MORE WOMEN DEPENDING ON COLLEGE STAFF

ing their families better fed, cloth-ed and cared for, are coming more and more to rely on the home econand more to rely on the home economics staff of the Oregon exten-sion service for information and assistance in making these things

A total of 30,367 homemakers were given assistance during the past year through individual let-ters, office calls, telephone call or personal home visits, while thou-sands more have been reached through circular letters, news articles, bulletins, radio programs, meetings and other contacts, the annual report filed by Miss Claribel Nye, state leader of home economics ex-help extend the home economics extension program by acting as local leaders for definite projects in their communities is also reported by Miss Nye. In addition to inwork in those counties having home demonstration agents, it has been possible this year for the first time to provide one or more projects for every county in the state, largevoluntary cooperaof these local lenders, Miss

Among the projects available durthe year have been child care parent education, home food ervation, meal planning and e service, vegetable cookery, low cost meals, use of eggs, milk and cheese products, bread making, recleadership training, renovating and remodelling. economy economy dressmaking, gar-finishing, care and use of finishing. ment initiality, care and use of sewing machines, coat making and home crafts. An unusually large number of requests for help with housing problems were also handled.

lable upon request to counties, s, school districts, reclamation, ation and port districts Secre-of State Earl Snell reminded in attement today available upon request to counties, cities, school districts, reclamation, trigation and port districts Secre-snell today also explained why the recent legislature had enacted even amendments to the motor vehicle laws changing the words "receipt of registration" to "registration cord" declared this change would result in a saving of $4,000 a year because the change of words would enable the state to take advantage a cheaper postal rate in mailing

Campus Tales Heard

March 30—Dr. W. W. Allen of Mill City, and of the class of '05 at the university, is one of 128 alumni who may relive their college days by listening to campus tales from their children who are now attending school here, according to records compiled by Robert K. Allen, alumnia and the compiled by Robert K. Allen, alumnia according to records compiled by Robert K. Allen, alumnia according to records responsible for the settlement. He sponsible for the settlement to strikers the settlement of the settlement to strikers the settlement of the settlement to strikers the settlement of t ni secretary. Dr. Allen's children are Marian Dr. Allen's children are Marian and Robert Lewis Allen. There are 119 other children of alumni attending the University of Oregon, 60 being girls and 59 men.

The class of 1909, with 15 alumni as parents of present students is best represented, with the classes of 1907 and 1910 tied for second with Wednesday and 1910 tied for second with the classes of the series of card parties given

West Salem—Mrs. Anna Jensen and daughter, Mrs. L. B. Tripp, are quite ill at their home on Edgewater street. Samuel Harris, son-in-law of Mrs. Anna Jensen, is still very ill at his home on Gerth avenue, but is his home on Gerth avenue, but is reported slightly better.

Harrison street.

Harrison str

Oregon women, always interested ish grammar to make the transla

McMinwille, state chairman cor-rect use of the flag, will lead the assembly in the pledge to the flag. Mrs. James Howard Huddleson, of Portland, state chaplain, will also assist in the ceremony.

INCREASE SHOWN IN VEHICLE FUELS

Sales of motor vehicle fuels

State Auditor

State Auditor

State Auditor

State Auditor

State Auditor

State Auditor

Available To Cities

Services of the audit division of the secretary of state's office, hitherto limited to state offices, boards and commissions, under a law passed by the 1935 legislature will be available upon request to countes, year.

Sales of motor vehicle fuels in Ocegon have shown an appreciable linerease so far this year over the corresponding months last year, said Secretary of State Earl Suell.

In December, 1934, 11,807.831 gallons were sold, an increase of 737, 378 gallons over the same month in 1933 and giving the state $590, 391.58 in taxes, a gain of $36,868.93.

January sales totalled 10,445,825 with a tax revenue of $522,291.28, which was $4,469.69 more than last available upon request to counter, tary of State Earl Snell reminded in a statement today.

Snell stated he had received many requests for information regarding the new law, now chapter 405, Laws of 1935.

The secretary reported he had been assured a number of cities in the atate would elect to receive its benefits. The charge for such services will be on an actual cost basis.

Snell today also explained why

ENDS AT NEWARK

Newark, N. J., March 30 (LP) three month strike of editorial employes of the Newark Morning Ledended last night through mutual agreement.

The settlement centered on an agreement of the paper to reemploy all strikers except eight men whose By Alumni of Old Status of this group will be deter-University of Oregon, Eugene. mined by a committee of three, Cir-farch 30—Dr. W. W. Allen of Mill tity, and of the class of '05 at the property is a representative of the news-theretily, to no of 128 allemnia.

Road District No. 272—Tom Bar-ry, labor, 833.91; Geo Heckert, labor, $3.91; O D Needham, foreman $64.28. Road District No. 34—Stayton Hardware Co, powder etc, $11; labor —Bill Berry, $2.98; Dick Berry, $4.97; cheding the University of Oregon, 60 being girls and 59 men.

The class of 1909, with 15 alumni as parents of present students is best represented, with the classes of 1907 and 1910 itself of or second with 1907 and 1910 itself of or second with 14 parents each. Ten parents are members of the class of 1911, and eight graduated in 1908. The alumni logs. The alumni logs are second with 1908 and 1908 the classes of 1911, and eight graduated in 1908. The alumning second with 1908 and 1908 are second with 1908 and 1908 and 1908 are second with 1908 are second with 1908 and 1908 are second with 1908 are seco

| March | Marc

printing, $120.15; Roy B. Davenport, rel of Mrs N Hansen, $15; Verden E Hockett, rel of S E Althardt, $3; Mrs. N Hansen, $15; Verden E Hockett, rel of S E Althardt, $3; Mrs. N Hensey $8.75; Olsen Pharmacy $3.75; Predrick R Dewitz $17.50; Arthur Johnson, bounty, $1.

Assessor's Office Acct.—Nicholson & Wiper Inc, bond, $15; E A Skelley, map, $10; O A Steelhammer, cash adv for stamps, $4; Woodburn Holey Rel of the Steelhammer, and the Steelhammer, and the Steelhammer, statement of the Steelhammer Statement of the Statement of the Steelhammer Statement of the State

TAYLOR ADVISES

And Couldn't Read II A Balan (1997)

ABOUT FAUCETS

Experience the "old-fashioned" vater part of the property of the state of the property of the part of | Book | 187-18. | Cord | Hullenberg | Book | 187-18. | Cord | Hullenberg | Hirs | Lunes, 180-29. | Lung |