Bridge Luncheon Is Outstanding Event On Today's Calendar

ONE of the smartest affairs calendared for the week by capital socialites was the au revoir bridge luncheon given this afternoon by Mrs. Laban A. Steeves and Mrs. A. D. Woodmansee in compliance to Mrs. J. T. Delaney, who will leave in the near future for San Francisco to make her home. The luncheon was given in the gardens of the Steeves' State street residence, with several hours of contract following indoors. Summer garden flowers were used in the decorative scheme about the drawing room.

Bidden to honor Mrs. Delaney were Mrs. John Beakey, Mrs. Curtis Johnson, Mrs. B. P. Pound, Mrs. A. C. Gragg, Mrs. Vernon Hockett, Mrs. Eva Hulsey, Mrs. E. H. Kennedy, Mrs. Willis E. Vincent, Mrs. Harris Lietz, Mrs. E. V. Wootton, Mrs. A. L. Adolphson, Mrs. L. V. Benson, Mrs. Lynn D. Lambeth, Mrs. Roy Stewart, Mrs. Karl Heinlein, Mrs. H. K. Stockwell, Mrs. Alice Daubney of Seattle, Mrs. William Tinsley of San Francisco, Mrs. Ralph Campbell, Mrs. L. H. Gilbertson, Mrs. R. D. Paris, Mrs. H. A. Wiley, Mrs. H. L. Staver, Mrs. J. A. Hermann and the hostesses, Mrs. A. D. Woodmansee and Mrs. Laban A. Steeves.

Affairs Fete Popular Visitor

The country place of the B. O. Schuckings in Eola Hills was the scene of a charmingly arranged luncheon Wednesday when Mrs. Schuckings entertained in compliance to Mrs. George Guyles of Tacoma, who is the guest of Miss Mabel P. Robertson.

Mrs. Sheldon P. Sackett has asked guests in for tea in her Fairmount hill residence this afternoon honoring Mrs. Guyles.

Miss Valda Davis Honored Guest

Silverton—Mrs. Reinhard Holm entertained a group of relatives and friends for the pleasure of Miss Valda Davis, fiancée of her son, Richard, Tuesday evening at her home in East Hill. Pink and white sweet peas and gladioli were used about the rooms and on the serving table and gift table. The evening was spent informally.

Present were Mrs. Carl Jensen of Salem, Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Mrs. Charles Leonard, Mrs. Conrad Johnson, Mrs. S. Nelson, Mrs. E. S. Miss Libby Potter Tells Betrothal

September promises to be a popular month for brides. Latest to add her name to the list of September brides is Miss Elizabeth Potter, daughter of Mrs. Kern Potter of Portland, whose engagement to Wesley Charles Taft, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Taft, was announced Tuesday at a tea for which the bride-elect's aunt, Mrs. E. W. St. Pierre, was hostess in her honor.

At the same time the date of her marriage was announced. The wedding will be an event of the afternoon of September 7 at the home of the bride's mother, Miss Dorothy Potter will be her sister's only attendant and Dwight Taft will act as best man for his brother.

Miss Potter attended Wellesley for three years, finishing at the University of Oregon, where she was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma. She has often visited in Salem. Mr. Taft is a graduate of Oregon State college and is a member of Beta Theta Pi.

Couple to Live In the Capital

Miss Valerie Ree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnt Ree of Eugene and Henry McKibben, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McKibben of Airle, Oregon, were married at a ceremony performed Sunday, August 4 at the Ree summer home up the McKenzie. The service was read before a bower of ferns, with baskets of pastel colored gladioli on either side.

The bride wore a green organdy dress and carried a bouquet of pink roses and white sweet peas. The maid of honor, Miss Irene Embler of Portland, wore heliopsis chiffon and gladioli were used about the rooms and on the serving table and gift table. The evening was spent informally.

A reception and dinner was held following the ceremony with Mrs. Marsh Goodwin, Mrs. R. R. Ramsey and Mrs. Elmer Gilbertson serving. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Ona Durech of Roseburg, Miss Jo Ramsay, Miss Alice Ree and Mrs. B. Wilsson.

The couple will reside at Salem.
