

STATE SCHOOL ANNUAL DINNER GREAT AFFAIR

Hubbard—The second annual dinner for the staff of officers at the Oregon State training school for boys was held Wednesday night in the auditorium of the school with about 60 officers, state officials and friends of the school in attendance and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Loughlin hosts. The superintendent acted as toastmaster and also gave some of the highlights of the past year's work at the school. Superintendent Loughlin said that the present cost per inmate per month is approximately $2.

Last minute conflicts prevented the attendance of members of the board of control, all of whom had indicated they were to come. Governor Martin sent as representative D. O. Hood, director of the state budget. Walter G. Gleason, grand keeper of records and seals for the Knights of Pythias in Oregon and recently appointed on a state board to investigate juvenile delinquency, spoke briefly.

Representing Earl Snell, secretary of state, Dr. P. O. Riley and Rev. Father Rubis of the St. Luke's Catholic church of Woodburn spoke.

A program of orchestral and vocal music was played preceding and during the banquet. Mrs. John T. Myers had charge of the arrangements.

An eight piece orchestra, directed by Dr. A. F. de Lespinasse played several band and concert selections. Membership of the orchestra was Dr. de Lespinasse, Mrs. de Lespinasse, Marie de Lespinasse, Mrs. George Grims, Miss Orva Barrett, Mrs. R. C. Painter, Clarence Bevena, Arthur Shrock and Don Covey.

The dinner was served by a corps of boys trained by the hostess, Mrs. McLaughlin. Other special guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lindbeck, Mrs. P. O. Riley, Mrs. Gleason and members of the orchestra.

Superintendent and Mrs. Loughlin plan to continue this custom of banqueting the school's staff, the board of control and friends. This is the Loughlins' third year at the school.

Stayton Townsend Club Has Election

Stayton—A large crowd attended the Townsend meeting held in the Star theatre Wednesday evening. Election of officers was held with all present officers including Mrs. Elizabeth Crabtree, president; Frank Lesley, vice president and Mrs. Nora Lesley re-elected. D. Geo. Cain; treasurer, Hans Christensen; composing the executive board are the officers and the following: Chris A. Nesheim, Mrs. R. L. Gourlie, E. A. Domogalla, Everett Cramer, Mrs. J. E. Bloomer and J. W. Gehring. Chairman of the finance committee is H. N. Klev; of the membership committee is J. Van Camp; of the program committee is Mrs. G. B. Benson; of the social committee, George Cusick and of the publicity committee J. E. Hosmer.

WALKS TEN MILES WITH BERRY PAIRS

Silverton—Mrs. H. E. Wells of the Bridge Creek district thinks nothing of walking to town. She does dependable hiking shoes, picks two or more gallons of wild blackberries and walks the first ten miles, carrying the berries, and when she reaches Drakes crossing takes to the highway and sometimes catches a ride the last ten miles. She can depend on three and a half to four hours for the trip to Silverton and states that this is the best way she knows of keeping physically fit. She does not experience fatigue during the afternoons of the days she makes the hike. She came to Silverton Wednesday for a few days' visit with Mrs. Carrie Gilbert.

Thrills Are Sought; Thrills Are Found

Turner—The thrill of a lifetime was experienced Wednesday evening by Robert Laird and Edward Schmidt, graduates of the Turner high school, who thought it would be sport to ride a freight train from here to visit friends. Upon discovering the train to be a through one the youths jumped, resulting in painful cuts and bruises, as well as badly torn clothing. Their injuries were given attention, and Laird fainted when getting a badly injured hand dressed. The boys felt pretty shaky from the experience and remained with local friends until Thursday morning. Neither had any desire to return to Salem via freight, however.

PICNIC AT EILERS

Aurora—The country home of Mr. and Mrs. U. Eilers, located on the banks of the Willamette near Wilsonville, was the scene of a crowd of picnicers when between 50 and 60 relatives and friends gathered at their place. In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Eilers of Corvallis and Mrs. and Mrs. Gus Abendroth of Burlington, Calif., the latter being guests at the Eilers home. Mrs. Abendroth and Mr. Eilers are brother and sister.

MASSIES ENTERTAIN

Hazel Green—The Robert Massie family have had as their guest the past two months Frances Boone of Toledo. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Boone (Verla Massie) of Toledo, who have been visiting in Portland spent the week-end at the Massie home and on their departure were accompanied by Francis Boone. Additional guests at the Massie home the past week were the Misses Jean and Lois Sharp of Medford. A swimming party at Glen's park and a motor trip to Albany to hear Evangelist Elmer McKay were enjoyed by the Massies and their guests.

MOVE TO HOMERE

Hopmore—A new family has just moved into the Joe Gigger house at Hopmore. They are Mr. and Mrs. Sparks and family, Ray, Mary, Glenn, Christopher, Clara May, Wayne, Billy, Grace Ann, and the baby Shirley. They came from Junta, Colo.

RENFREWS ARE HOME

Aurora—Dr. and Mrs. Renfrew have returned to their home, after a two weeks' vacation, which was devoted mostly to fishing in eastern Oregon streams.

Hopmore—Guests at the John Meithoff home were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Meithoff and their daughter, Mrs. Ted Shaner of Siletz, also Mrs. Niederheller and her son.

Hubbard Townsend Club Has Talks

Hubbard—The Townsend club is planning an outdoor meeting for next Wednesday evening with Judge Jeffries of Portland as the main speaker and little 11 year old Dorothy Utterback, child orator, as an added attraction. She is also from Portland. The Hubbard band will ballyhoo before the speaking. Ice cream and cake will be offered for sale after the program. The speaking will be at the band stand on Main street. George Knight, president of the club, and Enos Miller, secretary, are in charge of evening.

Cat Defends Terrier Pal In Dog Fight

Silverton—Duke, a fair sized terrier has a pal that is really a pal in the family cat. A Persian of aristocratic breed. The two are the pride of the H. Holm family and have never been at outs.

Duke prides himself on being able to whip any other dog in the neighborhood excepting the above mentioned bulldog belonging to the Dewey Service family. Some dog language must have been whispered in the Service bull's ready ear, for without known provocation he came to the Holm backyard and began to soundly trounce Duke. Duke held his own line for several minutes but at last the visitor downed him and had a bad hold on his throat.

Madam Persian had left her three kittens in their box and watched proceedings from a safe distance in the potato patch with her back arched. When Duke went down, Kitty went up in the air and landed on the bulldog's back performing a literal eye-opener on his face. She took a free ride to the Service back door then returned and ate gravy with Duke.

FALL FESTIVAL TAXING SPACE

West Stayton—Early inquiries for booths at the harvest festival to be held September 14 and 15 indicate there will be a question of how many tents needed. Last year a large top was added to the two large ones used the year before. Different arrangements are planned so as to accommodate the entries to a better advantage. Two Salem industries have been out this week inquiring for space.

O. T. McWhorter, horticulture specialist at the state college will be judge of the vegetables and J. R. Beck, county agent in Polk county will do the cattle judging. The judges of other departments are not definite.

The board and chairmen of all committees are shaping their various plans and interest is gaining as the time draws closer. The surrounding committees are also interested. The Cherry City amplifier will be on the grounds both days announcing all events.

NORTH HOWELL CLUB GUEST DUNN'S HOME

North Howell—The July meeting of the North Howell Grange Home Economic club was held at the home of Mrs. Anna Dunn. A large number of members attended although berry and cherry harvest was at the peak of the season. Oregon history was omitted and each present was asked to tell how and where they spent the Fourth of July. A social gathering was discussed and also the gathering of the history of the past and present families of the community.

EMBROIDERY CLUB TAKING VACATION

Millersburg—The last meeting of the Wednesday Embroidery club until after the harvest season was held at the home of Mrs. Floyd Fisher. Plans were made for a club picnic for their families and friends to be held at Bryant's park in Albany the second Sunday in August. Following the business meeting, the time was spent informally. Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

Three Card Table Evening Enjoyed

Mr. Angel—Three tables of bridge were in play throughout the evening when Mrs. Paul Schwab entertained her bridge club Wednesday evening at her home. The high score prize went to Mrs. L. A. LeDoux and Mrs. C. J. Eder received the door prize. The hostess served a luncheon at a late hour following the card playing.

Those present were Mrs. L. A. LeDoux, Mrs. Chas. Ullman, Mrs. P. J. Schwab, Mrs. C. J. Eder, Mrs. Herman Schwab, Mrs. William Klotz, Mrs. Eugene Hoffer, Mrs. Leo Schwab, Mrs. Albert Eder, Mrs. J. L. Wachter, Mrs. C. Butsch and Miss Marie Eder.
