Community Club at Keene Home

Shaw—The Women's Community club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Keene. A short business meeting was held. It was decided to meet the next time at the home of Mrs. Jas. Sherman. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in different kinds of needlework and social conversation. Late in the afternoon lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Keene.

Those present were Mrs. Elton Brownell, Mrs. Jos. Perry, Mrs. Ed. Amort, Mrs. Wm. Berg, Mrs. John Amort, Mrs. Ed. Gilbert, Mrs. Mary Goffin, Mrs. Joseph Sherman, Mrs. Fred Gilbert, Mrs. Clara McCormick, Mrs. Emelia Schmidt, Helen Sherman and Mrs. Lloyd Keene.

Planning and launching projects for improvement of conditions in their communities will be the major activity of the American Legion auxiliary's 8,500 local units during March, according to Mrs. A. H. Wilson, chairman of the community service committee of Capital unit of the auxiliary here. Hundreds of different types of projects will be undertaken by auxiliary units this year, she predicted.

Aid to public libraries, begun with important results last year, will be the project chosen by many auxiliary units this year.

The objectives of the auxiliary's library program, as outlined by Mrs. J. Allison Hardy, of Columbus, Miss., national chairman, are: first, establishing community libraries; second, making existing libraries more efficient by providing more and better books, extending activities to more people, and making better use of equipment already possessed; and third, making the public library minded.

A new community service project of the auxiliary this year is a constructive campaign for better motion pictures for children.

The month of March is listed as Community Service month in the American Legion auxiliary calendar of activities.

Members and friends of the Three Link club met in the Odd Fellows hall Friday afternoon for their regular meeting, which was arranged by Ida Steele. Myrtle Bechtel and Sarah Oliver. Billy Johnson gave vocal selections, accompanied by Guinevere Wood. Humorous readings were given by Ramona Reasoner and piano selections by Alena Bremner. Refreshments were served. The tables were decorated with spring flowers. The committee included Josephine Erikson, Eva Keene and Sarah Harter.

The Christian Endeavors of Marion and Polk counties are looking forward with much pleasure to a skating party at Dreamland rink next Friday. The hours are from 7:30 to 10:30 o'clock. A large crowd and much fun is anticipated. Howard Cole is president of the Marion county group and Victor Utterback presides over Polk county.

Leslie P. T. A. Plans Jitney Dinner

The executive committee of the Leslie Junior high school Parent-Teacher association met at the Y M. C. A. Tuesday evening to discuss various plans for the organization. The annual jitney dinner sponsored by the P. T. A. will be held on March 25 with Mrs. Newell Williams and her committee making arrangements. They will choose their assistants.

A short business meeting will follow the dinner in order that the nominating committee, composed of Mrs. O. L. Scott, chairman, Miss Bertha Magnus, and Dr. F. L. Utter, may make their report. Election of officers will be held at the April meeting.

An interesting program is being arranged by the program committee and will be announced later.

Beta Chi Mothers at Chapter House

The Beta Chi Mothers' club met at the State street chapter house Tuesday afternoon for an interesting meeting. Miss Dorothy Keeton gave several readings and Miss Iva Bennett presented piano solos. Tea was served in the late afternoon by the hostess committee which included Mrs. R. C. Aiken, Mrs. D. A. Hodge, Mrs. Frank Power, Mrs. F. E. Delong and Mrs. E. A. Kenney. Others present were Mrs. H. Lyons—Miss Theresa Lyons spent the week-end in Salem with her brothers, Cyril and Jerome.

West Salem—Louie Beinel of North Dakota who has been spending a few months in Salem and vicinity with relatives and friends, was the honor guest at a farewell dinner Sunday at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Max Gehlhar. Beinel left Salem Monday evening for his home. He will stop in Morris, Minn., for a visit with a sister and later will go on to his home with the Otto Gehlhars in Dakota.

Announce Cast For Annual Play

Silverton—The young women of the Junior Woman's club announced the cast of characters for their annual play, Monday evening, at the regular session at the Richard F. Larson home with Mrs. Ralph Larson presiding.

During the social hour Miss Eleanor Jane Ballantyne, who is in Idaho working as press correspondent, was remembered by a shower gift of handkerchiefs. A miscellaneous group of articles was also given for the youngsters at the Children's Farm home at Corvallis. The next session will be a social affair with Cella Hannan and Ethel Wigle as hostesses, and each member given the privilege of bringing a guest.

The play will be "The Arrival of Kitty" by Norman Le Swartout. Character parts will be taken by Norman Eastman as Mr. Winkler; Max Lindholm as Bobby Baxter; Guy W. Delay as Benjamin Moore; Ralph Larson as Zing; Gertrude Chrysler as Aunt Jane; Olga Green as Jane; Mrs. Elbert DeGuire as Suzette; Walter Claus as Sam; Mrs. Ralph Larson in the title role of Kitty.

The committee for the business management of the play will be appointed at the next meeting.

The play will be produced April 12 at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Altrusans Evince Interest in Opera

Members of the Salem Altrusa club will be interested in opera this week beyond their interest in the music, because a member of the Green Bay, Wis., club, Miss Lucille Meusel, is singing leads this season with the San Carlo company, which is appearing in Portland.

Under a San Francisco date line last week glowing praise was expressed for this talented Altrusan. Miss Mildred I. Conroy, president of the Portland club, and her board are arranging to entertain for their distinguished visitor during her stay in Portland, and a line party is planned for one of the operas in which she sings.

Capital Assembly, United Artists, will hold open house Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the Fraternal temple. A program will be followed by dancing.

The West Side circle of the Jason Lee church will meet at the church Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock for a silver tea and St. Patrick's program.
