Wedding Vows Said Sunday

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Martin in South Liberty street was the scene of a wedding Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Miss Vidith Evon Forster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Forster of Lebanon, became the bride of Clarence E. Brenneman of Albany.

Dr. David H. Leech, formerly of the First Methodist Episcopal church in Albany, read the impressive service. Mrs. G. L. Jordan sang "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Carl Lemke. George H. Heseman played the wedding march.

The couple stood before an all-white altar with tall cathedral tapers at each side. White chrysanthemums were used as the only decorations against a background of palms and ferns.

The bride wore her mother's wedding gown of white Chinese silk. Her long veil was held in place with a wreath of swansonia. She carried a bouquet of rosebuds and lilies of the valley.

Miss Vonda Forster, twin sister of the bride, was honor attendant and was gowned in crimson ribbon silk. Her bouquet was of white carnations.

Little Jeanette Irene Martin, dressed in pink organdie, served as flower girl.

Floyd Slagger of Albany served as best man for the bridegroom.

At the reception which followed the ceremony Mrs. George H. Heseman cut the wedding cake. Mrs. W. C. Marshall presided at the urns and Mrs. G. L. Gordon at the punch bowl. Assisting in serving were Miss Cleo Saurrissing, Mrs. Herbert Misson, Marilyn Janice Power, Martha Marshall and Jeanette Martin.

The couple will make their home at Lacomb, where Mr. Brenneman is principal of the grade school. The bride is well known in the capital, having graduated from Salem high school. Mr. Brenneman was graduated from Albany college and Oregon Normal school at Monmouth.

Guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Forster, Jessie, Nellie, Ford and Logan Forsters, Dr. and Mrs. G. L. Jordan of Albany, Frank C. Forster, Dr. and Mrs. F. K. Power, Mr. and Mrs. W. C.
