BREVITY FAVORITE

Louisville, Ky., April 28 (P) — A starting field of from 13 to 19 with Brevity the one to beat—that was how the Kentucky derby shaped up today, four days in advance of 125 62nd running at Churchill Downs.

Joseph E. Widener's Brevity, a favorite in the future book during most of the winter, continues to gain supporters and may go to the post Saturday an odds-on favorite.

The Derby lineup for Saturday will be pretty well established after today's workouts and the running of Derby trial at a, mile. Nine the ten horses entered in the trial are eligible for Saturday's big race.
