Dallas—Interest in the county grade declamatory contests lagged this year and forced authorities to merge the two contests which are usually held into one. This is planned as an educational affair and has nothing to do with politics proper. Candidates attending are asked to study up a speech of not more than five minutes duration as the chairman wishes to give everyone present an equal chance to talk and he sets the gong alarm at five minutes.

Other program numbers will be of a lighter nature and promise entertainment for the members, public and visiting guests.

MONMOUTH MAY CARNIVAL PLANS INCLUDE QUEEN

Monmouth—Plans for the second annual Good Will Carnival are progressing. Dates for the event have been set for May 28, 29 and 30. On Decoration day, May 29, a patriotic program will be given which will include a band concert. A feature of the grand parade on Saturday morning will be a section appropriate to Decoration day, probably in charge of the various Legion posts of the county with Veterans of Foreign Wars and Spanish American War Veterans assisting.

A queen of the carnival contest is now in progress, with several candidates sponsored by business houses and clubs in the race. The prize for the winner will be a complete spring ensemble. The next four prizes will be dresses and these winners will act as attendants of the queen.

A uniform plan for all business houses to follow in decorating for the event is in charge of P. H. Schwaiger and P. E. Chambers. George Cooper is in charge of the grand parade on Saturday. L. B. Howard is in charge of the pet parade, and C. G. Powell is in charge of the advertising. The Friday night fun foot parade will be supervised by H. C. Egelston, E. W. Riddell, Van Grider and Dewitt Williamson. A pony chariot ride is another attraction, promised for the children. The service of airplanes for the three days has been made and will include stunting, night flying and passenger rides in modern, safe, government inspected planes. A landing field has been secured on the C. Lorne farm one half mile north of town.

In the afternoon several members appeared in program numbers as follows: Readings and stories by Mrs. R. B. Swenson, Mrs. J. Dunn and Mrs. H. K. Sackfoos; closing with a musical contest, with the prize going to Mrs. W. Riddell. Mrs. Eldon Riddell's name was added to the membership list.

FINANCIAL "ANGEL" WANTED FOR BAND

Hubbard—A committee of Rose show officials for outside participation in the annual parade conferred with Dr. A. P. de Lespinaux this week in regard to the participation of the Hubbard community band as a marching group. The Hubbard band has taken part in the annual Rose show seven times since the group was organized nine years ago. Twice transportation for the group was paid for by a Rose show official, once by Mayor Garfield Voigt, and all other times from the band fund but this year no one has offered to finance the adventure and the band fund will not permit this luxury, consequently a perfectly good band ready to "strut its stuff," for the publicity of Hubbard and as a mark of good will to Portland, will have to stay home.

West Stayton Favored For Festival Location If Fair Offered Again

Stayton—The city council held an open meeting at the Women's Community clubhouse Monday evening. The main object of the meeting was to discuss the question as to whether the people of the community were in favor of bringing the West Stayton fair to Stayton this fall or not.

Two members of the West Stayton fair board, Fred Comstock and C. E. Lewis, stated that the board would not consider holding the fair this year. Ben Chamberlain also of West Stayton represented the people of that district at large and stated that a meeting is being called for Wednesday night at West Stayton, at which time the voters will be asked to give their opinion as to what action may be taken outside of the fair board. No definite action will be taken in Stayton until the outcome of this meeting is learned.

The consensus seems to be that the logical place for the fair is at West Stayton as it is an irrigated land. Following a general business discussion reports were made to the effect that George R. Duncan has been appointed recorder and A. C. Van Nuy, treasurer, to fill out the unexpired term of the late Judge Crier.

Plans were made for the coming election at which time there is to be elected a mayor, two councilmen, a recorder and treasurer. Petitions have been filed on behalf of George Smith for mayor; E. C. Downing and A. M. Baker for councilmen; A. C. Van Nuy treasurer and George R. Duncan recorder.

Tentative plans for a Fourth of July celebration were tabled for a later meeting.
