

MARION COUNTY LODGES MEET AT SCOTTS MILLS

GRAND OFFICERS WILL ATTEND AT ALL DAY AFFAIR

Silverton—George Busch as president of the Marion County District Odd Fellows is announcing the convention of the group to be held at Scotts Mills Saturday afternoon and evening.

Lodges of the Marion county district are Chemeketa, No. 1; Silver, No. 21; Santiam, No. 27; Fidelity, No. 36; Butteville, No. 59; Stayton, No. 64; Hubbard, No. 76; Woodburn, No. 102; Gervais, No. 121; Butte, No. 126; Aurora, No. 127; Mill City, No. 144; and Monitor, No. 247.

Busch's assisting officers are Eric Larson, vice president, of Butte lodge; B. A. Schaefer, treasurer, Stayton lodge; J. C. Fornick, secretary, Chemeketa of Salem; G. George Cole, warden, Stayton; Glenn W. Moore, conductor, Chemeketa, Salem; G. D. McKay, inside guard, Fidelity; Emil Kramer, outside guard, Gervais; and Pete Philippi, chaplain, Chemeketa, Salem.

Special preparations for a number of officers of the grand lodge are being made for the afternoon session. At this time officers will be elected for the next district convention and the place of meeting will also be named.

The special meeting of the Rebekahs will be held in the club rooms on the main floor. Ivy Rebekah lodge members will be hostesses to the group at a six-thirty dinner.

The complete program is: 8 p.m.—Roll call of officers. 8:15 p.m.—Introduction of Grand officers. Roll call of leaders. Reading of minutes of last session. Address of welcome by O. H. Brasher. Response by W. H. Massey. Reading of reports and communications. Report of committee—P. H. H. Henderson, W. H. Massey, Philip Wright, J. D. Dierke, Philip Wright, J. C. Fornick, L. E. Dike. Presentation of bills. Unfinished business. New business—1. Selection of next meeting place. 2. Election of officers. Questions for discussion—1. What business will old age pensions have on the future operation of the home and the care of our elderly members? 2. Are P. D. dues to have time or are there other underlying causes? Good of the order. 1:30—Main floor open for visiting Rebekahs. 8 p.m.—Regular session Butte lodge, No. 126. 8:45 p.m.—Program open to Rebekahs and Oddfellows. Presentation of flag and singing of "Star Spangled Banner." Installation of new officers. Program will consist of numbers by Chemeketa lodge No. 1, Silver No. 21, Stayton No. 64, Woodburn No. 102, Gervais No. 121, and Monitor No. 247. Addresses by Grand officers, including Cora Weston, Hattie Baker, F. M. Sexton, J. H. Nelson, Dr. L. L. Baker, and Charles P. Pease.

ELDERLY MOTORIST STANDS CONVICTED

Woodburn—Orin J. Gray was convicted of driving while intoxicated, after a jury trial in Judge Overton's court Monday. He was given a fine of $250 and costs of the action and sentenced to six months in the county jail, the jail sentence to be suspended if the fine and costs be paid. His attorney asked for time to consider an appeal.

Gray, who is an elderly man, was arrested by state police officers on the Elliott Prairie road the evening of March 18 after he had driven his car into a ditch. He claimed he was taking a short cut to Portland.

Members of the jury were W. J. Wilson, Paul Sousa, Sam H. Brown, Earl Blunt, Warren Haskins and Byron Ballweber.

Officers Selected By Living Groups

Monmouth—The recent election at Jessica Todd hall introduced a new group of governing officers to the members of that organization, which will take over the duties at once to serve for a year. June Bailey was chosen president; June Bailey, vice-president; Virginia Lotz, secretary; Dorothea Donovan, treasurer.

Arnold Arms have elected officers for the spring quarter as follows: Edith Metz, president; Helen Rose, vice-president; Viola Donofrio, secretary-treasurer; Margaret Kerslake, social chairman; Viola Donofrio, reporter.

Candidates Invited

Silver Falls—A meeting sponsored by the Marion county democratic society will be held at the Union Hill Grange hall Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock. Principal speakers of the evening will discuss betterment of farm conditions. Candidates for the primary election will be introduced and give short talks. Everyone is invited.

Card Play Slated

Donald—Plans were completed for the second of the series of "500" parties sponsored by the W. B. A., which will be given in the hall here Wednesday evening. The committee is composed of Mrs. Harry Hagen, Mrs. W. Bushman, Mrs. Garold Cone, Mrs. Mae St. Helen and Miss Bernadine St. Helen.

Scouts at Circus Stayton—Scoutmaster Bob Ross attended the Boy Scout circus held at Portland Friday and Saturday evenings. He was accompanied by Scouts Francis Leffler and Durrel Jordan of the Stayton troop. All reported the event as the finest of its kind ever presented.

Scio—Victor Johnson and family have moved from the Morrow property on South Main street to the farm of the late Mrs. Mary Arnold near the Arno schoolhouse, three miles southeast of Scio.

Lebanon Rushing Work Upon School

Corvallis—C. A. Swain, local contractor and builder, has been awarded the contract for the new Lebanon high school building which will replace the structure recently destroyed by fire. Work on the new building began April 1 and will be rushed to completion so that it may be ready for use at the beginning of the fall term of school.

NEW SCIENCE CHURCH RISES

Corvallis—Work on the new Christian Science church is progressing well within the schedule, according to J. Thompson, contractor.

The new building, which will be approximately 35x85 feet, will be constructed along the lines of early American meeting house architecture and will seat 200.

The structure will be finished on the exterior with widely-spaced shakes, while the interior will be finished in natural wood. The building, aside from the auditorium, will include a foyer, board and reading room, library, Sunday school room and cloak room.

The erection of the new building marks a third period in the history of the Christian Science church in Corvallis. It is expected that the new church will be completed and ready for occupancy early in June.

HONOR PUPILS FOR SHERIDAN

Sheridan—Just released from Superintendent D. J. Campbell's office is the complete list of students on the honor roll. The period was extended from six weeks to seven weeks because of the large number of students absent over a period of three weeks because of the "flu" raging. The sophomores not only carry the largest number on the roll but also carry the only student having a straight "one" card. The list follows:

Seniors—Betty Prick 1.18, June Paine 1.33, Daniel Paris 1.75. Juniors—Janice Johnson 1.35, Helen Sechrist 1.35, Helen Dean Morris 1.40, Wayne Flynn 1.50, Dean Lindgren 1.50, Maxine Arndt 1.53. Sophomores—Lynn Lady 1.00, Barbara Brandt 1.08, Emory Hildebrandt 1.25, Dorothy Sprague 1.25, Lily Schatz 1.25, William Alwood 1.33, Minnie Danenhauer 1.40, Betty Ann Grace 1.43, Tony Elvie 1.65, Betty Gregg 1.83, Florence Stewart 2.00. Freshmen—Betty Sackett 1.08, Charlotte Teas 1.55, Edwin Severin 1.68, Leonard Wolfert 1.78, Roy Mayo, Jr., 1.75, Naomi Dicky 1.95.

The sophomore class lost one student in March from pneumonia, Burton Moritz, and have had one in the hospital for three weeks from mastoid, both the result of the "flu".

DEBATES FEATURE SCHOOL'S PROGRAM

Hazel Green—Pupils of the sixth and seventh grades were responsible for a program presented at the school recently. Cecelia Kasper and Marie Montandon were chairmen for the affair and Helen Zelinski presided as announcer; readings were given by Marian Wampler and Sanford Mio; group singing by the upper grades; a playlet, "Better Health," with cast of Shirley Johnson, Irene Wacken, Irvin Kasper, Charlotte Mastie and Lillian Yoshikai; one-act play, "First Day of School," by Joseph Yada Fumiko Kamayama, Marian Wampler, Tom Yoshikai, Stanley Fukai and Rodney Miles.

Two debates followed the program. The first one: Resolved that water is more of a necessity than milk, with Marian Wampler upholding the affirmative side, assisted by Waldo Gilbert, Archie Rutherford, Katherine Montandon and Frank Miles won the decision. Honey Miles was leader for the negative side, assisted by Ward Miles, Edward Yada, Sanford Mio and Geneva Van Cleave. The second debate: Resolved that a cow is more value to mankind than a horse, was also won by the affirmative with Shirley Johnson, leader, assisted by Marie Montandon and LeRoy Duda. Negative leader was Geneva Van Cleave, assisted by Yoshie Yoshikai and Raymond Duda.

Fishers Are Hosts

MI. Angel—Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Fisher were hosts at a dinner at their home here Saturday. Covers were placed for Frank Fisher of Hyder, Alaska, Raymond Fisher of Pullman, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Elmer, Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Schwab and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Fisher.

Louis—Mr. and Mrs. Terrell of Albany were Sunday dinner guests at the O. B. Cullane home. The ladies are sisters.

LAST TIMES TODAY

IRVING COBB
"EVERYBODY'S OLD MAN"
ROCHELLE HUDSON
JOHNNY DOWNS
NORMAN FOSTER
with Gene Rayburn

GRAND
CONTINUOUS SHOW DAILY

PROWLING BOYS ADMIT THEFTS; MULLEN SPEAKS

Albany—Johnny Rupe, 17, and Walter Russell, 15, Chehalis, Wash., were caught by Albany police Sunday night after they had robbed the Feuerstein service station at First and Baker streets. Some oil, spark plugs, windshield wipers, a flashlight and $2 which the boys had taken from the till, were all recovered. The youths were discovered by Night Officer Clay Kirk as he made his rounds of the business section.

The boys attempted an escape but were caught by Kirk and Officers Stellmacher and Clinton. When the boys were questioned by the sheriff and state police Monday they admitted robberies in Washington. The youths were held for Chehalis authorities, who took them north Tuesday.

SPEAKER ON SOILS

Albany—County Agent Floyd Mullen is scheduled as the speaker before the Albany chapter of commerce and guests, Wednesday at the Albany hotel. Mullen will speak on soil depletion. Soil depletion has become a vital problem throughout the country, R. W. Tripp, program chairman announced, and Mullen will present information of importance to the chamber Wednesday.

HOSPITAL INCORPORATES

Albany—Articles of Incorporation have been filed here with the county clerk for the Lebanon General hospital, with Dr. J. C. Booth, N. E. Irvine and R. B. Miller as the incorporators. The Lebanon doctors are building a brick structure to be used as a general hospital on the property adjacent to the present hospital building in Lebanon. The present hospital building will be used for a nurse's quarters. The new hospital will have 20 beds.

REBEKAH ASSEMBLY DELEGATES CHOSEN

Scio—Mrs. Maud Platt, retiring noble grand, and Mrs. Alta Rodgers, past grand and present musician, have been elected as delegates to the Rebekah assembly from Leone Rebekah lodge No. 84, I. O. O. F., at Scio. Mrs. Eunice Bartu, present recording secretary, and Mrs. Maud Montgomery, a past noble grand of the Scio lodge, are alternates. The state assembly meets at Roseburg on May 19. Mrs. Rodgers was recommended for district deputy president.

Thomas Small, a veteran member of the Scio subordinate lodge of Odd Fellows, Dierdorf No. 54, has been elected a representative from the local lodge to grand lodge session at Roseburg, which convenes on May 20. Arch Ray, a past grand and present district deputy grandmaster, was recommended for reelection to that position. Both Scio units have been represented at grand lodge sessions for a number of years, and it is anticipated delegates from this city will attend at Roseburg next month.

Shaw Sewing Circle Makes Quilt Blocks

Shaw—The Catholic Ladies Sewing circle met at the school hall with Mrs. John Amort entertaining. The afternoon was spent in finishing a quilt and cutting quilt blocks after which lunch was served by the hosts assisted by Mrs. Mary Schmitz. Present were Mrs. Joe Horth, Mrs. Mary Schmitz, Mrs. Ed Gilbert, Mrs. Alva Burghart, Mrs. Wm. Berg, Mrs. John Heiner, Mrs. Jos. Sherman, Mrs. Fred Gilbert and the hosts, Mrs. John Amort.

Camp Fire Girls Work for Honors

West Salem—The Waakita Camp Fire girls had dinner at the home of their president, Miss Shirley Dickson. The dinner was cooked and prepared by a group of the girls to earn honors.

A Home Owned Theater
HOLLYWOOD
Last Times Today

MARK BROTHERS
"A NIGHT AT THE OPERA"
Young Galliano Moves

Wednesday & Thursday
TWO FEATURES - 15c

The Laugh-time of a Lifetime
"A $1000 a Minute"
with Roger Pryor
Lella Hyams

"ESCAPE FROM DEVIL'S ISLAND"
with Victor Jory
Norman Foster
Florence Rice

Raft and Russell in Romance

George Raft and Rosalind Russell who appear together in "It Had To Happen," a delightful nonsensical comedy starting Thursday at the Capitol Theatre. Freddie March in his most famous role as "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," is the Capitol's second hit on the Thursday bill.

LARGE AUDIENCE HEARS PROGRAM

Rickreall—A program arranged by Miss Mildred Baker and C. C. Gilliam was presented at a meeting of the school and the community club Friday night.

The grade school pupils contributed several numbers by the orchestra directed by Miss Pearl Kyre: a piano solo and encore by Kenneth Wait, and a clarinet solo by Miss Evelyn Jay Scott, student teacher. Numbers given by the public speaking class of Willamette university included a piano solo and encore by Miss Mary Elizabeth Kelle accompanied at the piano by Miss Mary Sargent. The local grangers furnished two numbers, each by an octette, a ladies' quartet and a male quartet, directed by Miss Edith Hazeltine. Miss Margaret Hogg presided at the piano.

During a business meeting which preceded the program a free will offering was taken with which to purchase cups for the club.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. C. C. Gilliam and Mrs. Roy Brown.

OPERETTA OFFERED SHERIDAN RESIDENTS

Sheridan—The "Governor's Daughter," the operetta presented in the new grade school auditorium by the high school combined also club, is receiving much commendation for the quality of the presentation. Over 55 students participated. The affair was under the direction of Miss Helen Ney.

Miss Virginia Hillway was the Governor's daughter and Wayne Flynn her fiancé; the Governor was Bob Wells, and his wife, Geraldine Scharschmidt; Roy Mayo, Jr., was Senator Snow.

Ray Hare was in charge of the staging and Barbara Brandt in charge of properties, while Betty Sackett had charge of the tickets and advertising. Much credit is given to Lily Schatz, the accompanist, for her overture and introduction.

Welcome Extended Boydston Family

Dallas—In order to observe fittingly the "move" into a new home, a group of friends called on Mr. and Mrs. Ray Boydston Sunday night and staged a house-warming in honor of the occasion.

STATE THEATRE
TODAY & WED.
DOUBLE FEATURE!

"Anna Karenina"
with Greta Garbo
Freddie March
Bartholomew

"Mystery Thriller 'Sing Sing Nights'"
with Conway Tearle
Hardie Albright
Boots Mallory

Added Novelty Act

Capacity Audience Grooms Church Play

West Salem—The play, "Where's Grandma," was presented in the community hall by a group of young people of the Epworth League. They were greeted by a capacity audience.

Special dancing and vocal and instrumental musical numbers were given by Delores Ann Hathaway, Dorothy Johnson, Miss Doris Hamby and Loren Vosburgh. A candy booth was an added attraction.

SCRAPVILL CLUB HAS ITS ELECTION

Scrapvill—The Scrapvill club was entertained Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ammon.

A business meeting was held with J. P. Grenz, presiding. Election of officers resulted in Mrs. W. F. Grenz, president; Mrs. D. W. Porter, vice-president; Joe Yagelaki, secretary-treasurer. Orrin Smith acted as installing officer.

Following the business session several tables of pinocle were in play and at the close of the evening refreshments were served by the hosts, assisted by Mrs. Orrin Smith and Mrs. Ronald McGuire.

Birthday Observed At Stayton Home

Stayton—Mrs. Lyle Shelton entertained Saturday afternoon, honoring her sister, Dena Champ, on her birthday anniversary.

Present were the honor guest, Dena Champ, Margaret Lucas, Florence Lucas, Margaret Fair, Alice Stevens, Margaret Hughes, Leila Sandner, Virginia Leffler, Margery Knight, Betty Hunt, Betty Shelton, the hosts and Miss Barbara Waters, who assisted with the serving.

STATE THEATRE
TODAY and WEDNESDAY!

EDDIE HORTON IS BACK AGAIN IN A NEW CRAZY LAUGH SHOW!

Meet the Ladies' Home Companion
It's a riot of ROARS!

IT'S MUSICAL HILARITY!!

HER MASTERS VOICE
—ADDED—
with Edw. Everett Horton
Laura Hope Crews
Peggy Conklin

Pathe News Events
All Star Comedy
Pathe Topics

A PARAMOUNT PICTURE

SANTIAM CHURCH SCHOOLS GATHER FOR CONFERENCE

Aumsville—An all-day meeting of the Santiam Sunday school district was held at the Christian church Sunday with "Youth for Christ" the theme. The convention opened at 10 o'clock with a basket lunch served at noon and afternoon sessions opening at 1:30 o'clock. Sunday school was conducted by Henry Porter, superintendent of the Christian church, with Rev. Frank Porter of Mill City giving the morning address. Mrs. D. A. Low lead the song service.

Afternoon services included a song service led by Leland Keithley of North Santiam; devotionals by Carl Blackler; violin solo by U. T. Van Slyke, Salem; duet by Gladys Blum and Harold Strout, Mohama; piano duet, Mrs. Fred Potter and Neva House of Aumsville.

Melama Union Sunday school was awarded the banner for attendance and Lyons for memorizing the greatest number of Bible verses. North Santiam had the largest average attendance during the quarter.

Rev. Daniels of the Court street Christian church in Salem, gave the afternoon address with a talk by Fred DeVries of Pratum. Harry Monroe of Melama is district president, Leland Keithley of North Santiam, vice president, and Mrs. Nora Taylor, secretary-treasurer.

CHOIRS PREPARING EASTERTIDE MUSIC

Independence—Easter programs for the several churches are being prepared. Regular practices are being held this week, and rare treats are in store for church-goers next Sunday.

Wednesday night Rev. Magin of Salem will hold the fourth quarterly conference of the Methodist Episcopal church and will preach and dispense the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper the same evening. Friday evening Rev. Ben W. Davis will preach, taking for his theme "What was the Cost to God?"

Church services will be held both Sunday morning and evening with the choir giving an Easter musical program Sunday evening.

CORVALLIS POSTAL RECEIPTS BOOSTED

Corvallis—A gain of 11.8 percent in postal receipts for the first three months of 1936 over the first quarter of 1935 was recorded by the Corvallis postoffice, according to figures released by Victor P. Moses, postmaster. This is an exceptionally high gain as a four percent increase is considered good, he said.

During January, February and March of this year the Corvallis office took in $20,567.52 compared to $18,395.02 in the same period last year. Money order business here has increased close to 100 percent over last year, Moses estimated.

Auto Overturned; Looneys Uninjured

Hazel Green—What might have proved to be a serious accident, occurred recently near the Tom Walker farm in Middle Grove when the car driven by Guy Looney, Sr., skidded in the loose gravel and overturned. Looney sustained a few cuts and bruises when his leg crashed through a broken window in the car. Other occupants were Mrs. Looney and Miss Marjorie Giles who suffered minor bruises to their bodies and were liberally showered with the 14 dozen eggs which were broken during the accident. Two windows were broken from the car and the fenders damaged.

Hanky Shower Held At Nottasted Home

Silverton—A neighborhood group planned a surprise handkerchief shower for Mrs. Ed Nottasted at the home of Mrs. Ed Linn as an afternoon affair. Guests included Mrs. Mary Towner, Mrs. H. Sypher, Mrs. Fred Thumberg, Mrs. A. Pratt, Mrs. S. J. Constock, Mrs. M. McCullough, Mrs. Sarah Adamson, Mrs. Rachel Wilker, Mrs. Charles Pounder, Mrs. L. Loomis, Mrs. Ella Whitlock, Mrs. Lester Whitlock, Mrs. O. Blakey and Pearl, Mrs. Sarah Atkins, Mrs. Chris Beugli, Mrs. L. Barnett and Mrs. Joe Tracey.

ROTARY HEARS OF PRINCIPLES

Silverton—Robert Goetz, named at the last meeting of the Rotary club as president, was the speaker yesterday at the noon luncheon in the banquet room of Toney's. His talk had to do with the principles governing Rotary clubs, especially of the spirit of cooperation with other organizations of town and their purpose and intent to supply needs of service rather than to encroach on the work established in existing organizations.

Suggestive committeemen were named by Goetz to carry on the projects of the club at the time of the arrival of their charter, but these are not given out as the charter member list is to be approved on the receipt of the charter. A meeting planned for visiting club members is to celebrate the acceptance of the charter and several hundred guests are to be arranged for. Noon luncheons and brief business sessions will be held each Monday at Toney's. Attorney Urfen Page is secretary.

LIBRARY LEADERS GATHER IN DALLAS

Monmouth—New books in the library this week are three volumes by Charles Nordhoff and James Norman Hall: "Mutiny on the Bounty"; "Men Against the Sea"; and "Pitcairn Island"; also the Illustrated Garden, encyclopedia, edited by E. L. D. Seymour, and a pamphlet, "Light Through the Ages."

A district library conference is to be held in the Dallas public library Thursday. Members of the local library board are planning to attend.

On the program will be talks by Rev. Alfred Williams of the Dallas Presbyterian church; Miss Harriet Warner of O. S. C.; Robert C. Johnson of Portland; Miss Helen Baird of the Salem public library, and by Harriet C. Long, state librarian.

DONALD CLUB ASKED TO BUTTEVILLE P.T.

Donald—A meeting of the P.T. club was held at the school Thursday afternoon.

A program preceded the business session, consisting of piano solos by Miss Leona Freeman, reading by Garold Cone and two vocal numbers by Mrs. Harry Hagen, accompanied by Miss Davidson.

On April 13 the local club is invited to be guests at the Butteville P.T. evening meeting. Miss Davidson will have several numbers by the pupils on the program for that date.

Mrs. Hagen and Mrs. Carver were appointed a committee to secure transportation for the school to the track meet at Leslie high school in Salem on April 24.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. E. D. Carver, Mrs. Cone, Mrs. Hagen and Mrs. G. B. Ackerson. The club will next meet on April 23.

EASTER BRINGS CHURCH HOURS

West Salem—There will be special services in Ford Memorial church Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings of this week.

Rev. K. K. Clark will speak Tuesday evening; Rev. Dean Pointdexter of Leslie Methodist church will be on Thursday evening; Dr. Louis Magin, district superintendent of the Salem district, will preach and administer holy communion.

Prof. Robert Gatzke of Willamette university will be the speaker Friday evening. The services will begin at 7:30 o'clock. All are invited to attend any or all of the services.

Stayton—Text subjects to be used during the special Easter week services at the Church of Christ are: Tuesday, "A Voice Out of Heaven"; Wednesday, "Christ at the Home in Bethany"; Thursday, "The Last Supper."

There will be a candlelight communion Thursday evening. The master invites all Christians "This Do In Remembrance of Me." Friday, "The Christ on the Cross"; Sunday, "The Risen Christ." There will be special music at every service. An Easter pageant and program will be presented Easter Sunday. Rev. W. H. Lyman is the minister in charge of the services.

FOREIGN MISSIONS TOPIC OF SOCIETY

Independence—The Woman's Foreign Missions society of the Methodist church, met at the rural home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Smiley, with Mrs. Carrie Smiley, president, presiding. Several hymns were sung with Mrs. J. G. McIntosh accompanying.

Mrs. Elmer Barnhart secretary of the local organization, gave a reading, followed with a duet by Mrs. A. D. Davidson and Mrs. McIntosh; Mrs. W. F. Campbell spoke on "Missions in foreign lands. Mrs. Barnhart also gave a talk on education in South American countries. Mrs. J. E. Kelley led in devotional exercises.

Following the program, Mrs. C. D. Smiley served refreshments, assisted by Miss Beryl Kelley.

SCHOOL ENDS EARLY AT CENTRAL HOWELL

Central Howell—The first social affair honoring the graduates of the school took place recently when the seventh grade entertained at a costume party at the schoolhouse. The evening was spent informally with games and stunts, and each guest was the recipient of a prize.

First prize for the best costume was won by Donald Natziger. Refreshments were served late in the evening to the following graduates: Clarence Simmons, Bobby Simmons, Donald Natziger, Bobby Way, Carolyn Kaufman, Marjorie Herr and Anna Mae Pallesen, and the hosts, Ruth DeSart, Helen Dettwyler, Roy Herr, Ralph Natziger, Ferd Zuercher, Alfred Dettwyler, Alvin Hansen, Odin Hollin, Rita Stefan and Frances King. They were enaptured by their instructor, Mrs. Grace Schott.

The last day of school is expected to be celebrated May 19, barring accidents. The usual picnic will be held.

ATTEND SCOUT CIRCUS

West Salem—Eight members of the "Flying Eagles," patrol of Boy Scouts, accompanied Scout Master Harry Weidner to Portland Saturday to attend the Boy Scouts circus put on there.

ELSINORE 500 SEATS 25c
—STARTS TOMORROW—

Jean with "honey-brown" hair—in a new thrill romance! The wild orchid of Shantytown and the toughest guy on the waterfront... a fearless, swaggering rascal.

Jean Harlow Tracy
in
"RIFRAFFE"
with JOSEPH CALLEJA • UNA MERKEL

LAST TIMES TODAY
Marlene Dietrich • Gary Cooper in "DESIRE"

ADDED—ALL COLOR—"STARLIT DAYS AT THE LIDO"
WITH FAMOUS STARS OF RADIO, STAGE & SCREEN