

MONITOR HOST MARION COUNTY POMONA GRANGE

FARR SELECTED COUNTY MASTER FOR NEXT YEAR

Monitor—Morton Tompkins, overseer of the state grange, talked of the subject "Social Hospitalization," at the Marion county Pomona meeting held all day Wednesday at the Pomona, where the granges on this new phase of practical work and urged a thorough study of the subject.

Among the numerous resolutions passed by the Pomona, the one with respect to a study of the work of Social Hospitalization was considered the most important. Peter Zimmerman of the executive committee of the state grange spoke of the four measures on the ballot. Members of the resolutions committee include Harry Martin, J. Richards and W. C. Pettyjohn.

Installation of officers of Pomona was in charge of Mrs. Ella Lambert of Stayton as installing officer. Installed were J. O. Farr, master; Mrs. Clara Kleihege of Chemawa, lecturer; J. O. Darby of Union Hill as overseer; Sarah Maulding of Silverton Hills, chaplain; W. C. Pettyjohn of Roberts, steward; W. M. Tate of Union Hill, assistant steward; W. H. Stevens, North Howell, treasurer; Anna Hadley, Silverton Hills, secretary; Esther Hartley, Ankeny, Cora, Anna Paulson, North Howell, Pomona; Vera Scott, Union Hill, Flora; Elsie Tate, Union Hill, lady assistant steward; Mrs. J. C. Krenz, Union Hill, juvenile matron; members of the executive committee, Rex Hartley, Ankeny, Charles Sweeney, Monitor, and W. E. Savage of Chemawa.

Twelve new members were given the obligation for membership in the Pomona. Committees appointed were Finance, G. A. Sanders, Bert Peckole, E. G. Clark, Relief, Sarah Maulding, W. E. Savage, C. H. Taylor; Home Economics, Daisy Bump, Jennie Humphries, Erma Lindquist; Agricultural, Harry Riches, Oscar Lee, Charles Sweeney; Legislative, J. S. Coomler, Martin Rostvold, Eugene Finlay.

The Marion county council and the agricultural and home economics committees will meet Saturday, February 29, with the North Howell grange as host. More than 176 guests were present at the Pomona dinner served at noon by the members of the Monitor home economics committee of the grange in the Odd Fellows hall.

LINN LINES

Albany and county news in brief

AG CONFERENCE SET
Albany—Plans for the county-wide agricultural outlook or economic conference to be held at the Albany armory January 28 and 29 are rapidly rounding into shape. It was stated by John Shepherd, Soio, chairman of the conference committee. All conference committees excepting a few have met twice each and the remainder of the meetings will be held this week, he said. Among developments of the last 10 or 15 years, with which the conference will be concerned, Mr. Shepherd said, will be the increased production of grass and legume seed for market, replacement of wheat in western Oregon with specialty crops such as canning crops, bulbs, nuts and others, use of irrigation in the Willamette valley, growth of a substantial poultry industry and the development of the dairy industry.

RIVER RECEDING
Albany—Linn and Benton county lands submerged under flood waters for the past several days were emerging slowly Wednesday as the rivers continued to recede. Rains falling Wednesday prevented a more rapid decline. The river reading was 23 feet, a drop of but 3 of a foot in 24 hours.

SEEKS CITIZENSHIP
Albany—Dietrich Lehning has taken out first citizenship papers at the office of the county clerk. Lehning is a native of Germany and has been in the United States since 1880.

FLOWER SHOW PLANNED
Albany—The Albany Garden club plans for three flower shows. It was announced by the president, Mrs. R. L. Burkhardt. The first will be held in the spring and the committee for the show is comprised of Mrs. Lee Morgan, Mrs. Ora Wallace, Mrs. Estella Kendall and Mr. G. Laubner.

COLLEGES COMPETING
Albany—Albany college will entertain six Oregon colleges at an extemporaneous contest to be held on the campus Thursday afternoon and evening. Pacific college, Pacific university, Oregon State col-

Looter's Name Confused with Silverton Girl

Silverton—To correct a misunderstanding that is becoming embarrassing to Silverton relatives an explanation is due. Miss Eleanor Adams of Bremerton, Wash., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed R. Adams of Silverton, is not the Eleanor Adams who was mentioned in connection with a lost case that took place near Tacoma and was given much publicity. The Silverton Eleanor Adams is sending photographs of the other young woman to her parents in self-defense.

MASS MEETING TOWNSEND PLAN

Monmouth—The Townsend club meeting Tuesday evening was largely attended with Thomas Gentle in the chair. A T. Plummer announced Polk county's mass meeting of Townsend clubs is slated for Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the auditorium of the Dallas high school. Dr. H. C. Epley's chorus of 40 voices will appear on the program and Judge Jeffrey of Portland has been asked to speak.

The club's entertainment to be given Friday night in Odd Fellow hall, consisting of the play, "Pigs and Pensions," and musical numbers, will be followed shortly by another evening's entertainment arranged by the committee, A. W. Whitaker, G. T. Shanks and W. L. Smith, appointed by the chair Tuesday night.

For diversion Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Poole sang, assisted by Mr. Powell at the piano. At the close of the meeting the advisory board convened.

Tap Dancing Lad Alarms Many People

Silverton—All Silverton turned out in a hurry about 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon when it was believed Bobby, five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hassenstab, had fallen into Silver Creek. The boy is a tap dancer and is very popular at evening affairs. The family had been to Mt. Angel Tuesday night where he had appeared in dance numbers on a program. Because he was tired his mother decided a nap would be just the thing for him. The bedroom window of the Hassenstab apartment opened on the creek which is very high at present. Mrs. Hassenstab left the boy in bed and went into the bathroom. When she returned in a few minutes the window was down from the top and the boy was gone. His clothing was all in the water.

The firemen and scores of other residents aided in the search and lifted the bridges watching for this child. After 45 minutes of suspense, the father had a last hope idea. He went to the boy's playroom several doors down the hall from the bedroom, and found the door locked with a slip lock from the inside of the room. He broke the lock and found the boy without clothes, very cold and scared for he had not known what all the noise was about.

Polk Enumerator Is From Monmouth

Monmouth—Delmar Scarff has been appointed enumerator of business and manufacturing establishments of Polk county in conjunction with the federal census being carried on for statistical purposes. His appointment came Saturday through Owen C. Davis, supervisor of district No. 1. Scarff began taking the census of business houses in Independence Monday.

Officers Elected By Roberts Club

Roberts—The Home Economics club met at the home of Mrs. G. S. Higgins Tuesday afternoon. The election of officers was as follows: president, Mrs. Leonard H. Zielke; vice president, Mrs. L. F. Clymer; secretary, Mrs. Clifford Thomas; treasurer, Mrs. Edmer Minch.

After the business session refreshments were served by the hostess. Members attending the club were: Mrs. Leonard H. Zielke, Mrs. George Nelson, Mrs. S. L. Minard, Mrs. Roy Minch, Mrs. Clifford Thomas, Mrs. W. C. Pettyjohn, Mrs. B. D. Fidler, Mrs. Forest Edwards, Mrs. L. D. Johnson and Mrs. L. F. Clymer.

Leslie, Willamette university, Portland, Portland university and Albany college will have entrants in the contest. Both men and women will participate. "Our Present Relief Program," will be the topic covered by the women and the men's division will cover the topic, "Government by Alphabet."

NEW OFFICERS ADAH CHAPTER ARE INSTALLED

Independence—Members of Adah Chapter, C.E.S. of Independence met in regular session Tuesday evening and installed officers for the year. The installation ceremony was carried out by the installing officers. Mrs. O. A. Wolverson, junior past Matron, acted as installing officer, assisted by R. G. Montgomery, as Patron; Mrs. Howard Morlan Marshall; Mrs. Edwards, secretary; Mrs. F. E. Chambers, chaplain; and Mrs. Homer Dadds as organist. Flower girls assisting in presentation of flowers and gifts, were Annabel Schweizer and Charlotte McKnight.

Officers installed were as follows: Mrs. A. H. Dixon, Worthy Matron; P. M. Schweizer, Worthy Patron; Mrs. P. M. Schweizer, Assoc. Matron; Associate Patron's station, vacant; Mrs. C. D. Calbreath, Secretary; Mrs. Robert W. White, Treasurer; Mrs. Hugh VanLoan, Associate Conductress; Conductress, vacant; Annette Schweizer, Marshall; Miss Mildred McKnight, organist; Mrs. Paul Robinson, Adah; Miss Wahl, Ruth; Mrs. Miles Branch, Esther; Mrs. W. C. Wood, Martha; Miss Elaine Easton, Electa; Mrs. T. D. Pomeroy, Warder; Miss Branch, Sentinel.

Special guests for the evening were Mrs. L. E. Barwick, W. M. of Chadwick Chapter, Salem; Mrs. Blodgett, Junior past Matron, and Mr. Rhoten, Junior past Patron, of Chadwick Chapter; Mrs. Rhoten and Mrs. Darby of Salem; Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Hewitt of Amity.

The Worthy Patron has the distinction of having been elected for the fifth year. Melford Nelson, who had been elected Associate Patron, tendered his resignation at the last moment, also the Conductress, Mrs. Reid, who has moved from the district to Eugene. An election will be held January 28 to fill these vacancies.

CARD PLAY STAGED BY GERVAIS CLUB

Gervais—Forty attended the regular "500" Community club on Tuesday evening, held in the school auditorium. Mrs. Allyn Nusom, Mrs. Albert Girod, Mrs. Ward Lundy and Mrs. Isabella Blot were in charge of arrangements and served a pot luck supper at 7 o'clock after which cards were in play. High scores were won by Mrs. Perry Seely and A. Brown. Second prizes were given to Mr. and Mrs. O. V. McAdoo. The club will meet again January 28 when Mrs. G. J. Moison, Mrs. William Allsup, Miss Mannix and Mrs. McAdoo will be the committee.

TWO PENSION CLUBS MEET IN DISTRICT

Woodburn—Woodburn Townsend club, No. 1, will meet Friday night at 7:30 o'clock in the high school auditorium. Lyle D. Thomas, superintendent of the West Salem schools, will be the speaker of the evening. Adoption of the constitution, by-laws and plan of organization will take place and all members are urged to attend. The public is invited.

Clear Lake—The joint Townsend club meeting at the Eldridge school house attracted a large crowd. The speaker was Elbert Eastman, radio announcer for the state office. Seventy new members were reported. The club is made up of Clear Lake, Kiefer, North Howell, Lash Center and Eldridge. The next meeting will be held at Lash Center school house Wednesday evening, January 22. Officers are to be elected at this meeting.

Invite Young Folk

Monmouth—A social evening is being arranged for Friday night by the Young People's Christian Endeavor society of the Evangelical church in charge of Dick Schoenborn. The community's young people who are interested are welcome to attend the affair which will be held in the church parlors.

FUNERAL MEN MEET
Silverton—E. R. Ekman of the Ekman Funeral home attended the meeting of the Willamette Valley Funeral directors Tuesday night at McMinnville.

STATE THEATRE
Today and Friday 2-BIG FEATURES-2

Edmund Lowe
—in—
"Mr. Dynamite"
A Dashiell Hammett Detective Story

BIG FEATURES
"Old Man Rhythm"
with Buddy Rogers—Grace Bradley

First Growing Daffodils Seen, Palmer Home

Silverton—Mrs. Ernest Palmer reports the first daffodils grown out-of-doors in the Silverton community this season. The plants are four inches above the ground.

T. P. Heidenstrom left a bouquet of pussy willows at the Capital Journal office several days before Christmas grown along Silver creek near the Heidenstrom home.

CLUBS TO SEE TRAINED MULE

Hayesville—Acting as hosts to the Marion county federation of community clubs the Hayesville club will hold a meeting Saturday evening of this week in the school auditorium. The regular date of the club meeting is Friday evening, but in order to accommodate other clubs in the district the date was changed.

Numerous clubs will be represented at the district meeting, including Kiefer, Clear Lake, Hazel Green, Lash Center, Swede, Middle Grove and Central Howell. Luther Chapin, general entertainment chairman of the federation, has asked each club to respond with a number for the evening's program. The Hayesville club will feature Guy Ray and his trained mule, with intervening singing, dancing and black face numbers.

The meeting will be purely social in its nature, with refreshments being served at the close of the evening.

PLAYSHED PLAN FOR OAK POINT

Oak Point—The school society held the January meeting at the schoolhouse with plans for building a play shed discussed. A goal of $50 was set towards its construction. A flower and sick committee appointed includes Mrs. R. A. Anderson, chairman, and Mrs. Frankie Haselton.

Plans were completed for the benefit dinner January 28, when the society will entertain members of the Independence chamber of commerce and their wives. The following committees were appointed: Tables, Cecil Hultman, Allen Hall, Robert Seeger, Charles Wilson; decorations, Mrs. Cecil Hultman, Mrs. Ellis Lauderback; waitresses, Gladys Rogers, Glenerva and LaVerne Harnsberger, Lowen and Eleanor Hall, Blanche Wilson; Mrs. Harnsberger, Hazel Hughes; kitchen, Mrs. Frankie Haselton, Mrs. R. A. Alderson, Mrs. Robert Seeger; cashier, Allen Hall; program, Mrs. Edward Harnsberger, Mrs. Cecil Hultman and Mrs. Ellis Lauderback.

Mrs. Harnsberger announced the following program: Mandolin and guitar selections by Mrs. Haselton and daughter, Margaret; debate: Resolved, that the sales tax should be passed to provide for old age pensions. Affirmative, Grove Peterson, Roy Bigelow, Mrs. Seeger; negative, Mrs. R. A. Alderson, Miss Esther Girod and Allen Hall. The negative won. The next meeting will be held February 14.

Silverton Facing Heavy Damage Suit

Silverton—Alice Marchbanks has petitioned through her attorneys, Vinson, Marsh and Marsh, of McMinnville, the city of Silverton for general damages of $20,000 and special $420, as the result of an alleged loss of a thumb as the city at the municipal park during the latter part of the summer. The notice was filed with the city officials Wednesday forenoon.

Nine Table Card Evening Enjoyed

Stayton—Nine tables of "500" were in play at the card party sponsored by the Catholic women in the Forester hall Tuesday evening. High scores were held by Mrs. Lawrence Smith and J. T. Meriz. Refreshments were served by the committee which included Mary Kerber, Julia Gries, Mrs. Joe Gasser, Mrs. Andy Keidel and Mrs. Teresa Frank.

There will be three more parties before Lent, January 22, February 4 and February 18.

A Home Owned Theatre HOLLYWOOD
Last Times Today

Francis Lederer in
"The Gay Deception"
with Frances Dee

Friday and Saturday
FIRST RUN IN SALEM

Ken MAYNARD
Western Courage

FORUM BACKING SCHOOL BONDS; VOTE FEB'Y 3RD

Silverton—At the Wednesday evening meeting of the chamber of commerce the membership decided to back the movement of voting a $38,000 bond issue at a special election February 3, in order to obtain a like amount of federal funds for constructing an addition to the senior high school building. The 4-L local and an advisory board of 12 members are aiding in an educational campaign for the voters previous to the date of voting.

Mrs. Zetta Schlador, president, asked Herman Kramer, principal of the high school, to introduce the featured speaker, Paul T. Jackson, recently appointed superintendent of the Chemawa Indian school. He discussed the national youth administration in the project of furnishing funds to aid high school and college students, and the conditions at Chemawa.

A group of young women from the Indian school furnished a program of Indian songs. Appearing were Dorothy Henderson in solos, Wilma and Naomi Mesplie and Lula McMorris.

R. A. Fish reported the membership drive was being responded to 100 percent. Robert Goetz and Earl Adams told of the Salem meeting of the Greater Willamette Valley association with the president, Mrs. Schlador, following with a plea for a more liberal home use of Silverton products. The question of the need of tree surgery for the city park trees was also brought up by Mrs. Schlador. Parry Rose reported on the Boy Scout work. A number of members expressed the desire to cooperate with the farmers of the Silverton communities and encourage them to attend the forum sessions. The mechanical man, the Robotic will be the entertaining feature of the chamber meeting in February.

FIREMEN ARRANGE GERVAIS BENEFIT

Gervais—Homer Morgan, president of the newly formed fire department, and his committee have completed all plans for the benefit dinner the department is sponsoring on Saturday night. More than 200 tickets have been sold as each member has covered the districts near by and local people have responded 100 percent. Bill DeSouza's nine piece band of 8:30 am will be featured. For the holders of tickets who don't care for dancing, card tables have been arranged in an adjoining room to the auditorium where they may play cards and still enjoy the music. The boys have worked hard to make this initial fire department dance a success and they hope to make it an annual affair.

Activity Resumed By Clear Lake Club

Clear Lake—The Women's Missionary society met at the Clear Lake church Tuesday afternoon. The purpose of the meeting was to elect new officers, as there had been no meeting since the president, Mrs. L. Massey, moved to Albany last summer. Rev. Liening conducted the election with the following chosen: Mrs. Lois Stolk, president; Mrs. J. F. Keeney, vice president; Mrs. Roy Smith, secretary; Mrs. E. Dutoit, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Theo Stolk, treasurer.

MISS LOONEY HOME

Jefferson—Miss Margaret Looney arrived Monday from San Francisco for a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Looney. She is employed as department assistant in one of Oakland's largest stores.

Workers Will Meet

Silverton—The Silverton local No. 3 of the Workers' Alliance of America will hold a meeting at the home of P. L. Johnson at 424 Church street Friday, Mrs. Lucinda Whorlow is secretary treasurer.

Gates—L. T. Hennessy has returned home from a ten-day visit at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ratzeburg at Chemawa.

Jefferson Gym Improved with More Windows

Jefferson—The gymnasium at the Jefferson school has been improved by adding two more windows and the exit door has been moved to the south end. Shades have been added to the lights in the high school which is a great improvement.

High waters have caused a number of students to be absent the first of the week. At the last meeting of the student body, both the president and vice president were absent.

LEGION WOMEN MAKE PROFITS

Mt. Angel—The American Legion auxiliary dance and card party netted $124, which will be used for a 4-H scholarship at Oregon State college next summer and for purchasing a piano for the use of the auxiliary.

Mrs. Rose Butsch headed the committee in charge of the dance and was assisted by Mrs. Cecyl Laut, Mrs. Mary Prosser and Mrs. Tillie Walker. Miss Theresa Dehler and Mrs. Agnes Sauvain took care of the card party.

State Commander Koehn visited Mt. Angel Normal school and Mt. Angel college Monday. His talk on Americanism was delivered to the girls at 1 o'clock and to the boys at 1:30. He also explained the Fidac essay contest to the students of both institutions. Both schools will enter contestants.

Woman Named Church Board Initial Time

Silverton—The only woman ever to be elected to the chairmanship of the board of directors of the First Christian church in Silverton is Mrs. G. B. Benton who was persuaded to accept the responsibility at the meeting of the church officers the first of the week.

Mrs. Benton will announce her committee chairmen in the near future. Her work includes the supervision of all departments of the church organization.

One responsibility now resting on the members of the official church board is the selection of a new pastor to replace Rev. W. O. Livingston, who resigned to accept the work at Vernonia. No choice has yet been announced.

BUSINESSMEN SHOW MOVING PICTURES

Jefferson—The Jefferson Better Business club held its regular meeting Tuesday night in the club rooms in the Humphrey building. Jack Tyson, vice president, presided. It was decided to kaisome the club room and a collection was taken to defray the expense.

Homer Smith, president of the Marion Farmers' Union local, spoke on "Cooperation of Farmers and Business Men," and he was made an honorary member of the club. A talk was also given by Jack Tyson. Refreshments were served.

"Freckles" will be the picture at the show sponsored by the club Friday night at the Masonic hall.

Workers Will Meet

Silverton—The Silverton local No. 3 of the Workers' Alliance of America will hold a meeting at the home of P. L. Johnson at 424 Church street Friday, Mrs. Lucinda Whorlow is secretary treasurer.

Gates—L. T. Hennessy has returned home from a ten-day visit at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ratzeburg at Chemawa.

NAOMI CHAPTER HAS CEREMONY FOR OFFICERS

Dallas—Installation ceremonies for the new officers for 1936 were conducted Tuesday night by Naomi Chapter No. 22 O.E.S. with Mrs. John Voth as installing officer, assisted by Mrs. Eloise Stants as installing Marshall and Mrs. Rachel Hawkins as Chaplain.

The new officers installed were Miss Mildred Stafrin, Worthy Matron; Dr. L. A. Bollman, Worthy Patron; Hulda Hartman, Associate Matron; Robert Pence, Associate Patron; Gayle Kreson, secretary; Frieda Bergey, treasurer; Katherine McKnight, conductress; Laura Cleveland, associate conductress; Blanche Eakin, chaplain; Mildred McCarty, marshal; Ivy Pemberton, organist; Margaret Grider, Adah; Rose Pence, Ruth; Ruby Orwin, Esther; Dorothy Eakin, Martha; Catherine Laing, Electa; Jennie Eberling, warder; Morris Laing, sentinel.

The following Rainbow Girls assisted in the installation: Jeanne Hartman, Mary Ellen Dalton, Patricia Murray, Betty Smith, Joan Stinnette and Patricia Tracy.

Musical numbers were offered during the evening by Mrs. Stanley Bayliss, accompanied by her husband at the piano and by an instrumental trio composed of Dorothy Palmer and Margaret Riggs, violinists, and Doris Riggs, pianist.

Flowers were presented to the new Worthy Matron by her officers and to the Star points. Mrs. Mildred Stafrin was presented with a gift by the Past Matrons club in recognition of the fact that she was the first one in the club to have a daughter elected as Worthy Matron.

FOURTEEN TABLES OF CARDS PLAYED

Mt. Angel—Fourteen tables of cards were in play Tuesday evening when the St. Ann's society sponsored their regular card party in the dining room of St. Mary's school.

Mrs. N. M. Lauby won first prize for "500" with Mrs. M. Welton winning second prize. Mrs. C. J. Ebner won first prize for bridge. Mrs. Dave Shepherd won second prize for bridge and Mrs. Anna Stolle received the door prize.

After the card playing a luncheon was served by the committee which included Mrs. William Klotz, chairman, Mrs. Anna Hafner, Mrs. Phil Lutz, Mrs. Wendell Hauth, Mrs. Jos. Hauth, Mrs. George Humpert, Mrs. J. F. Sauvain, Mrs. Martin Kaiser, Mrs. Ida Kirsch, and Mrs. Christina Jell.

PROGRAM FOR COLE

Stayton—At the regular meeting of the Cole community club to be held Friday the Stayton Chamber of commerce will present the program.

Little Girl Given Party On Birthday

West-Salem—Mrs. Glenn Davenport honored her little daughter Maxine on her sixth birthday anniversary with a party at her home on Gerth avenue.

Those present were the honored guest, Maxine Davenport, Gwendolyn Rust, Margie Hathaway, Clara Barnes, Delores Hathaway, Shirley Davenport, Wanda Hathaway and Mrs. Ethel McCoy, Mrs. Guy Barnes, Mrs. Arthur Hathaway and Mrs. Davenport.

HEALTH MOVIE WILL BE SEEN

Stayton—A special health moving picture film, "The Life of a Healthy Child," will be offered at the Stayton high school auditorium Monday night.

The picture was made and will be shown by Dr. David B. Hill, Salem dentist, whose "home made" movies on health and recreation have become popular all over the state. The P.T.A. is sponsoring the event.

The health film will illustrate the activities of a normal child, habits of cleanliness, proper food, carefree play and approved care of the mouth and teeth. In addition to the health pictures Dr. Hill will show an extensive travel film which will include such divergent views as the Columbia River highway, Yellowstone park, South Dakota Hills, the Mayo Clinic in Minnesota, the Century of Progress at Chicago, Andrew Jackson's home in Tennessee and many more points of scenic, historic and scientific interest.

There will be a third film to conclude the program, an animal "funny" for the children.

Prepare Program

Clear Lake—The Clear Lake Community club will hold its next meeting and program at the school house Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Mina Schlag and Clifford Lindquist are on the program committee.

2 BIG FEATURES

ESCAPE from DEVIL'S ISLAND with VICTOR JORY
and FLORENCE RICE
Norman FOSTER
(Stanley ANDREWS)

And Roger Pryor in
"The Case of the Missing Man"

GRAND
CONTINUOUS SHOW ONLY

EL SINORE Last Times TODAY

MARGARET SULLIVAN
IN
"SO RED THE ROSE"

STARTS TOMORROW

THE GREAT ROMANTIC DRAMA OF ALL TIMES!!
Humanity's Tenderest Love Story!!

Colman
in CHARLES DICKENS' glorious romance
A TALE OF TWO CITIES with cast of 49,000 including
Elizabeth ALLAN Reginald OWEN Edna May OLIVER Basil RATHBONE
500 Seats 25c

FIREMEN'S BENEFIT DANCE
CITY AUDITORIUM—GERVAIS
Saturday Nite, Jan. 18
MUSIC BY
Bill DeSouza's Popular 9-Piece Band
ADMISSION, PER COUPLE—50c