Mill City—The Mill City high school will miss four members of faculty next year, those leaving are Mr. and Mrs. Eliason, Miss Margaret Looney and Miss Elsie Crail. Frank Smith, an alumnus of the Mill City high school will be his successor as coach.

KANSAS IS VISITOR
Silverton—Mrs. H. B. Jorgenson and her sister, Mrs. Oscar Overlund have as their houseguest for several days their friend, Miss Esther Hanson with whom they were neighbors in the mid-west 18 years ago. Miss Hanson's home is in Topeka, Kan., and she has spent the winter in Los Angeles.

Hopmore—Mrs. C. E. Dahman and twin sons, Keith and Kenneth have gone to Portland for a short visit with her mother.

Jefferson—Miss Alice Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Harris left Wednesday for The Dalles where she will enroll in the hospital for a nurses' training course.

Romance, Melodies Blend

Flaming romance and haunting melodies blend with pulse-stirring tangos in the new Fox Film production, "Under the Pampas Moon," in which Warner Baxter and Ketti Gallian play the principal parts of a romantic gaucho and a beautiful Parisienne. The picture opens at the Grand today.

INMATES OF JAIL SHOW DISPLEASURE

Albany—J. Kenneth Mills, deputy sheriff, has concluded that no matter what you do—you can't please a woman. All last week Mills was busy renovating the woman's cell in the county jail—"dolling up" the interior to give it a cozy homelike atmosphere.

It seems that his efforts were in vain for Estelle Donica and Verna Ingram of Albany who were the first inmates, wrecked the place before they were released. They expressed their dislike of the interior decorations by tearing up the bedding and otherwise musing up the place.

The two women were arrested Sunday by Mills on a drunk and disorderly charge. In justice court each pleaded guilty and was fined $10. The fines were suspended pending good behavior.

Grain Warehouse Under Erection

West Salem—Ivan Stewart is having a seed and grain warehouse built on the north side of the railroad track and on the east side of Murdoch Avenue. It is a two story building 50 by 100 feet and fronts to the south. The heaviest of the frame work is already up.

A force of six carpenters are employed and the building is expected to be completed and ready for use at harvest time. Murdoch Avenue has been heavily traveled from Bridge water street north and a crossing put in over the S. P. track to meet the needs of the warehouse.

Salem Woman First Fish Law Violator

Albany—Erna Cole of Salem has the distinction of being the first woman to be arrested in this locality for fishing without a license this season. Miss Cole was fishing in Mer-dow creek Sunday when T. R. Rodman, state officer, happened along. It also happened that Miss Cole couldn't produce an angler's license. She was arrested and in justice court Monday pleaded guilty and was fined $25, which she paid.

Picnics Are Held

Jefferson—Three picnics marked the closing of the Jefferson grade school Monday. The seventh and eighth grades picnicked at the gravel bar on the Santiam below Jefferson. Games and swimming were enjoyed and at noon a basket dinner and ice cream was served. The fifth and sixth grades held their picnic at Santiam park across the river from Jefferson and the lower grades had their picnic in the grove at the schoolhouse.

CARD CLUB GUEST

Silverton—Mrs. Arthur Heister entertained the members of her pinchee club at her West Hill home Friday afternoon. A special guest was Mrs. Nettie Vinson. Mrs. B. Gaffey scored high. Mrs. Mac Houck low, and Mrs. Clyde Ramsby was awarded the traveling prize at cards. Mrs. Houck will be hostess to the group Friday.

DONALD SCHOOL WINDS UP WORK

Donald—School closed with a program and eighth grade graduation exercises in the hall. The program opened with a chorus as a background for a minute given by third graders in old-time costumes and white wigs, parts being taken by Arleen Coner, Joy Lee, Margaret and Mona Feller. A number of interesting dialogues were given. One clever as young women with their needle-work, holding a club meeting, with Dave Carver as chairman. The harmonica band gave a number, accompanied by Miss Davidson on the accordion. Opal Eppers, Joy Lee and Donna Gunt gave a clever tap dance and song number.

Mrs. Nell Eppers, president of the school board, made a few remarks and introduced Mrs. Mary Fulkerson, county school superintendent, who presented the diplomas to Jean Carver, Bernadine St. Helon, Francis Ryan, Octave Lemcke, John Godoyear, Wallace Lee and Leroy Miller.

The community picnic was held Sunday by pupils and parents at Colvin park on Puding river. Races and games filled the day. An interesting ball game was played between the married men and school boys, requiring 11 innings to break a tie, the final score being 22-20. On the men's team were James Ryan, G. B. Ackerson, Paul Perket, A. E. Evans, E. D. Carver, Edward Fowler, Gustafson, Wenigren and Colvin. On the boys' team were Walter and Richard Racette, Byron, Russell and Wallace Lee, Francis Ryan, Fritz Lemcke, Tony Segula and Wayne Fowler.

MEMORIAL EVENT OFFERED SUNDAY

Sheridan—Dr. Elam J. Anderson, president of Linfield college gave the address Sunday morning at the Memorial day services in Sheridan held at the Christian church. The services were under the auspices of the American Legion post and American Legion Auxiliary. The churches of the city united in this service and a large crowd was in attendance.

The program followed: Presentation of colors by Post; singing, led by Mrs. Earl Clumder; invocation, Rev. William S. Burgoyne; address, Dr. Elam J. Anderson; duet, Mrs. Leand Sackett and Mrs. W. S. Burgoyne; silent prayer for departed comrades; bugle call, taps; benediction, Rev. E. C. Chandler.

AMUSING STUNTS ARRANGED BY MEN

Woodburn—An amusing program of stunts was put on by the men of Evergreen chapter, O.E.S., following the regular meeting Monday night. The program was in charge of J. Melvin Ringo and Jess Fikan.

The prize for walking across the room on a twine string, which was laid on the carpet, while looking through the wrong end of a pair of opera glasses, was won by Judge Hiram Overton. The prize for the most graceful smoker was won by Earl W. Gibbons in a contest with A. H. Reeling. A peanut race between R. H. Scott and Howard Sayre was won by Scott. August Moeding won the prize in a talking contest with Dr. Thomas Sims.

Refreshments were served by Carl R. Peterson, Dr. Sims, Hiram Overton, Howard Sayre, R. H. Scott and W. D. Simmons. The dining room was artistically decorated with summer flowers.

BECK'S NAME USED IN "MONEY" SCHEME

Dallas—The reputation built up throughout Polk county by J. R. Beck, county agent, is responsible for the latest "easy" money scheme among poultrymen in the various districts.

Information reaching Beck Monday was to the effect that someone, purporting to be from his office, was selling an alleged poultry remedy at $2.50 a throw. The first report came from the West Salem district via Walter Gerth where a purchaser, after receiving the product, had sensed something wrong. Another call came from the Silver district where another poultryman had been taken in.

The only clue to the identity of the peddler is the car license number which is 180,129. This is the license number of a 1927 Hudson coach.

Hoover Believed To Hopped Fence

Scotts Mills—Among the old land marks on Crooked Finger which are disappearing are by one was an old rail fence on the east side of the Heffner farm which was replaced last week by a more modern wire fence. The old rail fence over which doubtlessly Herbert Hoover jumped many a time while he was visiting with his uncle, Dr. Minthorn, who owned the place at that time, is said to have been nearly 50 years old.

Stayton—Mr. and Mrs. Glen Fox and daughters of Portland were week-end guests at the Alexander and Korinek homes.

PAROCHIAL PUPILS PICNIC AT PARK

Woodburn—About 36 seventh and eighth grade pupils of St. Benedict's parochial school held a picnic at Hazel Green Tuesday. Games and boating were the amusements of the day. A picnic dinner and supper were served.

Those attending were Bernard Aicher, Ray Baune, Helen Bronec, Emma Halter, Robert Hecker, Katharine Herfurth, Ed Koch, Jerry Kripnicka, Patrick McCormick, Robert Miller, James Nathman, Helen and Mary Chvatal, Louis Adamski, Ellen Bentley, Leonard Bizon, Willie Ekkhout, Vernon Faulhaber, Ralph Buschkowsky, Raymond Gilles, George Hamuska, Frank Halter, Paul

ATTENDS FUNERAL

Silverton—Mrs. Ernest Starr and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Starr attended the funeral services for James F. Jones, father of Mrs. R. F. Starr, in Salem Tuesday afternoon. They accompanied Mrs. S. S. Starr, also of Salem.

Scotts Mills—LaNoel Myers, formerly of this place but who has been at Long View, Wash., for some time is here visiting friends.

"Delicious" SAY THESE BOOSTERS

●BROKER—"I'm proud of my ability to mix delicious drinks. Friends say I have the 'professional touch.' Here's the secret. I use grand-tasting Old Mr. Boston Gin as the gin-base. It blends like a charm, and you'll find it adds a delightful flavor you'll always remember."

●SPORTSMAN—"When we pack over the trail, Old Mr. Boston goes with us—or no hike. Yes, brother, it's the sportsman's gin. Needs no other ingredients. Take the full flavor STRAIGHT—It's swell. And, brother, the handy measuring cap is a real inspiration."
