

LATER SCHOOLS OPENING DOORS FOR FALL TERM

Dallas—After a somewhat extended summer vacation due to the late prune harvest the city schools reopened Monday with the enrollment in the grade schools practically on a par with that of a year ago. According to figures from the office of superintendent R. R. Turner there are 525 pupils enrolled from the first to the eighth grades. In the high school there is a healthy increase of almost ten per cent over that of last year with 319 registered as compared with 288.

Among the pupils at the new elementary building there were 49 beginners. This is fewer than last year but the difference may possibly be cut down in the next few days with additional enrollments.

Waldo Hills—The Willard school started Monday with 15 pupils attending. Miss V. Case is the teacher, re-elected. Miss Case is living at the Mrs. Helen Paget home for the school year.

Bethany—The schools opened a week ago with only a fair attendance as the prunes and hops were being harvested. Others are entering later. The beginners class includes Beverley Zimmerman, Janell Johnson and Carol Hatteberg. The teachers are Mrs. Stewart McClure and Mrs. Jack Granik.

Valley View—Miss Daphne Hunt is the teacher in this district with school beginning last week. Twelve pupils were present the first day with more to enter as the fall work is finished. New pupils in the district are Wayne and Vane Cox, 2nd grade. The Cox family are living on the Wiley Moon place.

Evans Valley—School opened in this district Monday with Miss Ruth Boyce of McMinnville as teacher.

Brush Creek—Eleven pupils are registered at the school which began the year's work last week. Four are new to the work, three beginners. Rudolph Dettwyler, Lillian Harl and Raymond Lovin, and Paul Batchelor entered the seventh grade at the Evergreen district.

Miss Inga Goplerud is the teacher for the third year.

Waldo Hills—Mrs. Helen Paget began the year's teaching work at the Centerville district. Four new pupils are registered for attendance including Duane Hinkle, 3rd grade; Max Archer, 5th grade; Opal Archer, 4th grade; and Ruth Archer, 1st grade. The Archer family is residing on the King farm having recently moved here from southern Oregon.

Waconda—School began Monday at Waconda and Mission Bottom schools which were delayed in opening because of prune and hop harvest. Miss Jessie Richards will teach at Waconda and Miss Gwendolyn Martin at Mission Bottom. Both teachers live at Aumsville and this is their third term at the schools. A new electric water system with modern equipment has been installed at Waconda school.

Meahama—There are 31 pupils enrolled in the Meahama school this year, 21 in the upper grades and ten in the lower grades. Miss Zollner is teacher for the upper grades and is making her home with Mrs. Edith Phillippi. Miss Dahlke, who taught here last year, is teacher of the lower grades, and is making her home at Miss Anna Stout's. Both teachers are from Mt. Angel.

Pratum School Club Meeting Every Week

Pratum—The school club held its weekly meeting on Friday morning. John Roth, Jr., presided assisted by Thelma Arstall, secretary. Alice Ramsden, Landy Frau and Lillian Beutler were selected as the members who are to assist with the work at the school for the week, thereby earning money for the club treasury.

Parliamentary and secretarial training are important features of the club work. Each set of officers is to serve for one month only, in order that a number of the pupils may share in this training during the school year.

Youngsters Frolic

Turner—Mrs. Earl S. Prather entertained Friday afternoon with a party for her daughter, Margaret Ann on her fourth birthday anniversary. The young guests played games for several hours and at the tea hour were served at small tables centered with animal vases filled with flowers. Each guest reserved a favor, including Margaret Ann Prather, Gaila Enley, Geraldine Edwards, Janice Riches, Lorene Edwards, Nancy Ann Enley, Bernard Riches. Additional guests were Mrs. D. S. The proceeds from the supper and dance will be used on the building fund.

ALBANY TAX RATE INCREASE REVEALED

Albany—Albany's tax rate for 1936 is $4.41, the proposed budget figures reveal. The budget reveals a total tax increase of $1237. The $4 mill rate will bring the total city levy to slightly less than 18 mills. The tentative budget provides for a total levy of $65,394.40 to be raised by taxation, of which $44,818.90 is assigned to the general fund. The budget for the coming year also reveals the present bonded indebtedness of Albany to be now $153,195.94, a decrease of $32,786.66 from October 1, 1934. The slight increase in the levy is caused by provision for $600 repair on the pavilion in Bryant park, and $700 for an engine for a small city fire truck.

Projects Completed By Sheep Club Boys
Month—Two of the first 4-H livestock clubs of the Month district to complete their work 100 per cent are the junior and senior sheep clubs under the leadership of Anthon Riney and Jimmie Riddell. Each club has eight members and they have completed their work and made an excellent showing at the county and state fairs.

Farm Sale Brings Moderate Prices

Lincoln—A crowd estimated at 200 attended the farm sale of E. E. Buckles and Van Buscirt which was held at the E. E. Buckles farm at Lincoln. Dairy stock sold at moderate prices, the highest bid being $51 for a cow. Van Buscirt who has rented the Buckles farm bought the loose hay stored in the barn to feed his dairy stock. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Buckles moved to Salem because of his health as he was unable to continue farming.

BLAZES THREATEN VALLEY PROPERTY

Turner—Fire of undetermined origin started Saturday on the George Thomson place north of town that is rented by Frank Ostrander, burning down the barn. Fire fighters were marshaled to the burning territory where shifting winds assisted them in getting the fire under control Saturday evening after it had gotten away from the volunteer firemen, burning over a large acreage of grass and timber land. All available help in Turner was aiding in filling a silo which was called to assist. The Ostrander house was saved from burning down. This is the second devastation that has occurred in this section in the past month.

Mill City—A fire broke out in grass and brush in the east yard of the Hammond Lumber company Saturday causing no damage as the fire was kept under control. This is the second fire to take place here in the past two weeks, necessitating the blowing of the fire whistle to call out men. The other fire was confined to a jitney in Mill garage, caused by a recharger taking fire and burning a cushion and battery of the jitney.

INCREASED BUDGET OFFERED THIS YEAR

Silverton—The school budget for the coming year denotes a need of $79,400.90, an increase of $2,694.90 over that of last year.

The detailed designation shows the largest increase in maintenance and building repairs. Teaching costs were slightly higher as were all salaries in the state. Some increase was made in general control, operation of plant and debt.

Members of the budget committee include Dr. R. E. Kleinsorge, M. G. Gunderson, H. W. Preston, R. B. Duncan and Earl Adams.

HUNTERS ARE BACK

North Santiam—Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Hammer, Mr. and Mrs. Arden Hammer and H. B. Condit of West Santiam returned Sunday from a deer hunting trip at Mitchell. Luck was with them as they came home with the limit. Condit also killed a coyote.

RECEIVES CHIN INJURY

Victor Point—Edward Robl received a painful cut on the chin when the ropes which were supporting a hay rack on which he was standing gave way. It was necessary to take six stitches to close the wound.
