

INDIANS WILL GIVE PAGEANT CLOSE FIESTA

Independence—Independence. Hop Fiesta's first day fades into history late at night and the crowds reluctant to disperse after a day of fun and revelry wended their way to their tent homes in the hop yards and to remote towns and cities of the valley to prepare for the second day which opened with bright skies and warm sunshine.

Thousands of visitors thronged the streets and hop bowl on the opening day to witness the crowning of Queen Jean I. Portland and Salem delegations helped to swell the crowd and were prominently identified in the parade and pageants of the day.

The afternoon was very hot but the crowds were patient and were well repaid for their loyalty when the parade swung into line of march. The wrestling matches in the evening drew over a thousand fans, and the decision which was given by Referee Ryan to Lord Landsdown was quite satisfactory to the onlookers.

Friday opened fair and not quite so hot as the opening day, the pet parade and the night rodeo shows being the features of the second day. A Tom Thumb wedding in the hop bowl drew loud applause, as the participants strutted their stuff. Vaudeville and sports in the bowl under the direction of C. Charbeneau during the afternoon was greatly enjoyed, and witnessed by a large crowd.

A demonstration of the Portland fire department's George L. Baker first aid car was given by Fred W. Roberts.

Ray Adams will entertain the group tonight with a real live rodeo show. There was a midnight matinee in the hop bowl.

Saturday will be the largest day and crowds of the Fiesta, Indians from Sitka and Grand Ronde will be present and John Williams, chief of the Molalla tribe will present a native group in dances and pageant. Then at 6:30 o'clock in the evening another rodeo show will close the day's program.

Sunday evening there will be religious services in the hop bowl, all churches uniting, with Rev. Hansen preaching.
