

BRUSH COLLEGE PUPILS GIVEN FINE SEND OFF

Brush College—Graduation exercises for the nine eighth graders of the school were held at the annual home-coming picnic given by this community recently. The program opened with musical numbers. Louis Singer, president of the community club, presided. Loyal Whitney read the class history, Willard Glaze the class will, and Margaret Ewing and Charlotte Rock dramatized the class prophecy. Mrs. A. E. Utley, president of the Brush College Helpers, presented each member of the graduating class with an Eversharp pencil as the gift of the Helpers, and Fred Ewing, chairman of the school board presented them with their diplomas, those receiving them being Loyal Whitney, Willard Glaze, Margaret Ewing, Charlotte Rock, Dexter Smith, Alvin Ewing, Warren Bonney, Pauline Johnson and Melvin Toole.

Delbert Anderson and Billy Utley each sang solos and Mrs. Utley and Billie sang a duet, all accompanied by Mrs. C. L. Blodgett at the piano. Mrs. Frank Winslow of Salem played a trombone solo and Mrs. Clarence Bowse, with violin. Mrs. Avis Cannon with flute, and Mrs. Clifton Mudd at the piano constituted a trio which was enjoyed.

Mrs. Oliver Whitney and Mrs. Frank Rivet were in charge of the baby show held just before the picnic dinner. Fifteen children were entered and all were fortunate in receiving prizes. Those under one year, rattles; those between one and two years, bright ball; and the older ones, rubber ball and bat combined. Judges for this contest were Mrs. Theodore Bernard, Miss Rensha Swart of Salem and Mrs. Gertrude Meckelwaite of Corvallis. The youngest child in the show was Merlyn Kipper, two months' old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kipper.

In charge of the dinner was the Brush College Helpers with Mrs. William Rock and Mrs. Harry Bonney presiding at the table; Mrs. Audrey Ewings and Mrs. Frank Munson in charge of the coffee. Dr. C. B. Blodgett was chairman of the sports committee with P. E. Wilson assisting. Eight or ten foot races were held, horse-shoe pitching and ball games were enjoyed and toy balloons were distributed to all taking part in the races. Victor Olson was in charge of parking for the day; Mike Focht, Fred Olson and A. E. Utley were the stand committee and Mrs. John Schindler and U. J. Lehman of Salem were the publicity committee. Approximately 200 attended.

EMBROIDERY CLUB HAS PLEASANT DAY

Millersburg—Members and guests of the Wednesday Embroidery club were entertained at the home of Mrs. L. W. Drager.

The afternoon was spent informally. Mrs. James E. Arnold won the contest prize. At the tea hour refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Van Houston and Mrs. Ella Wilson.

Present were Mrs. Frank Kizer and son Dick, Mrs. Gus Gefke, Mrs. Carl Nygren and children, Charlotte and Eugene, Mrs. Thomas Farlow, Mrs. John Covey and son Steven, Mrs. L. K. Conner, Mrs. Dale Arnold and daughter Bonnie, Mrs. Floyd Fisher and daughter Janice, Mrs. James E. Arnold, Mrs. Elizabeth Trux and daughter Kathryn, Mrs. Dale Gronso, Mrs. E. O. Trux, Mrs. A. B. Custer, Mrs. Van Houston, Mrs. Ella Wilson, Mrs. Robert Fay, Miss Sylvia Covey and the hostess, Mrs. L. W. Drager.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Thomas Farlow.

Morning Star Club

Guest Kizer Home—Members of the Morning Star kizer met at the home of Mrs. Frank Kizer for a business and social meeting. At the close of the afternoon a covered dish luncheon was served.

Present were Mrs. Carl Nygren and children, Charlotte and Eugene, Mrs. Thomas Farlow, Mrs. Elizabeth Trux, Mrs. W. F. Grenz and daughter Marjorie, Mrs. R. A. Marsh and son Bobbie and the hostess, Mrs. Frank Kizer and son Dickie.

Minister Resigns

Stayton—Rev. Carl E. Blachler, who has been pastor of the Baptist church here for the past 15 months has resigned and Mrs. Roscoe Poole will supply for the present. There will be no Sunday evening services under the present arrangements.

PENSIONERS CALLED

Mill City—The Mill City Town-send old age pension club will meet Tuesday at the Hammond hall. Clarence Wagner of Portland will be the speaker of the evening. Musical numbers will be presented by the different members of the club.

REPORTING FOR CAMP

Oak Point—Kenneth Black, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Black, sergeant of the engineers unit of reserve officers training corps at Oregon State college will report at Fort Lewis, Wash., June 13 for a six weeks' course of training. Black has just finished his junior year at college.

Sublimity—Mrs. Joe Duca and daughter, Mrs. Louis Duca and sons and Mrs. Leo Elasker and sons of Portland visited several days at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theo Minder.

Sublimity—Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Smith and daughter, Bernadine of Hillsboro, were recent visitors at the Paul Zuber and Ed Benedict homes.

INTRIGUE AFOOT--LAUGHS AHEAD!

In "Doubting Thomas," Fox Film's latest laugh success, Will Rogers portrays the role of a simple, home-loving sausage manufacturer, whose home life is suddenly tossed into a turmoil when an amateur impresario, Alison Skipworth, persuades his wife, Billie Burke, that she has been suppressed all her life and that she really belongs to the stage and her public. Rogers affects a cure that will make America's ace humorist more loved than ever. The picture is showing at the Grand now.

Epworth Leaguers Motor To Coast

Woodburn—Fourteen members of the Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal church, accompanied by their pastor, Rev. P. M. Hammond, have gone to the coast for a three day retreat at Depoe Bay. Those attending are Annette Lytle, Jean Beers, Lou Jane Ringo, Freda Hall, Mona Doss, Wilma Doss, Wayne, Livessy, Ernest, Livessy, Harold Mulkey, Robert Hall, Robert Barton, Billy Baldwin, Harlan Nelson and Rev. Hammond. Miss Emma Jane Mohr of Chemawa, also accompanied the group.

FORGERY ATTEMPT RESULTS IN JAIL

Woodburn—Virgil Davis, 25, who has been employed in the West Woodburn district, attempted to cash a forged check at the A. E. Austin store Thursday afternoon. The name of Perle L. Love was signed to the check which was drawn on the St. Paul bank for $5. Miss Gladys Adams, clerk at Austin's, becoming suspicious, called Love and gave a description of the man. He was found at the store of R. L. Guise where he was making another attempt to cash the check in payment for goods. He first denied the charge but later admitted it. A warrant was sworn out for his arrest and he spent the night in the city jail. Saturday morning he appeared before Judge Overton for a hearing and was bound over to the grand jury. He was taken to Salem by Constable Uppendahl.

Silverton People Recall Old Pastor

Silverton—Mrs. J. P. A. Hansen, upon reading in the Capital Journal of the death of Rev. J. A. Billie, who had been in pastoral work in Flandreau, S. D., for more than a half century and had been retired for a number of years, was reminded that Rev. Billie officiated at the christening of her stepson, H. T. Frederickson, 53 years ago at Flandreau. Mr. Frederickson now resides in Spokane. Hansen's other son, Ernest L. Frederickson, was christened by the Rev. Billie in 1898 at Flandreau. He now lives at Hollywood. Many Silverton residents were active workers in the Flandreau Lutheran church during the pastorate of Rev. Billie. He was 83 years of age.

Project Inspected

Talbot—An irrigation demonstration was given on the H. R. Keeper place in this district Friday afternoon. The demonstration was specially devoted to rotary type sprinklers adapted to rough or hilly ground and several types of these sprinklers were in operation. Bill Tomshok from the state college, now working out of the count agent's office for the federal government was in charge of the demonstration.

YOUNG PEOPLE GRADUATE

West Stayton—Several young folks of this community graduated from high school this term. Vivian Browning, Dorothy Wilkinson, Hazel Shellenberg, Hazel Corcoran, Orville Snider all graduated from Aumsville high; Marvin Lacy from Stayton high.

ACREAGE SOLD

Oak Point—T. J. Primus has sold a 55-acre tract of land to Dr. George C. Knott of Independence. This tract is unimproved and lies south of the John Walker farm and fronts the Oak Point-Greenwood road.

ELSONORE

Last Times Tonite
CHARLIE RUGGLES
MARY BOLAND
—In—
"PEOPLE WILL TALK"

RECREATIONAL CENTER SOUGHT

Menmouth—At the meeting of the council this week Miss Laura Taylor appeared in behalf of the Civic club with a plea that the lease of city ground now occupied by the lumber company be not renewed. The club is endeavoring to work up sentiment to make the area involved into a recreation center. No action was taken by the council.

The council passed an ordinance providing for licensing certain types of games of chance. The ordinance provides for preliminary license for operating permitted games of $5 a year and in addition $2 for a three months term for each machine operated. If such games are banned and dart games are operated the license fee is $50 a year in advance, and their use is subject to restrictions, such as forbidding minors to play. While the ordinance does not so state, it has been understood revenue derived from such source is to be devoted to the library maintenance.

The council allowed $15.00 expenses for two firemen to attend firemen's school in Corvallis.

BAND BOYS APPEAR AT ROSE FESTIVAL

Silverton—Forty-two boys and their director, J. C. Hassenstab, attracted attention as members of the 4-L Silverton local at the Rose Festival Friday. Accompanying the performers were scores of parents and friends.

The boys appeared for the first time in their new uniforms and were anything but depressed at the idea of making a show among other bands of Oregon. The oldest member of the band has just passed his 13th birthday anniversary and the group averages much younger. They have been organized for more than a year and have made remarkable progress in their playing.

Mrs. E. R. Ekman accompanied her son Jimmy to Portland several days ago and plan to return with the other members of the band Saturday morning.

Past Noble Grand Club Entertained

Jefferson—Mrs. Ethel Roland and Mrs. Evalyn Hall entertained the Past Noble Grand club at the former's home Thursday afternoon. Following a brief business meeting the time was spent informally. At the tea hour refreshments were served by the hostesses at small tables placed on the lawn.

Members present included Mrs. W. H. Sherman, Mrs. David H. Looney, Mrs. Earl Lynes, Mrs. Earl Phelps, Mrs. R. C. Thomas, Mrs. George C. Mason, Mrs. Charles McKee and the hostesses, Mrs. Roland and Mrs. Wall.

LEAVES FOR KANSAS

West Stayton—E. R. Baker, who has been enjoying his vacation in the northwest recently, has returned to his home in Salina, Kan. While spending a few days with the O. O. Lacy family he was taken to Silver Creek falls. Salina is also the home town of the Lacy's.

Mt. Angel—Arnold Unger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Unger fell on the sidewalk and cut his head. It required a number of stitches to close the wound.

WILL ROGERS

DOUBTING THOMAS
GRAND

Three Card Tables Of Bridge Played

Mt. Angel—Three tables of bridge were played in the home of Mrs. Forest Souvain when she acted as hostess to her bridge club. High score was won by Mrs. C. J. Ebner and Mrs. Bert Ebner drew post prize. Late in the evening a luncheon was served by the hostess.

Those present included Mesdames Paul Schwab, Fred J. Schwab, Herman Schwab, L. A. LeDoux, Charles Ullman, W. J. Kloft, Ann Holmes, G. D. Ebner, C. J. Ebner, Bert Ebner, Eugene Hoffer and R. J. Welton.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY LEGION WOMEN

Dallas—Mrs. Andrew Irwin, Jr., was elected president of the Auxiliary of Carl B. Fenton post for the coming year at a regular meeting Thursday night. Other officers are Mrs. William Himes, first vice-president; Mrs. George Cooper, second vice-president; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Fred Stinnette; executive committee, Mrs. S. E. Whitworth, Mrs. J. R. Beck and Mrs. John Cerny.

Mrs. E. W. Cronson, Mrs. Fred Stinnette and Mrs. Andrew Irwin were named as delegates to the state convention. Mrs. John Cerny, Mrs. Carl Bales and Mrs. George Cooper as alternates. At the joint meeting of the post and the auxiliary which followed Mrs. Stanley Baylis sang two numbers and a group of clubwomen presented a skit entitled "The Society Column."

Club Entertained At Gehlen's Home

Stayton—Mrs. Bertha Gehlen and Mrs. Clara Dozier were joint hostesses to their club at the former's home Thursday evening. Five tables of cards were in play during the evening. Mrs. Kathryn Weddle received high score.

New officers were chosen for the ensuing year. Mrs. Dora Dozier, president; Mrs. Blanche Scranton, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Eleanor Thompson, reporter.

Those present were Ida Wourms, Sally Killian, Marie Dawes, Cecelia Mertz, Agnes Rieisterer, Eleanor Steward, Louise Lesley, Frances Betzer, Alys Pooler, Eleanor Thompson, Frances Walker, Blanche Scranton, Marion Klecker, Arvilla Yeoman, Dora Dozier. Guests were Kathryn Weddle, Bertha Waters and Effie Gescher.

Attend Convention

Aurora—The Women's Missionary Federation district convention was held in Oregon City recently. Those attending from Aurora and surrounding territory included Mrs. A. F. Knorr, Mrs. Fred Keil and Miss Emma Muesel, delegates from the Christ Lutheran church; Mesdames Eliza Parkey, Hugo Keil, Gesine Nordhausen, Oscar Dolland, G. J. Church, Miss Mabel Stiller and Rev. A. F. Knorr, from Mackburg; Mesdames F. J. Kraxberger, William Gebert, Otto Kraxberger, Walter Zecher, William Etzel, Martha Sheer, John Heinz and Julius Gonski.

CLUB SESSION CALLS

West Stayton—Mark Lewis will be one of the 47 Marion county people going to the 4-H club summer school at Corvallis starting Monday. He won a scholarship for the best showmanship at the state fair. Mark is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lewis, and has won a number of prizes at state fair and the Portland show.

BLACKLEY WILL DIRECT LEGION

Dallas—At the regular meeting of Carl B. Fenton post No. 20 of the American Legion Thursday night reports on the observance of Memorial day, junior baseball and the Boy Scouts were given by Jack Eakin, Bill Blackley and Dale Smith, the chairmen of the respective committees.

Letters were read from the Polk convention housing committee and the G. A. R. In reply to the health unit communication John Cerny was appointed to represent the post at an organization meeting in the near future, an invitation was extended to all legionnaires to attend the G. A. R. encampment in Portland this month and those convention bound were urged to make their reservations.

A new policy adopted this year by the post was the election of a commander for the coming year. This was done in order to afford the incoming commander an opportunity to attend the state convention, become acquainted with the new program and be all ready for action in the fall. Nominations closed with Frank Davis, Charles Watson and Bill Blackley as the nominees. Blackley was elected for the coming year. Delegates to the state convention were named as follows: Fred Stinnette, John Cerny, Bill Blackley. Alternates are Ivan Warner, Stanley Baylis and William Himes.

CLUB PAGEANT FEATURES DAY

Brush College—An achievement day program put on in the form of a pageant and play and which included all members of both clubs was given by the girls' clothing club and the boys' forestry club at the local school shortly before school closed for the year. Willard Glaze, president of the boys' club presided. Charlotte Rock is president of the girls' club.

Myrtle Meier and Phyllis Anne Thomas demonstrated how to make a pool holder. Warren Bonney gave a talk on the historic trees of Oregon. Loyal Whitney recited "Trees," by Joyce Kilmer and Otis Wilson read another poem, "Trees," by Bliss Carman. Maxine Olson played all piano accompaniments for music during the afternoon. Tea was served by the girls to the parents and friends attending with the boys assisting in this feature. The boys' club is composed of ten members, their leader being Mrs. Harry Bonney, and the girls' group numbers eight with Mrs. Fred Ewing their leader.

A 4-H club picnic was enjoyed by the two clubs in the picnic grounds Wednesday evening. Games and supper were features of the evening's entertainment with the toasting of marshmallows following the supper. All members were present.

INDEPENDENCE HAS BRIGHTER STREETS

Independence—The work of decorating store fronts with a new coat of paint has extended to "C" street. Mrs. C. L. Carey's French shop and the real estate office of her husband who is also city recorder is being freshened up with a coat of white and black paint. The rear entrance to the Williams drug store and the stairway leading to offices upstairs have also been painted.

New houses under construction in the city are those belonging to Oscar Moore, Homer Wood and the remodeling of the residence of J. W. Crabtree. Dr. Dugan has just completed a large annex to his turkey hatchery which will add to the convenience and floor space of that institution.

A Home Owned Theater HOLLYWOOD

NOW PLAYING

WILL ROGERS 'LIFE BEGINS at 40'

ROCHELLE HUDSON
RICHARD CROMWELL
GEORGE BARBIER

ADDED—

BUCK JONES
in
"THE RED RIDER"

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday
Continuous Show, 2 to 11 P.M.

EDWARD G. ROBINSON

THE WHOLE
TOWN'S TALKING
A COLUMBIA PICTURE

Feature Gives Many Laughs

"Vagabond Lady," with Robert Young and Evelyn Venable, is a feature-length comedy with uproarious situations and will be seen in a double bill at the Capitol theatre Sunday and Monday. The other picture is "Law of the West," with Bob Steele.

COUNCIL ACTS UPON SPECIAL ORDINANCE

Independence—At the regular meeting of the city council it was voted to amend the city ordinance regulating pool halls and cardrooms permitting them to remain open and operate in conformity with the beer parlor time of opening and closing.

Oscar Moore, chief of police was given further leave of absence to recuperate from his recent illness and Ray Howard and James Crabtree will do police duty, assisted by Felix Wattenberger on Saturdays. Moore's condition is very much improved but feels the need of further rest.

The cutting of grass and weeds on vacant lots and alleys will be urged by the council through its officers and those not desiring to do their own work will have it done by the city and charged up to the property.

Evening Enjoyed At Withers Home

Mt. Angel—Three tables of bridge were in play at the home of Mrs. O. L. Withers when she entertained her bridge club and a number of other guests Wednesday evening. Mrs. A. A. Kilner won first prize and Miss Anna Erwert received the door prize. After the card playing a luncheon was served by the hostess, who was assisted by Anna Erwert.

Those present were Mrs. A. A. Kilner, Mrs. W. D. Harris, Mrs. Jim Kelly, Mrs. E. B. Stolle, Mrs. J. A. Kaiser, Mrs. C. Butsch, Mrs. Emil Bochsler, Mrs. R. O. Appleby, Miss Anna Erwert, Miss Helen Kober, Miss Elizabeth Beyer and Miss Elizabeth Unger.

WARRIOR BROS. CAPITOL

Last Times Today
Continuous Show, 2 to 11 P.M.

2 BIG HITS
Wm. Powell ANN
Myrna Loy SHIRLEY in in
"Evelyn Prentice" "Chasing Yesterday"

Sunday-Monday DOUBLE BILL

Laughs Aho! !!
Hold anchor for the biggest fun-show of any age.

ROCHELLE HUDSON
RICHARD CROMWELL
GEORGE BARBIER

ADDED—

BUCK JONES
in
"THE RED RIDER"

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday
Continuous Show, 2 to 11 P.M.

EDWARD G. ROBINSON

THE WHOLE
TOWN'S TALKING
A COLUMBIA PICTURE

MEMORIAL RITE HELD BY LODGE

Silverton—Memorial ritualistic ceremonies were observed at a joint meeting of the Knights of Pythias and Philian Sisters Thursday night.

Guy L. Sanders, G. C., presided and was assisted during the formal services by Orval Lee, V. C., and E. Z. Kaufman, prelate. W. K. Cain led the audience in singing with Mrs. Edison Comstock assisting at the piano. Rev. C. J. Hall of the Methodist Episcopal church gave the address in honor of the dead of the order. W. K. Cain, I. B. Alfred and A. H. Smith, a vocal number with Mrs. Comstock at the piano.

Mrs. F. J. Roubal, M. E. C., was in charge of the ceremonies for the Pythian Sisters' program and was assisted by Mrs. Fred Knight, J. C., Mrs. Carl Specht, S. C., Mrs. Albert Grinde, M. G. R., Mildred Lee, M. of R. and S. Ola Benson, M. of F. Mrs. Emil Lee, P. C., Mrs. Clara Soldie, G. and Mrs. Eva Brown, protector. Mrs. Roubal read a poem, "Have You Earned Tomorrow," and gave "One Sweetly Soled Thought" as a vocal selection assisted by Mrs. Helen M. Wrightman at the piano.

Special memorial services were in honor of John Scott, a member of both orders for many years and having passed away during the year.

QUEEN VOTES WILL BE CAST

Mt. Angel—Preparations for the Fourth of July celebration here are going ahead in full swing. The voting for queen is exciting a lot of comment, the new band uniforms are ordered and the Legion, the fire company, the school children and other organizations have accepted invitations to take part in the parade.

There will be a loop-o-plane, bowery dance, ball game, tug-of-war and many other interesting features to make the day interesting. The city council has appointed one dozen special police for the day and are piping water out to the ballgrounds and vacating the streets to the committee.

The voting for queen will be closed at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, June 8 and the final vote will be announced at about 9 or 9:30 o'clock the same evening.

Sherbets..

The Spa makes the old-fashioned kind. Pure and delicious for hot days.

STATE THEATRE

LAST TIMES TODAY
JOHN WAYNE
—In—
"Neath Arizona Skies"
Chapter 9—
"Mystery Mountain"

SUNDAY-MONDAY- Preview Tonight

A SIDE-SPLITTING
MYSTERY COMEDY!

The Thrills of "Dracula" with the Laughs of a Harold Lloyd Comedy—

Wallace Ford,
Evelyn Knapp,
Mary Littlefield
Regis Toomey
Hedda Hopper

—In—

The Swellest
"WHO DONE IT"
Ever Filmed!

"One Frightened Night"

You'll Gasp
With Terror—
as You Laugh
With Glee—

It Will Make the Whole Town
Laugh and Talk!