Benefit Concert in Allen Gardens Friday Evinces Great Interest

CORDIAL social and musical interest is being evinced by capital city residents in the musical planned for Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock in the charming gardens of the George Allen residence in North 17th street. The affair is being arranged as a benefit for the Salem Philharmonic Orchestra and Miss Barbara Pittock, widely known lyric soprano of Portland and daughter of the P. F. Pitlocks, will be the guest artist.

An special invitation is being extended to local music lovers to attend the affair and to greet Miss Pittock at the reception which will follow the concert. Miss Pittock is tremendously interested in the musical progress of the northwest. She is connected with the Portland Opera association and interests herself in the affairs of the Portland Symphony orchestra.

The young artist will sing from the porch of the Allen home overlooking the gardens and the tennis court. A continental atmosphere is being created by the director.

STUDENTS TO REGISTER FOR COMING YEAR

Mt. Angel—Mt. Angel Normal school will register students for the fall term on September 17-18. Classes will open September 19.

This school has become known throughout the country as a center of Benedictine culture, having been built up around the two Benedictine communities, the Benedictine Fathers, who conduct a college and seminary, and the Benedictine Sisters, who have the normal school and an academy for girls.

Mt. Angel Normal is fully accredited by the Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Education and the state of Oregon. The many successful teachers who have received their training at Mt. Angel have built up an enviable reputation for Mt. Angel Normal and have made its graduates in demand in Marion and surrounding counties.

For the last two years, Mt. Angel college has been offering college extension work on the normal school campus, thus enabling young women to receive the bachelor's degree there. Mt. Angel college also offers the first two years of the nursing curriculum leading to a bachelor of science or arts degree, the final two years of work to be continued at St. Vincent hospital school of nursing.

Mt. Angel academy is a standard four-year high school. High school students who plan to become teachers or nurses find the high school courses arranged at Mt. Angel with special attention to preparing students for these vocations. Commercial work and high school journalism are also offered.

Many Residents Of Silverton Moving

Silverton—A round of moving for Silverton residents has resulted from Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lorenzen having purchased a home in Gelsler addition, the Jaeschke property where they moved from South Water street. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lorenzen of the Brush Creek community will occupy the Lorenzen home on South Water street. The Carl Klenz family will move to the C. Klenz place from the A. Mathys farm in the Brush Creek district and the Bachelor family from the Evergreen section will occupy the Mathys ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Hemanings, who have recently made their residence in Toledo, have leased their Silverton home to Mr. and Mrs. Doug Brady who are moving from the Terry apartments.

Mehama—Mrs. Fannie Ottlinger and small grandson, Jimmie Phillips, arrived Monday for a week's visit at the home of M. E. Phillips.

E. J. Bell Attends Foresters' Session

Stayton—Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bell and daughter, Lela Mae and Roberta drove to Portland Sunday where Bell attended a meeting of the state court of Catholic Order of Foresters.

They also visited Mrs. Bell's father, Charles Hottinger, who is ill in a Portland hospital. They report his condition is somewhat improved and plan to bring him to his home in Sublimity the latter part of the week.

Ranch Will at His

Hubbard—August Will, accompanied by his grandson, Leland Kocher, and William Barrett spent the week-end at his ranch south of Eugene. The men returned Monday. Miss Maxine Willet, senior at Monmouth Normal, whose home is in Sheild, spent the week end with Miss Frances Leffler at the Leffler ranch east of Hubbard. Miss Willet came to attend the wedding of Miss Marie de Lespinasse to Donald E. Covey Sunday. Miss Willet, Miss Leffler and Miss deLespinasse were housemates at school last year when the three girls were at Normal.

Wallace Brown, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Waldo R. Brown, spent a week with his aunt, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding in Salem. Miss Grace Ingram, nurse at the Dornbecker spent the week end at the Brown farm east of town.

AT TILLAMOOK

Mt. Angel—A group of business men of Mt. Angel spent the week-end at the Tillamook beaches. Those in the party were Paul F. Schwab, Louis A. Schwab, Fred Schwab, Herman Leebach and Fred J. Schwab, Albert Schwan, Jos. L. Wichter, Albert Bourbonnais and William Kloff.

NEUFELD FAMILY TO SEE EXPOSITION

Independence—Rev. A. J. Neufeld and family will leave the first of next week for California where they will visit a brother and other relatives, and then go on to the San Diego exposition.

Mr. Neufeld is pastor of the Methodist church and will preach next Sunday evening in the hop bowl at Independence to one of the largest audiences probably ever to listen to a sermon in the hop bowl.

There will be union services of all the churches in the city at that time and each Sunday evening during the hop-picking season. Special music by an orchestra will be a feature of the evening.

The pastor has arranged for a supply for his pulpit during his absence in the south, and each Sunday morning there will be a different speaker. Announcement of these speakers will be made later. The Piney Wood colored singers will appear at the Methodist church this Thursday evening, Aug. 22nd, and no doubt will be greeted by a well-filled church. They have been here before and were well received.

BUY NEAR NEWBERG

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sturdivant and son and daughter, Robert and Edna of Myrtle Point recently visited at the home of Mrs. Sturdivant's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Busch. The Sturdivants were on their way to their new home, a ten acre tract near Newberg, Mr. and Mrs. Busch and James, Clifford and Warren spent Sunday with the Sturdivants.
