Willamette university and San Jose State college, two of the oldest institutions of higher education west of the Mississippi, will send their football teams into battle on Sweetland field tonight at 8 o'clock in what gives promise of being one of the hardest played games of the season. Although the contest is the first of the season for both clubs, two weeks of intensive drill has brought the players into good physical condition and has resulted in fairly smooth machines. Undoubtedly there will be rough spots in offense on both sides, but the intensity of the play is expected to keep the spectators in a fever of excitement from the opening whistle until the final gun.

There will be little difference in the average weight of the lines although Willamette is expected to hold a slight advantage in the backfield brought about by the poundage of Dick Weisgerber and Manfred Olson.

The loss of four Bearcat veterans in the center of the line has been one of the worries of Coach Keene during the training period. Bronk Williams, who weighs a scant 160 pounds, replaces Jack Connors, four year veteran at center; Darrell Newhouse and Bob Vagt, reserves of last year were given the shoes of Karl Weiser and Mike Balkovic, tackles, while Elliot Becken is expected to continue the tradition established by Loren Grannis, all American guard. Two husky veteran ends, McAdam and Versteeg, will start in their old positions tonight, even though the former is expected to work a tackle job before the lights are dimmed.

Upon Johnny Craves' shoulders will be the added burden tonight of directing the play, a job inherited from Eddie Franke, a graduate of last June. Craves is starting his last season with the cardinal and old gold and if the signal calling job is not too much of a handicap, is expected to eclipse the remarkable three year record established by the "Jersey skenter."

Olson, returning to the Bearcat school after a year's absence, is one of the hardest hitting ball carriers developed by Coach Keene. He replaces Dick Weisgerber, shifted to a half position. Weisgerber in his freshman year electrified fans by his shifty work. Bill Stone, a reserve of last year, will be given his chance tonight.

Coach DeGroot of the visiting squad is expected to send his Spartans onto the field with instructions to play an aerial game. In Jim Stockdale, Coach DeGroot has a man capable of placing his passes "on a dime." Through the return of Glenn DuBois, powerful fullback, Stockdale has been able to take up his old job at left half where his speed can be used most effectively.

DuBose returned to San Jose after a year's absence during which he played with the Olympic club of San Francisco.

The performances of Weisgerber and Stockdale will be watched with considerable interest tonight since both are the type which keeps running and shifting once they have boomed through the forward wall.

The combination of two well drilled teams and a mild clear evening is expected to draw the largest crowd of spectators in recent years.

KLAMATH PELICANS DEFEAT DUNSMUIR

Klamath Falls, Sept. 21 (AP)—The scarlet shirted Klamath Falls Pelicans defeated Dunsmuir, Calif., high school here last night, 20 to 0, in the first football game of the season. Jim Rogers, halfback, scored all three touchdowns, one from a 60 yard sprint.

Man Prize Winner; Wife Gets Credit

Silverton—The ticket read, "Third prize for spouse cake for Mrs. John Kubersness" at the state fair. John himself and not his wife made the cake and in reality it not officially deserves the credit for the splendid cake.

WILL ENTER COLLEGE

Aurora—Miss Martha Frances Bradt will leave for Corvallis Sunday where she will enter Oregon State college. She will take up a course in home economics. Miss Bradt, graduate of Canby union high with the class of 1935, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bradt.

Silverton—Altho Libby, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Libby of Mill Street, is ill with tonsillitis.

Annual Trek of Hunters To Forests Begins; Mule, Black Tail Deer Abound

Red hat clad and armed in many instances like members of the famous Pancho Villa army, deer hunters are entering the forests of Oregon in anticipation of the season which opens bright and early Sunday morning. Willamette valley hunters, who in recent years, seem to prefer the large mule deer to the smaller black tail variety, are invading central Oregon in large numbers. Reports from Bend indicate one of the largest advance guards in recent years, one party of 19, accompanied by a cook, passing through the central Oregon city about mid-week. Opening of the

PIRATES MAY DECIDE ISSUE IN NATIONALS

The Pittsburgh Pirates, who are not likely to finish higher than fourth in the National league this season, today found themselves in the midst of the torrid pennant battle between Chicago's flying Cubs and the rough and tumble St. Louis Cardinals with a possibility that their actions may decide the scrap.

The Cubs play a pair of games at Chicago today and tomorrow while the Cards play three contests with the Reds. Then Pittsburgh moves on to St. Louis for a pair while the Cubs are idle and after that the pennant rivals meet in a five game hand to hand conflict.

After a day of complete idleness for all major league clubs yesterday the standing of the Cubs and Cards and the New York Giants, who haven't been completely eliminated from the race yet, was as follows:

Club	W	L	Pct.
Cubs	95	52	.446
Cards	91	53	.432
Giants	84	56	.400

If the Cards should go straight through their five games against Cincinnati and Pittsburgh and the Cubs should knock off the Cubs a couple of times to end Chicago's 16 game winning streak, the final series would open with the standing this way:

Club	W	L	Pct.
Cards	96	53	.444
Cubs	93	54	.433

Compared to that situation the American league pennant chase is a cut and dried affair. The Tigers have been regarded as "in" for some time and they may possibly clinch the flag today. The current standing shows Detroit leading by 7 1/2 games with nine to go for each club.

WOODBURN TO PLAY SEVEN BALL GAMES

Woodburn—The Woodburn high school Bulldogs have a series of seven football games scheduled with one open date. Although on account of seasonal work there has been a small turn out this week it is expected by next week most of the students will be back in school and the team will be put in shape by Coach Oddie and O'Connell, preparatory to the first game which will be at West Linn, Oct. first. With eight lettermen on the team a fair season is in prospect.

The schedule: Oct. 4, West Linn, there. Oct. 18, Newberg, here. Oct. 25, Canby, there. Nov. 1, Molalla, here. Nov. 8, Open. Nov. 15, Silverton, there. No. 22, Dallas, there.

SEALS CLINCH SECOND HALF BALL HONORS

"Lefty" O'Doul looked at Joe Di Maggio, his prize San Francisco outfielder, and heaved a contented sigh today. Joe, the come-through kid, won another ball game for the Seals last night and thereby clinched the second-half pennant in the Pacific Coast league baseball race, sending the Seals into the play-off next week against Los Angeles.

Joe's timely single came in the seventh and last inning of the short second game of a doubleheader with Seattle. It was a rousing double which banged against the center-field fence and which was followed by Ted Norbert's single which brought Di Maggio home with the winning run. The score was 2 to 1.

The Seals had won the opener 9-4, nicking Elmer Donovan for a dozen hits. The double win with the aid of Hollywood's 7-6 victory over the second place Missions, gave San Francisco a three and one-half game margin with only three contests remaining on the schedule.

Seattle's double defeat, incidentally, moved the Indians out of the first division as Los Angeles slipped into fourth place with a 13 to 8 win at Sacramento.

Portland's Beavers, still hoping to overtake the Missions, continued their pace by setting down Oakland 14 to 8, in the other game last night. The Ducks scored in every inning but the third and ninth. The Ducks rested just one game out of second place as they went into today's game. They still can grab some extra money by finishing strong.

Sport Slants

BY ALAN GOULD

Elden Auker might well have been just another right handed pitcher had he not suffered a "knocked down" shoulder on the gridiron in his undergraduate days at Kansas State college. The football injury, which at the time threatened to cut short a promising career on the pitcher's mound, proved a blessing in disguise, for it made Auker change his style from overhand to underhand.

The fact that American league batters are rarely called upon to face a pitcher with an underhand delivery has worked greatly in Auker's favor. The sixteen victories he

RURAL SCHOOL TERM STARTED

Gibbons Decisions

Trulmans, Portland
Portland, Ore., Sept. 21 (AP)—Jack Gibbons, 163, St. Paul, Minn., pounded out an easy 10-round victory over Al Trulmans, St. Helens, Ore., here last night. Trulmans was content to stay away from the son of old Mike Gibbons, and Gibbons lacked the punch to put him away, although the St. Paul battler won every round.

LOUIS TO END TRAINING TODAY

Pompton Lakes, N. J., Sept. 21 (AP)—Joe Louis' sparring partners today prepared for a final date with their rough playmate before he climbs through the ropes for his battle with Max Baer on Tuesday night.

A goodly crowd was expected to be on hand to see the tan thumper wind up his training and the general belief was that some of the spar mates would sing their training camp swan songs from a horizontal position. Louis, like Dempsey, doesn't like to pull his punches in training. He has to have sparring partners, however, and one way to discourage them he has found, is to whack them too solidly.

Today, however, he will not have to worry about their throwing up the job. They are leaving camp anyway and Joe probably will see to it that they earn their last day's pay.

Louis wants to end the fight quickly and before Baer has a chance to mark him up. He plans to wed Miss Marva Trotter either right after the fight or the next day and he would like to have his face in good shape for that ceremony. Miss Trotter will see the fight.

BAER MANAGER SCOFFS OVER JOE PROTEST

Speculator, N. Y., Sept. 21 (AP)—There were big grins around the Max Baer camp today, because Max and his manager believe that at last Joe Louis, the sable sphinx, has cracked.

Word reached here that John Roxborough, manager of Louis, was asking the New York State Athletic commission to bar "artificial stimulants" from the corners of both fighters.

"Artificial stimulants," scoffed Ancl Hoffman, manager of the former champion. "That probably means spirits of ammonia, which all hand-ers carry into a corner for emergency. I wouldn't be without it, no matter what any commission ruled. Joe Louis hadn't better be without it, either. He'll need it when they drag him away about the fifth round."

"Only once did I ever carry anything besides ammonia into a corner, and that was the night Baer knocked out Primo Carnera. I had a small bottle of sherry wine. Baer wouldn't touch it, and I drank it during the celebration in his dressing room after the fight."

There's plenty of verbal baiting going on about it, but Max Baer was determined today to take another leaf from the book of Gene Tunney, the man who never overlooked a bet, and fly down to fight Joe Louis in the Yankee stadium Tuesday night.

Tunney, who first made this tiny Adirondack town a fight camp, flew from here in a seaplane to the last championship defense of his career, against Tom Heeney, in New York in 1928. He also flew from Stroudsburg, in the Pocono mountains, to Philadelphia for his triumph over Jack Dempsey in the rain of the Sesqui-Centennial stadium in 1926.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception will honor the bride party. The serving table will be centered with a large bride's cake guarded with tall white tapers. Mrs. J. J. Korinek of Pendleton will pour and Mrs. W. M. Thomas of Portland will cut tics.

Assisting in serving will be Mrs. Jack K. Kuhn, Mrs. Harold V. Richardson, Miss Alice Falk and Miss Virginia Queener of Milton.

The couple will leave for a wedding trip to Mt. Rainier and Seattle, after which they will reside at 721 West 5th street in Eugene where Mr. Allen is in business. For going away the bride will wear a suit of hand-knit tweed in shades of yellow and brown, with brown accessories.
