Polk County Health Workers Will Meet

Brush College—Mrs. A. E. Uiley, president of the Polk County Health association, announces the next meeting will be at West Salem at the schoolhouse at 8 o'clock Monday night. Dr. A. B. Starbuck of Dallas will present a plan for a clinic for West Salem, Zena, North Spring Valley, Lincoln, Mountain View, Brush College and Pop Corn schools. Representation from the various women's clubs of Polk county is urged by Mrs. Uiley.

KIWANIS CLUBS IN CONFERENCE

Dallas—Clubs of Kiwanis International in division nine of the Pacific northwest district held their spring conference here Friday with delegations on hand from all the units in the district. Proceedings began with a noon luncheon in the Methodist church, followed by a two hour session on conference subjects in the K. of P. hall and concluded with a banquet in the evening at the Tillamook, Albany and Dallas clubs.

Welcome was extended by Dr. A. R. Starbuck, first president of the Dallas club with Clarence Coe, Tillamook, making the response. Other speakers at the afternoon session were R. Hal Powell, McMinnville; Dr. Henry Morris, Salem; John Thorne, Salem; Dr. C. Chapman, Gresham; J. L. Jones, Scotts Mills; Minnville; J. R. Beck, Dallas; Irwin H. Jones, Wenatchee Wash. George Angell, Portland, led the singing. At the dinner in the armory in the evening, R. E. Turner, Dallas, gave the welcome with John G. Manning, lieutenant governor, making the response.

Open house was held for the visiting women in the afternoon at the A. R. Starbuck home with Mrs. Maurice Dalton and Mrs. J. R. Allgood assisting the hostess.

POSTER CAMPAIGN GETS GOOD START

Stayton—Mrs. V. R. Tuel, chairman of the poppy poster contest, which is sponsored by the Auxiliary of the American Legion, reports that in most of the classes the school children are busy preparing the posters for competition in the annual contest which will close April 15. The judging will start the following day.

The students have been divided into three classes, the fourth, fifth and sixth grades in one group, the seventh, eighth and ninth grades in a second group and the tenth, eleventh and twelfth in the third section.

The auxiliary has posted a prize of $1 for the best poster in each of the three groups. The winners of the local contest will have their posters judged later in state competition.

Home and Contents Are Lost in Blaze

Mission Bottom — Mr. and Mrs. Ted Osborn, who live on the Hughes farm in Mission Bottom, lost their house and all the contents by fire on Friday morning. Osborn had gone to work and the older children to school when Mrs. Osborn left her small son asleep alone in the house while she attended to some outside duties. The tiny lad awoke during his mother's absence and set fire to some papers, shut the dog in the house and went outside and watched the house, dog and all the contents, burn to the ground.

Pomeroy's Friends Urge Him to Run

Independence — It has become known in democratic circles that T. D. Pomeroy, Independence democrat, is being urged to seek the chairmanship of the state central committee. Pomeroy has been pledged considerable upstate support but is said to be disinterested in the proposal at present. He is a superintendent of a CCC unit at Triangler lake. The state chairman is elected in November.

MAYS SHOTS SELF SHOCKING DONALD

Donald—Friends in this city were shocked by the news of the death of Clarence Mays, 54, who shot himself at the place where he was working near Yamhill. Melancholia, caused by ill health, was given as the reason. Mays was a resident of this city for many years.

With his cousin, Jesse Mays, as partner, he was proprietor of the general store here, known as Mays & Mays. After the death of Jesse Mays, E. D. Carver joined the firm and later the company became Mays, Carver and Groff, when J. L. Groff joined the firm. Mays sold out his share some years ago and moved to Yamhill, where a brother had a store in which Mays received employment.

He is survived by a widow, Helen, a daughter, Mrs. Estelle Robinson, Eugene, and a brother, Ralph of Yamhill. Funeral services were held at the Macy chapel in Yamhill Saturday morning.

BENTON REPUBLICANS TO LAUNCH CAMPAIGN

Corvallis—Benton county young republicans will open the coming campaign work at a meeting to be held Tuesday night, according to announcement Saturday by Robert Ball, president of the group.

The meeting will be held in the evening at the circuit room of the court house. Lowell Paget, president of the Oregon Republican club, and Stewart Wells, Portland attorney, will be the main speakers. Paget is also from Portland.

Wild Shrubs For Natural Birds' Diet

Silverton—For a number of years the pet hobby of Carl Benson has been a scheme to preserve wild growth of shrubs and bushes, particularly those that bear berries, as a natural food for wild fowl life of Chinese Pheasants on his pheasant farm near Silverton until the state took that work over on a larger scale, and during that time made definite study of the best foods for wild birds.

Benson is a writer of no mean ability and he produced an illustrated booklet on the wild shrub growth of this section. This story has not only been popular at home but in various portions of the United States.

A shipment of wild shrubbery to Ford City, Penn., sent Saturday, is believed to be the first commercial materialization of this dream of Benson. Many burlap-wrapped bags bearing plants of the Red Elderberry, Choke Cherry, Colorado Wild Cherry and other cuttings were sent to Edward L. Shields of Ford City, who is connected with the state of Pennsylvania department of wild life conservation and has made a special study of the needs of wild fowl.

FOURSQUARE CHURCH CONFERENCE CALLED

Woodburn—The fellowship meeting of the Foursquare churches of Oregon will be held in the Woodburn Foursquare church Wednesday. Delegates and ministers are expected from ten churches in this district. # for Digestion's sake... smoke Camels

BARONIAL DINING at the Winter Place Tavern in Boston. Theodore Roosevelt, Enrico Caruso, Henry Cabot Lodge praised its famous fare. Here Camels reign supreme. Nick Stuhl (left), maître d'hôtel, says: "Camels have the gift of making great dishes more enjoyable. Camels are the most popular cigarette at the Winter Place Tavern."

MEASURING THE EFFECT on digestion of smoking Camels (above). Delicate machines measure the flow of digestive secretions. The evidence shows that smoking a Camel increases the secretion of digestive fluids. The importance of this extra secretion in facilitating digestion is a matter of common knowledge. So smoke Camels... for digestion's sake... and for their costlier tobaccos. Camels set you right!

PARACHUTE JUMPER. Miss Uva Kimmy says: "My life depends on making no mistakes. I smoke Camels for digestion's sake. They encourage digestion in a pleasant way. Camels set me right!"

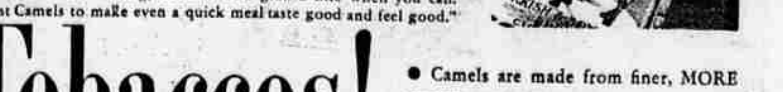

WORKING AGAINST TIME. Bob Duffey, steam-shovel operator, says: "Work comes first—eating, second. You grab a bite when you can. But trust Camels to make even a quick meal taste good and feel good."

Smoking Camels Promotes Enjoyment of Good Food and Stimulates Digestion

Our nervous modern life often affects digestion. Mental effort—physical rush—slow down the flow of the digestive fluids. Smoking Camels restores and increases this necessary flow.

Scientific research definitely confirms the fact that Camels encourage digestion in this pleasant way. Enjoy Camels as much as you like. They never frazzle your nerves.

Costlier Tobaccos!

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand.
