

DALLAS MILL EMPLOYEES WILL ORGANIZE 4-L UNIT

MASS MEETING BRINGS RESULTS ALL CONCERNED

Dallas—A mass meeting, attended by the employees of the Willamette Valley Lumber company and by many interested citizens and business men, was held in the armory Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock.

The meeting was in the interest of organizing the mill as a 4-L unit and from information given out from the speakers' platform it was indicated that approximately 90 per cent of the employees had voluntarily signed 4-L application cards.

ZENA HAPPY HOUR DANCE CLUB MEETS

Zena—An old-time dance was given by the "Happy Hour" dance club at the Zena club house.

Those present were Mrs. W. Walker, Mrs. Hunt and children, Helena and Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Crowell and children, Donna, Lorraine and Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Heide and children, Betty, Dolly, Virginia, Robert, L. Verne and Calvin, Mrs. John Henry, Florence, Helene, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Horton, Marjorie, Dickson, Leona, Christian, Curtis, Ed, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Richens and son Raymond, Bennett Johnson, Carl Christian, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Behn and children, Nadine, Miss Lee and Brian, Mrs. H. E. Alderman, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Paine and children, Jewel and Richard, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Crawford and daughter, Wilma, the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bray.

Two Truck Drivers Haled Into Court

Independence—Elmer Olden was arrested by a state officer Tuesday for speeding with a truck, and appeared before Justice McIntosh where he entered a plea of guilty and paid a fine of $5 and costs. Olden had been hauling logs and broke a spring on his truck and was hurrying to town for repairs when overtaken by the officer.

William James Johnson, operating a truck and trailer in hauling water pipe to the Monmouth project, was arrested near Monmouth for operating a truck and trailer in a commercial enterprise without P.U.C. license. Hearing is set for Friday at 9 o'clock before Justice McIntosh.

OLD RAILROADER STRICKEN

Silverton—Mrs. Helen M. Wrightman has received word from her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lewis Johnson, of Portland, that Mrs. Johnson's father, Rodney Reynolds, is very ill of heart ailment at his Portland home. Reynolds is well known here. He is retired in the service of the Northern Pacific and was a co-worker with I. D. Worden of Silverton in the mid-west many years ago.

CLUBBERS EXHIBIT

Brush College—The 4-H clubbers of Brush College have planned to hold achievement day at the schoolhouse Friday. Miss Edith Ross, principal, will assist the teachers, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Wilson, with the program.

GIRODS ARE HOSTS

Waconda—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Girod had as their dinner guest, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brewster and daughter Marjorie Quinby. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Allyn Nusom and sons, Donald and Dale.

RANGE IS PURCHASED

North Spring Valley—V. A. Stratton and S. D. Crawford, members of the school board, went to Salem Monday and purchased a range for use in the basement kitchen of the schoolhouse.

Surprise Birthday Party Enjoyable

Turner—Mrs. Melvin Currier entertained a group of guests with a surprise party honoring her young daughter, Neoma, on her seventh birthday. The afternoon was spent in playing games and refreshments were served to Neoma Currier, Barbara Webb, Margaret Ann Prather, Marjorie Lou Bouchie, Beverly Webb, Roma Rae Teets, Betty Bouchie, Shirley Baker, Arlene Bouchie, Royal Teets, Melvin Currier, Myron Teets, Mrs. Earl Bouchie, Mrs. Aurnaville, Mrs. Harold Teets, Mrs. Forrest Bouchie, and Mrs. Lester Currier. Neoma received many gifts from her friends.

PENSION FUNDS MOUNTING FAST

Silverton—Rev. W. O. Livingstone of Vernonia, past president of the Silverton Townsend club, was speaker Tuesday night at the meeting of the local organization with a large crowd present. Several were in attendance from near-by clubs with a heavy representation from Scotts Mills.

The speaker spoke in general on the Townsend situation, stating that the present program of investigations was causing more money than ever to pour into National headquarters, that more and larger clubs were being formed, and that the political voting slump was the lack of organization for that work and no fault of the principles of the movement.

FIFTY ARE PRESENT FOR TURNER DINNER

Turner—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Heath of Milwaukie entertained with a dinner party and get-together for Turner students of the Turner schools that attended here during the year of 1913 with fifty present. The day was a most enjoyable one with reminiscences of school days related.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Wallace T. Riches and Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Riches of Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stewart (Hazel Bear) and Pauline and Quenton of Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McDicker of Tigard, Jennie (Bobel) Olds, husband and children of Sherwood, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin McVicker (Pearl Stanton) of Vancouver, Wash., Percy Lytle and children, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard McHugh and children, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bardsley, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Watson, Keith Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Neal McHugh and children, Bernice (Barnes) Gresseth, husband and children, Beth (Small) Mollet and children, all of Portland; Miss Eleanor Moore of Suem, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Heath (Del Robertson) of Milwaukie.

Novel Party Staged At Methodist Church

Silverton—Something "new under the sun" as an idea was the inspiration for a novel party held Tuesday night at the Methodist Episcopal church social rooms by the women of the Loyal Berean class when an early evening pot-luck supper was given with the men of the families present as special guests. The "something new" proposition seems to have originated with the minister's wife, Mrs. D. Lester Fields. Mrs. Edith Schrader is teacher of the class and Mrs. N. M. Smith, president.

CALLERS TO GATES

Gates—Spending the day in Gates Wednesday on a business trip, were LeRoy Grate and Elmer Klutke, Mrs. Sam Donnell accompanied the men to Stayton and spent the day with her son, Kenneth, who is in the hospital receiving treatment for a fractured leg.

FROM QUEEN ILL

Silverton—Miss Margery Hillman, Junior prom queen, is a victim of the measles at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hillman. She will not be able to take the final examinations of the school term.

ORATORS READY FOR FINALS IN COUNTY EVENTS

Sheridan—The high school declamation tournament for eliminations for representatives to the annual county tournament at Linfield Friday and Saturday were finished Monday morning, the division being oratory.

Judges were D. J. Campbell, Miss Helen Ney, and Ed J. Bayliss. There were but four contestants, Wayne Flynn, Dorothy Morrissey, Robert Wells, and Calvin Shipley. Wayne won first place and Calvin, second. Wayne will represent Sheridan Friday evening.

POLK LEGIONNAIRES REORGANIZE COUNCIL

Dallas—Reorganization of the Polk county council of the American Legion as a business group has been set for Thursday night when delegates from Monmouth, Independence and West Salem posts will meet with delegates from the local post to elect officers to serve during the balance of 1936 and during the opening months of 1937. Dr. C. E. Long of Independence is the president of the county council at the present time.

The business session of the Carl B. Fenton post is not expected to be very lengthy. Plans for the Junior League all-star game on the 28th and the observance of Memorial day will be presented for approval of members, according to Commander Bill Blackley. The dates for presentation of the school awards in the Dallas, Rickland and Falls City schools are also to be made known at the meeting.

PIONEERS LAUDED BY JUDGE WILSON

Dallas—A big crowd gathered in the social hall of the Presbyterian church Tuesday to help observe the Whitman-Spalding centennial. Judge Fred Wilson of The Dalles was the speaker of the evening and he was introduced by Oscar Hayter who acted as toastmaster in the absence of Mayor Lief S. Finseth who was unable to attend. Judge Wilson, a former president of the Oregon Bar association, took as his subject, "Early Names of Polk County Connected with Oregon History." Among other names mentioned were those of Nesmith and Applegate.

Bruce Spaulding, district attorney, gave a brief talk on the coming of the Whitman-Spalding party to Oregon 100 years ago. The group joined in the singing of old songs with Joseph Hartley leading and Miss Genevieve Coad, descendant of an old pioneer family sang, "America—The Beautiful."

ATTEND GRAND LODGE

Jefferson—Mrs. R. W. Curl and Miss Laura Thomas left for Roseburg Monday, where they will attend grand lodge and Rebekah assembly which convenes there this week. Both are delegates from the Mt. Jefferson Rebekah lodge here. While in Roseburg Mrs. Curl will visit at the home of her brother, W. J. Schultz, and family.

START MOTOR TRIP

Silverton—Mrs. Ole Moen, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart McClure and Mrs. McClure's mother, Mrs. Georgia Coleman, left Sunday for an automobile trip to various cities in South Dakota where they will visit for five weeks. Mrs. Moen will be with her mother, Mrs. Martha Johansson, and the others will visit with relatives.

Impressive Ordination Ceremonies are Staged For Trio Young Priests

Mt. Angel—At the impressive and solemn ordination ceremonies which took place in the chapel of St. Benedict's Abbey Thursday morning, three young deacons, Reverend er James Koessler, O.S.B. and Fr. Method Korn, O.S.B., deacon and subdeacon of the mass; Father Hilary Grant, O.S.B. and Fr. Thomas Brookhaus, masters of ceremonies.

YOUNG BRIDE ASKS RELEASE

Albany—Ruth Esther McAuley filed suit in circuit court Wednesday through her guardian ad litem, James McAuley, who is her father, asking annulment of her marriage to David Porter at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, April 15.

The complaint alleges that when the plaintiff was married to Porter she was still in, under the age of 18 years, and that at the time he still had a living wife, Fern Porter, all contrary to the Idaho laws. Therefore, the plaintiff sets out, the marriage was illegal and should be annulled.

The case is an outgrowth of the elopement of Miss McAuley and Porter from Newport last month in company with Porter's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Frank Porter of Mill City, to Coeur d'Alene, where they were married by the bridegroom's father.

SCOTTS MILLS PTA OFFICERS PLACED

Scotts Mills—The last Parent-Teachers meeting of this school term was held Tuesday evening in the high school assembly room, with Mrs. L. W. Magee, president, presiding.

A musical program was given. Piano solos were given by Dorothy Littlepage, Irene Frazer, Jean Magee, Gale Smith, Robert Magee and Miss Mignon Macy, accompanied by Miss Heristad on the piano.

WOODBURN REBEKAHS SELECT OFFICERS

Woodburn—Mrs. Beulah Lessard was re-elected Noble Grand of Home Rebekah lodge at the semi-annual election of officers, held Tuesday evening. Other officers chosen were Miss May Strike, vice-grand; Mrs. Edith Fremt, secretary (re-elected); and Mrs. Myrtle Hall, treasurer (re-elected). Installation will be held the first Tuesday in July.

Card Club Members Guests at Stayton

Stayton—Mrs. Myles Austin was a recent hostess at contract. First and second score awards went to Mrs. Marie Tellefson and Mrs. Luke Hurd. Additional guests included Mrs. E. Klecker, Mrs. Wendel Weddle, Mrs. E. Spaniol, Mrs. Hattie Fecklen, Mrs. V. R. Tuel and Mrs. J. N. Fisher.

Nusoms are Hosts For Family Dinner

Waconda—Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Nusom were hosts at a family dinner at their home north of Waconda on the Wheatland market road, honoring their house guests Mrs. Marcus Dunn and daughter Genevieve of Depot Bay. Covers were placed for the honor guests, Mrs. Dunn and Genevieve, Mrs. Mary Nusom, Dorothy and Robert Nusom, Mrs. Rosanna Aiker and Maybelle of Woodburn, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Nusom, Patsy, Floyd, Jr. and Stanley of Portland, Mrs. John Jacobs, Mrs. Cora Wilkenson and Martha Jane, Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Becker, Norris Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Nusom, Donald and Dale Nusom, Shirley and Linda Girod and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Nusom.

AMITY HEARS PLAY

Amity—The Cotton Blossom Singers from the Piney Woods Country Life school presented a play, "We Are Blaine," at the Methodist church Tuesday evening.

TURNER SENIOR CLASS OFFERED CLOSING EVENT

Turner—Many activities are being sponsored by the senior class of Turner high school preparatory to commencement May 26 in the high school auditorium. The speaker will be Dr. D. V. Poling of the Oregon State System of Higher Education. The graduation exercises were moved up from Friday of that week to Tuesday evening to obtain Dr. Poling for the occasion.

The Junior-Senior banquet was held at the Argo hotel, followed by a theatre party. Attending were Eloise Meale, Lois Gunning, Emma Bowdler, Ruth Rawlings, Bernice Shoen, Geneva Barber, Genevieve Larson, Beverly Booney, Clarissa Clark, Mildred Bones, Alice Fowler, Mabel Schifferer, Varad Denhem, Robert Edwards, Leand Greenlee, Melvin Holt, Norman Whitehead, Principal Louis J. Uhrhammer, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tharp, and Miss Clara Stewart.

The senior week-end was spent Saturday and Sunday at Newport beaches with all class members inviting a friend to accompany them on the trip. Principal and Mrs. Louis J. Uhrhammer chaperoned the group.

The Baccalaureate service will be held Sunday evening at the Turner Methodist Episcopal church with Rev. Oswald W. Jefferson officiating. Monday the annual high school picnic will be held, the students and faculty leaving at 9 o'clock in the morning. May 26 will be school review of exams, and commencement exercises at 8 o'clock in the evening. May 27 examinations will be held at Clervaux, Luxembourg, returning two years ago.

Clear Lake Pupils Close School Work

Clear Lake—The eighth grade graduation exercises were held Monday evening in the school house with a large crowd in attendance. Eight pupils received diplomas. Iris Kuhn was unable to be present due to sickness.

In the class were Bill Noland, Mary Hamrick, Junior Whelan, Jack Robertson, Jim Noland, Robert Winkenwerder and Milo Kuhn.

BENEFIT PIE SOCIAL DECLARED SUCCESS

Gates—The benefit party and pie social Tuesday night for Kenneth Donnell, who broke his leg while pole vaulting on the play grounds several days ago, was a success socially and financially. Around $40 was given by the boys to help pay his hospital expenses.

Appearing on the program were Henry Edlund in dialect readings and song, with Phyllis Scott accompanying; dance and song act by Maxine Doyle, and Thelma and Nova Donnell; reading, June Myers; group singing of old songs, Herman and Willis Grate, Junior Farmer, Bob Willis and Eldon Moberg, accompanied by Marie Gline; class songs by the primaries and intermediate groups with Gwen Schier and Mrs. Lloyd Girod in charge. A burlesque boxing skit was appreciated given by Raterburg, Stewart, Carey and Sellard.

Honor Mrs. Walker

Middle Grove—Mrs. Thomas Walker entertained recently with an afternoon affair complimenting her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Kenneth Walker. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Harvey Walker. Preceding by the ten hour the honor guest was honored with a miscellaneous show-er. Guests present for the occasion were Mrs. Kate Herron, Mrs. Melvin Douglas, Mrs. Stuart Walker, Mrs. Percy Johnson, Mrs. Mary Herndon, Mrs. Lydia Scharf, Mrs. George Bosley, Mrs. Charles Foster, Mrs. Ebbie Wagers, Mrs. Phoebe Wagers, Mrs. Florence Jewett.

ECON DATE CHANGED

Brush College—The meeting date of the home economics club of the Brush College grange has been changed from Thursday until Monday on account of illness.

Macleay Will Send Out Two Graduates

Macleay—William Strawn and Lena Andrews, the two eighth grade graduates, will be graduated with Aumsville students at Aumsville, Wednesday, May 27. William Strawn will give the last will and testament of the Macleay class and Lena Andrews will give the salutatory address, a part of the program at the exercise.

JONES GIVING MEMORIAL TALK

Silverton—At a separate meeting of the American Legion post Monday evening, George Towe, chairman of the Memorial Day program announced that the speaker would be A. Warren Jones of Salem.

On Memorial Sunday, May 24, the post and auxiliary will be guests of the Methodist Episcopal church at the evening services upon invitation of Rev. D. Lester Fields, pastor.

The report of the Boy Scout committee told of the trip taken by a number of the troop to the Lebanon camporee over the week-end.

The plans of the pet parade are completed, stated Dr. McCannel, chairman of that move. The gamble is on with the weather but if favorable, the parade will start at the city park, march across Silver Creek bridge and one block south on Water street, to the left on Lewis to First, then to Main, then to Water, on Water to Oak, down Oak one block to First and then on First to the school grounds where the prizes will be awarded. Special inducements are for the children from a distance and the out-of-town schools to enter for prizes.

YOUNG MACLEAY SET BIRTHDAY GUESTS

Macleay—A group of the young set were invited to the Nile Hillburn home to help observe the seventh birthday anniversary of Jim Hillburn. The guests spent the afternoon playing lawn games and lunch was served in the late afternoon. Each child present was given favors.

Social Night Slated Royal Arch Masons

Independence—Independence chapter, R. A. M., met Tuesday evening. It was decided to have a strawberry festival and party for the members and their wives at the next regular meeting night June 16, and an invitation will be extended to the members of Multnomah chapter of Salem, with their wives, to be the guests of the evening.

Dallas Poppy Sale Given 1000 Quota

Dallas—Saturday has been designated as "Poppy day" by the Legion Auxiliary and the members will be out in force in an endeavor to dispose of 1000 of the red flowers which are symbolic of Flanders' fields. Mrs. George L. Cooper, chairman of the sale committee, is lining up her forces and the city will be thoroughly canvassed during the day. The proceeds from sale of these flowers go to disabled veterans.

GOES TO NEBRASKA

Hayesville—Mrs. P. N. Andresen left Sunday evening on the Portland Rose Union Pacific train from Portland for an extended visit with relatives and friends in various parts of Nebraska. Mrs. Andresen has made her home with her son, G. E. Andresen, for the past two years.

GUESTS INVITED TO LODGE NIGHT FOR SILVERTON

Silverton—The members of Home Temple 21, Pythian Sisters, were hostesses to their mothers or a mother guest at their regular meeting Tuesday evening. Mrs. Helen M. Wrightman announced the numbers as chairman of the program committee. Decorating the rooms were Olive Morley and Ola Benson. More than 100 guests were present for the social hour and supper.

The Girl Reserves were featured on the program with Mrs. S. A. Gay their advisor.

Mrs. C. M. Wray was presented a corsage in honor of her being the oldest mother present and Mrs. Hildred Loe, the youngest mother. Guests more than 70 years of age were also given bouquets of early summer flowers. Receiving bouquets were Mrs. Elsie Simeral, mother of Mrs. Art Nelson, and Mrs. Amelia Anderson and Mrs. S. J. Moser.

Others appearing on the program were Mrs. Harry Riches in vocal solos, a capella trio, Annabelle Jensen, Lois and Bernice Gay; accordion, guitar and violin trio, Earl Meyers, Myrtle, Margaret and Lester Herigstad; reading, Mrs. Goldie Down; vocal solo, Mrs. F. J. Roubal with Mrs. Helen M. Wrightman at the piano; skit, "Stitch and Chatter," Girl Reserves; vocal selection, Myrtle Gifford, assisted by Mrs. Helen M. Wrightman at the piano, and vocal numbers by the Herigstad triplets, Myrtle, Margaret and Melvin.

The Girl Reserves led informal group singing during the supper hour. Dancing was enjoyed later in the evening with the Herigstad and Meyer orchestra playing. Serving the supper were Mrs. Lillian Heald, Ella Knight, Henrietta Loe, Emma Kaufman, Attie Lee, Olive Morley and Myrtle Mehl. On the program committee were Helen M. Wrightman, Ola Benson and Olive Morley.

ILLNESS COMPLICATES PROGRAM FOR HEALTH

Hazel Green—The teachers of the school are conducting rehearsals for the health program and combating gaps in the attendance caused by an epidemic of minor illnesses which is raising havoc with rehearsals. Alice Perrine, who has been leading part, is ill and has been absent all week. Marian Wampler, one of the May pole dancers, is ill with sinus trouble following an attack of laryngitis. Anne Ziebert, another dancer, has also been ill. Dorothy Dunningan, a student at Parry Junior high, has been absent suffering a severe attack of tonsillitis and other complications.

Program for Health

Hazel Green—The teachers of the school are conducting rehearsals for the health program and combating gaps in the attendance caused by an epidemic of minor illnesses which is raising havoc with rehearsals. Alice Perrine, who has been leading part, is ill and has been absent all week. Marian Wampler, one of the May pole dancers, is ill with sinus trouble following an attack of laryngitis. Anne Ziebert, another dancer, has also been ill. Dorothy Dunningan, a student at Parry Junior high, has been absent suffering a severe attack of tonsillitis and other complications.

ILLNESS COMPLICATES PROGRAM FOR HEALTH

Hazel Green—The teachers of the school are conducting rehearsals for the health program and combating gaps in the attendance caused by an epidemic of minor illnesses which is raising havoc with rehearsals. Alice Perrine, who has been leading part, is ill and has been absent all week. Marian Wampler, one of the May pole dancers, is ill with sinus trouble following an attack of laryngitis. Anne Ziebert, another dancer, has also been ill. Dorothy Dunningan, a student at Parry Junior high, has been absent suffering a severe attack of tonsillitis and other complications.

Dallas Poppy Sale Given 1000 Quota

Dallas—Saturday has been designated as "Poppy day" by the Legion Auxiliary and the members will be out in force in an endeavor to dispose of 1000 of the red flowers which are symbolic of Flanders' fields. Mrs. George L. Cooper, chairman of the sale committee, is lining up her forces and the city will be thoroughly canvassed during the day. The proceeds from sale of these flowers go to disabled veterans.

GOES TO NEBRASKA

Hayesville—Mrs. P. N. Andresen left Sunday evening on the Portland Rose Union Pacific train from Portland for an extended visit with relatives and friends in various parts of Nebraska. Mrs. Andresen has made her home with her son, G. E. Andresen, for the past two years.

Advertisement for Capitol Theatre featuring Gene Autry in 'Singing Cowboy' and other movies like 'The Harvester' and 'Monsieur Beaucaire'.

Advertisement for Grand Theatre featuring Gene Autry in 'Singing Cowboy' and other movies like 'The Harvester' and 'Monsieur Beaucaire'.

Advertisement for Elsinore Theatre featuring Robert Montgomery and Myrna Loy in 'Petticoat Fever'.

Advertisement for Capitol Theatre featuring Gene Autry in 'Singing Cowboy' and other movies like 'The Harvester' and 'Monsieur Beaucaire'.