

POLK SPELLERS TYPISTS STAGE ANNUAL AFFAIR

Dallas — Ten children, pupils in the grade schools of the county, and contestants in the seventh annual spelling bee held Saturday night in the junior high school, went completely through the specially prepared list of 1000 words forcing the pronouncers to resort to the auxiliary list before a winner could be determined.

Evelyn White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd White of West Salem, outspelled all others to win the first prize. Jessie Ridgeway, a pupil at the Harmony school, was second and June Brooks of Hopville, third.

The others in the first ten were placed as follows:

4th, Loyal Blair, Buell; 5th, Alleen Schrick, Ballston; 6th, Mattie Lederer, Black Rock; 7th, Charles Sears, Bethel; 8th, David Booser, Falls City; 9th, Katherine Frnk, Orchard; 10th, Laura Toews, Orchard.

An interesting point about these annual contests is that no school has ever won the first prize twice. Glen Danewood of Grand Ronde, a fifth grader, was the youngest in the group.

TYPISTS ALSO COMPETE

Dallas — High school typists, in both the novice and amateur divisions, brought high honors back to the high school county annual typing contest. Beverly Bales with a score of 559.50 placed first in the novice class and Helen Ell with one of 611.68 rated high in the amateur bracket. The schools and their entrants taking part were:

Monmouth, advanced novice, Mildred Elizabeth Miller 558.02; Virginia Jean Craven, 586.69; Harriet Rosalie Chambers, 522.6; Geneva Green, 556.19.

Independence, June Charbonneau, 467.73; Evelyn Yunger, 503.69; Elone Sylverson, 416.82; Margaret Schirman, 447.26.

Dallas, Helen Ell, 611.68; Beverly Bales, 559.50.

Dallas advanced novice, Dorothy Palmer, 394.67; Betsy Gardner, 633.08.

Falls City, Bill Letterman, 450.48; Connie P. Hyton, 383.26.

Raines, who has had many years experience with the Hammond company, was recently connected with the Rutner Logging company at Niagara.

Silverton — A large attendance from here is planned for Wednesday night at Mt. Angel when the Marion county council and assembly of the American Legion and auxiliary will be held.

The program will begin at 8 o'clock and Father Aleuin will talk on Mexico as the principal entertainment feature to which the general public is invited. Supper will be served following the public meeting and the separate sessions will be held after the supper with a joint social meeting later.

Awards for poppy posters and fideac will be made.

Dance Date Error Is Made In Story

Woodburn — An error was made in Monday's Capital Journal in the announcement of the dance recital to be given by the pupils of Miss Dorothy Kocher. The recital will be given Wednesday evening, April 29, and not on Wednesday of this week as erroneously stated. The program will be given at the high school auditorium and will include dance numbers, interspersed with vocal and instrumental music. There is no admission charge and the public is invited.

POLICE CHIEF AUTO VICTIM

Independence — Chief of Police Oscar Moore was an innocent victim of a traffic accident Sunday afternoon, while sitting in his car near the Standard Oil station with the operator of the station and incidentally observing the stream of traffic passing at that time of the day.

A car driven by W. C. Elkins of the Lacksie community was approaching in line of traffic the intersection of Second and Monmouth streets from the west, when a car driven by Clarence Simeral of Portland entered the intersection from the south on Second street. The two cars came together with considerable force, so much that the Elkins car ricocheted and piled up on the top of Moore's car several feet away along the curb line.

Jerry Kelley, who was sitting in the Moore car with the chief at the time, sensed that there was going to be a mixup, fled the chief's car, making the remark that he didn't care to have a car of that dimensions in his lap. Moore received several scratches and an injured finger, also a wrecked car.

SHERIDAN TEACHERS ARE ALL RE-HIRED

Sheridan — The entire teaching staff of the city schools was re-hired at the regular meeting of the school board the past week, both grade and high school. Leonard Gardner, history and manual training teacher, has resigned and his place filled later. Gardner has been here four years.

The personnel of the grade school follows: Principal, Philip Meyers; Robert Graham, seventh grade; Maybelle Thorsen, sixth grade; Ruth Higgins, fifth grade; Inez Rowell, fourth grade; Marjorie Meyers, third grade; Ailo Weidemeyer, second grade; Lucille Fisher, first grade. ### MORE ELIGIBLE VOTERS LISTED FOR PRIMARIES

Albany — The largest registration in the history of Linn county was noted by R. M. Russell, county clerk, when he tabulated the figures Monday. The total number registered in this county is 14,619 making 1,409 more eligible voters for this year than in the 1934 registrations. There are 8,340 republicans registered and the democrats show 6,076. While the democrats are in the minority in the county, registrants in that party show the largest gain since 1934. Their gain is noted at 763 while the republicans show a gain of 642 voters.

The number of males registered is greater than females as the republicans have 4,526 men and 3,714 women affiliated with their party and the democrats have 3,614 men and 2,462 women. One hundred ninety-two of the total were listed as miscellaneous, having various independent affiliations.

The only party to hold more women than men was the prohibition group which had 26 women and 14 men.

INDIANS REFUSE TO VACATE CELILO FALLS

The Dalles, Ore., April 21 (AP) — Efforts to obtain a change in the site of the Celilo Falls Indian village surrounded the ire of the Celilo tribe, it appeared today.

A letter sent to Dr. Frederick Stricker, state health officer, said residents of the Indian village "resent and object to the means resorted to . . ." and "insofar as jeopardizing the health of the people who visit Celilo, we do not invite them."

The chamber recently claimed the village was unsanitary.

The letter, signed by Chief Tommy Thompson and Andrew Barnhart, said the Indians "refuse to be ejected from our present location."

"Relative to the alleged offensive odors emitted from the cited area," the communication said, "there is a period of about two weeks in the fall when my people are catching their winter supply of fish for their consumption, have difficulty in disposing of refuse matter . . . during the balance of the season the catch is immediately disposed of to the canneries."

"The letter suggested the establishment of an incinerator but commented 'of course funds are not available to us for this purpose.'"

ENTER CORN CONTEST

Albany — Fifty-nine Linn county 4-H club boys and girls have entered the second annual corn growing contest, sponsored by the Bank of Albany, reports O. E. Mikesell, county club agent. This is an increase of 16 over last year's enrollment of 46. Mikesell states that nine pounds of seed corn is being distributed to each contestant this week as recommendations have been made that corn be planted from April 25 to May 10 on the sandy soils and from May 10 to May 20 on the heavier soils. Cash prizes to the 10 highest scorers are being offered by the bank.

PAYS FOR SPEED

Albany — William Fillmore Henderson paid $60 in justice court Monday on a speed charge, when he was arrested by Police Chief R. L. Chandler and Officer George McBride, Saturday. Henderson gave the officers a merry chase in his 1934 Buick sedan, which was en route to Lebanon, but was apprehended on the return trip. Saturday Henderson posted $50 with the justice and Monday he forfeited his $10 bail.

SHERIFF SELLS LAND

Albany — Linn county first day of sale on delinquent tax property netted $4,300 upon purchase of 96 property pieces Saturday, the sheriff's office announced Monday. Nearly 500 pieces of property were on the block at the court house. The sheriff, who is in charge of the sales announced that all property is being sold at prices not less than taxes and the interest due. The sheriff announces that sales were brisk and that people thronged the front steps of the court house to buy up the property.

Donald Club Guest

Donald — Mrs. J. A. Bush was hostess to the N.N.N. club at her home for an afternoon of sewing and a social hour. ### SOIL SALVAGE TEUTSCH TOPIC

Silverton — William Teutsch, assistant county agent leader, was the speaker at the opening program of the agricultural conservation and soil building plan at the army Monday afternoon. An executive committee will be named for the promotion of the scheme of the plan in this section Harry Riches, county agent, introduced the speaker with Oscar Johnson, chairman.

Teutsch explained that the plan was to replace the agricultural adjustment act which has been proved unconstitutional in that the former depletion crops are to be converted to soil conservation and soil building crops at a varied compensation to the farmer of a national average of $10 per acre. No contracts, no penalties, no planting limitation, no process tax and no destroying of crops or animals is permissible in the new set-up. He named the crops that were considered depletion and those of conservation.

Oscar Johnson was elected executive committee chairman, Otto Dahl, vice chairman, E. O. Nelson, the third member of the committee, and James Bonner, alternate.

This committee was chosen from the eleven members of the county group.

A number of reports were given at the meeting and Sunday, June 21, was decided upon as the date set for the annual card party for members only. The card party will be held in the school dining room and the members will bring sandwiches, cakes or pies. The daughters of the members will serve the refreshments.

SPARE TIME HOURS RESULT IN HOME

Hubbard — Building a five-room modern house with full basement is just a pastime to Walter Schrock, Portland Oregon Journal representative in Hubbard. For the past two years he has put his spare time in re-conditioning the "old Pook place" so that it has become a modern, comfortable house which will be ready as soon as the new house, being erected on the same block of ground, is complete.

Schrock believes in patronizing home industries and all the lumber used is being purchased through the local and a neighboring town yard, the plumbing is being done by the two Hubbard plumbers, the tile brought from nearby Donald, hardware from the Scholl company. The house will contain five rooms, bath and built-ins.

The Schrock family came to Hubbard several years ago from the Nevada district east of town. Besides the parents there are two children, Doris and Ronald.

Lloyd Hopkins of the rural district adjoining Hubbard to the southwest is making improvements upon his large residence. This place on the hill has always drawn considerable attention on account of its location and grounds, an immense lawn with the house in the background proving an effective drawing power to the eye of the passerby. Hopkins confines his acreage to berries and dairying.
