Will Repeat Play

Hayesville—Due to the numerous requests the Hayesville community club will repeat their three-act play, "Deacon Dubbs", Saturday evening, February 15 at the schoolhouse. The entire cast is composed of local talent and the play was exceedingly well given at the first presentation last week.

Lyons—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnston visited in Stayton and Union Hill Tuesday.

FLOWER TALKS OFFERED CLUB FOR WOODBURN

Woodburn—The February meeting of the Woodburn Garden club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wilson Tuesday evening with a large attendance and interesting program.

Joe Senko was the speaker of the evening and gave a talk on rhododendrons and azaleas, the soil requirements and proper fertilization. He exhibited seeds, one year plants and two year plants and the members were much surprised to find that a rhododendron plant one year old is only one inch in height and has but two leaves. Many questions on the care of shrubs were asked by the interested audience and were answered by Mr. Senko who is a specialist in that line.

Announcement was made of the meeting of the landscaping class Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The meeting will be held in the Lincoln grade school instead of the city hall and members are requested to bring pencils and paper. The lesson for this week will be on lawns. Everyone is free to attend these classes. About 17 have already enrolled and more are welcome. Earl Litwiler is instructor.

Mrs. J. Sidney Johnson was winner of the door prize which was a primrose donated by the Woodward Flower gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodward will entertain the club at the next meeting which will be held March 10 at the grange hall and will begin with a pot-luck supper at 6:30 o'clock. Mr. Jennings of the Portland Rose nursery will talk and those attending are invited to bring their rose problems. Mayor S. A. Hofer will also give a talk on water rates.

Following the meeting refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Carrie Waterbury and Mrs. J. J. Hall.

Granger Committees Meet at Rickreall

Dallas—The old and new agricultural committees from the various granges in the county will assemble at Rickreall Saturday in the Grange hall at 10 o'clock. The old committees will review their findings and name the winner of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce plaque for the most outstanding work performed during the year by a grange unit in the county. The new committees will set their work lined up for the coming year and make the necessary plans to carry it out.

MOVE FROM SUVER

Suver — Henry Gentemann and family who have been living on the Frederickson place, moved this week to Forest Grove where Gentemann has employment. The Jones family of Dallas have moved onto the place vacated by the Gentemanns.

Dallas Victorious In Debate Contest

Dallas—The high school affirmative team gained a clear cut victory over the Independence high school negative squad Monday night when the judges voted unanimously for the home team. The judges, drawn from the Linfield college faculty were Miss Grover, Mr. Priesbie and Mr. Pratt. The affirmative team is Jeanne Hartman and Ivan Ickes and the debate was a regular mid-Willamette valley date. There was a fair attendance.

DEBATE GROUPS START SERIES

Woodburn—The second group of debates in the valley series will be held tonight with the Salem affirmative team comes to Woodburn and the Woodburn affirmatives travel to Corvallis.

In the first group last week Woodburn's negative group, was scheduled to travel to Toledo out won by default when Toledo withdrew. The Albany negatives won over Woodburn's affirmative team 2 to 1. The judges last week and tonight include one instructor and two students from the speech department of Willamette university. The Woodburn teams are: Jack Lee and Oneta Harr, affirmative; Alice Sprouse and Bob Hilden, negative.

Some interclass rivalry has been introduced into the debates to be held here by designating each evening as a class evening. This Thursday night will be Freshman night and the following four weeks will be sophomore, junior and senior nights respectively. The class which gets the largest and best attendance will be given a party at the close of the series.

CLUB MEETS FRIDAYS

Independence—Townsend club No. 1 meets every Friday in Campbell hall at 8 o'clock. The club is giving a Valentine pie social February 14. No admission fee will be asked. A special entertainment of music, song and dancing will be given.

STAYTON POST SEEKING HOME

Stayton—The regular meeting of American Legion post No. 58 of Stayton was held in the Scout room of the clubhouse Monday evening.

A building committee was appointed with Jim Etzel, Oscar Hagen, J. L. Jordan, Joe Pieser and Fred Lamb to investigate a location and ways and means of raising the building fund.

Dr. W. V. Adams was named on the dance committee. O. E. (Mose) Palmateer, state membership chairman spoke on membership and gave highlights on the growth of communism in this country.

Commander Jim Scarth, Roy Davenport and E. L. Stam, all of Silverton, were guests and extended an invitation for members to attend the Marion county council to be held at Silverton Friday.

Instructions were given on the bonus applications which are being sent in at a rapid rate. Lunch was served at the close of the evening.

Coast Location Chosen by Smith

Independence — George Smith, shoemaker located on G street, has moved his shop equipment to Taft, vacating the concrete building which has been used for a shoe-shop for a number of years. The building belongs to John Stephens, formerly an Independence boy, who inherited his father's estate, he operated a shoe shop there for a few years and sold out on account of ill health.

Smith has looked over the Taft proposition and sees a good future for his business there being only one other small shop in town and much of his business will come from nearby coast towns.
