

MUSICAL WEEK ARRANGEMENTS ARE COMPLETE

Woodburn—Arrangements have been completed for the observance of National Music week from May 5 to 12 by the committee in charge of which Miss Mary Scollard is chairman. Her assistants are Mrs. J. Melvin Ringo and Mrs. Howard Miller.

The first musical event will be the concert by the Woodburn band which will be given Thursday at the high school gymnasium. There is no charge for admission and is the first public appearance of the band since last summer. Hal Campbell will direct.

Monday night, May 6, a special program will be given by the Harmony club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dickenson, 899 South Front street.

Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock a program will be given by the grade school pupils at the Lincoln school.

Tuesday evening "Home Night" will be featured. The homes of A. J. Beck, 596 Harrison street, Arthur Dickenson, 899 South Front street; James H. Lively, 520 Young street; A. E. Austin, 215 Third street, and Dr. Gerald B. Smith, 845 East Lincoln street, will be opened for a progressive musical program. Joe Safarik, violinist of Canby, and a number of local performers will entertain.

The entertainers will meet at the home of Miss Mary Scollard and will make the rounds of the several homes in cars provided by Mrs. Margaret Davenport, Mrs. Carl Huber, J. J. Hall, Howard Miller and J. Melvin Ringo.

Wednesday night the high school pupils will give a program in the auditorium directed by Howard Miller.

The final program will be the community musical which will be held Friday evening at the high school in which the entire community will participate. All programs start at 8 o'clock, all are free and every one is invited to each and every program whether in private homes or elsewhere.

LINN GRAND JURY CALLED THURSDAY

Albany, Or.—The Linn county grand jury has been called to convene May 2 at the court house by J. K. Weatherford, Jr., district attorney. The jury is to meet preparatory to the May term of the circuit court, department No. 1.

The grand jury is comprised of Hugh W. Mallow, foreman; Shedd, L. O. Gorman, Crabtree, M. O. Edwards, Halsey, W. Scott Churchill, Shedd, and Holt Duedall, Eugene Canning and Corinne Robison, all of Albany.

CHURCH CHOIRS TO OPEN MUSIC WEEK

Albany, Or.—Patriotic and appropriate observance of Music week in Albany is to be provided with a program covering five days of the week. It was announced yesterday by Lural Burgraf, county music week chairman and Prof. Justin A. Miller, Albany chairman. The week will be opened Sunday with the combined church choirs of the town appearing in a concert at the First Presbyterian church. A feature of the week will be a community program on Friday night, with several community clubs and granges of the county taking part. This program will constitute the closing event of the week.

SPRING RUSH STARTS AT SILVERTON PARK

Silverton—Mike Dolan began his summer's work today as reception host to thousands who visit this city park annually. Dolan will work at cleaning up the grounds, repairing tables, benches, cleaning the children's pool and many other duties before the busy season for the park sets in.

Among the applications in for reservations on specified dates of the summer months are those from the Democrats for a state meet, the ex-residents of the Dakotas for their annual picnic, the Mt. Angel Creamery association, the Moser clan, Trinity Lutheran church, and many other groups that come each year for outings and conventions.

Salem Store Bought

Illhece—Mr. and Mrs. John T. Thorpe, who operated the Illhece station for the past two years, moved to Salem, where they have purchased a confectionery and grocery store on South Union street. Mrs. Thorpe's cousin, Jerry Durham, who has been visiting them, left for his home at Sandy.

GROWERS CALLED

West Stayton—All Co-op growers of the Cleary-Hill Packing company are urged to attend a meeting at McClellan hall Thursday night.

Shaw—The Waldo Hills club met Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Putnam. The evening was spent playing cards. At a late hour refreshments were served.

QUEEN MILDRED TO BE CROWNED

Monmouth—Patrons and friends are invited to come to the Monmouth training school on Friday to join in the children's play day. There will be singing games, the ceremony of the crowning of Queen Mildred and six May poles will be wound. A bucket dinner will be served at noon.

Following the dinner will come a parade of all the children with or on their favorite playthings; bicycles, akates, scooters and doll buggies. After the parade, everyone will join in the playground games of long base and long ball.

The training schools' play day is not to be confused with the Normal school's May day festival which will come later. The children will make no attempt to dazzle you with such beauty and performance as you will see then. They invite everyone to share their day of play. If the weather is pleasant the day will be spent outside on the south side of the building. If it seems more desirable the gymnasium will be used.

Park Caretaker Wins First For Reading Verses

Silverton—Mike Dolan, city park caretaker and host to Oregon's public as well as many out of state visitors during the summer, also knows his Bible. He is first in a reading contest put on by the eldership of the First Christian church.

From March 1 to Easter Sunday, April 21, Dolan has read 3,700 chapters of the Bible. This included the reading of the entire Bible twice and the New Testament three times extra, with an additional 548 chapters read singly.

Hiram Hartley comes a close second in the contest, reading 3,551 chapters, 49 short of the Dolan record.
