Brilliant Wedding At Woodburn

Woodburn—A beautiful wedding was solemnized at the First Presbyterian church at Woodburn Wednesday evening, June 12, at 8:30 o'clock when Miss Helen Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Allen, became the bride of Donald T. Lauer, son of Mrs. Emma Lauer of Oakland, Calif.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a beautiful gown of white lace, fashioned with a high cowl neck, long sleeves and full train. Her full length veil was of tulle and she carried a shower bouquet of Rapture roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Marguerite Looney of Jefferson was the honor attendant and was gowned in a model of blue net, made with tulle length skirt. She wore a hat of pink horsehair with a blue ribbon band and carried an arm bouquet of pink sweet peas and blue delphinium.

The bridesmaids were Miss Helen Taylor of Weiser, Idaho, cousin of the groom, and Miss Margaret Poorman of Portland, who wore white frocks of pink organdy with blue hats and carried bouquets of delphinium and sweet peas in pastel shades.

Dr. R. C. Romig of Eugene acted as best man for Mr. Lauer. Ushers were Max Carman of Salem and Warren Gulss of Portland.

Following the ceremony Howard Miller sang "Because" and the wedding music was played by Miss Wilma Morrison.

A reception for members of the families and close friends was held at the home of the bride's parents in East Lincoln street immediately after the ceremony.

The serving table was centered with white carnations and delphinium in a crystal bowl guarded with tall lapers in crystal holders. Mrs. Ida May Garland of Berkeley, Cal., cut tea, and Mrs. H. P. Butterfield presided at the urn. Assisting at the rooms were Miss Edna Lytle, Mrs. Earl Howesworth, Miss Barbara Reed of Portland, Mrs. Max Carman of Salem and Miss Thelma Stephens of Portland.

Mrs. E. J. Allen, mother of the bride, wore a model of rose crepe made with a lace cowl neck and full lace sleeves with matching accessories. Her corsage was pink rosebuds and blue sweet peas.

Mrs. Lauer, mother of the groom wore a gown of blue lace and her corsage was pink rosebuds and pink sweet peas.

For her going away costume the bride wore a navy blue crepe trimmed with dusty pink. Her accessories were blue and gray and she wore a corsage of Rapture roses.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Lauer left on their wedding trip. They will travel in the south, visiting the San Diego Exposition, and on their return will be at home in Oakland, Cal.

Mrs. Lauer is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. For the past four years she has been on the faculty at Woodburn high school. Mr. Lauer is a graduate of Stanford university and the LaSalle School of Law. He is manager of the Oakland Market and Fifteenth street branch bank of the American Trust company.

Jefferson—The country home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Weddle was the scene of a pretty wedding Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock when Miss Gladys Calahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Calahan, became the bride of Leland A. Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wells, all of Jefferson.

Rev. J. Merlin Hill, pastor of the local Christian church, read the ring service in the presence of relatives and a few close friends. The wedding took place in the beautiful flower garden of the Weddle home.

Following the ceremony Mrs. Gilbert Looney, accompanied by Gilbert Looney, gave two vocal numbers, "Alone in Your Garden," and "Sunshine of Your Smile."

The bride was attractive in a pink flowered dress, hip length and wore a white picture hat. She carried an arm bouquet of Madame Butterfly rosebuds and maidenhair fern.

Miss Marie Bragg of Albany was bridesmaid and wore a tulle length dress of blue crepe with a white hat and carried a bouquet of rosebuds and maidenhair fern.

David Wied acted as best man. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. W. W. Dyer of Albany cut tea and Mrs. Leo Weddle, sister of the bride, poured. Mrs. E. J. Sanford and Mrs. Mawry Roney of Salem, assisted in serving.

Present Charters To Three Chapters Of P.E.O. Sisterhood

AT impressive ceremonies in Waller hall this morning, Oregon State chapter, P. E. O. Sisterhood, presented charters to Chapters AZ, BA, and BB, with Miss Mabel Doud, president supreme chapter, officiating. Mrs. Emily Wells, organizer, presented the new chapters to the Sisterhood. Responses were given by Mrs. Jessie Searing, Portland, Mrs. Myri Van Deusen of Gresham, and Mrs. Maude Crawford of Portland, respective presidents of the newly chartered chapters.

Following the ceremony Dr. Florence E. Boehmer, president of Cooley college, gave an informal talk on the work of the college, which is sponsored by the sisterhood. The group adjourned for luncheon after a round table discussion.

This afternoon following a short organ concert by Prof. T. S. Roberts, the delegates and members assembled for the welfare and trust fund hour with Mrs. Katharine Almsworth, second vice-president of the state chapter, presiding. Mrs. Florence Schutte spoke on "Building for the Future."

A model meeting was conducted under the direction of Mrs. Wells, the organizer. Mrs. Ethel Tutton presided. Miss Doud later talked on "But One Thing is Needed!"

This evening a formal dinner will be held at the Marion hotel. Chapter AB of Salem is in charge of the affair, with Miss Helen Barrett, chairman of arrangements. Mrs. Veda Jones, treasurer of the supreme chapter, is scheduled to make the principal address and a program of music will also be presented.

Election of state officers will be of paramount interest on tomorrow morning's calendar, with installation following in the afternoon just prior to adjournment. Invitation to the 1936 convention will also be extended and delegates will be named to the supreme convention.

Wedding Vows Exchanged
Miss Williamina Hiffiker, daughter of Mrs. Katie Hiffiker, became the bride of Norville Gleason, son of Mrs. Iola Gleason, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the First Evangelical church.

The single ring ceremony was read by Dr. E. W. Petticoat before a banked altar of spring flowers. Tall candelabras were used with white tapers.

Before the ceremony Reubin Hiffiker, brother of the bride, sang "O Promise Me" and again at the closing of the ceremony he sang "Because." He was accompanied on the organ by Miss Helen Rex, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Albert Hiffiker. She wore a white satin gown cut along princess lines with long sleeves and train. Her veil was of silk tulle and orange blossoms were worn in her hair. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and sweet peas.

Mrs. Ivan Osterman was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a lace gown of powder blue and carried an arm bouquet of yellow snapdragons and pink sweet peas. The bridesmaids were Miss Verna Haverland and Miss Eula Walker. They were gowned in deep rose taffeta and carried arm bouquets of blue cantebury bells.

Little Beverly Hofstetter and Arlyne Hiffiker were the flower girls and were dressed in pale yellow taffeta and carried baskets of rose petals.

Clyde Gleason was best man for his brother and the ushers were Ivan Osterman, Ray Heckard, Lloyd Rieley and Ralph Arensmeyer.

Mrs. Hiffiker was gowned in a pale blue suit with white accessories and wore a corsage of roses. Mrs. Gleason wore a suit of dark blue and wore a corsage of roses.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Hans Hofstetter. The serving table was centered with a crystal bowl of pink roses with white tapers on either side. Mrs. Ida Egger cut the cake and Mrs. Hans Hofstetter cut the tea. Those assisting in serving were the Misses Nadean McWain, Sue Ditto, Irene Stover and Mrs. Lloyd Rieley.

For going away the bride wore a light blue suit with white accessories. After a short wedding trip to the Oregon beaches the couple will reside in Salem.

The Ladies' Guild of the American Lutheran church is sponsoring a festival at the church Friday night at 8 o'clock. An informal program will be a feature of the evening. Mrs. John Woodward is in charge of the directorate and the public is invited to attend.

Mrs. Addison Lane, Jr., left Wednesday for San Francisco where she will be the guest for ten days of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Killan and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Payne.

Mrs. W. Herrick Guest Of Honor

One of the big gatherings of the year for the Business and Professional Women's club in Eugene will be held Thursday evening—the annual installation and spring initiation banquet. The event will be at six-thirty o'clock in the Osburn hotel.

Mrs. Winifred Herrick of Salem, the new state president, is to be an honor guest and speaker for the meeting.

Miss Mildred Jacobson is being installed as the new president for the Eugene club. Mrs. Norwald Nelson and Mrs. Clarence Elkins are chairmen for the banquet and installation, assisted by Miss Mabel Armitage, vice-president and acting president of the local club.

Plans were made for the local group to attend the Flag day celebration on June 14 at Champego, which is to be an annual state-wide D. A. R. gathering.

Gifts of pioneer articles, given to the Linn chapter by Mrs. Henry Voss and Miss Margaret Gensendorfer to be present to the D. A. R. Memorial cabin at Champego were displayed at Monday's meeting. Presentation of the gifts will be made Friday day.

A symposium on the "History and Usage of the Flag" was given by Mrs. Walter Canning following the business meeting and Mrs. L. L. Bilyeu read the president general's message. Miss Markle Weatherford gave a reading, "What Do You See When the Flag Goes By?" and Mrs. J. C. Irvine read a poem, "The Flag," by Edith Scott Magna, former president general.
