State D. A. R. Board To Meet Saturday

The state board of management, Oregon society, Daughters of the American Revolution, will meet on Saturday in Woodburn, with Belle Passi chapter as hostess. The all-day session, starting at 10 o'clock, will be in the library auditorium, with Mrs. Mark V. Weatherford, state regent, presiding.

In addition to reports of state officers and chairmen, there will be a discussion of the plans and progress made on the Ruth Bryan Owen pilgrimage to Washington, D. C. This is a D. A. R. good citizenship project in which a high school girl from Oregon will be chosen to accompany the state regent or other delegate to Washington in April to participate in the sightseeing trip of the national capital along with winners from the other 47 states and the District of Columbia.

Mrs. J. W. Wilson, regent of the hostess chapter, has asked that reservations for the luncheon reach her not later than Thursday. Reservations may be made either direct or with the local D. A. R. regent. A novel plan has been arranged by Mrs. Wilson by which McLoughlin House will benefit from each plate, as a percentage of the cost will be refunded by the caterer for this purpose. Belle Passi is one of the newest and most active chapters in Oregon, and the Daughters appreciate the hospitality offered at this time.

Mrs. Weatherford will announce at this session the D. A. R. state conference which will be held in Portland on March 24 and 25, at the Masonic temple, with Wahkena chapter as hostess. Definite conference plans will be given later.

For Bad Cough, Mix This Better Remedy, at Home

Needs No Cooking! Big Savings! You'll be pleasantly surprised when you make up this home mixture and try it for a distressing cough. It's no trouble to mix, and costs but a trifle, yet it can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief. Make a syrup by stirring 2 cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water for a few moments until dissolved. No cooking needed. Get 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex from any drugstore, put it into a pint bottle, and fill up with your sugar syrup. The pint thus made gives you four times as much cough remedy for your money, yet it is far more effective than ready-made medicine. Keeps perfectly and tastes fine. This home-mixed remedy has a remarkable three-fold action. It soothes the irritated membranes, loosens the phlegm, and helps clear the air passages. Thus it makes breathing easy, and lets you get restful sleep. Pinex is a compound of Norway Pine, in concentrated form, famous for its effect in stopping coughs quickly. Money refunded if it doesn't please you in every way.
