Miss Judson To Marry Jack Kuhn

The church in St. Paul's Episcopal chapel will be the scene of a charming ceremony at 3 o'clock Saturday evening when Miss Mildred Judson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Judson, becomes the bride of Jack K. Kuhn, son of George and Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Rev. Mayor H. Swift, rector of St. Paul's, will read the impressive service in the presence of the two immediate families and a group of intimate friends.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Harry Judson will sing, Mr. Judson will play the wedding marches.

The bride will wear a smart model of Santa Anita blue, fashioned in tunic style. She will wear a matching hat and a corsage of roses. There will be no attendants.

After a short wedding trip the couple will reside at 695 North 5th street.

Miss Judson attended Salem schools and is popular in the younger set. Mr. Kuhn is a graduate of Oregon State college and a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

SPRING PRINTS

It's Time to Get Going . . . . On Your Spring Sewing!

• Pure Dye Silks • Acetates • Rayons • Cottons—All Are Here in Fashion's Most Desirable Prints!

It is Spring Sewing Time . . . and again, we admonish our customers to "get going on their sewing" for fear they wait too long and miss some of the season's grandest "buys" in these gorgeous Spring prints.

A dressy dress for the dinner hour fashioned from the new high-lighted floral prints — street frocks of darker shades with variety of small designs printed in bright colors—pure dye silk crepes in smart patterns a la Mallinson—then, too, plain crepes are getting extremely rough these days, and you must see these new Matelasse crepes featured in the newest shades of the new season.

And what about cotton? Cottons, cottons everywhere. Cottons for daytime—cottons for gaytime. And, if you wish cottons with a lot of authority as to style, just lie yourself to Miller's tomorrow and look to your heart's content.

Sewing week begins in earnest Friday morning. It is the week of the best selections in Silks . . . Rayons . . . Acetates . . . Cottons . . . Trimmings . . . and everything you'll need to start "GOING ON YOUR SEWING."
