

POMONA GRANGE OBSERVES FLAG DAY, FAIRFIELD

Fairfield—More than 150 grangers attended Pomona grange at Fairfield grange hall Wednesday flag day was observed.

W. Tusch, of Oregon State college, was the principal speaker; S. B. Laughlin gave quotations from Mr. Kelley's talk at state grange. "Labor understands problem of farmer better than farmer understands labor."

The annual Pomona picnic will be held at Silverton park the second Sunday in August.

The new grange recently organized at Roberts was represented. The next Pomona meet will be held at Mackley grange on the third Wednesday in October.

The following program was given during the afternoon: Address, "Progress in Agricultural recovery," by W. Tusch of Oregon State college; reading by Mrs. Henrietta Allenback; group singing; one act play, "Clothesline Gossip," by Mrs. Ben Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wing, and a harmonica solo by Jack Allenback.

METHODIST MISSION GROUP HAS SESSION

Jefferson—Members of the Missionary society of the Methodist church were entertained at the country home of Mrs. Blanche Libby with Mrs. Frank Sherwood assisting hostess.

The devotionals were led by Mrs. Mary Cummins, subject, "Consecration of God in Nature." Mrs. J. G. Fontaine led the session on extension work, the subject being "Stars and Sunshine." Mrs. George C. Mason gave a reading entitled "Sunshine Betty." Miss Addie Libby gave a talk on "Stewardship," and lighted the three stewardship candles. Mrs. J. G. Fontaine had charge of the mystery box questions. Refreshments were served by the hostesses during the social hour.

Present were Miss Addie Libby, Mrs. Grace Thurston, Mrs. R. C. Thomas, Mrs. Mary Cummins, Mrs. E. B. Redmond, Mrs. Earl Phelps, Mrs. Charles McKee, Mrs. J. G. Fontaine, Mrs. George C. Mason and the hostesses, Mrs. Blanche Libby and Mrs. Frank Sherwood and daughter Evangeline.

Gard Miller Clan Stages Reunion

Hubbard—Mrs. Nora Gard Miller is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Waldo P. Brown. Mrs. Miller spent the winter in California and upon leaving Hubbard will return to her home in Portland.

The Gard Miller clan met at the Kamroth grove for an all day reunion. This grove is the claim claim of Timothy Gard, pioneer grand sire of the clan. Mrs. Miller, the Waldo P. Brown family and Miss Adele Ringo of Clarks, a niece of Mrs. Brown, went from Hubbard. During the business hour of the clan Mrs. Brown was elected secretary for the coming year and Mrs. L. E. Taylor of Portland was elected president.

Surprise Offered

Mehama—A double surfer towel and handkerchief shower was held Wednesday at the regular meeting of the Willing Workers honoring Mrs. F. A. Boyington and Mrs. Dick Phillips. Present were Mrs. Boyington and Mrs. Phillips, the honor guests, Mrs. Floyd Monroe, Mrs. Will Hughes, Mrs. M. E. Phillips, Mrs. Billie Wilson, Mrs. J. Teeters, Mrs. John Moe, Mrs. Clinton Phillips, Mrs. Maurice Colburn, Mrs. Giles Wagner, Mrs. Jack Ryland, Mrs. A. Z. Zander and Mrs. Elizabeth Hughes.

BACK FROM NEBRASKA

Monmouth—Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Coulter and Hershel, Jr., returned home this week from a motor trip to Nebraska where they visited relatives. Coulter will be employed in the Independence bakery. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Brown have left by car for Spokane to spend the summer with their daughter and her family and other relatives. Mrs. J. Yarnell and daughter, Edna, have gone to Springfield to be with relatives for a visit.

ARM IS RE-BROKEN

Clear Lake—Jimmy Nelson got his arm broke above the wrist while cranking a car. He was taken to the doctor again Wednesday and must have the arm broken on account of getting it set crooked.

WAR TIME MINISTER IN NEW ROLE

William Hughes, 70, who won world recognition as war-time prime minister of Australia, is playing a new role now as minister of health, leading a campaign to reduce the maternal mortality rate. He is visiting a little friend at a Melbourne maternity home. (Associated Press Photo)

WELL BRED SWINE DEMAND IS GOOD

Silverton—The demand for the well bred pigs raised by the boys of the Smith-Hughes department as credit projects under direction of Warren E. Crabtree, instructor, is increasing.

Ed Blyeu disposed of a young pure-bred Duroc Jersey pig to Martin Peel, Tuesday, who has recently moved to a small acreage east of town. This is of the Elmer Thompson and Tom Miller project from the A. N. Doerfler line.

Tom Miller received word that his small pig of the Duroc Jersey breed had safely reached its destination of Myrtle Point for the FFA chapter project.

Herbert Jones, a graduate of the Smith-Hughes department and active in productive project work, states that the demand for his Chester Whites is three times more than he can supply. The swine are wanted for breeding purposes. Jones has the Cass Nicol line.

Hubbard Vacation School Is Opened

Hubbard—The annual vacation school of St. Agnes church is now in session with classes every evening at the church from 6:30 to 8:30. Sister Irene is in charge of the older group of children and Sister Evangeline of the younger; both teachers are from the Mt. Angel school. The younger children are preparing for their first communion June 30 and the older ones for their confirmation. The school is under the supervision of Father Fleming, local pastor.

GUESTS AT ENDICOTT'S

Turner—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert True of Slough Falls, S. D., were guests Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Endicott and Miss Ada Thomas at the Endicott home. The Trues and Mrs. Endicott and Miss Thomas are old friends and the visit was a most enjoyable one. The visitors returned to Portland for several days' stay before starting the motor trip homeward.

HAMMACKS RETURN

Clear Lake—Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hammack have returned from eastern Oregon where they had been visiting Hammack's sister, Mrs. George Dodge. Mary Hammack accompanied them home. She had been visiting there for three weeks.

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. H. Goodman of Garibaldi are visiting at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Crockett for several weeks.

MORE DISTRICT VOTES OFFERED FROM ELECTION

Jefferson—Results of the school election from the nearby districts are as follows:

Talbot school District No. 136 elected D. E. Blinston as director for three years and Mrs. E. J. Freeman clerk for one year. The budget was accepted as read. Plans were made to level the school grounds in the near future.

William Wederkehr was re-elected director and Mrs. Rose Gilmore re-elected clerk at a meeting of the Sidney school district.

At the Parrish Gap school meeting Homer Davis was elected director and William Skelton was re-elected clerk.

Scravelhill district elected Martin Sorenson as director and Jack Berry clerk.

Mrs. Lillie Wilson was elected director and Mrs. Hazel Kelly was re-elected clerk of the DeVaney school district.

At the Looney Butte school meeting Chris Farman was re-elected director and Miss Greta Looney was re-elected clerk. It was voted to paint the schoolhouse inside and out and also the other buildings on the grounds. Roy Wickersham was given the contract. No special tax is to be voted in the district for the coming year.

Auburn—At the annual school meeting the installation of a water system and modern lavatories with a septic tank were approved. However, it will be necessary to hold another meeting after the improvements have been properly published. Other improvements approved were painting the schoolhouse and refilling and graveling the grounds. The proposed improvements are to cost approximately $600 to be paid in installments covering three years. Carl Krehbiel was re-elected clerk and Morton Townsend was elected director. The other directors are Lloyd A. Lee and B. H. Hawkins.

Directors and voters expressed themselves as opposed to the present system of grading and reports and will confer with the county superintendent, requesting that the old system be again used. The meeting was well attended and voting completed at an early hour.

Waconda—The annual school election was held at the school house. Britt Aspinwall was elected director and Mrs. Homer Egan re-elected clerk. A complete new water system will be installed before the new school term. Miss Jessie Richardson of Aumsville was rehired as teacher. Mrs. Frank Felton was re-elected as clerk at the Mission Bottom school election and Norman Parsons was elected director. Miss Gwendlyn Martin of Aumsville was rehired as teacher for the coming school year.

Sponsor Scouting

Woodburn—The Woodburn Business Men's Club at the regular meeting this week voted to sponsor a Boy Scout troop in Woodburn. A committee of five will be named to take charge of the troop and its activities.

Miss Hunt Hostess

Woodburn—Miss Gelta Mae Hunt entertained at a 1 o'clock luncheon Thursday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Hunt in honor of Miss Dorothy Austin who is leaving Sunday in company with Miss Katherine Livesley of Portland on a cruise to Alaska. A travelogue was presented to Miss Austin as a parting gift.

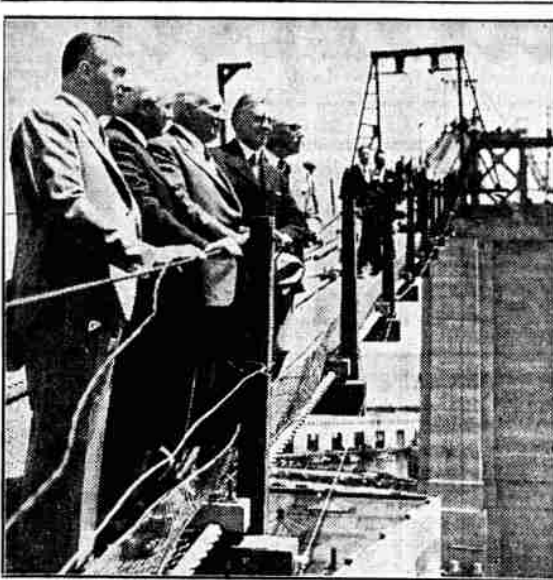

STOP IN MONMOUTH

Monmouth—Mrs. Layton Smith and her nephew, Lee Dutler of Portland, enroute to the coast to spend the summer at Devil's Lake were overnight guests Wednesday in Monmouth at the home of Mrs. Smith's son, W. L. Smith.

QUILTING BEE HELD

Waconda—Mrs. Frank Thompson, Mrs. William McGlechrist and Mrs. Robert Cole motored to Rickreall Thursday and attended a quilting bee at the home of Mrs. Ed Scharf who was a former resident of Waconda.

GOVERNOR SEES FIRST STRAND

Gov. Frank F. Merriam and other officials at the ceremony which attended the start of cable spinning operations on the new San Francisco-Oakland bay bridge. Watching the spinning are (left to right) Director of Public Works Earl Lee Kelley, Mayor Angelo Rossi of San Francisco, the governor, Mayor McCracken of Oakland and Chief Engineer C. H. Purcell. (Associated Press Photo)

LINN LINES Albany and county news in brief

POST HONORS LEADERS Albany—One of the interesting social events of the past week was the dinner given by the Albany American Legion post and its auxiliary to honor the past commanders and past presidents of the auxiliary Wednesday night in the Rose room at the Greyhound tavern. Mr. and Mrs. Alton Coates, who were the first commander and president of the post and auxiliary respectively, were honored at the dinner. Others honored were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fortmiller, Mrs. Roy Kinsey, Mrs. Lawrence Scharf-fenberg, Mrs. Carl Connet, Mrs. Gleda Spoor, Mrs. B. L. Brotherton, Loren Davis, George Parker, Frank Stellmacher and Z. E. Merrill.

TEACHER ON VACATION

Silverton—Miss Olive Cooke, a teacher in the Albany schools, is spending the summer months at the home of her mother, Mrs. Della Cooke of Silverton.

COUPLE GET LICENSE

Albany—A marriage license has been issued from the office of the county clerk to Delbert Edward, Condon, Ore., giving his age as legal and Cleo Ricketts, 17, Lebanon.

MUSIC TEACHER LEAVES

Albany—Olga Marie Jackson, a member of the Albany college school of music left Albany Thursday for Oakland, Calif., where she will attend the summer session at Mills college. Miss Jackson will return to Albany in August and will then leave for Camp Tamarack, camp for girls near Sisters, where she will teach.

NEW LAWS EXPLAINED

Albany—Explanations of new state laws affecting pharmacists, passed by the 1935 legislature and effective June 15, were made at a meeting of Albany and Corvallis druggists, at the Greyhound tavern in Albany Tuesday. John F. Allen, Corvallis, member of the state pharmacy board presented the talk. Mr. Allen's discussion concerned particularly the new law which includes denatured alcohol, "canned

STATE SESSION OF CHURCHES TO START TUESDAY

Turner—The 83rd annual gathering of the Oregon Disciples of Churches of Christ convenes at Turner pioneer tabernacle June 23 when the state convention session meets to continue throughout June 30.

The 1935 convention theme is "That They May All Be One." J. Warren Hastings of Seattle, Wash., will be the guest speaker of the convention with other prominent religious speakers taking active part on the program. Rev. Kendall E. Burke of Dallas is general chairman, Claude

Neely, music director and Mrs. Helen Neely, pianist, C. F. Swander of Portland is secretary and will give his state report on Wednesday afternoon.

Many representatives are anticipating for the convention and a larger attendance than last year is planned for. The full program for the entire convention will be announced within a few days. Tuesday afternoon, the opening day, includes registration at 4 o'clock. At 7:30 Tuesday night some service opens the 1935 religious gathering, which will be in charge of Claude Neely. Rev. Kendall E. Burke will preside and the address at 8 o'clock, "Why the Church?" will be given by the guest speaker, Rev. J. Warren Hastings of Seattle, Wash.

Talbot—Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Belknap and daughter, Ida, spent Monday and Tuesday at Garibaldi

"Gin of Gins" SAY THESE BOOSTERS

AMATEUR GARDENER

"Great hobby, this gardening, but let's head into the house for a delicious gin fizz made with grand Old Mr. Boston Dry Gin. Boy, how beautifully it blends. It adds such a glorious touch. But let's get at one, instead of talking about it."

FARMER

"After a long day in the sun—gosh, is there anything in the world half as grand as cool Old Mr. Boston Dry Gin STRAIGHT. It's real farmers' relief, so thirst-quenching, so satisfying and so smooth. It's the swellest flavored gin I ever tasted."

●Note how clear and wholesome Old Mr. Boston Dry Gin looks. It's 100% distilled and filtered the COSTLY way — through milk filters. The price is right.

OLD MR. BOSTON Distilled DRY GIN

"as smooth as old brandy"

STARTING TOMORROW

An ancient tomb reveals a modern criminal!

Charlie Chan IN EGYPT

with WARNER OLAND "PAT" PATERSON STEPIN FETCHIT

A FOX PICTURE

LAST DAY!

JACK HOLT UNWELCOME STRANGER

SALEM GRAND

A Home Owned Theater

HOLLYWOOD

Starting Sunday

Second World Premiere

ROMANCE COMES TO A MAN WITH ONLY 6 MONTHS MORE TO LIVE

Gene Stratton-Porter's KEEPER OF THE BEES

with NELL HAMILTON BETTY FURNESS

ELSINORE TODAY AND SAT.

Whoopee-ee!

They're on the roar path!

A goofy murder mystery which proves that the slapstick is mightier than the night stick!

Best Wheeler Woolsey

in THE NITWITS

with Fred Keating, Betty Grable, Evelyn Brent, Erik Rhodes.

—plus— Comedy News 500 Seats 25c

STATE THEATRE 10

TODAY ONLY!

Fred MacMurray (Star of "Gilded Lily")

—in—

CAR 99

It's A Real Action Show!

—ADDED—

Paramount Pictorial Screen Souvenirs and Comedy!