

BAER ENDURANCE CROWS: PARENTS CLAMP LID DOWN

By EDDIE BRIETZ
Speculator, N. Y., Sept. 13 (P)—What impresses you most about Max Baer's come-back efforts is his endurance. It used to be he was only good for about a minute and a half of fighting in each round. Now he can step the entire three minutes at full speed and he has been doing that for nine and ten rounds. He thinks he'll dispose of Joe Louis much sooner than that. No wonder Manager Ancil Hoffman beams as he motors up and down the country roads.

Max's camp is ideal. It is far back in the woods, about five miles from the village. Once daily Max motors into Speculator for his public workout. Then he is hustled back to the simple life. The rest of the time he is isolated with only his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman and Trainer Izzy Kline as company. Mrs. Max is at a cottage in Speculator. She usually motors out to the camp to have dinner with her husband then right back to town.

There isn't even a radio in the forest retreat. Max asked for one but Hoffman turned him down. So every time a visitor arrives with a radio in his car, Max desires his guests to sit in the car and listen to popular music until the visitor departs.

Hoffman says his former unruly charge is being a good boy. He hasn't been off the reservation at night since camp was pitched. Just the same, Popper Baer is taking no chances. He carefully hides the ears every night and sleeps with the auto key under his pillow.

Max turns out at 6 a. m. and with Izzy Kline does six miles of roadwork around the lake. Then he breakfasts, puts in two hours of wood chopping and goes canoeing. Lunch is followed by a nap, then the workout in Speculator and dinner at 5 p. m. Bedtime is 9 o'clock sharp.

Popper and Mommer Baer are important personages around the camp. The former keeps a sharp eye on everything and once threatened to lick Max himself if he didn't bear down. Mommer, the largest of all the Baers, supervises the cooking and keeps an eye on things in general.

METHODIST CHOR TO SING SUNDAY

Silverton—For the first appearance of the Methodist Episcopal choir Sunday forenoon after the summer's vacation, Mrs. J. J. Lewis will appear as soloist with the choir singing "No Hands But Yours." Fred Baker is director. Miss Agnes Stewart will sing the offertory solo with Mr. Baker playing a violin obligato and Mrs. Edson Comstock assisting at the piano.

Interesting program plans are being worked out by Mr. Baker for the fall and winter choir work.

Rev. D. Lester Fields is pastor of the congregation.

SINSES ARE HOME

Woodburn—Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Sims returned Tuesday from Butte, Mont., where they spent two weeks visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Floyd Massey, and their son, Raymond Sims. They were accompanied by another son, Grant Sims of Pendleton. While there, Dr. and Mrs. Sims, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sims and two sons, Grant Sims and Mrs. Sadie Dimick visited Yellowstone park over Labor day.

HOPS ALL PICKED

Jefferson—Hop picking in the Thiessen-Grenz yard and the McKee yard was finished Tuesday. The usual treats were enjoyed by the pickers.

Swaggering Cardinals, Pennant Bound, Defeat Giants in Big Series

(By Associated Press)
The swaggering St. Louis Cardinals, saying it with base hits and the blinding speed and baffling curves of Dizzy Dean, have made their 1935 announcement that they're on the road to the National league pennant and they don't intend to be elbowed off—especially by the Giants.

They said that clearly yesterday when they trounced the Giants 5 to 2 in the opening clash of their highly important series, and while they have three chances to change their minds before the battle ends they have given no indication that they will.

Out of a squad of 40 which began the 1934 season at Oregon State, just 14 will report for duty when the suits are distributed, information from Corvallis indicates. To fill the big open spaces in the line and backfield, Coach Lon Stiner is depending upon his sophomores—big fellows who lack experience. Stiner announces his squad will likely be about the size, numerically, of the group UCLA will bring north to play the Beavers in Portland, October 5. He plans to use some open football this fall while considerable stress will be placed on developing a scoring punch. Apparently Oregon State hasn't been as fortunate as some of its rivals in picking up promising freshman material, although the Orange coaching staff is saying little.

Over on the rival campus at Eugene, Frank Callison is worrying about his backfield prospects, in the meantime casting a weather eye toward the horizon, looking for a left halfback. A question mark is being placed after the name of Walter Back, big blonde halfback. Back, after spending most of last season on the bench, will be given his chance this year. He possesses triple threat potentialities and if he hits his stride, Oregon fans predict he will make grid history.

Thursday was picture day at Willette, and the Bearcat candidates flipped passes, kicked the ball and looked mean while a camera man industriously clicked his camera. Sound apparatus might have caught a few creaks and groans as the boys went through their paces.

The State baseball league will complete its regular schedule Sunday with Salem at Bend, Eugene at Toledo and Hop Gon at Albany. There will be no financial reward for the Senators in making the trip across the mountains, since the money distribution during the second half is on a home and home basis. Manager Edwards declares, however,

Deans putting on one of his extra special pitching performances for his 26th victory of the season, the Cards looked just as good against their challengers yesterday as they did against the lowly Braves and Phillies.

The result put the Giants 4½ games behind—where there was no chance of forging ahead of St. Louis during the current series—but it didn't shake off the Chicago threat to the Cardinal supremacy. The Cubs routed the Dodgers 13 to 3 with a heavy hitting attack behind Lon Warneke and remained only one game behind St. Louis.

The remarkable Dizzy was in great form in the opener. He gave seven hits—four in the last two innings—trunk out eight and bore down so expertly in the clutches he made it look easy. The Cards belted Hubbell for seven of their nine blows, including Terry Moore's homer, in the first four innings, rested a couple of frames while Rookie Harry Bumbert pitched, then added another tally off Allyn Stout.

Detroit's Tigers took another step toward clinching the other world series berth by trimming the second place Yankees 8 to 5 in the opener of a somewhat less important series.

The victory gave Detroit an 8½ game lead over the Yanks who were left as the only team with a possible chance to beat out the Tigers when Cleveland took a three hit 3 to 0 white-washing from the Senators and Early Whitehill.

Thursday's results:
National: Pittsburgh 11, Philadelphia 0; Cincinnati 4, Boston 2; Chicago 13, Brooklyn 3; St. Louis 5, New York 2.

American: Washington 3, Cleveland 0; Philadelphia 11-4; Chicago 2-3; New York 5, Detroit 8; Boston 2, St. Louis 6.

that the club owes it to Bend to finish the schedule, so the trip will be made. It's a hard trip—leaving Salem about dawn, driving over the McKenzie pass, playing ball in the afternoon and then getting home about midnight—all for the fun of it. Jimmie Nicholson will drop off at Eugene on his way home, where he will get lined up with the University of Oregon. Considerable pressure has been applied to young Jimmie since he declared himself for Oregon, but he is staying with his decision. One of two coaches of rival schools who sought his services, have sent their best wishes to the former Salem high school star. Others have not been quite so courteous.

ANGELS HELD TO SINGLE BY BILL RADONITS

(By the Associated Press)
As far as Bill Radonits, Portland pitcher, is concerned, Friday the 13th should have been yesterday. It was a perfect jinx day setup for Bill yesterday, when he was cheated of a no-hit, no-run game by Marvin Gudat, Los Angeles left fielder.

Gudat's sixth-inning single in the seven-frame second game of a Coast league doubleheader was all that kept Radonits from entering the most exclusive hall of pitching fame. It was not enough, though, to keep Portland from winning the contest, 7 to 0.

The victory, although it was immediately preceded by the Angels third straight win of the series, 8 to 4, enabled the Beavers to advance into undisputed possession of second place and gain half a game on the leading San Francisco Seals.

The Seals slipped to a three and a half game leadership by falling before the sixth-place Oakland club, 3-4, after winning the first two games of the series. The Oaks got to Jim Densmore early, scoring all their runs in the first three innings.

The San Francisco Missions dropped into third place before a batting onslaught by the Seattle Indians. The Indians hammered Otto Nicholas and Hal Sitael for 12 singles, converted into as many runs. The Missions made eight tallies from 11 hits.

The Sacramento Senators turned on the last-place Hollywood Stars for a 5-0 shutout, after dropping the first two contests of the series.

INDEPENDENCE TO STAGE FIGHT CARD

A combined boxing and wrestling show will be held in the Independence hop bowl Saturday night at 8:30 with the principals being drawn from the various hop yards. Jack Kilen is the matchmaker. The main event, a six round affair, will bring together Clem Lombrecht of Stayton and Tommy Hawk Adams of Portland. Both men are experienced fighters and a real performance is assured.

Lewis Donney of the Wierich ranch and Glen Kaele of McLaughlin's have been signed for a four round battle, while Pat Chambers of Salem and Paul Patterson of Tillamook are booked for another four rounder.

The wrestling will feature Ernie Keltz of McLaughlin's and Tony Sulewski of Patton's.

In case of rain the card will be transferred to Sloper hall.

MASONS MEET AGAIN
Scio—Following the customary summer suspension, the Scio Masonic lodge is to resume regular communications September 19.

Stayton—Gordon Kendrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Kendrick has entered the Hill Military academy at Portland.

Jeffries Picks Louis to Win

San Francisco, Sept. 13 (P)—James J. Jeffries, former world heavyweight champion, today picked Joe Louis to defeat Max Baer when the two meet in a 15-round battle. Although he has never seen Louis fight, Jeffries said he favored the negro because "I have no confidence in Baer."

"Why, Max punches like an old woman," he said. "He's about the worst I ever saw. If Louis is half as good as they say he is, then he's due to win."

RETURNS TO ACADEMY

Scio—Clement Cain entered a post graduate course at Hill Military academy September 11. This is his sixth year at the academy and he has attained the rank of first lieutenant. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Cain of Scio.

Aurora—Mrs. A. G. Miller and son, Jimmie of Portland, spent Thursday in Aurora, at the home of Mrs. Miller's sister-in-law, Mrs. George Askin. James A. and A. W. Miller are visiting friends on the lower Columbia river highway this week. Will Askin of Canby was an Aurora visitor Wednesday.

WADE WINS LEECH CUP, CAMP PERRY

Camp Perry, O., Sept. 13 (P)—James A. Wade of Salt Lake City scored 104 out of a possible 105 to win the Leech cup at the National rifle matches yesterday. The match was fired over the 800, 900 and 1,000 yard ranges.

Garcie N. Upshaw of Yoncalla, Ore., and Sergeant Stephen J. Zeig of the U. S. Marine corp. of Dayton, both had scores of 104, but were outranked by Wade.

The two-man team of Claude Westfall, Athens, O., and Everett Jacoby, Logan, O., won the Lyman trophy which was fired at the 50 and 100-yard ranges they scored 399 out of a possible 400.

George Scott of Absecon, N. J., won the Winchester trophy match, fired on the small bore 200-yard range.

BUS DRIVERS NAMED
Scio—Charley Baischweid will drive the school bus serving the Jordan territory, and Ben Thayer will operate the Larwood route. It was announced Wednesday by J. D. Densmore, Jr., president of the Scio school board.

Scio—Cream prices are steadily advancing in Scio, 27½ cents being quoted this week as top for No. 1 cream.

Perry and Bride Beat 13th Jinx

Harrison, N. Y., Sept. 13 (P)—Helen Vinson, screen tress, and Fred Perry, English tennis star, routed a justice of the peace out of bed last night—and beat being married on Friday the 13th by five minutes.

With the aid of police, they started to upset official procedure at 11:30 p. m. Town Clerk William A. Wildman, obliged by issuing a license, Justice of the peace Leo Mintzer was awakened and performed the ceremony.

He pronounced them man and wife at 11:55 p. m.
