Splendid Concert Given

Miss Hortense Taylor, violinist, was presented in junior recital last night at Waller hall by the Willamette university school of music and Miss Mary Schultz, her instructor. The young artist gave a splendid performance, showing fine feeling for tonal beauty and adequate technique for the difficult program.

The first movement of Mozart's Concerto No. 3, G Minor, was done with a charming melodious lilt, dainty in rendition. Her offering of the Handel-Auer Sonata in D Major was poignantly classic in its violinist shows complete mastery.

Perhaps the most comprehensive technical difficulties were encountered and mastered in the Wieniawski Scherzo-Tarantelle. The legato passages were beautiful. The tones vibrant with emotion. The performer has true musicianship and poise. A credit to her instructor and the Willamette Music school.

Maurice Dean, baritone, was the assisting artist and won fine acclaim for his ribbon-smooth voice. Clara Wright was as always, an able accompanist.
