

YOUTH DOMINATES UNITED STATES AMATEUR SQUAD

NINE GOLFERS IN WALKER CUP PLAY BELOW 30

New York, April 21 (AP)—Youth dominates the United States amateur golf team which will meet England in the biennial Walker cup matches at Pine Valley Golf club, Ciementon, N. J., September 2-3.

The squad of 11 men, announced today, includes nine players who are under 30 years of age, and five winners of intercollegiate titles. Only five of the team have played in one or more previous Walker cup matches.

The squad: Captain Francis Ouimet, Auburndale, Mass.; Albert E. Campbell, Seattle, Wash.; George T. Dunlap, Jr., Flushing, N. Y.; Walter Emery, Oklahoma City; John W. Fischer, Fort Thomas, Ky.; Harry L. Givan, Seattle; Johnny Goodman, Omaha, Neb.; Reynolds Smith, Dallas, Tex.; George J. Vogt, Mamaroneck, N. Y.; Ed White, Bonham, Tex.; Charles R. Yates, Atlanta, Ga.

The team, with Ouimet, Dunlap, Fischer, Goodman and Vogt as the only Walker cup veterans, will attempt to continue American supremacy over England's best amateurs. The United States won in 1922, 1923 and 1924 and continued that streak after the series was put on a biennial basis.

FOUR TEAM LEAGUE FOR JUNIOR PLAY

Four teams will take part in the American Legion junior baseball program of the city, George Malstrom, manager, stated today. This will give opportunity for approximately 60 boys to participate in the series. Malstrom is anxious to get the program under way immediately and has called a practice session for next Sunday morning at 9 o'clock at Olinger field; registration is being made at Parker's on State street.

Hold overs from last year's squad who will be eligible for competition this season are Richard Gentskow, second base; Harry Mason, third base; Carl Olson and Malvin Grover, pitchers; Richard Wilson, Elwood Myers and Otto Skopli, fielders.

O'Doul Warns Against Selling Seals Short in Oakland Warfare

(By Associated Press) San Francisco Seals, 1935 champions of the Pacific coast league, meet Oakland in the opening clash of a seven game series today and despite their fourth place position they were confident they will be able to break the league-leaders' stride.

Spirits buoyed by a 4 to 3 edge in last week's series against Seattle, who dropped to third place as result of the trimming, Manager Lefty O'Doul was optimistic.

"Don't sell us short," he said. "We look the Indians and we'll do the same thing against the Oaks."

O'Doul indicated he probably would send the veteran Sam Gibson to the mound to oppose the Oaks in the opener. Manager Billy Meyer expected to call on Hank McDonald to pitch for the Oaks.

Skits and Scratches

Talk about the forgotten man! Coach Hollis Huntington of Salem high school apparently has nine of them on his hands, not including a few alternates. Looking ahead to a successful baseball season, several of last year's baseball crew, and a number of recruits started diamond practice immediately following the close of the basketball season. They have been practicing diligently, infield and outer garden, taking their regular cuts at the ball, while the mound candidates have been throwing their arms off. To date they have succeeded in getting one game—Chenawaw. Apparently Coach Huntington made the mistake of winning that one, for his manager has been unable to date further contests. On top of that few of the teams contacted have even taken the time to answer letters.

The Willamette valley league, which includes Silverton, Dallas, Independence and Woodburn and a number of other schools, makes up a schedule of its own. This schedule leaves few openings for clubs outside the organization. The Portland schools have a league of their own. And since long trips are out of the question due to the limited amount of money available, just about the only opposition Salem high can expect consists of the freshmen teams from Oregon, Oregon State and perhaps Eugene, Albany and Corvallis. However, they are hot on the trail of a game for next Friday and fans may catch a glimpse of the forgotten men.

He didn't want to play, hadn't practiced but a week with his mates. But L. E. Barrick, more familiarly known as "Doc" played just about the best volleyball game of his career last Saturday night when the Salem YMCA club won the north-west championship. As a set-up man his play was almost perfect. "Doc" likes to win and is a real competitor. Fellow players wanted him in on the game against Tacoma and he certainly justified their confidence. "Doc" and Nile Hilborn are the daddies of volleyball in these parts. When one of them would grow discouraged and just about ready to toss in the towel the other would become optimistic. Between the two of them they have brought the northwest crown to the city.

It would be just too bad if the club could not take part in ILL IN SALEM Lyons—Mrs. George Clippel, Perry and Evelyn, are ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Thrasher in Salem.

The national championships in Davenport, Iowa, next month. It would mean a sacrifice on the part of the players to make the trip, since they are all working men. Seattle has already raised its share of the purse necessary to send the winners east. Tacoma and Portland, other partners in the pre-tournament agreement to assist the winner, went home without making any mention of financial assistance. The bulk of the financing, naturally, will fall on the winners.

BROWN AND A'S REGISTER FIRST WINS OF SEASON

(By Associated Press) The Philadelphia Athletics and the St. Louis Browns, American league underdogs, are crowing today after having jumped into the win column for the first time in the new season.

Each with five straight defeats against them, they took the field yesterday to topple two of the mightiest powers of the circuit. The Athletics, displaying artillery reminiscent of a better day, downed the New York Yankees 12-11 while the Browns defeated the champion Detroit Tigers 9-6, belting Tommy Bridges and Schoolboy Rowe from the box in the process.

These uprisings were the prime features of a day on which the Pittsburgh Pirates at last ended the jinx that Roy Henshaw held over them and Dizzy Dean, although touched for nine hits, recorded his first victory of the season.

It took a pinch single by Lovell (Chubby) Dean with the bases loaded in the ninth to bring the victory smile to the lean features of Connie Mack. The A's hammered Walter Brown and Bump Hadley for 14 hits but they were hard put to outscore the Yanks who whacked 10 bingles off the slants of Doyle and Turbeville.

The Browns were trailing 4-0 going into the seventh inning when they opened the cage that resulted in a total of nine runs in two frames. The sight didn't help the condition of Manager Mike Cochrane of the Tigers who was out of the line-up, suffering from eye strain.

Tommy Bridges retreated to the showers under that seventh inning strafing but Schoolboy Rowe who has pitched the only two games the Tigers have won thus far, suffered a similar fate in the eighth. Elton Hoagset and Clarence (Red) Phillips saw duty on the hill for the Tigers before the carnage was over.

Monday's results:

American: Chicago 5, Cleveland 1; Detroit 8, St. Louis 9; Philadelphia 12, New York 11; Boston 6-2, Washington 5-6.

National: Pittsburgh 9, Chicago 6; Brooklyn 4, Boston 9; New York 6, Philadelphia 7; St. Louis 8, Cincinnati.

WHOLE SYSTEM POISONED, SAYS SALEM MAN--FINDS RELIEF WITH VAN-TAGE

Mr. Leo Rund, of S. 13th St., Calls Amazing New Medicine a "Miracle"—Was So Sick and Run-down He Never Expected to be Out of Bed Again—Tells How Van-Tage Relieved His Suffering.

Remarkable statements from all over Salem and vicinity, praising and endorsing VAN-TAGE, continue to pour in daily to the Fred Meyer Trolley and Remedy Shop, 170 N. Liberty St., where this "Amazing Mixture of Nature's Roots and Herbs and Other Splendid Ingredients" is being introduced and explained to the local public by a Special Van-Tage representative known as the Van-Tage Man, in person.

For instance, just a few days ago, the following statement was received from Mr. Leo Rund, of 1819 S. 13th St. Mr. Rund, who is a widely-known and highly respected resident of Salem, had just about given up hope of finding any medicine that would help him. His suffering was so severe that he thought he would never be able to get around again—then Van-Tage gave him blessed relief. Every suffering person will read Mr. Rund's statement through and through, because it tells you just how this Great Compound can help the ailing Human System. This Amazing Statement follows:

Drove Out Poisons; Ended Awful Stomach Misery

"The first thing I want to say in this statement is that it is the truth and I will verify it to ANYBODY!" said Mr. Rund. "I have been very sick ever since last August. My system just seemed to be full of poisons. Had all my teeth taken out but that didn't help me—just kept getting worse. It seemed like everything was the matter with me. Was always sick at my stomach. Nothing would lay in my stomach, but would come right up when I tried to eat. Had no appetite at all and just kept losing weight until I was in a terrible run-down state of health. I was so sick I didn't think I would ever get out of bed again—just thought I would die.

"I kept hearing about Van-Tage, so I decided to give it a trial. I got two bottles of this medicine, and what it has done for me is a MIRACLE. It gave me a wonderful ap-

PILOTS THREAT TO STATE CLUBS

Eugene, April 21 (AP)—For the first time in nine years the University of Oregon and Oregon State college will face an outside threat in their annual relay race Saturday.

The powerful University of Portland squad, which ran away with a relay meet last Saturday against five Oregon college teams, will compete against the state universities.

It will be the first time that a third team has competed with the two state schools since they began their track feud in 1928.

Col. Bill Hayward, Webfoot coach, said the addition of the Portland squad made the prospects for some new track records bright. He said he expected to see several of the marks in the 10 scheduled events fall.

Since the competition began, Oregon has won four meets, Oregon State three and one ended in a tie. If the meet produces any records, they will be the first since the 1932 competition.

STATE BALL CLUBS MIX NEXT FRIDAY

Eugene, Or., April 21—The University of Oregon's defending baseball champions for the northern division will open their season against the Oregon State Beavers this Friday, April 24.

The day proclaimed "baseball day" officially by Mayor Elisha Large of Eugene, has been set aside for the traditional first day ceremony, and will include besides the afternoon program a street parade led by U. of O. Oregon band, the entire ROTC corps, the Oregon letterman's group, and a group of downtown boosters led by Dr. Sam Tyler.

Don McFadden, who pitched last year's overwhelming victory over the Beavers, has been assigned to the mound this year, it was announced by Coach Howard Hobson. The Ducks won from the Beavers to the tune of 17-1 last year in the opening tilt for the northern division conference title.

Both teams have rated badly in pre-season games, but are rated as dark horse contenders in the northern division conference.

COOPER HOLDS ADVANTAGE IN RIGGI BATTLES

Frank Riggi, Broofs Italian, will have an old score to even next Friday night when he meets Tiny Cooper, Hubbard fighter, in a 10-round bout at the armory billed as the heavyweight championship bout of the state. The two men have fought three times in the past two years, with Cooper having the best of the argument. Last year Riggi knocked Cooper out in the third round. Early this year, however, Cooper put the Italian away after eight rounds of milling. The Hubbard boxer, a few weeks later gained a six-round decision over Riggi in a Portland battle.

Cooper will have a four-inch reach advantage Friday night. Riggi's measurements give him a reach of 72 inches as compared with 76 for Cooper.

The six round semi-windup between Eddie Norris and Louie Nelson is attracting almost as much interest as the main event. Norris, one of the youngest boxers in Curly Feldman's stables, has been a crowd pleaser every time he has shown here. And while Nelson will have the advantage in experience, Feldman believes his boy will be upright at the end of six rounds.

Four 4-round preliminaries will feature the early part of the evening's proceedings.

EALES AND HOGG BROS. TEAMS WIN

The Eagles and Hogg Brothers teams were winners in Monday evening's sessions of the spring softball league. The Eagles defeated the YMCA 11 to 2, while Hogg Brothers won out over Kay Mill 10 to 2. Ten misplays were turned in by the Y. This evening at 6 o'clock the Phil Punched will play Man's Shop while Atwater-Kent and Master Bread will tangle.

Mt. Angel—A large number of boys turned out Sunday afternoon to practice for the American Legion Junior baseball team.

This year's team is under the management of Quentin Holmes, coach, and Gus Schnee, chairman of the American Legion baseball committee. According to the amount of good material available, Mt. Angel will have probably as good a team as last year.

BAUER, ACHIU BOUT TONIGHT

Dutch Bauer of Chicago, who dumped Floyd Wolfstanz of Olympia in Portland last night, will endeavor to repeat the performance at the armory this evening when he clashes with Walter Tinkit Achiu, Chinese sonnenberg artist. Achiu and Ben Sherman went to a draw in Portland. Sherman and Thunderbolt Pete will compete in the 45-minute special event.

Don Sugai and Jean LaBelle will open the exhibition at 8:30. Sugai was beaten in Portland last night by Danny McSpain while LaBelle lost his match with Jack Hagen.

We wish we could do the IMPOSSIBLE

We wish, sincerely, that we could sell La Salle in the low-price field—for, then, almost everybody would buy a La Salle. But it simply isn't possible. La Salle is designed and built to be a fine car—and cannot compete in the low-price field. It is the lowest-priced quality car in the world—and we think it represents the greatest dollar value to be had anywhere. But it is strictly a fine car, and has to be sold as such.
