White Man Customs Embarrass Indians

Polson, Mont. (U.P.)—Seven years ago, Louie Hammer and Elizabeth Woodcock obtained a marriage license.

A few days ago, Indian service agents visited the Hammer tepee and asked embarrassing questions.

A few hours later, they appeared before Mayor J. H. Cline with Louie and Elizabeth, and the mayor completed the white man's formalities—by conducting the marriage ceremony.

WOLVES MORE FEROCIOUS

Oregon, Iowa (U.P.)—Raids on sheep flocks by wolves and dogs recently have caused more widespread damage than in any normal year. Dog packs, usually slow to attack mature sheep, this season are attacking young lambs.
