

FORUM CLOSES FOR HOLIDAYS THRU SUMMER

Silverton—One hundred and twenty-five were present at the banquet and business meeting of the Silverton chamber of commerce Wednesday evening with many others coming later for the dance and program at the Silverton Hills community hall, where the home economics committee of the Silverton Hills grange furnished the supper. This was the last meeting of the forum for the summer. W. P. Scarth presided with George W. Hubbs serving as secretary.

Mrs. Zelta Schlador, vice president, was in charge of the program and made this an all-children's affair. The three Crockett children, Alfred, Pearl and Donald, accompanied by their father, George Crockett, playing the piano accordion, gave a 40 minute concert of feature songs. The Herigstad triplets, assisted by C. Mires, played for the old-time dance following the program.

Introduced as a special guest was Steven Butler, newly elected head of the musical department of the Silverton schools, who gave a brief talk on his hobby in music. The business session directly following the banquet was brief with George W. Hubbs urging the co-operation of the farmers in the new refrigeration plant to be built within the month by the Garver and Graham company providing sufficient in numbers subscribe their intention to rent lockers for a year.

Two special visitors were Hill and Niederfrank, agriculturalists from Oregon State college, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Crabtree. Dr. Loar in his report is not yet ready to give up the hopes of getting the loop road of the Silver Falls highway oiled, although nothing definite is promised from the commission.

The first meeting in the fall will be the third Wednesday in September.
