

CAMP OFFICER FACING TRIAL DRUNK DRIVER

Woodburn—Lieutenant John David Kilgore, commander of Black Rock COO camp, will appear before Judge Hiram Overton Friday at 10 o'clock to be tried on a charge of driving a car on the highway while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Lieutenant Kilgore was arrested Wednesday of last week after driving his car into a car driven by George Wesley Tabler.

Two occupants of the Tabler car, Mrs. Ruth Tabler and Mrs. P. H. Bunn, both of Portland, were injured. Kilgore's car was said to have traveled 20 feet after hitting the other car. He was examined by a Woodburn physician and pronounced drunk after being arrested. His plea was not guilty and he was released after furnishing $250 bail.

Norman Earl Wildish, arrested for transporting property for compensation without a chauffeur's license, paid a fine of $5 and costs of $2.50. Francis Fremont Hupp, arrested for driving his car without 1936 license plates, entered a plea of guilty and was given a fine of $5, plus costs of $3.50.

John Williams Kudva, also arrested for driving without 1936 license plates, after pleading guilty paid a fine of $5 and costs of $2.50. Virgil Vernon Hinshaw, arrested for driving with a two-wheeled trailer attached to his car, the said trailer carrying a load of 1500 pounds and having no license plates attached. His fine was $5 plus costs of $2.50, which he paid.

CHINA MISSIONARY HEARD, SILVERTON

Silverton—Mrs. Harvey Hallett will open her home in the Geiser addition Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock to the members of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Christian Missionary Alliance. Rev. Truax, visiting missionary from China, will be the guests' program speaker.

Mrs. George Israelson is president of the society and Mrs. Fred Town, secretary. Rev. Truax will appear at the church during the week in evening sermon talks.

Health Educational Movies are Slated

Woodburn—A set of three educational health motion picture films from the State Tuberculosis Association are showing at the Bungalow theater Thursday afternoon, beginning at 12:45 o'clock. The films are brought here for the students of the high school and Washington Junior high, who will attend. There will be no charge. The pictures are being shown at the Bungalow for the reason that the school machines cannot handle this type of film.

Home Econ Group Has New Leaders

Sidney—The Home Economics club of Ankeny grange met at the J. O. Parr-home Friday afternoon. A quilt was finished and plans made for future work. New officers are Mrs. Wilma Wintermantle, chairman; Mrs. Louise Johnston, secretary-treasurer. The next meeting will be held at the hall with two members acting as hostesses. Lunch was served.

Pupils Get Treat

Waconda—The ninth birthday of Linda Lee Girod was observed when her mother, Mrs. Albert Girod, complimented her with a surprise party at school for the little girl, her playmates and her teacher, Miss Eleanor Barth. A costume party was held by the upper grades with Mrs. Girod, who is principle, in charge. Refreshments were served to the entire school.

Helpers Will Meet

Brush College—Mrs. A. E. Utley, president of the Brush College Helpers, will be joint hostess with Mrs. A. R. Ewing for the regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Ewing Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

FORMER FRIENDS VISIT

Silverton—Mrs. Mabel Goldsworthy and her daughter, Mrs. Fern Shaw, have had as houseguests within the past week former neighbors from Westington, S. Dak. Mrs. Jack McGirr and Mrs. Clyde McNeil. Other former Westington folk residing here with Mrs. McGirr and Mrs. McNeil are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lon Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. H. Reeves, Frank Syring and the families of Gordon and Ben Longuecker.

Waconda—Mrs. Fred Viesko and Ray Jones visited in Portland at the bedside of their father, L. B. Jones, who is seriously ill at Good Samaritan hospital.

Stolen Wallet Returns Minus Cash Contents

Stayton—George Davie had rather an unusual experience Friday. His wallet containing between $17 and $20, new driver's license and papers were lost on the street between his shop and the theater. Sunday evening, hearing a noise on the porch, he found the wallet had been thrown there. All the papers were intact but the cash was missing.

RELIEF SEWING PLAN OUTLINED

Monmouth—Mayor F. R. Bowersox gave the Monmouth Luncheon club details of the proposed government relief sewing project, for which local application is made. Under its terms the government supplies most of the materials for work for 15 women, a total of $4,000 being spent. The Legion hall would be used, a sewing machine furnished and it would be the work of the women to make garments and other sewing for worthy poor. The proposal is to work 30 hours a week or 120 hours a month, at 30 cents an hour. There are certain local contributions to be made—thread, buttons, tape and other incidentals. The luncheon club voted to make $10 available as its contribution toward this project.

QUARTERLY BALLOT TAKEN BY SOCIETY

Talbot—At a meeting of the Talbot Christian Endeavor society Sunday evening the following officers were elected for this quarter: President, Marjorie Cole; vice-president, Heene Blinsson; secretary-treasurer, Charlene Walker; song leader, Virgil Calavan; pianist, Marjorie Cole. The 4-H garden club met Friday afternoon at the Talbot school with the leader, Ronald Hoven in charge. The club pledge was given and plans for the club work discussed. Members present were Ronald Hoven, leader, Gaynell Cole, J. C. Walker, Albert Burrell, Loren Turnidge, Frances Hoven, Wesley Jorgenson and Robert Cole. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Harding of Bremerton, Wash., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Freeman. Harding is Mrs. Freeman's recruiting officer.

STAYTON GRANGERS TO INSTALL SOON

Stayton—The regular meeting of the Stayton grange was held Saturday at the hall. Mrs. Frank Kohl, lecturer, presided at the business session. Raymond Frey gave several guitar numbers. There were readings by Ella Williams, Ruth Kohl, Mrs. Scott and Ida Nipple. A number of the men, following the meeting, drove to Sublimity to attend a fire insurance meeting. The women spent the afternoon with quilting. Mr. and Mrs. Peebles of Turner Surprise grange were guests. Installation of officers will be held at the next meeting.

Tomison Selected Student Body Head

Silverton—Bill Tomison of the Orangemen was elected president of the senior high student body for the coming year, Friday afternoon. Jean Bowman of the T.N.T.'s is vice president; Lois Gay, Orangemen, secretary; Mary Jane Nofsker, treasurer; unannounced; Don Christenson, Orangemen, sergeant-at-arms.

Card Club Guest

Oak Point—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bigelow were hosts for the "Nite Hawk" card club with four tables of cards in play. High score honors were won by Mrs. Leonard Peterson and Mrs. Orin Kellogg. A late supper was served by the hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rogers, Sr., will entertain the club February 7.

Bike Rider Hurt

Brooks—Miss Marie Bosch suffered minor injuries Friday evening when she was returning home from Ramp's store on her bicycle. She was hit by a truck driven by Nago Niimola, at the Brooks four corners. Marie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bosch of this place.

Box Office Opens 6:45

HOLLYWOOD LAST TIMES TODAY

EDWARD ARNOLD DIAMOND JIM UNIVERSAL PICTURE with JEAN ARTHUR and BINNIE BARNES

Wednesday and Thursday At Last It Rips Away the Veil

DANTE'S INFERNO Spencer Tracy - Clair Trevor Henry B. Walthall Alan Dinehart

WARNER BAXTER KING OF BURLESQUE GRAND

GRADE SCHOOL WRECKING WILL GET UNDER WAY

Albany—Wrecking of the Maple school building preparatory to the erection of a new structure will begin Wednesday. It was stated by school officials. A new structure to house grade school pupils will follow the razing of the building. It is expected that work will be received within a few days by similar authorization for work on the Madison structure and the high school building, where, however, there will be no razing.

SALEM WOMAN HURT

Albany—Mrs. E. L. Gray, Salem, suffered minor injuries late Saturday when the car in which she was riding with Mr. Gray, collided with one driven by John Burkhardt when the latter attempted to turn into a driveway on the Santiam highway five miles east of Albany. Gray, who was driving, was uninjured. Mrs. Gray returned to her home over the week-end.

DITCH DYNAMITED

Albany—Less than two hours were required to dig 600 feet of drainage ditch with dynamite at a demonstration held at the Roschal Groves farm near Lebanon, Saturday. It was stated by County Agent Floyd C. Mullen Monday. More than 50 Linn county farmers witnessed the demonstration staged by J. P. McAdams, Eugene; Prof. R. N. Lunde, Oregon State college and the county agent. The cost was seven cents a foot, he said, or $42 in all. Notable, according to the county agent, was the fact that more than 50 stumps which could not otherwise have been removed without great cost were blasted out without difficulty.

OIL MAN ROBBED

Albany—Ted Musgrave, owner of a service station on the Pacific highway at the edge of Albany, was beaten and robbed by two thugs early Monday morning, according to his report to local police. Musgrave was still in a dazed condition when the police arrived, but he was able to give the officers a meagre description of the men. According to Musgrave, the two stopped and asked for gasoline. After he had filled their tank, he recounted, one of the men slugged him twice, with his fist, knocking Musgrave down, whereupon one of the pair took the station owner's pocketbook from his pocket and extracted $8. The men, Musgrave stated, were in a black Model A Tudor Ford sedan, and each of them wore a black overcoat. Musgrave told the police. Both were young.

Fairfield Grange Sponsors Program

Fairfield—The home economics club of Fairfield grange No. 720 are sponsoring a program and pie social at the grange hall, Mrs. Don DuRette is directing a play, "A Case of Suspicion," which will be presented. The cast includes Miss Judkins, played by Dorothy Lundy; Professor Edgerston, by Lloyd Francis; college girls, Edora Allenback, Joan DuRette and Ellnor Lundy; college boys, Glenn Lucas and John Short; Irish maid, Norma Short; janitor and handy man, Donald DuRette. The proceeds of the social will be applied to the building fund.

Freeman Honored At Birthday Party

Silver Falls—D. O. Freeman of Toledo was the honor guest at a "500" party Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Duerr. Mrs. Geary Neal and Charles Goodwin scored high and Myrtle Rabens and William Elder, low. The honor guest once lived in this community. On the guest list were Mr. and Mrs. William Elder, Mr. and Mrs. Geary Neal, Edna and Lillith, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goodwin, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rabens, Myrtle, Roberta and Bill, Mr. and Mrs. Lars Barney, Shirley and Harvey, Aom Toepfer, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Neal, Jack Hollingsworth, Lawrence Lester and the hosts.

Brooks—Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Pi-skering were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Jennie Gilbert.

Foreign War Vets To Hold Ceremony

Silver Falls—Installation of officers in the newly organized post of the V. F. W. from the veterans COC camp here will be at the Silverton army Wednesday evening. Installation will be in charge of the PEP post degree team of Portland.

ALTAR SOCIETY HOLDS SESSION

Mt. Angel—About 75 members were present at the quarterly meeting of the St. Ann's Altar society Sunday afternoon in St. Mary's school. Reports were read on the progress and work the society has accomplished in the last three years, during which time Mrs. A. D. Ebner held the office of president. The three members who died during the last three years are Mrs. Wm. Worley, Mrs. Frank Kronberg, and Mrs. Alois Keber. During the same period of time, 25 new members were received into the society. The four new members who were enrolled during the last meeting were Mrs. Dan Murphy, Mrs. Leonard Fisher, Mrs. Emil Wolf, and Mrs. Giovanni Maggic. New officers elected for the coming year are Mrs. A. A. Klingler, president, Mrs. G. D. Ebner, vice president, Mrs. George Lassus, elected secretary, and Mrs. Leo Barr, re-elected treasurer.

The St. Ann's society sponsors a public card party on the second and fourth Tuesdays of every month.

REBEKAH WORKERS NAMED, SILVERTON

Silverton—Mrs. Phreda, N.G. of the Rebekahs, has named as her committee members for the year: Finance, Kate Porter, Helen M. Wrightman and Laura Busch; flower, Katherine Taylor, Emma Adamson and Payne Renwick; resolutions, Frances Gourli, Sylvia Allen and Ruth Lorenzen; publicity, Edna Minor; good of the order, Irene Roubal; reception, Josephine Hartman, Mabelle Gay, Frances Gehrke. Several plan to attend the Woodman convention January 29 where Silverton will take part in the floor work. The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will observe the anniversary of the founding of Oddfellowship January 23 in honor of Thomas Wildey.

Miss Olson Honored At Birthday Party

Woodburn—Miss Virginia Olson, daughter of Major and Mrs. Oliver S. Olson, celebrated her ninth birthday anniversary Saturday afternoon by entertaining a group of friends at her home on Corby street. Prizes were awarded to Bonney Susan Scott and Donna Dean. Those present were Donna Dean, Bonney Susan Scott, Virginia Writman, Jean Bentley, Vivian Bell, Jo Ann Tweedie, Juanita Sebern, Marjorie Seely, Beverly Hughes, Betty Jones, Jo Ann and Virginia Olson.

Juvenile Grange Member Honored

Silverton Hills—The Juvenile grangers honored Betsy Ross on the occasion of her seventh birthday anniversary at their regular meeting Friday night during the social hour. Betsy's brother, Don, is juvenile master, Yvonne Murray is lecturer and Mrs. L. O. Hadley is juvenile matron. Mrs. Don Ross, mother of Betsy, baked the cake for the young people.

Cook Club Formed

Evans Valley—Ruth Boyce, teacher, has organized a 4-H camp cooking club with members including Evanes Brenden, Jimmie Rue, Lois and Virginia Rue, Clara, Ida May and Gladys Brown, Charles and Floyd Langsev, Arnold Herigstad and Ruby LeRud.

ATTEND FEDERATION

Brooks—Mrs. Clyde Harrie accompanied by Mrs. Marie Bosch, Mrs. Clara Hammang, Mrs. Mary Ashbaugh and Mrs. Anna M. Dunlavy, attended the Marion County Federation of Community clubs meeting at Hayesville Saturday night.

DELBERT REEVES LEGION POST IS BUSY THIS WEEK

Silverton—At the meeting of Delbert Reeves post of the American Legion Monday evening, Harry Wilson, chairman of the membership committee reported $2 paid-up legionnaires. The Boy Scout troop will meet tonight instead of Thursday night in order to be able to have as guests the Stayton troops. The district court of honor will be held in Silverton on the third Thursday in February with a 6:30 o'clock supper preceding the court. The mothers of the Scouts will serve the supper.

At the meeting of the Sons of Legion the Legionnaires will be guests of the sons and a committee from the auxiliary to serve lunch will include Mrs. Lewis Hall, Mrs. Sam Yoder and Mrs. Ray Schantz. A committee from the auxiliary, Mrs. Del Barber and Mrs. Ray Schantz, will be in charge of the serving of refreshments at the President's ball January 30.

In charge of the social hour of the district assembly which will be at Silverton February 14 will be Mrs. Sam Yoder, Mrs. Sam Lorenzen and Mrs. A. Lerfeld from the auxiliary. A Junior Legion program will be given over KOAC February 1 from 8 to 8:30 o'clock in the evening with Roy Davenport and Mrs. J. J. Lewis advisors.

Following the separate meetings of the Legion and the auxiliary, a program and lunch were held. Parsey and Wayne Rose gave a violin and piano duo; Ted Rostvold of Monitor sang a group of songs; Miss Clara Keber of Mt. Angel unit appeared in vocal numbers with Hilda Eberle at the piano, and the pros and cons were discussed of the voting of bonds for the remodeling of the senior high school building by Emil Lo, H. M. Potter, Merlin Conrad and W. P. Scarth. The voting is to be brought before the property owners of Silverton, February 3.

STUDENTS INSPECT SALEM INDUSTRIES

Independence—Miss Virginia Dahlman, teacher in the local high school, accompanied her classes in General Science and Home Economics on a tour of inspection to Salem business places Monday. The 75 students, together with their teacher and chaperones, were transported by school buses and left Independence at 8:45 o'clock. They spent the entire day in the Capital City and made visits to the Tannery, Swift's Packing Plant, Salem Lumber Mills, Kay's Woolen Mill, Paper Mill and Cherry City Bakery. The students lunched in the city park.

Adults Win Club Program Contest

Auburn—By a late decision of the judges the program contest of the Auburn Community club was won by the adult group. The younger group presented a play instrumental music, readings and magic tricks. The vacancy left by the president, Mr. Weidner, has not yet been filled. Prof. McClendon was appointed temporary president for the evening. Carl Kleibell, vice president, will appoint a program committee later.

Colt in Danger

Sidney—A two-year old colt belonging to Jake Gilmour was caught in a strong current of a stream in the pasture during the recent high water. It was drawn to a bridge but prevented from being forced under by an accumulation of drift. It was impossible for Gilmour to reach the animal and in about half an hour it managed to break away and swim to safety.

MISS BLACK HOME

Oak Point—Miss Paye Black, who has been a patient at a Salem hospital, has returned home. Although still confined to her bed she is improving in health.

Spring Arrives In Turner Homes Gardens Talked

Turner—The first spring day Monday found housewives busy washing curtains and windows preparatory to the usual spring housecleaning. Everyone was bustling about in the yard, garden or just sunning themselves. Pink and blue violets are blooming here and garden primroses, pussy-willows have been out some time. The visit of the gypsies is awaited before spring time is officially heralded in. Talk of early gardens is heard on the streets, and life has taken on a brighter outlook in general.

FIRST HIGH SCHOOL DANCE TUESDAY NITE

Woodburn—The first high school dance of the season will be given at the high school gymnasium Tuesday evening by the student body. Music will be furnished by the loud speaker set-up, using good dance records. Miss Isabelle VanWaning is faculty advisor for the evening and the high school committee will include Floris Nelson, Hubert Seely and George Racette. Invitations have been sent to Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Evenden, Dr. and Mrs. Gerald B. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan C. Beers, Rev. and Mrs. P. Malcolm Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Jensen of Monitor, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson of Monitor and Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Ackerson of Donald to act as patrons and patronesses.

LOYAL GUARD CLASS WORKS ON COMFORTS

Silverton—A number of guests and members of the Loyal Guard Sunday school class of the Methodist church met for a no-host luncheon and afternoon of working on comforters Saturday afternoon in the church social rooms. Present were Mrs. Ed Morrison, Mrs. Clarence Simons, Mrs. Oscar Wigle, Mrs. E. Krug, Mrs. L. Schroeder, Mrs. Charles Davis, Mrs. B. J. Day, Mrs. Lillian Hubbs, Mrs. P. J. Nofsker, Mrs. George Bowman, Mrs. D. Lester Fields, Mrs. Lester Green, Mrs. William Graham, Mrs. C. Walker, Mrs. H. Carpenter, Mrs. S. Melbye, Mrs. A. H. Smith and Mrs. Troy Derickson.

A social meeting of the Guards will be held at the home of Mrs. Clarence Simmons in February.

Lundys Are Hosts Cards and Supper

Fairfield—Mr. and Mrs. Ward Lundy entertained a group of their friends with an evening of cards and a midnight supper. Four tables of "500" were in play with high scores awarded to Mrs. Henry C. Stafford and Jack Susee, consolation to Mrs. Edna Short and Henry C. Stafford. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Susee, Mrs. Margaret Clarke of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnston, Mrs. Edna Short, Mr. and Mrs. Allyn Nusom, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Stafford, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Girod and daughters, Shirley Ann and Linda Lee, Freeman Marthaler, Dorothy, Ellnor, Margery, Ward, Jr., and Warren Lundy and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Lundy.

Surprise Is Given For Mrs. Johnson

West Stayton—Mrs. Thurman Johnson was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower and surprise given in the club room at McClellan hall, Mrs. Johnson will be remembered as Dorothy Lucas of Stayton, a recent bride, and who returned Christmas day from Vale. Mrs. Ed Johnson and Mrs. Rovse, hostesses, served lunch to over 30 guests.

Chorus to Appear

Monmouth—The Latvian Russian chorus composed of both men and women singers will give the assembly program at the Oregon Normal school next Wednesday morning beginning at 10:40 o'clock. The chorus has a number of other engagements on the coast, the program featuring traditional folk songs of Russia.

LODGE PLACES NEW OFFICERS

Mill City—Installation ceremonies for the new officers for 1936 were completed by Marilyn chapter No. 145, O. E. S., with Miss Daisy Henderson acting as installing officer.

Officers installed were Mrs. W. W. Allen, organist; Mrs. Virginia Thompson, Adah, and Mrs. Charles Kelly, warden.

At a special session, held two weeks previous, the regular installation took place with Mrs. R. L. Cooper as installing officer, assisted by Mrs. Charles Kelly as installing marshal, Mrs. H. Aspinwall, installing chaplain, and Mrs. W. W. Allen, installing organist.

New officers installed at that time were Vivian Albert, worthy matron; Gwyn Gates, worthy patron; Bessie Allen, associate matron; Sig Jepsen, associate patron; Pearl Holtroze, secretary; Daisy Henderson, treasurer; Edith Schroeder, conductress; Mary Higdon, associate conductress; Jessie Olin, chaplain; Zoe Chenut, marshal; May Cooper, Esther; Beatrice Jepsen, Martha; Gertrude Mason, Electa, and D. B. Hill, sentinel.

NATIONAL DEFENSE BANQUET ARRANGED

West Salem—The Kingwood post Auxiliary Unit 81 met all day at the home of Mrs. Lois Neiger on the Wallace road. A pot-luck luncheon was served at noon. Considerable sewing was done on girls' dresses and boys' shirts for the child's welfare bureau, and cushion and slip covers for the Veterans hospital in Portland.

Mrs. Lillian Williams and Mrs. Hazel Boening had attended the post and auxiliary conference for District No. 2 at Silverton.

Decision was made to hold a banquet the latter part of February to be known as an Americanism National Defense banquet with speakers on those subjects. The next meeting will be held February 7 in the afternoon at the Milo Jensen home.

Those present were Mesdames Ida Jensen, Ida McClendon, Lillian Williams, Iva Moeley, Ora Gilliland, Theresa Bouffler, Hazel Lacey, Lydia Reid, Hazel Boening, Martha Neiger and Lois Neiger.

Little Girls Given Party at Jefferson

Jefferson—Mrs. Lois Underwood, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Lloyd Bilyeu and sister, Miss Loel Bilyeu, entertained at a party Saturday afternoon in honor of the 7th birthday anniversary of her daughter, Dolores Underwood. Little folks present were Marriane, Carol and Jimmie Ammon, Georgia and Johnny Grenz, Jackie and Marjorie Grenz, Bobby McGuire of Scrawellhill, Shirley, Barbara and Joy Johnson and Freddy Konke of Albany. Other guests were Dorothy Ammon, Adeline and Carolyn Grenz, Mrs. Harvey Johnson, Mrs. Fred Konke, Mrs. William Grenz and Mrs. Rolland McGuire.

Directors Retained

Silverton—Officers re-elected the latter part of the week for the Coolidge and McClaine bank were: Directors, Glenn Briedwell, Roy Morley, George Steinhamer, E. S. Porter; president, Glenn Briedwell; vice president, Roy Morley, cashier, C. B. Anderson, and assistant cashier, Clifford Rue.

Turner Methodist Aid Plans Playlet

Turner—Mrs. M. O. Ransom was hostess to the monthly business meeting of the Methodist Episcopal Aid society. Mrs. Small conducted the devotional lesson and Mrs. C. A. Bear acted as secretary in the absence of Mrs. Earl S. Prather. Plans were made for several social events in the early spring and also the selection of a playlet cast and skit to be given in the near future.

Butteville Ladies Aid Has Election

Butteville—Mrs. James Wilson opened her house to members of the Ladies' Aid. Election of 1936 officers was held, with Mrs. A. D. Yergen being chosen president, Mrs. Fred Dentel, vice president; Mrs. Harry Schultz, secretary-treasurer. The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Glenn Yergen, outgoing president. Lunch was served by the hostess, with Mrs. Fred Lamb assisting.

Members and visitors present were Mrs. D. E. Green, Mrs. Fred Dentel, Mrs. A. D. Yergen, Mrs. W. E. Thamer, Mrs. R. B. Mandeville, Mrs. Glenn Yergen, Mrs. Josephine Anderson, Mrs. Fred Lamb, Mrs. Frank Clark, Mrs. Ray Martin, Mrs. Mary Ryan, Mrs. Irvin Carter, Mrs. Harry Schultz, Mrs. Sidney Graham, Mrs. Fred Dickson, Mrs. Clarence Bents, Mrs. A. M. Ross, Mrs. Mark Slyter, Mrs. C. A. Frost and the hostess, Mrs. James Wilson. Mrs. A. D. Yergen will entertain the Aid at her home January 24.

Committees appointed for February meeting were: Program, Mrs. Harry Schultz and Mrs. Wm. Dentel; social, Miss L. Gooding, Mrs. Grace Jones and Mrs. Hallie Noyce.

PTA CARNIVAL PLANS START

Butteville—The Butteville Parent-Teachers club met at the schoolhouse for their January meeting. Officers are: Mrs. W. O. Lindquist, president; Mrs. Harry Schultz, vice president; Mrs. Grace Jones, secretary; Mrs. Louis Racette, treasurer; and Miss Loretta Gooding, historian. Plans were voted for a carnival to be given in the near future. Committee will be composed of Mrs. Grace Jones, Miss Loretta Gooding and Mrs. Fred Dentel. Mrs. Harold Noyce, chairman of the program committee, was in charge of the following program: Piano solo, Miss Leona Freeman; story, Lorna Mae Lindquist; 4-H club demonstration, Mrs. Mary Yergen and Winfred Slyter; 4-H club demonstration, boys, Leonard Leavey and Charles Martin; reading, Mrs. Grace Jones; two vocal solos, Edward Noyce, accompanied by Miss Loretta Gooding; "elphering" match with Mrs. W. O. Lindquist declared the winner. Refreshments were served by a committee of men, W. W. Gooding, Fred Dentel and Louis Racette. Committees appointed for February meeting were: Program, Mrs. Harry Schultz and Mrs. Wm. Dentel; social, Miss L. Gooding, Mrs. Grace Jones and Mrs. Hallie Noyce.

Fourth Graders' Election Staged

West Salem—The "Good Times" club made up of members of the fourth grade in West Salem school held election of officers for the current term Monday with the following results: President, Billy Kreba, vice-president, Elmond Decker; secretary, Margaret Moritz; treasurer, Norma Jean Newgent.

STATE THEATRE ANY SEAT ANYTIME 10c Today and Wednesday! Another Great Balanced Program of Extra Good Short Subjects and Feature!

EL SINORE 500 Good Seats 25c HURRY!! Last Times Today Ronald COLMAN "A Tale Of Two Cities" WED. - THURS. - FRI. Loads of Thrills and Excitement! Combined with a lot of luffs to make this a well Hit!

STATE THEATRE ANY SEAT ANYTIME 10c Today and Wednesday! Another Great Balanced Program of Extra Good Short Subjects and Feature! All New Acts—All Different! In the Movies MAJOR BOWES' AMATEUR THEATRE OF THE AIR 10-ACTS-10 Everybody likes Major Bowes Screen Shows—And Here is His Latest and Best! "JUNGLE WATERS" A Grantland Rice Sport Reel! Latest PATHE NEWS WORLD EVENTS BEFORE YOUR EYES—FEATURE ATTRACTION—TRANSIENT Lady with GENE RAYMOND FRANCES DRAKE HENRY HULL

CAPITOL 500 Seats 15c TONITE AND WEDNESDAY - TWO SMASH HITS - Blistering action, throbbing romance... a beautiful girl as a pawn in the war on crime Through Gunfire and Quicksand in a Battle of Bullets and Fists!! BOB STEELE in "Public Hero Number 1" "RIDERS OF THE LAW"