PARISH CHURCH 75 YEARS OLD

Corvallis—In a church filled to capacity with communicants and friends and a number of visiting priests, pontifical high mass was said at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning at St. Mary's Catholic church in observance of the 75th anniversary of the establishment of the parish in Corvallis.

Archbishop Edward D. Howard of Portland said mass, and former priests of the local parish, Fathers Charles M. Smith, A. J. Carmody, J. P. Ciancy, Van Derbeck and Charles Kenenly, all of Portland, sang the Gregorian chant. Father Francis P. Leipzig of Eugene preached the sermon.

The church was decorated for the mass and celebration and friends came from Eugene and Portland to join in making the occasion memorable. Following the mass a reception at Newman hall honored Archbishop Howard and the visiting priests, and a dinner at Hotel Corvallis was given for them by Father John J. Mitchell, the present pastor.

Father E. J. Murnane, Astoria; Father Charles M. Smith, Portland; Father John Neelon, Seaside, were the other priests in attendance.

Delinquent Taxes Being Turned In

Dallas—January surpassed all records for the collection of delinquent taxes reports sheriff T. B. Hooker who stated that the amount taken in to be applied on back taxes was more than double that ever taken in before by the collection department. The increase is laid to the fact that the penalties on tax arrears prior to the year 1934 have been removed.

Suver—Billy Ritchey, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Ritchey, cut his right hand while splitting wood. Mrs. Ritchey took him to Monmouth where Dr. Bowersox took three stitches to close the wound.

MORNING STAR HOLDS PROGRAM

Millersburg—A large crowd attended the regular meeting of the Morning Star grange. Three new range members were installed. Those receiving the third and fourth degrees were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Matt and John H. Nelson.

The program consisted of a play, "Corn Fed Baby," with the following cast: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kizer; Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Kizer and Mrs. C. A. Grefke. Little David Matt gave a song and reading. County School Superintendent J. M. Bennett of Albany was speaker of the evening and gave an interesting talk on Abraham Lincoln at the close of the evening refreshments were served by the home economics club.

They will present a program at the Santiam Valley grange hall at Lyons March 3, and their officers will occupy the chairs. They will present the same program March 14 at the Callamette grange hall.

MANY CARD TABLES PLAYED FOR PARTY

Mt. Angel—The St. Ann's card party, which was held Wednesday evening in the dining room of St. Mary's school, was attended by 15 tables of bridge and "500" in play throughout the evening. Peter Meyer won high score prize and Joseph Faulhaber won second for "500" and Miss Elizabeth Beyer won high score and C. J. Berning won second for bridge.

Henry Weiland won the door prize donated by the local baker Rupert Pernerstorfer.

BIGGER CHURCH PLANS STARTED

Hazel Green—The Salem Japanese community church assumed possession of the Hazel Green church property recently. The trustees are Hideo Hashimoto, Shig-nohm Watanabe and Yoshye Fukuda.

The work of remodeling the buildings will begin at once. Clarence Ghiles, a contractor and builder of Los Angeles, will be in charge. The church building will be moved east and north nearer the parsonage. Work on the road which borders the church property on two sides necessitates the moving, as the road will be widened considerably.

Plans for a new foundation under the church, addition to each end of the church, one of which will be a hall, tower and two classrooms and the other to be a platform 12 by 32 feet with room for choir. At the parsonage new sills under the porch, removal of partition between dining and living rooms, wall board or papered walls will be some of the improvements. The four bedrooms situated upstairs will be used as classrooms. Electric service will be installed at once.

Brotherhood Men of Church Gather

Dallas—The Men's Brotherhood of the Methodist church met Monday night in the social hall of the church. A luncheon was served with Ed Dunn and Carl Graves in the role of cook and waiter. The speaker of the evening was Rufus C. Frank, a member of the Junior high school faculty who gave an account of his trip last summer to Nashville, Tenn. Musical and vocal selections on the program were furnished by Wilbur McDaniels.

Have you ever watched a person telephoning to a friend?

Have you noticed how readily the lips part into smiles, the light of animation plays over eyes and cheeks? Somewhere the other party to the conversation is probably doing likewise. "Long distance" is just like two friends talking face to face.
