

50TH ACADEMY CLASS MEETS: POEM OFFERED

Dallas—One of the highlights of the annual reunion of Dallas college, La Greole academy and Lafayette seminary, held Saturday at the city park was the observance of the 50th anniversary of the class of 1885. All the members of the class were on hand to fittingly recognize the occasion.

Fellow students paid tribute to the group by the placing of a large birthday cake, bearing the figures 1885, in the center of the dining table. A poem, written by Dean Collins, and read by Mrs. Ora Cooper of the class of '84, eulogized each member individually.

Members of the class are Mrs. Lottie Palmgren Randall of Pullman, Wash.; Mrs. Mary Powell Robinson of Walla Walla, Wash.; Willard G. Wright of Medford, Ore.; Arthur L. Veazie of Portland, Ore.; Carrie L. Howe of Portland and J. C. Ellis of Dallas.

One student in the class of '84 was present and two members of the class of '83. The former was Reuben Robinson and the two latter were Mrs. Ora Cooper and Mrs. Cleo Butz.

Officers elected for the coming year were Lynn Gubser, county school superintendent of Yamhill county, president; Mrs. John Cerny, vice-president; Mrs. Eugene Hayter, secretary, and N. L. Guy, treasurer. The members of the class of 1885 and a number of the oldtimers from out-of-town were entertained at a dinner in the evening by J. C. Ellis, who is the assistant postmaster here at the present time. Following the dinner the group went to the Butz home for the balance of the evening.

Mrs. Young exhibited a pressed leaf given to her by the late Mrs. Libbie Morcom who was the first president of the Woodburn union.

Refreshments were served by the hosts, assisted by Mrs. Elia Hata and Mrs. P. M. Hammond. There was a good attendance.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. W. Hata, 755 Harrison street, August 9.

BARN ARE BURNED IN MYSTERY BLAZE

Jefferson—Fire of unknown origin destroyed two large barns on the A. B. Hinz ranch in the Parrish Gap district about three miles northeast of town Sunday afternoon. The fire started in the old barn containing several tons of hay, igniting the new barn nearby which was built this spring. The new barn contained about 39 tons of hay recently put in. The loss was partially covered by insurance. On account of no water facilities there was no way of controlling the fire. Only by hard work of the neighbors and men from town saved the house which caught fire in several places. A caretaker, Jim Martin, is living on the place which is owned by A. B. Hinz, local hardware merchant.

Quite a bad brush fire resulted which burned over a portion of the Hinz and Libby farms but was finally controlled without much damage.
