Silver Falls Loop Trip Is Popular

Silverton—With the weather ideal Silverton had the greatest number of visiting cars for many years Sunday. Hundreds made the trip over the loop highway to the state park of the Silver Falls area. The principal attraction appeared to be the remains of the burned business block. A continuous procession of cars lined the North and South Water street thoroughfare and Oak street over East Hill during the entire afternoon and evening.

TREE TROOPER CAMP STARTED

Silver Falls—Work has been under way since early last week on a CCC camp here, on the old B. B. Smith place, recently purchased by the state. The new camp, Camp Silver Falls, No. 9, is located about one half mile northwest of the main North Falls and two and one half miles from the South Falls. Lumber is already arriving for the new quarters where nearly three hundred men will be employed.

Road and trail work are already begun, members of the camp will spend the spring and summer working on the trails in the park clearing away many and other improvements at the park. Captain Garrett will be in charge at both camps with Lieutenant Bowles in charge of the building program at the new camp. Until the new camp is completed the boys will stay at Camp Mill City. The entire quota of boys has not yet arrived.

A concert was given for the veterans and boys at Camp Mill City Thursday evening by the Trinity choir, who accompanied Rev. C. L. Fox of Silverton. Rev. Ross, camp chaplain comes every Thursday evening.

Friday evening was the scene of a gala affair at Camp Mill City when the Sunshine club were hosts to 200 persons at a dance in the dining room. The Silver Falls Cadets of Silverton furnished the music for the third dance of its kind.

CHAMPOEG IS MECCA FOR DALLAS PUPILS

MARION COUNTY LEGION COUNCIL ATTRACTS MANY

Mr. Angel—Representatives from every city in the county were present at the Marion county council of the American Legion Friday evening at St. Mary's school auditorium. Charles Johnson of Silverton, president of the council introduced the speakers. Rev. Father Idephonse Calmus, O.S.B., of Mt. Angel, army chaplain during the war, read the invocation.

Rev. Father Alcun Heibel, O.S.B., of Mt. Angel gave the address of welcome. State Commander W. J. Chamberlin of Corvallis congratulated the local post and gave a talk on the various bills dealing with the immediate payment of the adjusted compensation certificates. District Commander Britt Neary of Sherwood urged the post to concentrate on getting their membership drive over the top. The district president of the Auxiliary, Mrs. Blanche Jones of Sherwood was also called upon.

Dr. Paul Carter of the veterans administration explained the regulations and work of the Portland facility and invited every one to visit the Veterans' hospital Hospital Day May 12.

Commander Tom Mahoney of the Portland Post and Senator Douglas McKay of Salem both gave brief talks, after which Johnson turned the meeting over to the entertainers from Rome Post, Portland. Jimmie and Joseph Bianco offered vocal and numbers on the concertina. Other musical interludes were furnished by Mr. Angel folk. Miss Clara Keber and Miss Agnes Walker each sang two vocal solos, accompanied by Miss Ursula Keber.

Following the program, separate business meetings were held by the Legion and Auxiliary. Presiding at the Auxiliary meeting was Mrs. Barber. Prominent Auxiliary officers present were Mrs. Elsie Graham, child-welfare president; Mrs. Gladys Turnbull, Mrs. Margaret Cook, and Mrs. Blanche Jones. Following the meeting Mrs. Fred Lucht and Mrs. Josephine Oswald of the local unit sang a vocal duet accompanied at the piano by Miss Helen Keber.

Luncheon was served in the dining hall of the school at 11:30 o'clock to approximately 180 Legion and Auxiliary members. During the meal the guests were entertained with a violin duet by Miss Louise Oswald and Miss Marjorie Dehier. Miss Pauline Saffeld sang two vocal solos.

WEST SALEM GRADE PUPILS PLAN FETE

West Salem—The West Salem grade schools are rehearsing for a large May day fete entitled “May Day in Mother Goose Land.” It will be presented on the school lawn May 3, weather permitting.

Miss Betty Ann Lemon will be Queen of Hearts and Miss Beverly Armstrong will be Mother Goose. Practically every member of the school will have a place on the program as each grade will be represented by one or more numbers, consisting of drills, exercises and dances.

Mrs. Ethel McCoy, the teacher of the first grade is the general director of the exercises but each teacher has been drilling her own grade. There will be musical numbers and accompanists by several musicians.

These annual affairs are always interesting and attractive and draw large audiences.

In case of inclement weather May 3 the fete would of necessity be postponed as there is no arena under cover large enough for the performance.

Another Landmark Destroyed By Fire

Jefferson—Fire of unknown origin completely destroyed the old residence on the T. A. Coover farm one mile southeast of town at 5 o'clock Friday night. The house was occupied by Charles Seehale, who was in town when the fire was discovered by near neighbors. At that time the fire had such a start that only a few pieces of furniture were saved. The house was one of the old landmarks in this community.

NEW ARRIVALS TO BE GREETED

Woodburn—All newcomers in this vicinity are invited to St. Luke's hall Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock where they will be guests at a special event prepared by the Woodburn Business Men's club. Cards have been sent out to those newcomers whose names have been obtained and the club is asking that the word be passed along in order that no newcomer may be missed.

The term “newcomer” means any one who has moved to Oregon since January 1, 1934, but every one who has moved here in the last few years will be welcome.

About 15 minutes will be spent in getting acquainted. Guests will be asked to register, giving names and former location. There will be a speaker from the state department of agriculture, selections by Huggins' 15 piece orchestra and a few brief words of welcome by Woodburn business men and by Father J. E. Rubis. Light refreshments will be served.

Arrangements have been made to distribute about 25 prizes, including cash and merchandise furnished by local business establishments.
