Miles Woodworth Weds Miss Epperson

A beautiful wedding ceremony of Sunday afternoon in the Patton Methodist church in Portland was that at which Miss Kathryn Epperson, daughter of Mrs. Cassie Epperson, became the bride of Miles Woodworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Woodworth. The Rev. Cecil G. Hannon read the service at 4 o'clock. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, John Epperson. She wore her sister's wedding gown, fashioned with a short train and her double-tiered veil was held in place by a coronet. She carried a shower bouquet.

Only Mrs. T. J. Killeen was her sister's only attendant. She wore peach net. Dwight Miller was best man, and ushers were Tom Killeen, James Nutter and L. Meredith Woodworth, Jr. Organ music throughout the ceremony was played by Mrs. O. E. von Hoene.

The couple greeted their friends at the rear of the church following the marriage rites.

The bride attended Oregon State college and the bridegroom is a graduate of Willamette university. He is affiliated with Alpha Psi Delta fraternity, and well-known in Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Woodworth will be at home to their friends in the Pembroke apartments, Portland.

Miss Dorothy Pro Hostess at Party

Miss Dorothy Pro was entertained with a gay party Saturday night. Holiday motifs were carried out at the supper hour. Mrs. Jack Kinney and Mrs. George Pro assisted.

Guests were Miss Marie Baumgartner, Miss Daisy Minton, Miss Esther Mae Devore, Miss Margaret Chadwick, Miss Carol Clark, Miss Virginia Boyle, Miss Antoinette Irish, Miss Fay Baumgartner, Warren Bliggerstaff, Clara McFarlane, Archie Gardner, John Gardner, George Pro, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kinney.

Hostesses will include Mrs. F. A. Well, Mrs. D. H. Schulze, Mrs. Floran Von Eschen and Mrs. Gordon Black.

The Women's Relief Corps will meet at the Fairgrounds Thursday for an all-day session. A no-host luncheon will be served at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McCoilum and Miss Leoline Aspinwall and Bert Atkins spent the week-end at Newport.

Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Hans Seitz received congratulations of their friends yesterday upon the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary.

The Woman's Union of the First Congregational church will meet Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock in the church parlors. The regular business session will be held.

Women of the Knight Memorial church will hold a tea and bazaar Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors. The public is invited to attend.

Installation Rites Said By White Shrine Of Jerusalem Monday

WILLAMETTE Shrine, No. 2, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, installed officers at an elaborate ceremony held last night at the Masonic temple. The installation was open to the public and many prominent Salem and out-of-town folk attended. Mrs. Mona Yoder was installed as the new worthy high priestess. Dr. W. C. Kantner presented the past worthy to Mrs. Susan Varty, the retiring worthy high priestess.

Candles cast a soft glow over the lodge rooms, which were beautifully decorated with spring flowers in the pastels tones. Mrs. Della Hayden was in charge of the decorations.

Installing officers were Grace N. Babcock, worthy high priestess and

Japanese Girls Sponsor Tea

The girls of the Japanese Young People's league will give a silver tea at the home of Mrs. Melvin Johnson Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. The proceeds of the tea will go to the Japanese church fund project.

Arrangements for this tea are being made by Hoshie Watanabe, chairman of the church fund committee, and Emi Yada.

Many lovely Japanese articles and curios will be on display and musical numbers will be presented during the afternoon.

Women of the various Salem and vicinity churches are cordially invited to call between the hours of 3-5 o'clock.
