

SOCIETY, CLUBS and MUSIC

Edited by ROSENA BYRNE, Phone 3573

Lehman-Sanders Ceremony Friday

The marriage of the first Christian church will be the scene of a beautiful ceremony Friday night at 8 o'clock when Jean Sanders becomes the bride of Herman James Lehman. Rev. Guy L. Drill will lead the service in the presence of the two immediate families and a few intimate friends.

The bride will wear a pastel blue suit. Her hat will be yellow and her accessories will be white. She will wear a corsage of roses. Mr. and Mrs. Don Primrose of Eugene will be the only attendants. Following a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home at 1140 South 15th street. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Thornton B. Holeman of North Howell. She attended school in Juneau, Alaska. Mr. Lehman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. August Lehman. He attended Salem schools and for the past nine years has been pressman at the Capital Journal.

A. A. U. W. Tea Is Postponed

The fellowship fund tea planned by Salem branch, A. A. U. W. for Friday, May 22, in Miss Sally Bush's garden has been postponed until some time next week. The exact date will depend upon the weather, and will be announced later. All interested may join any member of Salem branch, A. A. U. W., next week for information as to the date.

Mrs. E. J. Scellars Hostess Tomorrow

Mrs. E. J. Scellars has invited members of her contract club and several additional guests to luncheon at the Spa Friday. Tables will be made up for bridge at the Scellars Fairmount hill home later. Brides are Mrs. James Nicholson, Mrs. Ralph Cooley, Mrs. Lawrence Smith and Mrs. Flora Thomas, additional guests, Mrs. George Alexander, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. Lyman Steed, Mrs. Irwin Smith, Mrs. B. F. Pound, Mrs. Fred Stump and the hostess, Mrs. E. J. Scellars.

Recent Bride Complimented

Mrs. John Thompson, a recent bride, was the inspiration for a kitchen shower Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Russell Hume in Summer street. The color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the table arrangements and with roses and syringas about the rooms. The gifts were presented in a huge pink box with a large white bow. Supper was served at a late hour. Covers were placed for Mesdames John Thompson, Walter Taft, Earl Johnson, Albert Fabry, Allen Harmon, Albert Harmon, Alvin Gardner, Della Childs, Vada Hill, Fred Hunt and the hostess.

Delta Phis to Be Complimented

The Delta Phi Mothers' club will honor active members with a picnic at the Court street chapter house from 4 until 6:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Fairnesses, honorary members and the families of members have been bidden. The committee in charge includes Mrs. David W. Pugh, Mrs. Walter H. Smith and Mrs. W. R. Speck.

Miss Taylor in Splendid Recital

Miss Hortense Taylor, violinist and student of Miss Mary Schultz, presented her senior recital before a large audience at Waller hall last night. Miss Taylor handled her difficult program with admirable ease and showed great growth in her technical powers since her junior recital last year. Miss Ina Bennett was the accompanist.

Mrs. Mary Ferber, department president of the Daughters of Union Civil War Veterans, will pay an official visit to the local organization Friday. The group will meet at the armory that evening at 8 o'clock and an interesting program is being arranged.

The officers club of Salem Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges will sponsor another dance at Fraternal temple Saturday night, May 23, at 9 o'clock. W. A. Cladek and Irene Scheelar are chairmen of their respective committees and they invite all friends of these two organizations to attend.

It was inadvertently stated in yesterday's paper that the Letter Carriers' auxiliary sponsored the Kay Francis first aid car benefit on Tuesday. The affair was given by the Postal Clerks' auxiliary at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Drorbaugh in Court street.

Albany—Formation of a women's auxiliary and nomination of officers and directors for the coming year were features of the meeting of the Albany Lyons club Tuesday. Election by the auxiliary resulted as follows: Mrs. Lyle Bain, president; Mrs. C. vonHickman, vice-president; Mrs. Emmet Konzelmann, secretary; Mrs. Richard R. Levy, treasurer.

Assisting in the organization of the auxiliary were Mrs. Floyd South, Portland, state auxiliary president; Mrs. Ed Shea of Portland, Mrs. Frank Gilkey and Mrs. Walter Kuhn of Newport. Nominations for the Lyons club are to be voted on at the first meeting in June.

The Three Link club will meet at the I. O. O. F. hall Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Hostesses will be Mrs. Blanche Scheelar, Mrs. Lena Wright and Mrs. Laura Groves. At 6:30 o'clock a no-host supper will be served. The entertainment will be entertained at that time and all members and Rebekahs are invited.

B. P. W. Chorus to Try for Trophy

The State Business and Professional Women's convention in Roseburg late this week in evincing the interest of Salem folk. The contest for the winning chorus honors at one of the high spots of the convention and the Salem chorus, winners twice in succession, will strive to bring the silver loving cup back to the capital. Miss Gretchen Kreamer is director and Miss Billie Herber is the accompanist.

Personnel of chorus: Mrs. Ilda Bingenheimer, Mrs. Louise Milton-Berger, Mrs. Hulda Liedstrom, Mrs. Alice Anderson, Mrs. Rose Wilkes, Mrs. Effie Arthart, Mrs. Esther Hagedorn, Mrs. Maude Ramseyer, Mrs. Jessie Taylor, Mrs. Hattie Bueck, Miss Alta Kirchner, Miss Josephine Evans, Miss Helen Breithaupt, Mrs. Emily Howard, Mrs. Clarice Herber, accompanist, and Miss Gretchen Kreamer, director.

Delegates appointed by the president for the convention are Mrs. Susan Varty, Miss Helen Breithaupt, Miss Josephine Evans, Mrs. Esther Hagedorn, Mrs. Ilda Bingenheimer. Alternates appointed by the president, Miss Alta Kirchner, Mrs. Rose Wilkes, Mrs. Clarice Herber, Mrs. Jessie Taylor and Mrs. Emily Howard.

The Salem B. P. W. club has received an invitation from the Portland club to attend a picnic dinner to be given at the Portland municipal airport Thursday evening, June 4 at 6:30 o'clock.

Royal Neighbors Meet at Cabin

The Royal Neighbors Sewing club entertained at a no-host luncheon at the cabin at the fairgrounds Wednesday. Plans were made to furnish the cabin more completely at an early date. Singing was a diversion of the afternoon.

The next meeting will be held at the cabin June 3 with Mrs. Dora Pratt acting as hostess.

M. E. Women Have Luncheon

Woodburn—A group of the Federated Women of the Methodist Episcopal church motored to Salem Tuesday for 1 o'clock luncheon and a social meeting at the Old People's Home. Mrs. Mary Mohr of Chemawa led the devotional service. A brief business meeting was held with Mrs. Edna Lytle presiding. During the program hour vocal solos were given by Mrs. William Tschopp of Salem, accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Dennison; Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist of Salem, accompanied by Mrs. Ted Gordon, and Mrs. Donald Orr of Woodburn, accompanied by Mrs. J. Melvin Ringo. A reading was given by Miss Constance Smart and Mrs. P. M. Hammond gave a very interesting talk on missionary work.

Mrs. Benjamin Blatchford, president of the board of trustees of the home, called on several of the inmates who responded with readings and vocal solo. Mrs. Charles Lytle of Salem assisted in arranging the program.

A social hour followed the meeting and the visitors were taken on a tour through the home.

This was the last social meeting of the federation until August. A business meeting will be held the first Tuesday in June for election of officers.

Friday night at 7:30 o'clock the Past Matrons association, O.E.S., will meet for dinner at Godfrey's.

Sterling Chapter Feted by Maids

Mrs. Willma Wright and Miss Dorothy Holmes were hostesses Monday evening for Sterling chapter of W.W.G. of the Calvary Baptist church.

Following a dessert luncheon the regular business meeting and program was held. Miss Loree Barham reported on missions and Miss Velma Alexander had the program for the evening.

Present were Miss Florence Tull, Miss Loree Barham, Miss La Vinia Burgis, Miss Florence Foster, Miss Velma Alexander, Mrs. Ruby Mann, Mrs. Ina Gregg and the hostesses, Mrs. Willma Wright and Miss Dorothy Holmes.

Janet Wentworth To Wed Soon

One of the most thrilling bits of romantic news of the season was announced yesterday in Portland by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd J. Wentworth when they told friends informally of the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Janet Suart Wentworth, to Philip Church Smith. Mr. Smith is the son of Mrs. Grace Church Smith of Portland.

The wedding, to be attended only by members of the two families, will be held at noon on Thursday, June 4, at the Church of Our Father (Unitarian), with Dr. W. G. Elliot, Jr., reading the service. The wedding party and guests will go to the home of the bride's parents, 2430 Northeast Hancock street, for luncheon following the marriage.

Miss Wentworth, who did her preparatory work at St. Helen's hall in Portland, is a graduate of Radcliffe college. She is an active junior leaguer, and for several years has been society editor of the Portland News-Telegram. Mr. Smith is a graduate of the New Mexican Military Institute and the University of Oregon, where he affiliated with the Chi Psi fraternity. He also attended the army flying school in San Antonio, Tex.

The couple plan to be at home on Westover terrace after June 20. They are both well known in Salem.

Miss Dunivan Guest of Honor

Silverton—For the pleasure of Miss Janice Dunivan, bride-elect of Marshall Powell of Salem, Mrs. Lee Haakins was hostess Wednesday evening at her home in South First street.

A 6 o'clock dinner was served with six guests present and a surprise spice shower for the popular bride-elect was cleverly planned later with more than 20 additional guests present. A fake telegram was handed the honor guest telling her where she would find her gifts that were in various places about the home. Miss Dunivan's marriage is announced for May 29.

Dallas Club to Give Gay Dance

Dallas—The annual dance of the Woman's club will be held on May 29 in the armory. A number of committees, under the general direction of Mrs. Eric Fulham, president, are rapidly rounding plans for the affair into shape. Full particulars are to be released shortly by the publicity committee which is headed by Mrs. J. A. Inglis and Mrs. William Swindells.

The Willamette University Y. W. C. A. entertained with a tea Wednesday afternoon in Chresto College, honoring Miss Kuuli Emano, exchange student at Willamette University from the University of Hawaii.

The Englewood Parent-Teacher association will meet at the school Friday evening at 8 o'clock for the annual May festival. Officers will be installed during the evening.

The Woman's Benefit association will meet in the K.P. hall this evening at 8 o'clock. Reports will be made by members attending the rally in Eugene last week.

Middle Grove—The Woman's Missionary society will hold its May meeting at the home of Mrs. Leonard Malin. Mrs. Lydia Scharr will preside over the devotionals and will also present the program numbers. The first chapter of the new mission study book "Towards a Christian America," will be given in a brief review by Mrs. Mary Wampler. As this is the first meeting since March, the president urges a full attendance in order that delayed business matters may be disposed of at this time. The April meeting was tabled in order that the members could attend the meeting of the Salem Evangelical Missionary society in Salem.

Following the meeting members of both organizations were guests of Rev. Petticoat at a showing of colored slides showing the Evangelical missions in Japan and China.

Daughters of Veterans will meet at the armory Friday night at 8 o'clock.

Miss Helen Worth is expected to arrive in town Friday to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Worth. She will return to Eugene, where she is a student at the university, on Saturday to attend the Mortar board ball.

College Capers by HOPE CHAMBERLIN

Oregon State College, Corvallis, May 21—(Special)—Following the gaiety and whirl of Campus Week-end, collegiate activity seems unusually quiet, while students are beginning to center their efforts on academic study in preparation for Spring term final examinations. Only a few social functions remain on the calendar for the last two weeks. This coming week-end is the last time this school year for organization social activities, the future days being given over to commencement and other senior activities. Fraternities and sororities are making the best of what little time there is left and have filled Friday, Saturday and Sunday with informal and formal dances, picnics and dinners. Sigma Nu, Sigma Kappa, Delta Tau Delta, Alpha Delta Pi and Associated Men's Halls will be hosts at informal dances Friday night. Saturday night will see Beta Theta Pi, Delta Zeta, Phi Sigma Kappa, Pi Kappa Phi and Sigma Alpha Epsilon entertain at their annual spring formal. Alpha Sigma Phi, Alpha Xi Delta, Delta Sigma Phi, Kappa Delta, Kappa Sigma and Theta Chi will hold informal dances this same night, while Beta Kappa will make merry at a picnic and Kappa Alpha Theta will entertain guests at a treasure hunt. Delta Upsilon, Lambda Chi Alpha, Phi Sigma Kappa and Theta Kappa Nu will be hosts at Sunday guest-dinners. Officers of the military staff and the administrative council entertained Governor Charles H. Martin at a luncheon yesterday noon in the Memorial Union. Governor Martin was here for the annual review of the infantry, engineer and field artillery units of the ROTC. The University of Oregon chapter of Mortar Board, national honor society for senior women, will be hostesses to the Oregon State college chapter at dinner and the university play tonight. The dinner is to be held in honor of Mrs. Frederick M. Hunter, wife of Chancellor Hunter Talons, sophomore service honorary for women, will also be entertained in Eugene tonight by Kwana, corresponding society on the U. of O. campus. Dinner will be given in their honor at the Anchorage. Both societies have entertained the other previously this year, each having in mind the establishing of unity between students on the different

(Concluded on Page 10)

A Sale of Fine Hosiery

A Direct Factory Purchase Involving Hundreds of Pairs of Famous HOLEPROOF HOSE!

BUY 4 PAIRS for only $2.35

Knee High and Reg. Lengths

Sheer Chiffons Semi-Service Dull-Twist Ringless New!

IRREGULARS OF $1 - $1.15 - $1.35

64c Pair

NOW! Have A Full Wardrobe Of Fine STOCKINGS At a Tremendous Saving!

Here's exciting hosiery bargain news that should interest every woman and miss in Marion County! Holeproof Hosiery Co. granted Miller's a price concession on this large quantity of stockings with the provision that the retail price be very low. It's a quick way to clear hosiery that does not quite come up to the famous HOLEPROOF STANDARD. But, many stores say, why not place them in regular stocks at regular prices because not one woman in a hundred can detect that tiny little blemish that keeps these from going into regular channels at regular prices... Miller's will follow their policy of giving their customers the advantage of their resourceful marketing and purchasing experience and price every pair of stockings in this sale at 64c pair or four pairs for $2.35.

COLORS
DAY AND NIGHT, CLEAR YUCATAN, MOCHA, IN-BETWEEN, ALL-IN-ONE

SIZES
ALL SIZES FROM 8 1/2 to 10 1/4

LENGTHS
LENGTHS FOR THE TALL, MEDIUM AND THE SHORT OR LITTLE WOMAN.

MILLER'S

Taffeta

tells of smart headwork

Dazzle your public with the enchanting freshness and crisp smartness of one of these taffeta hats... they've town brims just big enough... breton brims and ribbon trims... and smart is the woman who wears one!

$5

MILLINERY DEPT. SECOND FLOOR

Friday and Saturday!

Telephone 3179