

MONMOUTH PEP CLUB TO HELP IN ACTIVITIES

Monmouth—In the interest of the school and in a combined effort to forward enthusiasm in school activities, the Monmouth high school senior class has organized a pep club in the hope that it will become a custom of every succeeding senior class to do likewise. The senior class has seen a great need for such an organization to forward a more united interest in the activities of Monmouth high school.

The organization will promote a wider school and public interest in what is happening in school. Plans will be made to include all the students in school in these activities, which will include ticket sales for athletic contests, plays, etc. The pep club will furnish the incentive for a cheering section at all games and to attend all school activities if it is at all possible.

The club includes four members from each class in school, the yell leader, the song queen and assistant, and the president of the student body. Senior class members are Mildred Miller, Rosalee Chambers, Herbert Piert and Raymond Johnson. Junior members are Martha Blair, Margery Chambers, Don Buss and John Piert. Sophomore members are Virginia Craven, Marie Brooks, Kenneth Mulkey, and George Murodock. Freshmen members are Elva Linden man, Millie Brooks, Morton Howard. Other members of the club are Bob Bingham, yell leader; Garnet Smith, song queen; Clara Mae Haller, assistant and Leo Blodgett, student body president.

The club has elected Garnet Smith as "Queen Pepper" for a dance they will sponsor shortly.

LINN LINES

Albany and county news in brief

PROJECTS INCREASED
Albany—Three new projects and additions to the employment list of two projects already in operation Wednesday added 92 relief workers to the list of those employed through the WPA in Linn county. It was reported by Ralph Coleman, federal re-employment supervisor. The re-employment office received notice that the proposed Sweet Home water supply project has been approved and ten men will be assigned to this job. The second approval is that of improving the Sodaville mineral springs, including an extensive fill, to which 12 men were assigned. The third and largest of the projects newly approved is the Peoria-Lake creek road improvement job, to which 50 common laborers and one foreman are assigned. The county court is sponsoring this project. Requisitions for ten additional men each to the Brush Creek market road No. 17 and the Berlin market road No. 20 projects brings to approximately 30 the total number of employed men on each project. When all five requisitions are filled a total of 220 in Linn county's employable relief workers will have been assigned to work, Coleman said.

GRANGE UNIT ELECTS
Albany—Officers elected at the meeting of Calumette grange were: Master, Loren Campbell; overseer, William Freerkson; steward, John A. Carnegie, assistants, Jack Chesman and Mrs. Keith Bryant; chaplain, Mrs. A. C. Heyman; lecturer, L. E. Aldrich; cereus, Mrs. Loren Campbell; Pomona, Bertha Beck; Flora, Mrs. Roland Allen; Alvin Carnegie, Orris Carnegie and Bertha Beck will serve on the executive committee. Initiation of new members will feature the December meeting.

LEG PROVES BRITTLE
Albany—Jury Leever of near Lebanon believes that he has the corner on hard luck, when it comes to breaking legs. Jury has had the misfortune to break his right leg three times in less than two years. The first break was caused by a hit and run driver, when Jury was employed on a highway construction job on the Newport highway, the second break was caused by an accident in the woods and the third break last Friday was the result of a log rolling on the ill-fated and much broken leg. Leever is in the Lebanon hospital where his condition is reported as satisfactory.

ARMY PLANS DRIVE
Albany—A drive to raise $1200 for local work for the Salvation Army will be opened in Albany next Monday and will continue until Wednesday night. It was announced by heads of civic organizations, which are sponsoring the drive. Captain D. G. Rody, Salvation Army home service supervisor for Oregon and southern Idaho, is here to assist Captain Bert Bailey of the local corps with the drive. All civic organizations of Albany have endorsed the drive.

WAR MOTIERS INSTALL
Albany—Officers of the Albany chapter of the American War Mothers will be installed at the regular meeting Thursday at the Veterans' Memorial hall. Installation will follow a "no hostess" luncheon. New officers of the chapter are: Mrs. Jenny Curry, president; Mrs. Candis McCaskey, first vice-president; Mrs. W. W. Dickson, treasurer; and Mrs. Charles Griffith, secretary.

REISTERER CUTS FOOT
Sublimity—Ernest Reisterer received a severe cut on his left foot which was cut with glass. He will be forced to use crutches for some time. Several stitches were taken to close the wound.

Polk County Banner Year for Club Has Many Ending Project

Dallas—This has been a banner year for boys and girls enrolled in the 4-H crops, livestock, health and forestry clubs of the county. More members completed their projects than ever before in the history of this phase of agricultural extension work in the county. Eighteen clubs finished 100 per cent and 81 per cent of all members starting their work have completed and filed final reports with the county agent's office.

A total of 218 club members enrolled in the crops, livestock, health and forestry clubs of the county and 172 have filed and completed final clubs organized. This percentage of clubs organized. This percentage of completions is the highest ever attained by the clubs.

Many fine awards and prizes were received by the boys and girls who exhibited their livestock and products this year," states J. R. Beck, county agent. The total awards at the county and state fairs amounted to $4650. This included seven scholarships to the Oregon State summer school next June. The outstanding award this year was won by the livestock judging team composed of John Haller, Jimmie Riddell and Anthol Riney when they led all of the teams of the state in the contest at the Pacific International.

Club work is developing into a progressive or continuing project. Many of the young folks continue year after year and enlarge their activities each year. This year there were 42 in the crops and livestock projects that had been in the work four years or more and there were only 48 beginners or first-year workers.

Two members, Eunice Powell and Jimmie Riddell have been in club work eight years; and four other members have been in for seven years. These are Ernest Crook, Clarence Primus, Mary Trueax and Raymond Johnson.

MASONIC LODGE HAS VISITORS
Independence—Members of Multnomah chapter, R. A. M. of Salem were guests of Independence chapter Tuesday night at the regular convocation. The M. M. degree was conferred on two candidates by the Independence team assisted by the Salem companions. Judge Emmons of Salem presided during the conferring of the degree which made a lasting impression on the candidates.

A committee on resolutions was appointed by the excellent high priest to read resolutions of respect for two deceased companions, Dr. H. Charles Dunsmore and John Dickinson. These were Z. C. Kimball, J. G. McIntosh and R. W. Baker.

Refreshments were served at the close. An invitation was accepted by the local chapter to attend Multnomah chapter next Monday evening at which time the P. M. and M. E. M. degrees will be conferred. There will be two candidates from Independence and one from Salem to take the degrees. Guests from Salem Tuesday night were Mearns, Peterson, Hall of Kansas City, Lindsay, Boock, Shanks, Clark, Sanders, Emmons, Davis and Niles.

COMPLETE SCHOOL BEFORE HOLIDAYS
Sheridan—The new grade school building is expected to be ready for the installation of furniture by December 15 and the commencement of work by the teachers in the new building is expected to take place immediately after the Christmas holidays.

The plastering has been rushed the past week and every detail is being pushed by workmen that all may be in readiness at the stated time. There will be no water menace in the basement for plans changed and there is no basement, the heating plant being placed in a building outside the main school structure. Wood will be used for fuel at present but a change to oil may be made with small expense.

General satisfaction is registered with the new building by patrons who have watched the new structure take form.

GRADES PUBLISH MONTHLY PAPER
Turner—The primary room in the Turner schools comprised of the first, second and third grades is publishing a monthly paper under the supervision of the teacher, Mrs. Emily Van Santen. The first edition of the newspaper was edited last week with the editors, Ira Harrison, Vernon Grim and Doreen Boyer (jointing). New editors will publish the primary paper each month which is a clever bit of news on society, health, locals and funnies based on old-fashioned grammar.

The first newspaper was a Thanksgiving number with pictures all free hand done in the art period by the pupils. All articles are made by the primary pupils in language time and very interesting for beginning "journalism workers." The paper is backed by an enthusiastic group and each month will be divided into four sections.
