Preliminary to his main talk, Principal Turner gave a resume of the effects of the recently adjourned state legislature's action on educational matters. The only bill introduced, which would have worked disadvantageously locally, was defeated, said the speaker, and bills passed pertaining to education will have a beneficial effect in this community.

A male quartet of voices from the Normal school appeared and gave two selections.

While the weather is cold the boys are making track equipment, smoothing the track and taking a few laps daily, under the coaching of J. S. Johnson, instructor of agriculture at the high school.

The newcomers have been so enthusiastic about the schools that the two meetings suggested are now definitely scheduled.

The subject for the first meeting will be "The Commercial and Home Vegetable Garden," to be discussed by Prof. A. G. B. Bouquet, of the state college.

Cougar Killed Near Cascadia

Albany, Ore., March 21 — J. H. Keeney, cougar hunter from Philomath brought to Albany his second kill of the year, a large female cougar which he shot Tuesday after he had tramped the animal miles through the snow near Cascadia. With the cougar Keeney brought in two bobcat pelts, bringing the total income from his hunt to $34. Keeney had intended to prolong his hunt but the deep snowfall in the foothills near Cascadia routed him out, he stated.

A number of cougars have been killed this year in the Cascade foothills as the snow in the mountains had brought the felines down the slopes where they had marauded ranchers stocks of sheep, cattle and other farm animals.

HOGG SERVING AS PRESIDENT AS PRESIDENT SECOND TERM

Dallas—Ronald Hogg will again serve the Polk county corn-hog control association as president with L. F. McKee of Perrydale as vice president. The board of directors met in the courthouse and organized, adopted a budget and laid plans for carrying on the year's business.

Saturday was the closing date for the sign-up of 1935 applications. According to J. R. Beck, who was elected secretary of the association, 90 per cent of the hogs represented in the 1934 association are again signed up. In almost every case the only contracts that were dropped were those representing a small number of hogs, according to the officers of the association.

L. V. Seeley, representing the Independence district, will be the third member of the county allotment committee with J. L. Palmer of Lewisville as the alternate.

Field appraisal of the 12 corn contracts was completed early this week. Listing of the applications for the state board of review is being completed and will be sent to Portland probably by the last of this week, in the opinion of the secretary.

Charles Smith, representing the state corn-hog committee, was present and told the local directors that they had conducted their business in an economical manner in 1934 and as a result the costs to the local association were among the lowest in the state. The budget for 1935 is considerably lower than the one drawn up for 1934 which should result in still further savings. In keeping with this policy of economy, Mrs. Beatrice Hehenal, secretary in the county agent's office, will serve as treasurer this year, thus eliminating travel expense for the treasurer.

LIBERATED MOUSE CAUSE OF PANIC

Macleay—With the play, "She's a Man," to start the evening off, maley grangers had another special evening at the grange hall. As long as the live mouse used remained securely tied to the furniture with string the play was as all good plays—interesting and funny—but with the parting of the mouse and string from the furniture to which it was tied, at the finish of the play, actresses on the dark stage made a scramble for higher places and women in the audience removed their feet from the floor. Those taking part in the play were Mr. and Mrs. Vernon McAllister, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Berry, Emma McAllister, Orvil Trunk and Kenneth Berry.

Other numbers on the program included songs by the play cast; harmonica and guitar numbers, Sherman, Robert and Sheldon Berry; song, Cleo and Kenneth Berry, Orvil Trunk and Emma McAllister; Hawaiian guitar numbers, by Orvil Trunk. The program was followed by an evening of dancing.

ROYAL ARCH MASON DEGREE CONFERRED

Independence—About 25 members of Multnomah chapter, R.A.M., of Salem, came to Independence Tuesday evening and conferred the Royal Arch degrees upon three candidates, J. L. Van Loan, H. W. Hagemer and Walter L. Smith. Following the conferring of the degrees refreshments were served in the dining room.

During the business meeting a petition for the Royal Arch degrees was read and the candidate elected. With the assistance and hearty cooperation of the Multnomah members, Royal Arch Masonry is taking on a decided growth during the past two or three years in Independence.

STUDENTS TO STAGE Salem Skate Party

Woodburn—The Lettermen's club of the high school is sponsoring a student body skate to be held March 22 at the Dreamland Skating ring in Salem. Tickets are now on sale by all the lettermen. Although this skate is given primarily for the students, anyone else who wishes to come may do so.

Wednesday morning a demonstration of the Victor talking machine was given in the assembly. A motion picture of the life of a pea plant was shown in connection with the machine.

The regular student body meeting was held during the activity period, but there was no business to be transacted, other than an announcement of the skate.

GRANGERS BACK COMMITTEE FOR ASSEMBLY HELP

Monmouth—At the March meeting of Monmouth grange, held in Odd Fellows hall, a motion endorsing in total all acts of the grange legislative committee in Salem was unanimously adopted.

L. I. Bursell reported he had had good success in combatting Canada thistles by cultivation. By keeping the roots cut off below ground during the summer season, he said, he had been successful in holding the weeds in check. Harrison Brant reported a similar experience while Byron Ruddle reported he had been able to smother the thistles with Alfalfa. Joseph McCune was appointed representative to a health conference in Dallas the latter part of March.

Two long tables were filled at dinner time and a number came in for the afternoon program, a feature of which was a farce comedy put on by the home economics club. Taking part in the sketch were the Madames Sockholm, Edwards, Lougghary, C. H. Parker, Graber, Herren, Scott, Swenson, Allen, Van Loan, Seeley, Calbreath, L. H. Parker, Boel and Miss Alice Butler. The plot was a burlesque on a suit for alienation of affection, Miss Butler being the wronged party and Mrs. Lougghary the aggressor. Cushions for all were provided and when the baby got sick or it was dinner time the women did not scruple to get up and depart, even if on jury duty. Mrs. Lougghary appeared effectively with an original poem, given as an introduction. Costumes added color to the sketch and the most striking of other day styles were displayed.

Vocal music for the program was furnished by a duet, Mrs. Carl Iverson and Mrs. Doris Riddell, a solo by Joseph McCurt, accompanied by Twilla Tittle, and a solo by Master Ellis Lougghed, accompanied by Ruth Seeley. Two violin solos were also presented by Mrs. Seeley, accompanied by her daughter.

LINN RESTRICTS SINGLE WORKERS

Albany—Relief work in Linn county is to be restricted to men with dependents, it was announced Tuesday by the county relief committee.

Members of the committee stated that farmers are now having difficulty in getting help, due to the preference on the part of many single men to remain in town and assist on the SERA rather than accept work out of town, even though it would pay more than the SERA.

Announcement of this policy is in conformity with the previous announcement that SERA relief will be tapered off as weather conditions improve and more jobs under civilian employers are available.

It was also revealed at the meeting that Linn county is running short of acceptable projects with which to employ SERA labor. The county has already used up its quota of road renovation projects and can get approval hereafter on new construction.

PENNANT PRIZE FROWNED UPON

Zena—A house full of spectators greeted those who furnished entertainment at the last meeting of the community club at the schoolhouse. Roy E. Barker conducted the meeting. Mrs. W. N. Crawford gave the secretary's report. The club voted against competing for the pennant prize in a contest being held by members of the Marion-Polk County Federation of Community clubs, this section being taken because this club is but two months old. Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Hunt and Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Crawford were named the committee to have charge of the April meeting.

School children opened the program with singing, accompanied by Miss Gladys Gilbert at the piano. Guitar numbers were given by Mrs. Milton Stephens, Rance Erickson and Ray Alfred; four school boys, Raymond Stephens, Sammy Barker, Dan McLaughlin and Joe Shepard gave a humorous dialog; Ralph Scott, formerly a resident here sang the theme song used in a minstrel show given here several years ago. He was accompanied by Frank Churchill of Salem. He also sang an old Irish air in keeping with St. Patrick's day. Lucille Hackett gave two humorous readings; community singing was led by Ralph Scott with Churchill playing the piano. Additional numbers were given by the guitar trio and the last number was given by the Haywire orchestra of Salem composed of Rufe White, Frank Zinn, Dr. A. D. Woodmansee, and Ralph Wagers and was much appreciated.

After the program the club enjoyed refreshments in the basement. The committee in charge were Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Barker and Mr. and Mrs. M. Stephens.
