

NEW OFFICERS CLUB ELECTED FINAL SESSION

Hazel Green—Rosa Miles was re-elected president of the community club at the final meeting of the season. Other officers are Mrs. Luella Van Cleave, vice president; Miss Beatrice Johnson, secretary and Mrs. Opal Rasmussen, treasurer.

The three 4-H clubs of the school sponsored the program with those taking part Dorothy Dunigan, Katherine Montandon, president of the sewing club; Bernice Lehman, president of the camp cookery club and Clinton Wampler, president of the builders club. O. G. Hughes, of Portland, field man for the Oregon Builders' congress, spoke.

Dresses were modeled by the sewing club and a health play "Vegetables for William" presented by the primary room. Taking part were Dean Lowery, Geraldine Wolf, Audrey Earl, Billy Woelke, June Johnson, Henry Yoshikai, Chester Fukal, Rodney Miles, Gene Rutherford, Evelyn Montandon, Pauline Neilson and Marion Wampler.

Each of the clubs presented a play, the camp cookery club offering "The Four Leaf Clover" with Shirley Johnson, Geneva Van Cleave, Mary and Rose Ziebert, Helen and Gertrude Ziellinski, Maxine Wolf, Harriett Dunigan and Leona Earl taking part. The camp cookery boys' comedy skit was given by Joe Yuda, Rodney Miles, Erwin Cooper and Donald Ziellinski. The builders' club presented a pirate play in costume with Edward Yada, Hubert Aspinwall, Frank and Ward Miles, LeRoy Raymond Duda, Archie Rutherford, Waldo Gilbert, Joe Yada, Irwin Cooper and Donald Ziellinski taking part.

Club leaders were presented gifts. These were Mrs. Lehman and Frank Way. Wayne Harding, county club leader, was unable to attend because of illness. On the serving committee were Mrs. Edward Dunigan, Jr., Mrs. Henry Rasmussen, Ellen Clemens and Mrs. Louis Wampler.

LEBANON RESIDENTS SAVE ALBANY HOUSE

Albany—Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Grant of Lebanon played the parts of Good Samaritans Saturday night when they called the fire department to extinguish a fire which was burning on the roof of the Charles Wright home, 525 East First street.

The Grants were driving along East First street when they saw the flames arising from the room and immediately called the fire department. Damage was confined to a 2-foot hole in the roof.

The Albany fire chief said that moss on the roof had been ignited by a spark.

Hazel Green Aid Will Hold Bazaar

Hazel Green—The Ladies Aid of the United Brethren church will hold a bazaar Wednesday evening at the parsonage preceded by a program of music and readings to be held at the church with Mrs. Ralph Worden in charge. The bazaar articles will be sold by Mrs. Henry Rasmussen and Mrs. Richard Tuve. Refreshments, Hattie Van Cleave, Mrs. Mabel Woelke and Mrs. Alexander Sharp. ## RENOVATION NEEDS REACHED AT ALBANY

Albany—Albany has reached the apex of home-building and renovation needs, in the opinion of W. C. Templeton, Linn county assessor, who is nearing completion of his annual assessment tour of the city of Albany.

The assessor reported that he has found from 25 to 30 per cent of Albany residences in need of repairs and renovation, and that many of them are becoming quite dilapidated.

Only two new residences had become assessable this year, he reported, and that all desirable homes are occupied he found, and some that are being used are hardly inhabitable.

BROWNS IDENTIFIED WITH EARLY CAPITOL

Gervais—Mr. and Mrs. Albert M. Brown and daughter Sybil of Portland were week-end guests at the Sam H. Brown home while here they drove to Salem to view the ruins of the state capitol.

This building, from its inception, links with this pioneer family as Senator Sam Brown, Sr., was a member of the senate when the bill was passed authorizing its construction. Senator Brown was appointed a member of the building committee by Governor Grover, but was constitutionally barred from serving on account of it being a paid committee. Upon Senator Brown's recommendation Governor Grover appointed Samuel Allen, father of Mrs. Brown, who served.

Senator Samuel Brown was one of the senate committee which sent John Alberts, Sr., east for the structural steel used in the capitol.

Dallas To Receive Lodge Delegations

Silverton—The women of the Royal Neighbor club plan a busy season for Wednesday afternoon in preparing for drill team work and other plans for the district McDowell convention that meets at Dallas the following day. Willamina—The Civic club held its regular pot-luck dinner at the Rebekah hall. There was an unusual small attendance due to sickness. After the meal the following program was presented:

Solos by Miss Ellen Ellingsworth, accompanied by Mrs. Ellingsworth at the piano. Rev. Burgoyne, pastor of the Sheridan Methodist church, spoke on his trip through Italy last summer.

Parkers Directed By Street Strips

Independence—The street committee of the city council was busy Monday supervising the painting of parking stripes on "C" street by the deputy marshal. A slight change has been made in the slant of the parking stripes which will probably be an advantage to motorists. A space has been marked off at the corner of Williams Drug Co. store for stages to park, which will relieve congestion on the Main street. The work will be continued on Main and D streets to Second.

PRINCIPAL, COACH RESIGN POSITIONS

Stayton—Victor N. Phelps, principal of the Stayton grade school and Coach Pat Beal of the Stayton high school have tendered their resignations which have been accepted, according to Prof. Howard George.

Phelps has accepted the position of Principal of the West Side school at Cottage Grove and Coach Beal with the Canby high school.

Phelps will be in charge of a larger school with eight teachers working with him.

CARNIVAL, DANCE AID CLASS FUNDS

Gervais—The student body of Gervais union high and especially the senior class are giving a carnival in the city auditorium Wednesday evening. The proceeds will go to the senior class fund.

Each class is sponsoring several booths among them a food booth, beauty parlor, several booths where one can try their skill, many humorous slide shows. In all it will be an evening filled with fun for any one attending.

The doors will open at 7:30 o'clock and later in the evening a dance will follow this given by the city council. It is hoped the public will respond to the efforts made by the students.
