

OLD ELI CREWS SWEEP TO VICTORY OVER HARVARD

ROOSEVELT, JR., LOSES SHIRT JAYVEE RACE

New London, Conn., June 21 (AP)—Yale made a clean sweep in the morning races of the 73rd annual regatta with Harvard on the Thames today, when the Blue Junior Varsity defeated the Crimson Varsity over the two-mile course from the submarine base to Bartlett's Cove.

In the first race of the day the Yale freshman eight, rowing over the same two-mile, upstream course, defeated the Harvard frosh by six feet.

Among the spectators was President Roosevelt who followed to the referee's launch in order to get a good view of his son and namesake who pulled the No. 4 oar in the Jayvee shell.

The finish was equally as breathtaking as that in the frosh race which the Eli yearlings also won by six feet after trailing for the first mile.

It was the second time the president had seen his son pull a losing oar. Franklin, Jr., was a member of the losing Harvard freshman boat-lead last year.

The Jayvee race completed, the crews drew together a few feet above the finish line and went through the traditional ceremony in which the losing oarsmen handed over their shirts to their conquerors.

NEEDHAM ENTERING SWIM TOURNAMENT
Portland, Ore., June 21 (AP)—More than 78 contestants today had entered the Pacific northwest amateur swimming and diving championships to be held Saturday at Jantzen beach park.

Miss Olive McKean, Washington Athletic club, is expected to lower the record time of 1:10.6 in the 100-meter free-style race for women. She has been timed as low as 1:08 for the event.

Jack Medina, holder of more world records than any other swimmer and another Washington Athletic club entrant, will concentrate on the 800-meter and the 100-yard free style events. Winfield Needham, junior national distance titlist, probably will press Medina in the 800-meter swim.

Fred Rooster, Herbert Eisenhardt, Ray Jeffcott, Audrey Hafenden and Nancy Lewis, all of Multnomah club, Portland, are prospective record-breakers.

GARNERA PLANNING ASSAULT ON BODY
Owaseo Lake, N. Y., June 21 (AP)—Indications that Primo Garnera intends to concentrate on Joe Louis' body in their 15-round bout in Yankee stadium Tuesday night have been evident in the former champion's training the past few days.

After looking bad against Natie Brown on Wednesday, Garnera showed a much better defense in a 2-round bout with Brown yesterday. Only once was Brown able to get over a hard punch.

Pompton Lakes, N. J., June 21 (AP)—Joe Louis planned to return to his boxing today after a rest yesterday. The Detroit negro heavyweight probably will box three times more before Tuesday night's bout with Primo Garnera.

Baseball At Dallas Will Be Resumed
Dallas—Hostilities in the city baseball league will be resumed on Tuesday night when the Merchants and the Mill clash in the first game of the second half of the season.

Dallas Merchants Beat Independence
Dallas—In one of the best games of softball played here this season the Merchants defeated a team from Independence in a nine innings tilt 7-2 Wednesday night.

Allen's Arm Improves; Yankees Benefit, Lead Americans Big Margin

Many reasons have been advanced as to why the New York Yankees lead the American league pack by five and one-half games, not the least of which is Johnny Allen, the man who came back. His arm went bad early last year with the result he was offered a contract calling for $1 a year until he showed Boss Joe McCarthy that he had regained his old time effectiveness.

The statistics tell the remainder of the story. Johnny has chalked up six victories against two defeats and ranks second only to Vito Tamulis among the hurlers on a team that boasts such stars as Lefty Gomez and Charlie Ruffing.

CHANDLER EGAN TO ENTER GOLF PLAY
Seattle, June 21 (AP)—H. Chandler Egan, Medford, Ore., national amateur golf champion 31 years ago, five times northwest champion, four times western amateur champion, and Walker cup player, was due to arrive in Seattle today to practice for the northwest tournament to be played at Seattle Golf club, June 24-29.

Mrs. Vera Hutchings Ford, Seattle, formerly of Vancouver, B. C., will strive for her seventh title now held by Miss Marion McDougall of Portland. Mrs. Guy C. Riegel, Spokane, will also compete. She won the championship nine years ago.

Philadelphia—Tommy Loughran 188, Philadelphia, outpointed Ray Impellitteri, 254, Utica, N. Y. (10); LeRoy Haynes, 197, Los Angeles, outpointed Eddie "Unknown" Winslow, 192, Hartford, Conn. (10); Dallas, Texas—Baby Manuel, 127, Miami, Fla., outpointed Howard Scott, 127, San Angelo, Tex. (10).

SEALS MEASURE DUCKS 7 TO 5, INDIANS LOSE

(By the Associated Press) For the third time in as many days, San Francisco and Portland settled their baseball differences by a score of 7 to 5. The Seals took the measure of the Ducks by that score last night to force one game ahead in the series standings.

Win Ballou who gave out 17 hits was saved from defeat by the trusty left arm of Walter "The Great" Math. Math entered the game in the ninth with the bases bulging and only one out and struck out the side. Gil English, Portland third sacker, led the Duck's attack with a homer, two doubles and a single.

Los Angeles scored twice on two hits and an error in the seventh to defeat Seattle 2 to 0. Howard Craighead allowed only three other hits in the game. Mike Meola of the Angels was reached just seven times but was in hot water twice when the tribe loaded the bags.

Sacramento unlimbered a pair of long bore rifles in the persons of Paul Gregory and Manuel Salvo, two lanky right-handers, who effectively knocked off Hollywood 3 to 1. Heavy-hitting Gene DeSautels, star catcher, was chased by the showers early in the game by Umpire Jack Powell.

Wayne Osborne, young right handed Mission Red fliker, turned in another fine performance to beat his Transbay rivals from Oakland 5 to 2. Only one of the Oak's runs was earned. The other came on an error by Oscar Eckhardt.

Mt. Angel Juniors Will Continue Play

Mt. Angel—After winning four consecutive games, the Mt. Angel American Legion junior baseball team holds the Marion county championship. Although no plans have as yet been made, the team will probably compete for the state championship.

NORTH MARION CONTEST CLOSE

North Marion county fans who have been following the fortunes of baseball teams in that section will journey to Woodburn Sunday where the final contest for the league championship will take place.

Woodburn and Molalla, tied for the lead, will settle their differences beginning at 2:30. Susee will pitch for Woodburn while Fluke will be on the mound for Molalla.

Woodburn 6 1 .857

WAITS BEATEN BY APPLIANCE MEN, 7-6 COUNT

Softball fans who stayed away from Sweetland field Thursday night missed one of the most thrilling contests of the season when Waits, hitherto sole undefeated club, lost an uphill battle to Hoggs Brothers, 7-6. Largely through their ability to hit Roth, the butchers piled up a 7 to 2 lead during the first four innings.

Waits began to creep up on their opponents, scoring two in the sixth and falling one short of knotting the count in the ninth. Hoggs played some smart ball in the eighth. With one out in that frame Aden and Gribble hit safely while Craig went out at first. With two one base Ritchie was deliberately walked, filling the sacks. R. Seguin, next up, was thrown out at first for the final out.

Pades beat Oregon Paper 12 to 3 in the nightcap. The contest was fairly close until the ninth when the grocers hit safely five times to score seven runs.

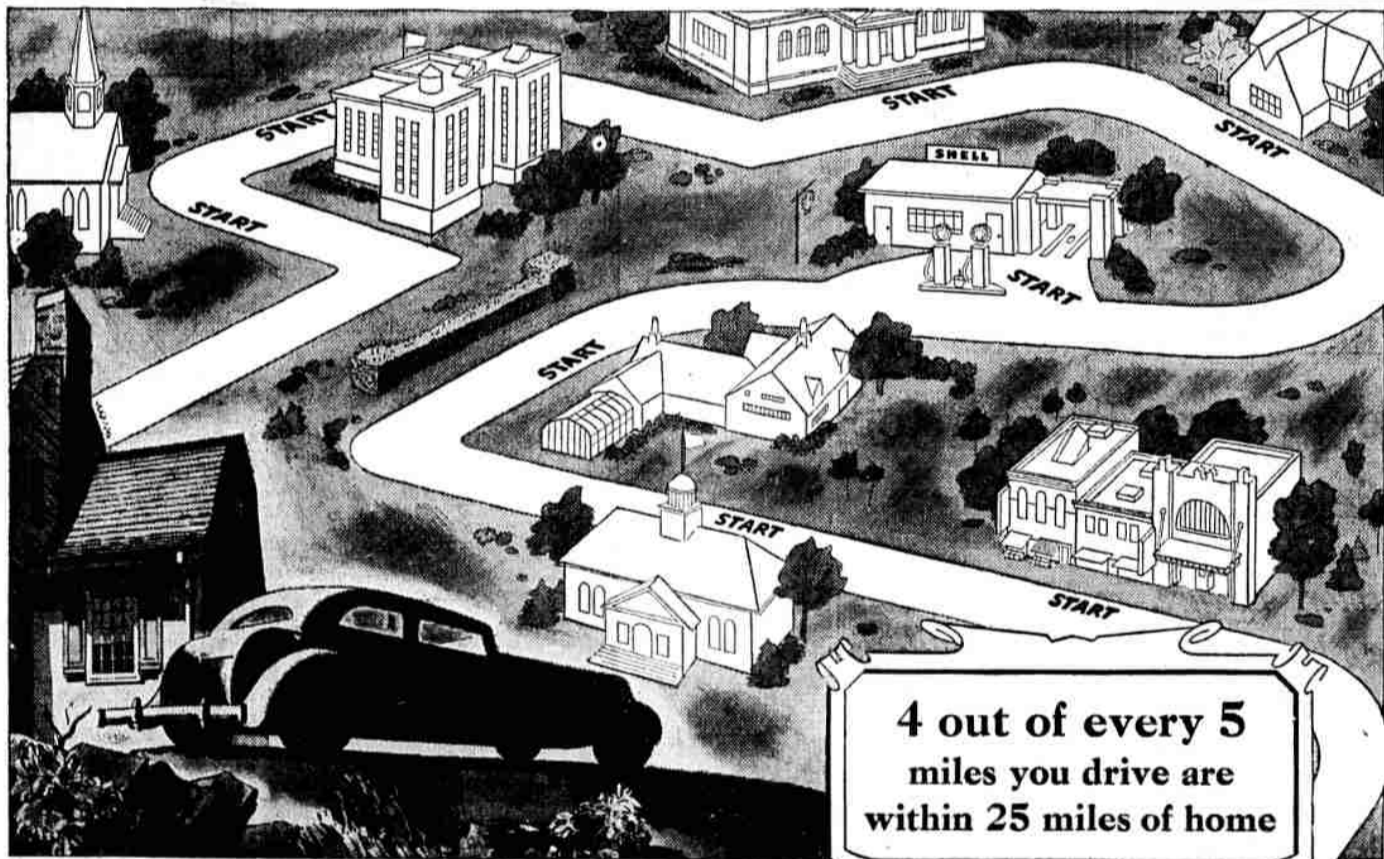

Friday night's games will feature Master Bread and Kays at 8:30 and Aden and Parkers vs. Eagles at 9:30.
