

PADES DEFEAT MC MINNVILLE 9 TO 4, FIRST ROUND

MILWAUKIE TO PLAY ROTARY BREAD SQUAD

WEDNESDAY NIGHT
8 p.m.—Rotary Bread vs. Milwaukie.
9 p.m.—Eugene vs. Oregon City.

TUESDAY RESULTS
Pades 9, McMinnville 5.
M & M 10, Toledo 0.
Lebanon 2, Corvallis 3.

The third round of play in the Oregon softball tournament being held under the lights on Sweetland field, will bring in one of the two teams which has not competed so far—Oregon City. Albany, the other club yet to demonstrate its prowess, will not make its formal bow until Thursday night when it takes on Pades of Salem. Both teams drew byes in the pairings.

Rotary Bread, one of the chief contenders in the tournament, but which was hard to get a line on early in the week because of the poor showing made by Astoria, will face a stiff competition tonight in Milwaukie. The second and final game of the night's session will bring together Eugene and Oregon City. Both contests bear the earmarks of being real ball games.

Pades, Salem and state champions, successfully negotiated their first hurdle Wednesday night by whang-firing a 9 to 3 victory over Andy Peterson's McMinnville aggregation. M & M Woodworkers of Portland, with Mickey Berlant on the mound during the early innings, blanked Toledo 10 to 0, while Corvallis nosed out Lebanon 3 to 2 in one of the tightest games of the season. Monday night's crowd of more than a thousand paid admissions was exceeded last night by at least two or three hundred.

When Pades checked in with four runs in the opening frame, it appeared that a repetition of the 22-0 victory of Rotary Bread over Astoria was in the offing. However, McMinnville tightened and held the state champions fairly close thereafter.

Gilmore, evidently working under somewhat of a strain, had difficulty with his control and frequently worked the count up to three and two. When McMinnville scored once in the fourth and twice in the fifth to bring the count to 8 to 3 against them, it appeared the locals might have a little difficulty. However, they went out and added three more in the fifth and sixth to give them a safe margin. Kitchen, with three safe hits, and Adolph and Schmeckel, with two each were the heavy hitters.

McMinnville earned but one of their runs while Pades worked for six of theirs.

Berlant, struck out 17 batters before he retired in favor of Allard at the end of the seventh. The former did not yield a hit until the seventh when Toledo batters connected safely twice.

The Lebanon-Corvallis mix was the closest of the series to date. Lee, Chinese moundman, held Lebanon to three hits, two of them resulting in a run in the second. Larson for Lebanon was almost as effective. Corvallis bunched two hits off him in the third, to score three times. Two errors assisted materially in the run gathering.

Fans will probably be given an opportunity to look over the slants of Georgetown, see Rotary Bread chucker, tonight, although it is possible he may be saved for the semi-final Thursday night.

Oct. 13—Albany here.
Oct. 26—Medford there.
Nov. 2—Astoria there.
Nov. 11—Eugene there.
Nov. 16—McMinnville here.
Nov. 22—The Dalles there.
Nov. 28—Corvallis here.

NICHOLS TURNS IN MEDALIST HONORS

Gearhart by the Sea, Aug. 21 (P)—L. J. Nichols of Lake Oswego bettered par by two strokes as he turned in a 70 for men's medalist honors in the qualifying round of the Oregon coast mid-summer championship tournament here yesterday.

Art Ulmer, Gearhart youngster, led the young men's division for those under 32 years of age with a par beating 71. Right on Ulmer's heels came Bill Cline of Salem, Marty Leplick and Wes Berner of Portland and Morton Vines of Tualatin, all tied for par 72.

Cecil W. Rodgers of Eastmoreland, Stoddard of Oswego, Bill Croable and H. Dehan of Portland were next with 73's. Six of the youngsters' sections were grouped at 74. They were W. Wilcox, Dick Hedges, F. R. Doane, George Inglis and Bob Hofer, all of Portland, and Ed Palmrose of Seaside.

Women's Class Has Park Session Today

Silverton—The members of the Royal Woman's class of the First Christian Sunday school met Wednesday in the city park with the program starting at 2 o'clock, and a supper to be served late in the afternoon. For the social hour guests from Scotts Mills Christian church and from the Court Street Christian church in Salem were present.

COMPANY COMES

McMaha—Sunday guests at the Moe home were Anna, Ben and Oscar Anderson of Battleground, Hill, rf; Wash, Mrs. Estenbert and Henry Olinier, 3b; and Mrs. Sig Moe and daughter, Adolph, lf; and Mrs. Ed Woare and daughter Evelyn of Silverton.

DETROIT MAKES BID FOR LOUIS BAER IMBROGLIO

New York, Aug. 21 (P)—This Joe Louis-Max Baer fight must loom as a pretty piece of fistcluffs the way the different cities are bidding for it. Indications are that the bout will take place at the polo grounds in New York September 24, but Detroit, the home town of the brown bomber, has made an offer that is making Promoter Mike Jacobs sit back and take notice.

Frederic H. Schneider announced that a group of prominent Detroit citizens would bid $300,000 to bring the attraction to Detroit. The fight would be staged at Haven field with accommodations arranged for 85,000 persons.

Schneider said the decision to underwrite the bout for this amount, with a third to each of the fighters and a third to Jacobs, was reached at a meeting of Detroit business men at the Detroit Athletic club.

Jacobs was in a huddle with the New York state athletic commission yesterday, at the latter's request. He asked to consider the matter more and said that after going further into the details today he probably would make a final decision tomorrow.

Asked if Chicago was still being considered as a site, Jacobs said: "Chicago still is a possible site, along with Detroit. Both have made attractive offers and will be given full consideration, although there are strong reasons to influence holding the fight right here in New York."

FEATHER CHAMPION DEFEATS BERNARD

Cincinnati, Aug. 21 (P)—Freddie Miller, recognized by the National Boxing association as the featherweight champion of the world, knocked Roger Bernard of Flint, Mich., through 10 rounds last night to show 6000 howling fans just how he did it through a year of fight campaigning in Europe. It was his first appearance in an American ring since his return three weeks ago, his title not being at stake.

Both men entered the ring over the 126 pound weight limit of the featherweight division. Miller scaled 128½, Bernard 129½.

The bout almost ended in the second round, when Miller ruffed a straight left to Bernard's chin. Bernard fell to the canvas took a count of nine and staggered to his feet. His eyes stared glassily and his guard was down, but he kept moving.

From the fifth round to the finish, Bernard rallied enough to make a creditable showing but he was obviously outclassed.

Zimmerman's Grove Chosen for Picnic

Silverton—Forty-nine members of the families of the Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors lodges of Silverton spent Sunday at Zimmerman's Grove in their annual picnic. A ball game in which both men and women took part was termed the Skunks vs. Polecats with the score 29-12 in favor of the Skunks.

The general committee included S. M. McClung, Clyde Ramsby, F. M. Powell and Greer Moffett.

ATTORNEY ON VACATION

Silverton—Attorney and Mrs. Alf O. Nelson, Ruth, Bob and Jimmy, are spending a week's vacation attending the annual meet of the Sunset Home association at Eugene, of which Nelson is a member, and a visit to the Oregon caves. They plan to return home Saturday evening.

McMaha—Mrs. Wanda Zimmerman is making an indefinite visit at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ward at Los Angeles.

Callison to Introduce 'Double Cruncher' Play During Coming Season

By HOWARD J. BRICE
Eugene, Ore., Aug. 21 (U.P.)—Prince G. (Prink) Callison, University of Oregon's head football coach, pinned his 1935 gridiron hopes today on a green backfield sparked by a potentially great fullback, a sturdy line, adequate reserve strength and a mysterious new play.

The fullback, Frank Micek, the only regular returning from last year's backfield, is the key man of the new play which Callison expects to produce touchdowns in Pacific coast conference meetings this fall.

Callison calls the play a "double cruncher." He anticipates and hopes for even more success with it than he had with the original "cruncher," a modified delayed buck inside either guard.

"Iron Mike" Mikulak, Oregon's great star of several seasons past, made the "cruncher" famous. Callison expects an even better performance from Micek as an exponent of the "double cruncher." While not as hard-hitting as Mikulak on defense, Micek is regarded a better offensive player.

Strategy of the "double cruncher" probably will remain unrevealed until Oregon swings into action against the University of California in their 1935 conference debut at Portland on October 12.

Micek at fullback is expected to be the spark-plug for the Webfoot offense, deprived of Bob Parke, Maurice van West and Ralph Ferguson from last year's regulars.

Other members of the backfield probably will be Johnny Reischmann, versatile blocker from the 1934 team, at quarterback; Walter Back, Palo Alto, Calif., triple-threat letterman, at left halfback; and Bud Goodin, Hopland, Calif., sparkling broken field runner who played with the freshmen last season but was out most of the time due to injuries.

The line probably will equal, if it doesn't surpass, that of the 1934 eleven. It will average about 190 pounds. Twelve lettermen are returning. A bright spot is prospect of adequate reserves—something the Webfoots have lacked.

Frank Miller Case To Juvenile Court

Silverton—The case of Frank Miller, minor, who pleaded not guilty to a charge of cutting in too soon with his truck after passing the car driven by Anna Larson, causing a wreck August 12 was assigned from Justice Frank Alfred's court Saturday to the juvenile department at Salem.

Four young women riding in the Larson car were slightly injured and the car was a complete wreck. A collision resulted after Miller had passed the car on the Scotts Mills-Silverton road.

Two men received suspended fines of $10 each on a charge of having a dog on the farm that was unlicensed. They were Kenneth Warnock and R. Wallace.

Joe Iverson Buys Inn On Pacific Highway

Woodburn—A deal was closed Monday whereby Joe Iverson took over Ed's Inn on the Pacific highway operated by Ed Lindeken. In a trade for a house and four acres of land on the Pacific highway, formerly occupied by R. L. Lutz, Iverson, in turn, leased the inn to Mr. and Mrs. George Foster of Broad-acre who will operate it. Mrs. Foster was formerly Fern Wadsworth.

The Lindeken family has moved to Altar Courts where they will reside temporarily. Lindeken plans to remodel the Lutz house and will also build a group of new modern inexpensive homes on acre tracts.

ON VACATION

Turner—Among the numerous people of this community who have been enjoying vacations at beach resorts are Mr. and Mrs. Ulvin E. Denyer, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hill and Glenn Titus of the Crawford district, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Titus. Hard rains were had over the week-end at the coast. Huckleberries are beginning to turn and there will be numerous parties going to the mountains for the fruit to eat.

WEEK AT TOLEDO

Falls City—Mrs. Chaucy Ferguson and son Milton returned home Saturday from spending a week in Toledo with Mr. Ferguson. Jim Russell came back with them after making a two week's visit with his sister, Mrs. Kenneth Hulse in Toledo.

STREET'S GANG DOWNS BEAVERS BY 9-2 SCORE

(By United Press)
Gabby Street was willing to be quoted today as saying that his Mission Reds are "in" so far as the pennant in the current Pacific Coast league race is concerned.

Street based his confidence on the club's success against Oakland last week and the fine start they got last night in opening a crucial series with the Portland Beavers.

Old Hollis Thurston hurled his eighth straight victory in lifting the Missions to the top of the league, breaking a tie with the San Francisco Seals and beating Portland to a chance to climb into the control seat. Thurston set down Moose Clabaugh, Gil English and the other Beaver sluggers with seven hits and gave them single runs in the second and eighth innings to win 9-2, while 7000 fans begged the Beavers to come on. Slugging Ossie Eckhardt, Roy Mort and Fred Berger of the winner-routed Radonits and Schulz and bruised Spurgeon Chandler. The walloping dropped Portland to a game and a half behind the pace-setters.

The San Francisco Seals slid back a game out of first place by losing to Sacramento 2-1 in a hurling duel between Tom Flynn and young Kenney Sheehan. Flynn triumphed when the Senators scored two runs for him in the seventh.

Seattle and Los Angeles remained deadlocked in fourth place by winning their games last night. Dick Barrett, Seattle ace right-hander, held Hollywood helpless while his mates pounded out a 9-1 victory.

Timely batting by Gene Lillard and Jim Oglesby gave Los Angeles a 9-4 win over Oakland.

Day Family Plans Labor Day Meeting

Stayton—Mrs. J. W. Day has gone to Etahadaca to be with her son and family, Floyd Day. Plans have been made for a family reunion to be held Labor day after which Mrs. Day will go to eastern Oregon to spend the winter.

Leslie Net Players Win Over Olinger

Leslie playground tennis players won two matches over Olinger opponents early this week. Olinger matches are scheduled to take place before the end of the season. Barbara Howe of Leslie defeated Velma Banks of Olinger, 6-4, 6-4, while Bud Roberts of Leslie beat Floyd Sandford of Olinger 8-6, 6-3. Coach Sipprell has charge of tennis at Olinger while Rachel Yokum directs the play at Leslie.

PARKS DEFEATS ERNIE PILUSO

Ernie Piluso was defeated by Herb Parks in the main event of Tuesday night's wrestling card at the armory. Piluso was substituted for Pug Ryan who had been billed for the one hour event. The Portland grappler won the first fall only to have the former California champion come back to take the second and third.

Dickie Trout of San Diego dropped the special event to Thor Jensen of Elkhon after the former had been incapacitated as the result of the second round. Trout had won the opening engagement.

Jerry Marcs and Jack Clayborn went to a draw in the opening bout after each combatant had taken a fall.

HOGAN AND GIVAN QUALIFY, TOURNEY

Seattle, Aug. 21 (U.P.)—Two ace golfers of the Pacific northwest, Eddie Hogan of Portland and Harry Givan of Seattle, were qualified today for the national amateur tournament at Cleveland.

With scores of 147 and 150 respectively, they won over all competition at Seattle Golf club in a 36 hole qualifying round.

A third northwest entry in the national will be Albert "Scotty" Campbell, youthful Seattle star, who qualified in New York with a score of 141.

Stayton—Dr. A. M. Dozier spent last week in eastern Oregon.

INDIANS' PLAY GROWS BETTER UNDER O'NEILL

The Cleveland Indians are playing a better brand of baseball since Steve O'Neill, their former coach, took over the managerial reins.

Prior to Steve's accession, their win percentage was less than .500, but since then they have been galloping along at a .667 clip, winning 12, losing six and tying one. They have won six of their last seven.

They are about a half game behind the Chicago White Sox and Boston Red Sox, which are in a virtual tie for third place. The Indians capitalized on two fumbles and a deflection by the Washington Senators 4-2 yesterday.

The Yankees made up in a measure for indignities they have suffered at the hands of S. L. Holloby Rowe by belting the big fellow off the mound in the third inning to defeat the Detroit Tigers 6-3. The Tigers now lead the Yanks by six games.

Ben Chapman got a homer for the Yanks in a first inning rally and Hank Greenberg got his 32nd of the season off Johnny Alton as the Tigers counted four times in the sixth.

The Browns poked their heads out of the cellar long enough to take the first game of a doubleheader from the Red Sox 8-5, then they lost the second 7-3 as three hurriers allowed 14 hits.
