper was served. Mrs. P. J. Roubal is directing the choir through the winter months.

Hazel Green—Rev. John Wortman, United Brethren pastor, had charge of Friday evening's services at the Englewood United Brethren church in Salem where special evangelistic services are being held following the dedication of the new church. The services will continue this week under the leadership of Rev. Sylvester Sanford, evangelist of Galesburg, Ill.

Wednesday night following the regular Bible study class meeting the pastor has called a gathering of the executives of the Sunday school and the official board of the church. Several urgent business matters are to be discussed and all officers are urged to attend.

The Women's Missionary society will hold its February meeting at the Guy Looney home with Mrs. Looney and Mrs. John Wortman as hostesses. The Otterbein Guild will hold the February meeting at the parsonage with Mrs. Wortman as hostess. Both groups will be discussing the annual Thanksgiving meeting at which time the gift boxes will be presented and opened by the Thanksgiving secretaries who will preside as leaders of the meetings.
